- “US$,” “dollars” or “U.S. dollars” refers to the legal currency of the United States; and
- “variable interest entity” or “VIE” refers to Beijing Luckin Coffee Technology Ltd., which is a PRC company whose financial results have been consolidated into our consolidated financial statements for accounting purposes, but is not an entity in which we own equity interest.

Unless otherwise noted, all translations from Renminbi to U.S. dollars and from U.S. dollars to Renminbi in this annual report are made at RMB6.8972 to US$1.00, the exchange rate set forth in the H.10 statistical release of the Federal Reserve Board on December 30, 2022. We make no representation that any Renminbi or U.S. dollar amounts could have been, or could be, converted into U.S. dollars or Renminbi, as the case may be, at any particular rate, the rates stated below, or at all.

Luckin Coffee Inc. is a Cayman Islands holding company that primarily operates its business in China through its PRC subsidiaries and holds certain foreign restricted licenses and permits which it might need in the future through the VIE (as defined above). Such structure involves unique risks to investors. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Corporate Structure—We are a Cayman Islands holding company. As a result, you may experience difficulties in effecting service of legal process, enforcing foreign judgments or bringing actions in China against us or our management based on foreign laws.” Moreover, if the PRC government deems that any of our business operations carried out by our subsidiaries were to be restricted or prohibited from foreign investment or if these regulations or the interpretation of existing regulations change in the future, we could be subject to penalties or be forced to relinquish our interests in the affected operations. Additionally, potential future actions by the PRC government could affect the legality and enforceability of the contractual arrangements with the VIE and, consequently, will affect our ability to consolidate the financial results of the VIE, which have not been material to the Group and are not expected to be material in the future. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the VIE did not contribute any external revenues to our total revenues. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, total assets of the VIE, excluding amounts due from other companies in the Group, equaled to 0.05% and nil of our consolidated total assets as of the same dates, respectively.

We face various risks and uncertainties related to doing business in China. The PRC government has significant authority to exert influence on the ability of a China-based company, such as us, to conduct its business and accept foreign investments. For example, we face risks associated with regulatory approvals on offshore securities offerings, oversight on cybersecurity and data privacy. The PRC government has recently published new policies that significantly affected various industries, and we cannot rule out the possibility that it will in the future further release regulations or policies regarding our industry that could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. For a detailed description of risks relating to doing business in China, see “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China.”

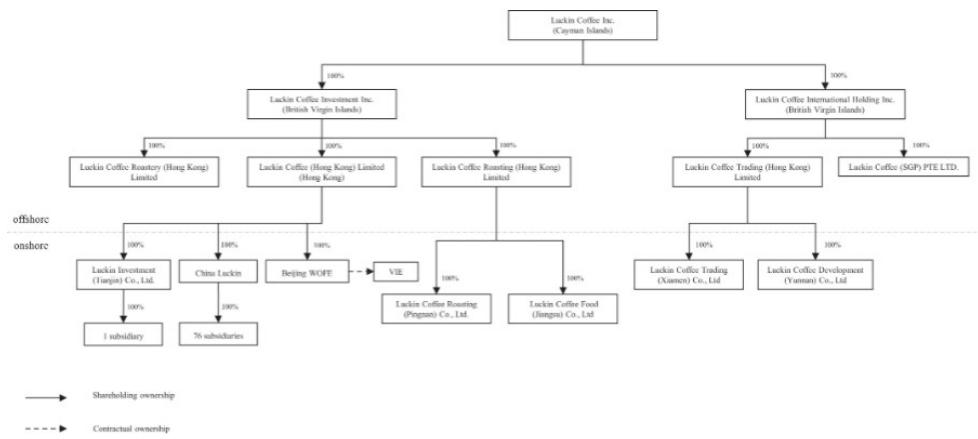

Contractual Arrangements and Corporate Structure

Investors in the ADSs are not purchasing equity securities of our subsidiaries that have substantive business operations in China, but instead are purchasing equity securities of a Cayman Islands holding company, Luckin Coffee Inc., which primarily operates its business in China through its PRC subsidiaries and holds certain foreign restricted licenses and permits, such as the internet content provider license (the “ICP license”), which it might need in the future through the VIE. As current PRC laws and regulations restrict foreign investment in certain telecommunication related businesses, Luckin Coffee Inc. or its direct and indirect subsidiaries do not, and cannot hold such licenses and permits through equity ownership in practice.

Table of Contents

Our corporate structure involves unique risks to investors in the ADSs. The Company does not conduct operations by itself, but only through its subsidiaries. Additionally, we have, through the Beijing WFOE, entered into a series of contractual arrangements with the VIE as well as its shareholders, but the VIE is owned by certain nominee shareholders, not us. Investors in the ADSs may not hold any equity interests in the VIE, directly or indirectly, under current PRC laws and regulations. The terms contained in these contractual arrangements enable the Company to (i) direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact its economic performance, (ii) receive substantially all of the economic benefits of the VIE, and (iii) have an exclusive option to purchase all or part of the equity interests in the VIE when and to the extent permitted by the PRC law. As a result, the Company is considered the primary beneficiary of the VIE for accounting purposes and is able to consolidate the financial results of the VIE in its consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. However, the Company does not own equity interest in the VIE and its rights through these contractual arrangements may be less effective than equity ownership. Uncertainties with respect to our corporate structure exist because the PRC courts have not determined whether the contractual arrangements with the VIE are enforceable and the PRC courts may determine that the VIE structure violates the restriction on foreign investment. If the enforceability of the contractual arrangements with the VIE became the subject of legal proceedings in China, we could incur substantial legal expenses in the effort to enforce our contractual rights with no assurance of ultimate success.

The following chart shows our corporate structure as of the date of this annual report, including our principal subsidiaries and the VIE.

- (1) Mr. Jinyi Guo, the Company's Chairman and CEO, and Mr. Gang Wu, the Company's Senior Vice President, are nominal shareholders of the VIE, holding 83.33% and 16.67% of the equity interest, respectively.

Contractual Arrangements with the VIE and Its Nominee Shareholders

We established the VIE to hold certain foreign restricted licenses and permits which we might need in the future, such as the ICP license. The VIE also held some of our intellectual properties which have since been transferred to our PRC subsidiaries. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the VIE did not contribute any external revenues to our total revenues.

The contractual arrangements entered into by and among the Beijing WFOE, the VIE and its shareholders, as described in more detail below, allow us to:

- direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact its economic performance;
 - receive substantially all of the economic benefits of the VIE for accounting purposes; and

- have an exclusive option to purchase all or part of the equity interest in and/or assets of the VIE when and to the extent permitted by PRC laws.

As a result of these contractual arrangements, we are the primary beneficiary of the VIE for accounting purposes and, therefore, have consolidated the financial results of the VIE in our consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. However, our contractual arrangements with the VIE may be less effective than having ownership in providing operational control and we may incur substantial costs to enforce the terms of the arrangements, and may not be successful.

In the opinion of our PRC legal counsel, King & Wood Mallesons:

- the ownership structure of the VIE is not in violation of applicable PRC laws and regulations currently in effect; and
- the contractual arrangements among the Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE, governed by PRC law, are legal, valid, binding and enforceable in accordance with its terms and applicable PRC laws.

However, our PRC legal counsel has also advised us that there are substantial uncertainties regarding the interpretation and application of current and future PRC laws, regulations and rules. Accordingly, the PRC regulatory authorities may take a view that is contrary to the opinion of our PRC legal counsel.

The following is a summary of the contractual arrangements by and among the Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE and their spouses, as applicable.

Agreements That Provide Us with Controlling Financial Interest over the VIE

Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney. Pursuant to the Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney among Beijing WFOE, the VIE and shareholders of the VIE, these shareholders irrevocably authorize Beijing WFOE or any person(s) designated by Beijing WFOE to act as his or her attorney-in-fact to exercise all of his or her rights as a shareholder of the VIE, including, but not limited to, the right to call and attend shareholders' meetings, to execute and deliver any and all written resolutions and meeting minutes as a shareholder, to keep the official seal, the original and duplicate business licenses, proof of administrative permits, articles of association of the VIE and other key materials for the operation of the VIE in accordance with the applicable internal rules of Beijing WFOE, to vote by itself or by proxy on any matters discussed on shareholders' meetings, to sell, transfer, pledge or dispose of any or all of the shares, to nominate, appoint or remove the directors, supervisors and senior management, to oversee the economic performance of the VIE, to have full access to the financial information of the VIE at any time, to approve annual budgets or declare dividends, to manage and dispose of the assets of the VIE, to have the full rights to control and manage the VIE's finance accounting and daily operation, and other shareholders rights conferred by the articles of association of the VIE and the relevant laws and regulations. This agreement will remain in force as long as the VIE exists. The shareholders shall not have the right to terminate this agreement or revoke the appointment of the attorney-in-fact without the prior written consent of the Beijing WFOE.

Confirmation and Guarantee Letters. Each shareholder of the VIE has signed a Confirmation and Guarantee Letter. Under the Confirmation and Guarantee Letters, each of the shareholders of the VIE confirmed, represented and guaranteed that in no circumstances will their ability to exercise their rights in the VIE be affected or any act that may affect or hinder the fulfillment of their obligations under the contractual agreements be carried out by any other person that may be entitled to assume rights and interests in their equity rights in the VIE. Each of the shareholders of the VIE further confirmed that they will unwind the contractual agreements and transfer all of the shares of the VIE to Beijing WFOE or any party designated by Beijing WFOE as soon as the applicable laws of the PRC allow Beijing WFOE to operate the business operated by the VIE without the contractual agreements, and will return any consideration received through this to Beijing WFOE or any party designated by Beijing WFOE. Each of the shareholders of the VIE undertook that unless otherwise agreed by the Beijing WFOE in written form, they will not engage in, own or acquire any business that competes or might compete with the business of the VIE or its affiliated companies, will not give rise to conflict of interest between themselves and Beijing WFOE and will take any action as instructed by Beijing WFOE to eliminate the conflict once such conflict arises.

Spousal Consent Letters. The spouse of Mr. Guo Jinyi and the spouse of Mr. Wu Gang have signed spousal consent letters separately. Under each spousal consent letters, the spouse unconditionally and irrevocably waives any rights or entitlements whatsoever to such shares that may be granted to her pursuant to applicable laws and undertakes not to make any assertion of rights to such shares. The spouse agrees and undertakes that she will take all necessary actions to ensure the proper performance of the contractual arrangements, and will be bound by the contractual arrangements in case she obtains any equity of the VIE due to any reason.

Share Pledge Agreement. Pursuant to the Share Pledge Agreement among Beijing WFOE and the shareholders of the VIE, the shareholders of the VIE have pledged 100% equity interest in the VIE to Beijing WFOE to guarantee the performance by the VIE and its shareholders of their obligations under the Master Exclusive Service Agreement, Business Cooperation Agreement, Exclusive Option Agreement and agreements to be executed among Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders from time to time. If the VIE or its shareholders breach their contractual obligations under these agreements, Beijing WFOE, as pledgee, will have the right to dispose of the pledged shares entirely or partially. The shareholders of the VIE also agreed, without Beijing WFOE's prior written consent, not to transfer the pledged shares, establish or permit the existence of any security interest or other encumbrance on the pledged shares, or dispose of the pledged shares by any other means, except by the performance of the Exclusive Option Agreement. We have completed the registration of the pledge of equity interests in the VIE with the relevant office of State Administration for Market Regulation in accordance with the PRC Property Rights Law.

Agreements That Allow Us to Receive Economic Benefits from the VIE For Accounting Purposes

Master Exclusive Service Agreement. Pursuant to the Master Exclusive Service Agreement between Beijing WFOE and the VIE, Beijing WFOE or its designated affiliated entities have the exclusive right to provide the VIE with technical support and business support services in return for fees equal to 100% of the consolidated net profits of the VIE. Without Beijing WFOE's prior written consent, the VIE shall not, directly and indirectly, obtain the same or similar services as provided under this agreement from any third party, or enter into any similar agreement with any third party. Beijing WFOE has the right to determine the service fee charged to the VIE under this agreement by considering, among other things, the complexity of the services, the time spent by employees of the Beijing WFOE to provide the services, content and commercial value of the service provided, as well as the benchmark price of similar services in the market. Beijing WFOE will have the exclusive ownership of all intellectual property rights developed by performance of this agreement. This agreement will remain effective until it is terminated at the discretion of Beijing WFOE or upon the transfer of all the shares of the VIE to Beijing WFOE and/or a third party designated by Beijing WFOE.

Business Cooperation Agreement. Pursuant to the Business Cooperation Agreement among Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE agreed and covenanted that, without obtaining Beijing WFOE's written consent, the VIE shall not, and the shareholders shall cause the VIE not to, engage in any transaction that may materially affect its asset, obligation, right or operation, including but not limited to any activities not within its normal business scope, or operating its business in a way that is inconsistent with its past practice, a merger, reorganization, acquisition or restructuring of its principal business or assets, or an acquisition or investment in any other form, in favor of a third party, selling to or acquiring any tangible or intangible asset other than in the ordinary course of business, incurrence of any encumbrance on any of its assets, or an amendment to its articles of association. The VIE shall accept, and the shareholders shall cause the VIE to accept, suggestions raised by Beijing WFOE over the employee engagement and replacement, daily operation, dividend distribution and financial management systems of the VIE. The shareholders of the VIE shall only appoint persons designated by Beijing WFOE to be the directors of the VIE. This agreement will remain effective until it is terminated at the discretion of Beijing WFOE or upon the transfer of all the shares of the VIE to Beijing WFOE and/or a third party designated by Beijing WFOE.

Agreements That Provide Us with the Option to Purchase the Equity Interests in the VIE

Exclusive Option Agreement. Pursuant to the Exclusive Option Agreement among Beijing WFOE, the VIE and its shareholders, the shareholders of the VIE irrevocably grant Beijing WFOE or any third party designated by Beijing WFOE an exclusive option to purchase all or part of their equity interests in the VIE at the lowest price permitted by applicable PRC laws. Those shareholders further undertake that they will neither allow the encumbrance of any security interest in the VIE, except for the pledge placed pursuant to the Share Pledge Agreement, nor transfer, mortgage or otherwise dispose of their legal or beneficial interests in the VIE without the prior written consent of Beijing WFOE, and will cause the shareholders' meeting and/or the board of directors and/or the executive directors of the VIE not to approve such proposal. This agreement will remain effective until it is terminated at the discretion of Beijing WFOE or upon the transfer of all the equity interest in the VIE to Beijing WFOE and/or a third party designated by Beijing WFOE.

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION AND RISK FACTORS SUMMARY

This annual report contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. All statements other than statements of historical facts are forward-looking statements. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. You should not rely upon forward-looking statements as predictions of future events.

You can identify these forward-looking statements by words or phrases such as "may," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "aim," "estimate," "intend," "plan," "believe," "likely to" or other similar expressions. We have based these forward-looking statements largely on our current expectations and projections about future events and financial trends that we believe may affect our financial condition, results of operations, business strategy and financial needs. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about:

- our mission, vision, strengths and growth strategies;
- our future business development, results of operations and financial condition;
- relevant government policies and regulations relating to our business and industry;
- COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on our business;
- the legal and governmental proceedings, investigations and information requests against us;
- the potential settlement of contingent liabilities pursuant to litigations filed or threatened to be filed against us;
- the restructuring of our financial obligations;
- general economic, political, demographic and business condition in China and globally; and
- assumptions underlying or related to any of the foregoing.

We would like to caution you not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements and you should read these statements and the summary of the risk factors below in conjunction with the risk factors disclosed in "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors." Other sections of this annual report include additional factors which could adversely impact our business and financial performance. Moreover, we operate in an evolving environment. New risk factors and uncertainties emerge from time to time and it is not possible for our management to predict all risk factors and uncertainties, nor can we assess the impact of all factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. We qualify all of our forward-looking statements by these cautionary statements. We do not undertake any obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required under applicable law. You should read this annual report and the documents that we reference in this annual report completely and with the understanding that our actual future results may be materially different from what we expect.

- Important factors that could cause actual future results to differ materially from our expectations include, among others, the following:
- the success of members of our management in assuming their roles and the ability of the management team to implement and achieve our strategies and goals as they develop;
- the success of the members of our board of directors in assuming their roles;
- the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business;

- the expense, timing and outcome of legal and governmental proceedings, investigations and information requests relating to, among other matters, our disclosure and accounting practices, including the impact of our settlement with the SEC, pending and ongoing investigations by the U.S. and PRC authorities, a number of pending litigations and other investigations or proceedings that are ongoing or may be initiated;
- the effect of the non-reliance identified in, and the resultant restatement of our previously issued financial results for the second and third quarters in 2019; and any claims, investigations or proceedings (and any costs, expenses, use of resources, diversion of management time and efforts, liability and damages that may result therefrom), negative publicity or reputational harm that has arisen or may arise as a result;
- the effectiveness of the measures implemented to improve the overall effectiveness of our internal control system;
- potential additional litigation and regulatory investigations (and any costs, expenses, use of resources, diversion of management time and efforts, liability and damages that may result therefrom), negative publicity and reputational harm on us, products and business that may result from public scrutiny of our business, disclosure and accounting practices;
- the effect of the restructuring of our financial obligations;
- the impacts of changes and developments in the international geopolitical environment; and
- the impacts of changes and developments in regulatory policies in China and the United States.

In addition, we are faced with other risks and uncertainties, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. In particular, as we are a China-based company incorporated in the Cayman Islands, you should pay special attention to subsections headed “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China” and “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Corporate Structure.” A summary of the principal risks we face is set forth below.

Risks Relating to the Fabricated Transactions, Internal Investigation, Internal Control, Offshore Restructuring and Related Matters

- The previously disclosed Fabricated Transactions (as defined in Item 3.D. Risk Factors) have exposed us to a number of legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries, resulted in significant legal and other expenses, and required significant time and attention from our senior management, among other adverse impacts.
- We are the subject of a number of legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries by governmental agencies with respect to the Fabricated Transactions, which have had and could continue to have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations, and could result in additional claims and material liabilities.
- We have been named as a defendant in a number of lawsuits filed by purchasers of our securities, including class action lawsuits that, absent settlement, could have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, and our reputation.
- Matters relating to or arising from the Fabricated Transactions and the Internal Investigation, including adverse publicity and potential concerns from our customers, suppliers or others with whom we do business, have had and could continue to have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.
- If we fail to implement and maintain an effective system of internal control, we may be unable to accurately report our results of operations, meet our reporting obligations or prevent fraud, and investor confidence and the trading price of the ADSs may be materially and adversely affected.

Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry

- If we fail to acquire new customers or retain existing customers in a cost-effective manner, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.
- We face intense competition in China's coffee industry and food and beverage sector in general, and our products are not proprietary. If we fail to compete effectively, we may lose market share and customers, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.
- Our success depends on the continuing efforts of our key management and experienced and capable personnel as well as our ability to recruit new talent. If we fail to hire, train, retain or motivate our staff, our business may suffer.
- Our business generates and processes a large amount of data, which subjects us to evolving governmental regulations and other legal obligations related to privacy, cybersecurity, information security and data protection, many of which are subject to changes and uncertain interpretations. Any failure to comply with these governmental regulations and legal obligations, improper use or disclosure of such data by us, our employees or our business partners could subject us to significant reputational, financial, legal and operational consequences.
- A significant interruption in the operations of our third-party suppliers, retail partners and service providers could potentially disrupt our operations.
- Failure to maintain the quality and safety of our products could have a material and adverse effect on our reputation, financial condition and results of operations.
- Any significant disruption in our technology infrastructure or our failure to maintain the satisfactory performance, security and integrity of our technology infrastructure would materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.
- Our operations have been and may continue to be affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Risks Relating to Our Corporate Structure

- We are a Cayman Islands holding company. As a result, you may experience difficulties in effecting service of legal process, enforcing foreign judgments or bringing actions in China against us or our management based on foreign laws.
- We established the VIE to hold certain foreign restricted licenses and permits that we might need in the future. There are substantial uncertainties regarding the interpretation and application of current and future PRC laws, regulations, and rules relating to the agreements that establish the VIE structure, including potential future actions by the PRC government, which could affect the enforceability of our contractual arrangements with the VIE and, consequently, affect our financial condition and results of operations. If the PRC government finds such agreements noncompliant with relevant PRC laws, regulations, and rules, or if these laws, regulations, and rules or the interpretation thereof change in the future, we could be subject to severe penalties or be forced to relinquish our interests in the VIE.
- Any failure by the VIE or its shareholders to perform their obligations under our contractual arrangements with them could have a material adverse effect on our business.

- If any of our business operations carried out by our subsidiaries were to be restricted or prohibited from foreign investment or if our VIE structure were to be deemed as a method of foreign investment under any current or future PRC laws, regulations and rules, our current corporate structure, business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

Risks Relating to Doing Business in China

- Changes in China's economic, political or social conditions or government policies could have a material adverse effect on our business and operations. The PRC government exerts substantial influence over the manner in which we conduct our business and may intervene in our offerings conducted overseas or foreign investment in China-based issuer. Any actions by the PRC government to exert more oversight and discretion could result in a material adverse change in our operations or hinder our ability to offer or continue to offer securities to investors. In such events, our Ordinary Shares and ADSs could decline in value or become worthless. For details, see page 38 and 39 of this annual report.
- Changes in laws, regulations and policies in China and uncertainties with respect to the PRC legal system could adversely affect us. Rules and regulations in China can change quickly with little advance notice. For details, see page 39 and 40 of this annual report.
- If the PCAOB is prevented from fully evaluating audits and quality control procedures of our auditor, investors may be deprived of the benefits of such PCAOB inspections. For details, see page 40 of this annual report.
- Trading in our ADSs on the OTC may be prohibited under the HFCA Act, if the PCAOB determines in the future that it no longer has full access to inspect or fully investigate our auditors. The prohibition of trading in our ADSs on the OTC may materially and adversely affect the value of your investment. If this happens there is no certainty that we will be able to list our Ordinary Shares on a non-U.S. exchange or that a market for our Ordinary Shares will develop outside the United States. For details, see page 40 and 41 of this annual report.
- Various legislative and regulatory developments related to U.S.-listed China-based companies and other developments due to political tensions between the United States and China may have a material adverse impact on our listing and trading in the United States and the trading prices of our ADSs. For details, see page 42 of this annual report.
- Cash in our business in the PRC may not be available to fund operations or for other use outside of the PRC due to interventions in or the imposition of restrictions and limitations by the PRC government to the transfer of cash. We may rely on dividends and other distributions on equity paid by our PRC subsidiaries to fund any cash and financing requirements we may have, and any limitation on the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to make payments to us could have a material and adverse effect on our ability to conduct our business. In particular, the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to pay dividends may be subject to foreign exchange restrictions and dividends may be paid only out of the distributable profits of our PRC subsidiaries as defined under the PRC laws and regulations. For details, see pages 42 and 43 of this annual report.
- The approval, filing or other requirements of the CSRC, the CAC or other PRC government authorities may be required under PRC law in connection with our offshore securities offering (including equity securities and debt securities), and, if required, we cannot predict whether or for how long we will be able to obtain such approval. For details, see pages 43, 44 and 45 of this annual report.

PART I

Item 1. Identity of Directors, Senior Management and Advisers

Not applicable.

Item 2. Offer Statistics and Expected Timetable

Not applicable.

Item 3. Key Information

Investors in the ADSs are not purchasing equity securities of our subsidiaries that have substantive business operations in China, but instead are purchasing equity securities of a Cayman Islands holding company, which primarily operates its business in China through its PRC subsidiaries and holds certain foreign restricted licenses and permits, such as the ICP license, which it might need in the future through the VIE. As current PRC laws and regulations restrict foreign investment in certain telecommunication related businesses, Luckin Coffee Inc. or its direct and indirect subsidiaries do not, and it is not possible for them to hold such licenses and permits through equity ownership in practice. As used in this annual report, “we,” “us,” “our company,” “our,” “Group” or “Luckin” refers to Luckin Coffee Inc. and its subsidiaries, and, in the context of describing Luckin Coffee Inc.’s consolidated financial information, also its variable interest entity.

Our corporate structure involves unique risks to investors in the ADSs. The Company does not conduct operations by itself, but only through its subsidiaries. We entered into a series of contractual arrangements with the VIE, but the VIE is owned by certain nominee shareholders, not us. Investors who are non-PRC residents may not directly hold equity interests in the VIE under current PRC laws and regulations. Our VIE is consolidated for accounting purposes, but the Company does not own equity in it, nor does it operate business through the VIE.

Our contractual arrangements with the VIE have not been tested in court. If the PRC government deems that any of our business operations carried out by our PRC subsidiaries were to be restricted or prohibited from foreign investment, our contractual arrangements with the VIE do not comply with PRC regulatory restrictions on foreign investment in the relevant industries, or if these regulations or the interpretation of existing regulations change in the future, we could be subject to material penalties or be forced to relinquish our interests in the affected operations. Such events could result in a material change in our operations and a material change in the value of our securities, including causing the value of such securities to significantly decline or become worthless. Additionally, potential future actions by the PRC government could affect the legality and enforceability of the contractual arrangements with the VIE and, consequently, will affect our ability to consolidate the financial results of the VIE, which have not been historically material to the Group and are not expected to be material in the near future. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the VIE did not contribute any external revenues to our total revenues. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, total assets of the VIE, excluding amounts due from other companies in the Group, equaled to 0.05% and nil of our consolidated total assets as of the same dates, respectively. See “—3.D. Risk Factor —Risks Relating to Our Corporate Structure” for a detailed discussion.

As used in this annual report, PRC subsidiaries refer to Luckin Coffee (China) Co., Ltd., Beijing Luckin Coffee Co., Ltd., Luckin Investment (Tianjin) Co., Ltd., Luckin Coffee Roasting (Pingnan) Co., Ltd., Luckin Coffee Food (Jiangsu) Co., Ltd., Luckin Coffee Trading (Xiamen) Co., Ltd., Luckin Coffee Development (Yunnan) Co., Ltd. and their respective subsidiaries in the context of describing their activities. The VIE refers to Beijing Luckin Coffee Technology Ltd. in the context of describing its activities and contractual arrangements with us. The VIE primarily holds certain restricted licenses and permits which we might need in the future.

We face various legal and operational risks and uncertainties as a company based in and primarily operating in China. Changes in China’s economic, political or social conditions or government policies could have a material adverse effect on our business and operations. We could be adversely affected by uncertainties with respect to the PRC legal system. Rules and regulations in China can change quickly with little advance notice. In addition, the interpretation and enforcement of PRC laws and regulations involve additional uncertainties. Since PRC administrative and court authorities have significant discretion in interpreting and implementing statutory provisions and contractual terms, it may be difficult to evaluate the outcome of administrative and court proceedings and the level of legal protection we enjoy.

The PRC government has significant authority to exert influence on the ability of a China-based company, like us, to conduct its business, accept foreign investments or be listed on a U.S. stock exchange. We also face risks associated with recent statements and regulatory actions by the PRC government, including those related to regulatory approvals of offshore securities offerings, anti-monopoly regulatory investigations and actions, cybersecurity and data privacy compliance. For example, the PRC government has recently indicated an intent to exert more oversight over overseas securities offerings and published a series of laws and regulations to regulate such transactions. See “Item 4. Information on the Company – 4.A. History and Development of the Company – Recent Regulatory Development” for more information about these new laws and regulations. If the CSRC, CAC or other PRC regulatory agencies determine that prior approval is required for any of our offerings of securities overseas or maintenance of the trading status of the ADSs, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to obtain such approval in a timely manner, or at all. The CSRC, CAC or other PRC regulatory agencies may also take actions requiring us, or making it advisable for us, not to proceed with such offering or maintain the trading status of our ADSs. If we proceed with any of such offering or maintain the trading status of our ADSs without obtaining the CSRC’s, CAC’s or other PRC regulatory agencies’ approval to the extent it is required, or if we are unable to comply with any new approval requirements which might be adopted for offerings that we have completed, we may face regulatory actions or other sanctions from the CSRC, CAC or other PRC regulatory agencies. These regulatory agencies may impose fines and penalties on our operations in China, limit our ability to pay dividends outside of China or accept foreign investments, delay or restrict the repatriation of the proceeds from offering of securities overseas into China or take other actions that could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, as well as the trading price of the ADSs.

The PRC government may also intervene with or influence our operations as it deems appropriate to further regulatory, political and societal goals. The PRC government has recently published new policies that affected various industries, and we cannot rule out the possibility that it will in the future release regulations or policies regarding our industry that could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. While we believe that our business operations comply with relevant PRC laws and regulations currently in force in all material respects, we cannot guarantee that new rules or regulations promulgated in the future will not impose any additional requirement on us or otherwise tighten the regulations on companies like us. Any such action, once taken by the PRC government, could cause the value of our securities to significantly decline or become worthless.

We also face risks associated with the Holding Foreign Companies Accountable Act, or the HFCA Act, which was enacted on December 18, 2020. Under the HFCA Act, if the SEC determines that an issuer has filed audit reports issued by a registered public accounting firm that has not been subject to inspection by the PCAOB for two consecutive years beginning in 2021, the SEC will prohibit its securities from being traded on a national securities exchange or in the over-the-counter trading market in the United States. On December 16, 2021, PCAOB issued the HFCA Act Determination Report, according to which our auditors are subject to the determinations (the “2021 Determinations”). In May 2022, we were conclusively identified by the SEC under the HFCA Act as having filed audit reports issued by a registered public accounting firm that cannot be inspected or investigated completed by the PCAOB in connection with our filing of our annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021. On August 26, 2022, the PCAOB signed a Statement of Protocol with the CSRC and the Ministry of Finance of the PRC, taking the first step toward opening access for the PCAOB to inspect and investigate registered public accounting firms headquartered in China completely. On December 15, 2022, the PCAOB announced that it was able to conduct inspections and investigations completely of PCAOB-registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong in 2022. The PCAOB vacated its previous 2021 Determinations accordingly. As a result, we do not expect to be identified as a “Commission-Identified Issuer” under the HFCA Act for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022 after we file our annual report on Form 20-F for such fiscal year. However, whether the PCAOB will continue to conduct inspections and investigations completely to its satisfaction of PCAOB-registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong is subject to uncertainty and depends on a number of factors out of our, and our auditor’s, control, including positions taken by authorities of the PRC. The PCAOB is expected to continue to demand complete access to inspections and investigations against accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong in the future and states that it has already made plans to resume regular inspections in early 2023 and beyond. The PCAOB is required under the HFCA Act to make its determination on an annual basis with regards to its ability to inspect and investigate completely accounting firms based in the mainland China and Hong Kong. The possibility of being a “Commission-Identified Issuer” and risk of delisting could continue to adversely affect the trading price of our securities. If the PCAOB determines in the future that it no longer has full access to inspect and investigate accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong and we continue to use such accounting firm to conduct audit work, we would be identified as a “Commission-Identified Issuer” under the HFCA Act following the filing of the annual report for the relevant fiscal year, and if we were so identified for two consecutive years, trading in our securities on U.S. markets would be prohibited. The prohibition of trading of the ADSs on the OTC may materially and adversely affect the value of your investment, including rendering your investment worthless. If this happens there is no certainty that we will be able to list our Ordinary Shares on a non-U.S. exchange or that a market for our Ordinary Shares will develop outside the United States. For details, see “—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China—Trading in our ADSs on the OTC may be prohibited under the HFCA Act, if the PCAOB determines in the future that it no longer has full access to inspect or fully investigate our auditors. The prohibition of trading in our ADSs on the OTC may materially and adversely affect the value of your investment. If this happens there is no certainty that we will be able to list our Ordinary Shares on a non-U.S. exchange or that a market for our Ordinary Shares will develop outside the United States.”

Investors in our securities should note that to the extent cash in the business is in the PRC or a PRC entity, the funds may not be available to fund operations or for other use outside of the PRC due to interventions in or the imposition of restrictions and limitations on the ability of Luckin Coffee Inc., its subsidiaries, or the VIE by the PRC government to transfer cash. Our PRC subsidiaries are permitted to pay dividends to their shareholders, and eventually to Luckin Coffee Inc., only out of their retained earnings, if any, as determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations. Such payment of dividends by entities registered in China is subject to limitations, which could result in limitations on the availability of cash to fund dividends or make distributions to holders of our securities. For example, our PRC subsidiaries and the VIE are required to make appropriations to certain statutory reserve funds or may make appropriations to certain discretionary funds, which are not distributable as cash dividends except in the event of a solvent liquidation of the companies. For details about the applicable PRC regulations and rules relating to such cash transfers through our Group and the associated risks, see “- Risks Relating to Doing Business in China - Cash in our business in the PRC may not be available to fund operations or for other use outside of the PRC due to interventions in or the imposition of restrictions and limitations by the PRC government to the transfer of cash. We may rely on dividends and other distributions on equity paid by our PRC subsidiaries to fund any cash and financing requirements we may have, and any limitation on the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to make payments to us could have a material and adverse effect on our ability to conduct our business. In particular, the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to pay dividends may be subject to foreign exchange restrictions and dividends may be paid only out of the distributable profits of our PRC subsidiaries as defined under the PRC laws and regulations,” “- Risks Relating to Doing Business in China - Governmental control of currency conversion may limit our ability to utilize our revenues effectively and affect the value of your investment,” and “Item 4. Information on the Company – 4.A. History and Development of the Company – Recent Regulatory Development – Restrictions on Foreign Exchange and the Ability to Transfer Cash between Entities, Across Borders and to U.S. Investors.”

Luckin Coffee Inc. has not previously declared or paid any cash dividend or dividend in kind, and has no plan to declare or pay any dividends in the near future on its Shares or the ADSs. We currently intend to retain most, if not all, of our available funds and any future earnings to operate and expand our business. None of our PRC subsidiaries has issued any dividends or distributions to their respective parent companies, including Luckin Coffee Inc., or to any investors as of the date of this annual report. Our subsidiaries in the PRC currently retain cash generated from their operating activities and re-invest it in our business operations. In the future, our ability to pay dividends, if any, to our shareholders and ADS holders and to service any debt we may incur will depend upon dividends and other distributions paid by our PRC subsidiaries.

In accordance with the applicable PRC laws and regulations, the funds can be transferred between Luckin Coffee Inc., our PRC subsidiaries, the VIE and the investors. Cash is transferred among Luckin Coffee Inc., Luckin Coffee Investment Inc., our BVI subsidiary, Luckin Coffee (Hong Kong) Limited (“Luckin HK”), Luckin Coffee Roasting (Hong Kong) Limited and Luckin Coffee Roastery (Hong Kong) Limited, our Hong Kong subsidiaries, and their PRC subsidiaries, in the following manner: (i) funds are transferred to Luckin Coffee (China) Co., Ltd. (“Luckin China”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Luckin HK that is the holding company of PRC operating subsidiaries, from the Company as needed through Luckin HK in the form of capital contributions or shareholder loans, as the case may be; and (ii) dividends or other distributions may be paid by Luckin China to Luckin Coffee Inc. through Luckin HK.

As of December 31, 2022, Luckin Coffee Inc. made cumulative capital contributions of US$1,800.8 million to its PRC subsidiaries through an intermediate holding company which were accounted as loan to an intermediate holding company of Luckin Coffee Inc. These funds have been used by the PRC subsidiaries for their operations. In the future, cash proceeds raised from overseas financing activities may be transferred by us through Luckin HK to Luckin China via capital contribution and shareholder loans, as the case may be. Luckin China then will transfer funds to its subsidiaries to meet the capital needs of our business operations. For the condensed consolidating schedule that disaggregates the parent company, the VIE and its consolidated subsidiaries for Luckin Coffee Inc. for 2020, 2021 and 2022, see “Item 5. Operating and Financial Review and Prospects – 5.B. Liquidity and Capital Resources – Holding Company Structure – Condensed Consolidating Schedule.”

The VIE is not involved in the business operations or fund planning of the Group. However, Luckin Coffee Inc. and its subsidiaries may transfer cash to the VIE by loans or capital support, subject to satisfaction of applicable government registration and approval requirements, to satisfy the VIE’s miscellaneous cash demands, such as social insurance fees for employees whose social insurance accounts were registered under the VIE. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, our PRC subsidiaries transferred RMB74.1 million, RMB18.8 million and RMB115.5 million (US$16.7 million), respectively, to the VIE by loans or by capital support. In addition, the VIE may transfer cash as repayment of loans or, on an ad hoc basis, as working capital support to our PRC subsidiaries. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the VIE transferred to our PRC subsidiaries RMB3.3 million, RMB58.8 million and RMB104.1 million (US$15.1 million), respectively. These funds were used for repayment of loans or to support operations of our PRC subsidiaries. In addition, we and the VIE do not currently have any plans to distribute earnings or settle amounts owed under the VIE Agreements.

Risks Relating to the Fabricated Transactions, Internal Investigation, Internal Control, Offshore Restructuring and Related Matters

The previously disclosed Fabricated Transactions (defined below) have exposed us to a number of legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries, resulted in significant legal and other expenses, and required significant time and attention from our senior management, among other adverse impacts.

In March 2020, our board of directors (the “Board”) formed a special committee (the “Special Committee”) to oversee an internal investigation (the “Internal Investigation”) into certain issues raised to the Board’s attention during the audit of our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019. In April 2020, the Special Committee brought to the Board’s attention that certain management and employees reporting to them had engaged in misconduct, including fabricating certain transactions. On July 1, 2020, we announced that the Special Committee had substantially completed the Internal Investigation and found that the fabrication of transactions by certain management and employees reporting to them (the “Fabricated Transactions”) began in April 2019 and that, as a result, our net revenue in 2019 was inflated by approximately RMB2.12 billion (US$0.31 billion), and our costs and expenses were inflated by approximately RMB1.34 billion (US$0.2 billion).

The Fabricated Transactions had and could continue to have material adverse impacts on us. We were or are the subject of a number of legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries with respect to the Fabricated Transactions and have been named as a defendant in a number of lawsuits, including class action lawsuits. We incurred significant costs in connection with the Internal Investigation, including legal expenses and costs associated with the restatement and adjustment of our financial statements for the second and third quarters in 2019. We may also incur material costs associated with our indemnification arrangements with our current and former directors and certain of our officers, as well as other indemnitees.

Moreover, an unfavorable outcome in any of these matters could result in significant damages, additional penalties or other remedies imposed against us, and/or our current or former directors or officers, which could harm our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. In addition, an unfavorable outcome in any of these matters could exceed coverage provided, if any, under potentially applicable insurance policies, which is limited. Following disclosure of the Fabricated Transactions, we have had difficulties in obtaining desirable insurance coverage, or any insurance coverage, regarding legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries, and we cannot assure you with any certainty that we will be able to obtain such coverage in the future. The Fabricated Transactions also led to material adverse impacts on our operations, our reputation and our relationships with business partners, as well as material adverse impacts on our financial position, including incurred costs and expenses and our ability to raise new capital in the future. Further, our senior management team is expected to continue to devote significant time and efforts to address the impacts associated with or arising from the Fabricated Transactions.

We cannot predict all impacts on us in connection with or arising from the Fabricated Transactions. Any unknown or new risks may result in a material adverse effect on us.

We are the subject of a number of legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries by governmental agencies with respect to the Fabricated Transactions, which have had and could continue to have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations, and could result in additional claims and material liabilities.

We were, have been or are currently the subject of a number of legal proceedings and investigations and inquiries by governmental agencies in various jurisdictions, including the investigations by the SEC and the U.S. Department of Justice (the “DOJ”) relating to the Fabricated Transactions, the lawsuits relating to the default under the terms of the convertible senior notes indenture offered on January 10, 2020, penalty decisions from the Chinese State Administration for Market Regulation and certain of its sub-bureaus (collectively, the “SAMR”) relating to the Fabricated Transactions, the investigation by the Ministry of Finance of the PRC and other regulatory and court proceedings and investigations. On September 23, 2020, we received penalty decisions from the SAMR, which found that our conduct related to the Fabricated Transactions violated the PRC Anti-Unfair Competition Laws. On December 16, 2020, we entered into settlement with the SEC regarding the Fabricated Transactions, under which we were subject to payment of penalties and are enjoined from violation of certain federal securities laws. Entering into the settlement with the SEC also results in the loss of certain exemptions or protections that were available to us under federal securities laws. On February 4, 2021, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “SDNY Court”) approved the SEC settlement. On February 3, 2022, the SEC filed with the SDNY Court a notice acknowledging that the Company has satisfied the civil penalties arising from the SEC settlement. See “Item 8. Financial Information—8.A. Consolidated Statements and Other Financial Information—Legal Proceedings.”

Moreover, we have corrected our VAT filing to the PRC tax authorities for rectifying the revenues and VAT payable recognized in relation to the Fabricated Transactions, and in 2022, a fine of RMB500,000 was imposed to us by the PRC tax authorities. However, we are uncertain whether such correction in the previous VAT filing and the fine imposed will fully resolve the matter to the satisfaction of the PRC tax authorities. If the PRC tax authorities do not accept such correction, we may be required to pay corresponding VAT tax for the Fabricated Transactions. In addition, the PRC tax authorities may confiscate the illegal income, and we may be subject to additional fines up to RMB500,000 per implicated entity. We may also be subject to criminal penalties if such violations are deemed to constitute criminal offense.

We are unable to predict how long the ongoing proceedings, investigations and inquiries will continue, and we may continue to incur significant costs in connection with these matters and that these proceedings, investigations and inquiries may result in diversion of management’s time, regardless of the outcome. These proceedings, investigations and inquiries may result in damages, fines, penalties, consent orders or other administrative sanctions against us and/or certain of our officers, or in changes to our business practices, among others. In addition, there might be proceedings, investigations and inquiries with respect to the Fabricated Transactions that are unknown to us or that might be initiated in the future, which could have a material adverse effect on us.

Furthermore, publicity surrounding these proceedings, investigations and inquiries or any enforcement action as a result thereof, even if ultimately resolved favorably for us, coupled with the intensified public scrutiny of us and certain of our practices, could result in additional investigations and legal proceedings. Moreover, the matters that led to our Internal Investigation and our financial restatement for the second and third quarters in 2019 have exposed us to increased risks of regulatory proceedings and government enforcement actions. As a result, these proceedings, investigations and inquiries could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition, including our ability to raise new capital, cash flows and results of operations.

We have been named as a defendant in a number of lawsuits filed by purchasers of our securities, including class action lawsuits that, absent settlement, could have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, and our reputation.

We have been named as a defendant in a number of lawsuits filed by purchasers of our securities, including class action lawsuits described in “Item 8. Financial Information—8.A. Consolidated Statements and Other Financial Information—Legal Proceedings,” and will, absent any negotiated settlement, have to defend against such suits, including any appeals of such suits should our initial defenses be unsuccessful. In the event that our initial defenses of these suits are unsuccessful, there can be no assurance that we will prevail in any appeal.

The matters that led to our Internal Investigation and our financial restatement for the second and third quarters in 2019 have exposed us to increased risks of litigation. We and our current and former directors and officers may, in the future, be subject to additional litigation relating to such matters. Subject to certain limitations, we are obligated to indemnify our current and former directors and officers in connection with such lawsuits and any related litigation or settlement amounts. Regardless of the outcome, these lawsuits, and any other litigation that may be brought against us or our current or former directors and officers, could be time-consuming, result in significant expense and divert the attention and resources of our management and other key employees. An unfavorable outcome in any of these matters could result in significant damages, additional penalties or other remedies imposed against us, our current or former directors or officers, which could harm our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. In addition, an unfavorable outcome in any of these matters could exceed coverage provided, if any, under potentially applicable insurance policies, which is limited. Following disclosure of the Fabricated Transactions, we have had difficulties in obtaining desirable insurance coverage, or any insurance coverage, regarding legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries, and we cannot assure you with any certainty that we will be able to obtain such coverage in the future.

Matters relating to or arising from the Fabricated Transactions and the Internal Investigation, including adverse publicity and potential concerns from our customers, suppliers or others with whom we do business, have had and could continue to have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

We have been and could continue to be the subject of negative publicity focusing on the Fabricated Transactions and adjustment of our financial statements for the second and third quarters in 2019, and we may be adversely impacted by negative reactions from our customers, suppliers or others with whom we do business. Concerns include the perception of the effort required to address our accounting and internal control environment, and the ability for us to be a long-term provider to our customers. Continued adverse publicity and potential concerns from our customers and business partners or others could harm our business and have an adverse effect on our reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

The delisting of our ADSs from Nasdaq may continue to have a material adverse effect on the trading and price of our ADSs, and we cannot assure you that our ADSs will be relisted, or that once relisted, they will remain listed.

On July 1, 2020, we were delisted from Nasdaq when the staff of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC filed a Form 25 Notification of Delisting. The delisting of our ADSs from Nasdaq has had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on us by, among other things, causing investors to dispose of our ADSs and limiting:

- the liquidity of our ADSs;
- the market price of our ADSs;
- the number of institutional and other investors that will consider investing in our ADSs;
- the availability of information concerning the trading prices and volume of our ADSs;
- the number of broker-dealers willing to execute trades in our ADSs; and
- our ability to obtain equity or debt financing for the continuation of our operations.

The lack of an active trading market may limit the liquidity of an investment in our ADSs, meaning you may not be able to sell our ADSs you own at times, or at prices, attractive to you. Any of these factors may materially and adversely affect the price of our ADSs.

We have completed an offshore restructuring of the Company's indebtedness, including a restructuring of indebtedness to bondholders and settlement of certain of our contingent liabilities, yet we remain subject to pending and potential future lawsuits with respect to the Fabricated Transactions.

On July 15, 2020, the Cayman Court appointed Alexander Lawson of Alvarez & Marsal Cayman Islands Limited and Wing Sze Tiffany Wong of Alvarez & Marsal Asia Limited to act as “light-touch” Joint Provisional Liquidators of the Company (the “JPLs”) on the application of the Company in response to the presentation of a winding-up petition by a creditor of the Company in the Cayman Court. During the provisional liquidation, we operated our business under the day-to-day control of the Board, under the supervision of the JPLs, in accordance with a protocol executed on October 16, 2020. By order of the Cayman Court dated February 25, 2022, the petition was dismissed and the JPLs were formally discharged with effect from March 4, 2022, bringing the provisional liquidation and the liquidation proceedings generally to a close. On August 26, 2022, we announced the redemption in full of the US$109.9 million of 9.00% series B senior secured notes due 2027 (the “New Notes” or “Series B Senior Secured Notes”) that we issued as a part of our offshore restructuring, which were our only offshore debt securities. See “Item 4.A. History and Development of the Company” for details of our offshore restructuring. However, we remain subject to pending and potential future lawsuits with respect to the Fabricated Transactions.

We are aware that certain persons and entities (and their beneficiaries) who purchased or otherwise acquired the Company’s ADSs have filed a series of lawsuits alleging that the Company (and others) violated United States securities law. As of the date of this annual report, the Company considers the claims asserted in these lawsuits as contingent liabilities as the Company’s liability has not yet been established by the relevant courts, except for the settlements reached as described in this annual report. See “Item 8. Financial Information—8.A. Consolidated Statements and Other Financial Information—Legal Proceedings” for further details of the lawsuits filed against us and settlements reached.

On July 22, 2022, we received final approval of a class action settlement from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Federal Class Settlement”) in In re Luckin Coffee Inc. Securities Litigation, Case No.1:20-cv-01293-JPC-JLC (SDNY). The Federal Class Settlement fully resolves all claims that have been or could be filed on behalf of a class of purchasers Company’s ADS between May 17, 2019 through July 15, 2020, inclusive. The amount of the Federal Class Settlement is $175 million. However, the Company expects to expend additional amounts to resolve claims of investors who submitted valid opt-out notices to exclude themselves from the Federal Class Settlement. The Company has already been named as a defendant in a number of opt-out lawsuits alleging violations of U.S. securities laws.

On January 9, 2022, the Company reached an agreement in principle with the lead plaintiffs in the putative class action In re Luckin Coffee Inc. Securities Litigation, Index No. 651939/2020 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. Cty.) (the “State Class Action”), pending in the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the “State Court”) to resolve claims that have been or could be filed on behalf of a class of purchasers of the Notes who did not release their claims in connection with the Scheme (the “State Class Settlement”). The State Court preliminarily approved the State Class Settlement on October 7, 2022. As of this date, a fairness hearing for the settlement is scheduled for April 28, 2023. As of the date of this annual report, the State Class Settlement remains subject to final approval from the State Court.

In addition, certain individuals and institutions, who have submitted opt-out notices, claim to have made investments relating to the Company’s ADS and have made informal demands for the Company to pay alleged losses resulting from the Fabricated Transactions disclosed on April 2, 2020, but have not commenced legal proceedings.

There may also be more lawsuits filed against us in the future. Failure to settle these lawsuits or other unfavorable outcomes in these proceedings could result in significant damages, additional penalties or other remedies imposed against us, our current or former directors or officers, which could harm our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

If we fail to implement and maintain an effective system of internal control, we may be unable to accurately report our results of operations, meet our reporting obligations or prevent fraud, and investor confidence and the trading price of the ADSs may be materially and adversely affected.

As a public company, we are subject to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act (“Section 404”), requires that we include a report from management on the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting in our annual report on Form 20-F. In 2022, our management, with the participation of our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of our company’s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2022. Based on this evaluation, we concluded that internal control was effective as of December 31, 2022. In addition, our independent registered public accounting firm must attest to and report on the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting. Our independent registered public accounting firm has issued an attestation report, which has concluded that as of December 31, 2022, our internal control over financial reporting was effective.

Even though we did not note or identify any deficiencies that we believe to be material weaknesses as of December 31, 2022, if we fail to maintain the adequacy of our internal control over financial reporting, as these standards are modified, supplemented or amended from time to time, we may not be able to conclude on an ongoing basis that we have effective internal control over financial reporting in accordance with Section 404. Generally speaking, if we fail to achieve and maintain an effective internal control environment, it could result in material misstatements in our financial statements and could also impair our ability to comply with applicable financial reporting requirements and related regulatory filings on a timely basis. As a result, our businesses, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, as well as the trading price of the ADSs, may be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, as a public company, our reporting obligations may place a significant strain on our management, operational and financial resources and systems for the foreseeable future. We may be unable to timely complete our evaluation testing and any required remediation.

The circumstances that led to the failure to file our annual report on time may continue to cause delays in our SEC filings.

Our ability to maintain a timely filing schedule with respect to our SEC reporting obligations is subject to a number of contingencies, including whether we can maintain the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting. We cannot assure you that we will be able to timely make our future filings.

In case we delay our filings, investors may need to evaluate certain decisions with respect to our ADSs in light of our lack of current financial information. In addition, the SEC adopted amendments to the Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11 in September 2020 that enhanced disclosure and investor protection in the OTC market by ensuring that broker-dealers do not publish quotations for an issuer’s security when current issuer information is not publicly available, subject to certain exceptions. Therefore, if we are delayed in our filings, the broker-dealers will not be able to publish quotations for our ADSs on the OTC market. In such an event, the trading volume of our ADSs will be negligible, and the trading price may fall sharply as a result.

Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry

Our limited operating history may not be indicative of our future growth or financial results and we may not be able to sustain our historical growth rates.

We commenced our operations in October 2017 and have achieved significant growth since our inception. We expanded from a single trial store in Beijing to 5,652 self-operated stores and 2,562 partnership stores in nearly 240 cities in China as of December 31, 2022. We had 134.7 million cumulative transacting customers as of December 31, 2022. At the same time, we continue to evaluate our store performance and adjust our business plan accordingly. In 2022, we closed certain stores with relatively lower performance levels. Our limited operating history may not be indicative of our future growth or financial results. There is no assurance that we will be able to maintain our historical growth rates in future periods. Our growth rates may decline for any number of possible reasons and some of them are beyond our control, including decreasing customer spending, increasing competition, declining growth of China's coffee industry or China's food and beverage sector in general, emergence of alternative business models, or changes in government policies or general economic conditions. We will continue to expand our product offerings and may explore new operating models to bring greater convenience to our customers and to increase our customer base and the number of transactions. However, the execution of any new business plans is subject to uncertainty and the total number of items sold and number of transacting customers may not grow at the rate we expect for the reasons stated above. Further, we may bear additional expenses and costs, including the negotiation of adjusted arrangements with suppliers, when we adjust our business plan. If our growth rates decline, investors' perceptions of our business and prospects may be adversely affected and the trading price of the ADSs could decline. In addition, since our business model is innovative in China's coffee industry, it may increase the difficulty in evaluating our business and future prospects based on our historical operational or financial results.

If we are unable to successfully execute our strategies, our business and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

We will continue to encounter challenges in implementing our managerial, operating and financial strategies. The major challenges in managing our business growth include, among other things:

- effectively identifying and securing locations for new stores and managing the daily operations of our stores. See “—We may be unsuccessful in operating our stores” for more details;
- controlling incurred costs in a competitive environment;
- timely adjusting our business plan based on our performance and market position as well as successfully launching the adjusted business plan;
- the success of members of the management in assuming their roles and the ability of the management team to implement and achieve our strategies and goals as they develop;
- the success of our members of the Board in assuming their roles;
- attracting, training and retaining a growing workforce to support our operations;
- continuously developing and launching successful new products;
- maintaining and upgrading our technology systems in a cost-effective manner;
- effectively managing our supply chain and ensuring our third-party suppliers continue to meet our quality and other standards and satisfy our future operational needs;
- implementing a variety of new and upgraded internal systems and procedures as our business continues to grow; and
- ensuring full compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

All efforts to address the challenges of our growth require significant managerial, financial and human resources. We cannot assure you that we will be able to execute managerial, operating and financial strategies to keep up with our growth. If we cannot manage our growth or execute our strategies effectively, our growth may slow down and our business and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

If we fail to acquire new customers or retain existing customers in a cost-effective manner, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

Our ability to cost-effectively attract new customers and retain existing customers is crucial to driving net revenues growth and achieving profitability. We have invested significantly in branding, sales and marketing to acquire and retain customers since our inception. For example, we offer various discount offers and deals in the form of vouchers and coupons. We also expect to continue to invest significantly to acquire new customers and retain existing ones. There can be no assurance that new customers will stay with us, or the net revenues from new customers we acquire will ultimately exceed the cost of acquiring those customers. In addition, if we reduce or discontinue our current discount offers and deals, if our existing customers no longer find our products appealing, or if our competitors offer more attractive products, prices, discounts or better customer services, our existing customers may lose interest in us, decrease their orders or even stop ordering from us. If we are unable to retain our existing customers or to acquire new customers in a cost-effective manner, our revenues may decrease and our results of operations will be adversely affected.

We may be unsuccessful in operating our stores.

- The operating results of our stores have been and will continue to be subject to a number of factors, including but not limited to:
- our ability to maintain and enhance the quality of our products and services or to develop and launch new products that meet our customers' needs;
- our ability to retain existing customers and attract new customers;
- our ability to continually increase the number of items sold to each customer and number of items sold in each store;
- our ability to successfully implement our pricing strategies;
- our ability to timely respond to changes in market opportunities and customer preferences;
- our ability to maintain good relationships with third-party suppliers, service providers and strategic partners;
- our ability to hire, train and retain talented employees;
- our ability to manage costs of our operations, such as cost of materials, store rental, labor and other operating costs, and sales and marketing expenses;
- our ability to ensure full compliance with relevant laws and regulations, and maintain adequate and effective control, supervision and risk management over our stores; and
- our ability to monitor and control the overall operation of our stores.

Many factors that are out of our control, including the macroeconomic and regulatory environment, could also adversely affect our store operations. In addition, opening new stores near our existing stores may adversely affect the sales of our existing stores. Any of these factors listed above or described elsewhere in this Risk Factors section may render us unsuccessful in profitably operating our stores and could adversely impact our business, financial condition and/or results of operations. We may even have to shut down certain stores if their business, financial condition and operation results are below our expectation.

To the extent that we are not able to effectively gauge the direction of our key markets and successfully identify, develop and promote new or improved products in the changing market, our financial results and our competitive position will suffer.

We have devoted significant resources to launch and promote new products from time to time to serve broader customer demand, adapt to changes in market trends and shifts in customer taste and preferences, including the introduction of new coffee flavors and non-coffee products. However, we may not be successful in implementing our cross-selling strategy, developing innovative new products, and our new products may not be favored by customers or commercially successful. To the extent that we are not able to effectively gauge the direction of our key markets and successfully identify, develop and promote new or improved products in the changing market, our financial results and our competitive position will suffer.

Additionally, the growth of China's coffee industry is affected by customer tastes, preferences, perceptions and spending patterns. Since we have generated, and expect to continue to generate, a considerable amount of our revenues from the sale of coffee, a shift in customer preferences away from coffee, the changes of spending pattern adversely affecting consumption of coffee, or the decrease or slow growth of coffee consumption in China would harm our business, more than if our revenues were generated from more diversified products.

We may face additional risks associated with our retail partnership model.

We launched our retail partnership model initiative in September 2019, and opened our first partnership store in October 2019. The retail partnership model has become increasingly important to our business as a whole. Our revenues from partnership stores were RMB316.6 million, RMB1,306.1 million and RMB3,069.3 million (US$445.0 million) in 2020, 2021 and 2022, accounting for 7.9%, 16.4% and 23.1% of our total revenues, respectively. The retail partnership model may subject us to a number of risks, including but not limited to:

- We might not be able to effectively control retail partners' actions and their daily store operation, and in case that their actions harm our business, our contractual rights and remedies are limited;
- The unsatisfactory service provided by or misconduct of our retail partners may harm the goodwill associated with our brands, and may adversely impact our business and results of operations;
- The revenues we realize from partnership stores are partly dependent on our retail partners' ability to grow their sales;
- The failure of our retail partners to comply with local regulatory rules may subject us to losses and harm our reputation;
- Retail partners may not completely fulfill their obligation under the partnership agreement, which may adversely impact our business and results of operations;
- The number and quality of retail partners are subject to change over time, which may negatively affect our business; and
- Our retail partners may be subject to a variety of litigation risks, including, but not limited to, customer claims, food safety claims and employee allegations of improper termination. Although we are not directly liable for the costs involved in these types of litigation, each of these claims may increase the costs of our retail partners and adversely affect their profitability, which in turn could adversely affect our business, operating results and brand.

We face intense competition in China's coffee industry and food and beverage sector in general, and our products are not proprietary. If we fail to compete effectively, we may lose market share and customers, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

China's coffee industry and food and beverage sector are intensely competitive. Our products, including our coffee recipes, are not proprietary, and therefore, we are unable to prevent competitors from copying the recipes of our products and sell similar products. We not only compete with a number of coffee shop operators, but also with other businesses, such as convenience stores as well as food and beverages operators with convenient locations. Our competitors may have more financial, technical, marketing and other resources than we do and may be more experienced and able to devote greater resources to the development, promotion and support of their business. Some competitors are well established in China and any defensive measures they take in response to our expansion could hinder our growth and adversely affect our sales and results of operations. In addition, China's coffee industry is subject to the entry of new and well-funded competitors. For more information related to the competitive landscape of China's coffee industry, see "Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Competition." Increased competition may reduce our market share and profitability and require us to increase our sales and marketing efforts and capital commitment in the future, which could negatively affect our results of operations or force us to incur further losses. Although we have accumulated a large and growing customer base, there is no assurance that we will be able to continue to do so in the future against current or future competitors, and such competitive pressures may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We have incurred significant operating losses attributable to the Company and we may continue to experience significant operating losses in the future.

We have incurred significant operating losses attributable to the Company since our inception in June 2017. For the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2021, we incurred operating losses of RMB2,587.3 million and RMB539.1 million, respectively, primarily attributable to the expenses in relation to the startup and fast expansion of our business. Although we had operating income of RMB1,156.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2022, we may not be able to maintain our profitability in the future.

We intend to invest to further improve our brand awareness, maintain and expand our customer base and store network, continuously launch new product offerings, further strengthen our technological capabilities, enhance and optimize our supply chain management and prudently explore expansion into overseas markets. In addition, our net revenues will be impacted by various factors, including the performances of our stores, level of discounts we offer for different products, competitive landscape, customer preference and macroeconomic and regulatory environment. Therefore, our revenues may not grow at the rate we expect and may not increase sufficiently to offset the increase in our expenses. We may continue to incur losses in the future and we cannot assure you that we will eventually achieve profitability.

We require a significant amount of capital to fund our operations and respond to business opportunities. If we cannot obtain sufficient capital on acceptable terms, our business, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Building a well-known brand and accumulating a large and growing customer base are costly and time-consuming. For example, significant and continual investments in sales and marketing are required for further establishing brand awareness among the population in China to attract new customers and retain existing ones. In addition, we invest heavily in our technology systems, which are essential to our expansion and operations. It may take a long period of time to realize returns on such investments, if at all.

We have historically funded our cash requirements principally with capital contributions from our shareholders and the proceeds from our public offerings and private placement. If these resources are insufficient to satisfy our cash requirements, we may seek to raise funds through additional equity offerings or debt financings or obtain additional bank facilities. However, our ability to obtain additional capital in the future has been adversely affected by the impacts associated with the Fabricated Transactions and is subject to a number of uncertainties, including those relating to our future business development, financial condition and results of operations, general market conditions for financing activities by companies in our industry, and macroeconomic and other conditions in China and globally. If we cannot obtain sufficient capital on acceptable terms to meet our capital needs, we may not be able to execute our growth strategies, and our business, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Our success depends on the continuing efforts of our key management and experienced and capable personnel as well as our ability to recruit new talent. If we fail to hire, train, retain or motivate our staff, our business may suffer.

Our future success is significantly dependent upon the continued service of our key management as well as experienced and capable personnel generally. If we lose the services of any member of key management or our experienced and capable personnel, we may not be able to locate suitable or qualified replacements, and may incur additional expenses to recruit and train new staff, which could severely disrupt our business and growth. If any of our key management or experienced and capable personnel is poached by and joins a competitor or forms a competing business, we may lose customers, know-how and key professionals and staff members.

Our rapid growth also requires us to hire, train, and retain a wide range of personnel who can adapt to a dynamic, competitive and challenging business environment and are capable of helping us conduct effective marketing, innovate new products, and develop technological capabilities. We will need to continue to attract, train and retain talent at all levels. We may need to offer attractive compensation and other benefits packages, including share-based compensation, to attract and retain them. We also need to provide our employees with sufficient training to help them to realize their career development and grow with us. Any failure to attract, train, retain or motivate key management and experienced and capable personnel could severely disrupt our business and growth.

Any disruption to our supply chain and delivery services would negatively impact our business.

We have a limited number of suppliers for our raw materials, pre-made food and beverage items, machines, delivery service to our customers and warehouse and fulfillment service. In 2022, we purchased our coffee beans mainly from four suppliers, dairy, including plant-based raw materials such as coconut milk, mainly from five suppliers, syrup mainly from two suppliers and pre-made food and beverage items from a few selected sources, and we also mainly rely on two delivery service providers to provide most of the delivery service to our customers and cooperate with three warehouse and fulfillment service providers for our inventory storage and fulfillments between warehouses and from warehouses to our stores.

Due to our limited number of suppliers, any interruption to the operations of our suppliers, any failure of our suppliers to accommodate our business scale, any termination or suspension of our supply arrangements, any change in cooperation terms, the deterioration of relationships with these suppliers or any disputes with them may materially and adversely affect our results of operations. In addition, our current agreements with our suppliers generally do not prohibit them from working with our competitors. Our competitors may be more effective in providing incentives to our suppliers to prioritize on their orders in case of short supply. We cannot assure you that we would be able to find replacement suppliers on commercially reasonable terms or a timely basis.

Our supply chain and delivery services may be disrupted by other factors, including but not limited to, improper supply chain management, regulatory changes or noncompliance, surging market demand for our products or raw materials and extreme weather, natural disasters, health epidemics (such as the COVID-19 outbreak) and other calamities. Any such disruptions may result in loss of potential orders, failures to deliver the customer order on time, or at all, and negative impact on the results of our business operations, financial performance and reputation.

Failure to maintain the quality and safety of our products could have a material and adverse effect on our reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

The quality and safety of our products are critical to our success. For more information on our quality control system, see “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Supply Chain” and “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Food Safety and Quality Control.” However, due to the scale of our operations and growth of our store network, maintaining consistent product quality depends significantly on the effectiveness of our quality control system, which in turn depends on a number of factors, including but not limited to the design of our quality control system, employee training to ensure that our employees adhere to and implement our quality control policies and procedures and the effectiveness of monitoring any potential violation of our quality control policies and procedures. There can be no assurance that our quality control system will always prove to be effective.

In addition, the quality of the products or services provided by our suppliers or service providers is subject to factors beyond our control, including the effectiveness and the efficiency of their quality control system, among others. There can be no assurance that our suppliers or service providers will always be able to adopt appropriate quality control systems and meet our stringent quality control requirements in respect of the products or services they provide. Any failure of our suppliers or service providers to provide satisfactory products or services could harm our reputation and adversely impact our operations. See “—Illegal actions or misconduct, or any failure by third-party suppliers, our retail partners, or service providers to provide satisfactory products or services could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may be unable to receive sufficient compensation from suppliers and service providers for the losses caused by them.”

If customers become ill from food or beverage-borne illnesses, tampering, adulteration, contamination, mislabeling or other food or beverage safety issues, we could be forced to temporarily close the impacted stores and/or be involved in related disputes or legal proceedings. In addition, instances of food or beverage safety issues, even those not involving us or our suppliers, could, by resulting in negative publicity about us, China’s coffee industry or China’s food and beverage market in general, adversely affect our reputation, financial condition and results of operations. A decrease in customer confidence in the safety and quality of our products or any food safety issues could materially harm our business and results of operations. See “—Adverse incidents or reports of food-safety issues, whether true or not, may harm our business.”

Any significant disruption in our technology infrastructure or our failure to maintain the satisfactory performance, security and integrity of our technology infrastructure would materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

The proper functioning of our technology infrastructure is essential to our business. We rely on our technology to improve customer engagement and our operational efficiency, among others. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Technology.” The risks we face in relation to the disruption of our technology infrastructure include:

- we may encounter problems when upgrading our technology infrastructure including our mobile apps, systems and software. The development, upgrades and implementation of our technology infrastructure are complex processes. Issues not identified during pre-launch testing of new services may only become evident when such services are made available to our entire customer base. Therefore, our technology infrastructure, including our mobile apps, may not function properly if we fail to detect or solve technical errors in a timely manner; and
- our systems are potentially vulnerable to damage or interruption as a result of earthquakes, floods, fires, extreme temperatures, power loss, telecommunications failures, technical error, computer viruses, hacking and similar events.

These and other events may lead to the unavailability of our mobile apps, interruption of our supply chain and delivery, interruption of unmanned machines, leakage or permanent loss of customer data, interruptions or decreases in connection speed, or other events which would negatively affect our operations. If we experience frequent or persistent service disruptions, whether caused by failures of our own systems or those of third-party suppliers or service providers, our reputation or relationships with our customers may be damaged and our customers may switch to our competitors, which may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our operations have been and may continue to be affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

We have been and continue to be adversely affected by the COVID-19 pandemic since the beginning of 2020. Outbreaks of COVID-19 have resulted in the temporary closure of many corporate offices, stores and manufacturing facilities across China. In particular, the resurgence of COVID-19 outbreaks in various cities and regions in China since the end of 2021 have adversely impacted and continues to adversely impact our store operations. In addition, our supply chain has been adversely affected by the COVID-19, including potential impacts of supply shortages or negative effect on our our inventory turnovers.

China began to modify its zero-COVID policy at the end of 2022, and most of the travel restrictions and quarantine requirements were lifted in December. There remains uncertainty as to the future impact of the virus, especially in light of this change in policy. Moreover, it remains difficult to predict the full impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the broader economy and how consumer behavior may change, and whether such change is temporary or permanent. Despite the recent modification of zero-COVID policy in China, social distancing, telecommunicating and reductions in travel remain normal in many aspects of people's lives. These conditions could fundamentally impact the way we work and the services we provide, and could have continuing adverse effects on our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition after the pandemic subsides. The extent to which our operations continue to be impacted by the pandemic will depend largely on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted, including resurgences and further spread of existing or new COVID-19 variants, the actions by the government authorities to contain the pandemic or treat its impact, the availability and effectiveness of vaccines, the economic recovery within China and globally, the impact on consumer behavior and other related factors. Our insurance policy does not cover any losses we incur as a result of the pandemic. The COVID-19 pandemic also may have the effect of heightening other risks disclosed in the "Risk Factors" section of this report, such as, but not limited to, those related to supply chain, labor, cybersecurity threats, as well as consumer perceptions of our brands.

We face risks related to natural disasters, health epidemics and other calamities, which could significantly disrupt our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We are vulnerable to natural disasters, health epidemics, and other calamities. Any of such occurrences could cause severe disruption to the daily operations of us, and may even require a temporary closure of facilities and logistics delivery networks, which may disrupt our business operations and adversely affect our results of operations. In addition, our results of operations could be adversely affected to the extent that any of these catastrophic events harm the Chinese economy in general. In particular, our operations had been adversely affected by the COVID-19 outbreak in China. The outbreak of COVID-19 had impacts on our business in various aspects. See "—Our operations have been and may continue to be affected by the COVID-19 pandemic."

From time to time, we may evaluate and potentially consummate strategic investments, acquisitions, strategic cooperation, formation of joint ventures and new business initiatives which may turn out to be not successful and adversely affect our operation and financial results.

To complement our business and strengthen our market-leading position, we may form strategic alliances or make strategic investments and acquisitions from time to time. In addition, we continually evaluate the potentials of new business initiatives or new markets. We may experience difficulties in integrating our operations with the newly invested or acquired businesses, executing new business initiatives, managing our expansion, implementing our strategies or achieving expected levels of net revenues, profitability, productivity or other benefits. For example, we officially launched our unmanned retail initiative, including Luckin Coffee EXPRESS and Luckin Pop Mini, in January 2020. Luckin Coffee EXPRESS is an unmanned machine that prepares a selection of freshly brewed drinks. Luckin Pop Mini is an unmanned vending machine that offers a variety of consumer goods. Considering its operational performance, we suspended the operation of Luckin Pop Mini and recorded write-downs of RMB46.7 million associated with this suspension in 2020. Additionally, we recorded impairment loss of long-lived assets of RMB52.1 million and RMB2.1 million in 2019 and 2020, respectively, in connection with the first generation Luckin Coffee EXPRESS machines that we purchased or prepaid for trial operation in 2019 and the subsequent launch in 2020. Further in 2022, due to historical underperformance and updated strategy and business projections, we provided a full impairment of RMB221.8 million for Luckin Coffee EXPRESS machines. Therefore, we cannot assure you that our investments, acquisitions, cooperation and new business initiatives will benefit our business strategy, generate sufficient net revenues to offset the associated costs, or otherwise result in the intended benefits.

Growth of our business will partially depend on the recognition of our brand, and any failure to maintain, protect and enhance our brand would limit our ability to grow or retain our customer base, which would materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We believe that recognition of our brand among customers has helped us manage our customer acquisition costs and contributed to the growth and success of our business. Accordingly, maintaining, protecting and enhancing the recognition of our brand is critical to our business and market position. Many factors, some of which are beyond our control, are important to maintaining, protecting and enhancing our brand. These factors include but are not limited to our ability to:

- maintain the quality and attractiveness of the products we offer;

Table of Contents

- develop and launch new products that satisfy our customers' needs;
- provide a superior customer experience;
- increase brand awareness through marketing and brand promotion activities;
- maintain good relationships and retain favorable terms with our suppliers, service providers and other business partners;
- stay compliant with relevant laws and regulations;
- compete effectively against existing and future competitors; and
- preserve our reputation and goodwill generally and in the event of any negative publicity on our products, services and data security, or other issues affecting us, China's coffee industry or China's food and beverage sector in general.

A public perception that we, or other industry participants do not provide satisfactory products or services to customers, even if factually incorrect or based on isolated incidents, could damage our reputation, diminish the value of our brand, undermine the trust and credibility we have established and have a negative impact on our ability to attract and retain customers, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

We have been and may increasingly become a target for public scrutiny, including complaints to regulatory agencies, negative media coverage, and malicious allegations, all of which could severely damage our reputation and materially and adversely affect our business and prospects.

Publicity about our business and management creates the possibility of heightened attention from the public, regulators and the media. Any negative report regarding our business, financial condition, results of operations, our management and employees could damage our brand image and severely affect the sales of our products and possibly lead to claims, litigation and damages. One of our executive officers, Mr. Fei Yang, was the president of IWOM Marketing Co., Ltd. ("IWOM"), a digital marketing company, when it was convicted of illegal business operation in 2013 for deleting user-generated content for profit. Mr. Yang was held liable as IWOM's president and was given a short-term (18 months) prison sentence.

Although Mr. Yang left IWOM in 2015, there has been and might continue to be negative media coverage about this conviction, which may have a negative effect on our public image and business. In addition, improper behavior or statements of our spokespersons, endorsers and other celebrities we have cooperated with and our employees may result in substantial harm to our brand, reputation and operations. We could become a target for public scrutiny, including complaints to regulatory agencies, negative media coverage, and malicious allegations, in the future, and such scrutiny and public exposure could severely damage our reputation as well as our business and prospects.

We have incurred significant costs on a variety of sales and marketing efforts, including mass advertising and heavy promotions to attract customers, and some sales and marketing campaigns and methods may not be sustainable or may turn out to be ineffective.

We have invested significantly in sales and marketing activities to promote our brand and our products and to deepen our relationships with customers. We incurred RMB462.1 million, RMB336.9 million and RMB570.1 million (US$82.7 million) in sales and marketing expenses for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively. We also regularly offer coupons and vouchers to increase our customer base, retain our existing customers or promote new products, and such promotion activities might not be sustainable.

Our sales and marketing activities may not be well received by our existing customers, and may not attract new customers as anticipated. The evolving marketing landscape may require us to experiment with new marketing methods to keep pace with industry trends and customer preferences. Failure to refine our existing marketing approaches or to introduce new marketing approaches in a cost-effective manner could reduce our market share and negatively impact our results of operations. There is no assurance that we will be able to recover the costs of our sales and marketing activities or that these activities will be effective in attracting new customers and retaining existing customers.

We may be unsuccessful in managing our store network.

We may not be able to manage our store network. The number and timing of the stores actually opened during any given period are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to our ability to:

- identify suitable locations and secure leases on commercially reasonable terms;
- obtain adequate funding for development and opening costs;
- obtain the required licenses, permits and approvals;
- efficiently manage our time and cost in relation to the design, decoration and preopening processes for each of our stores;
- develop and retain suitable retail partners; and
- hire, train and retain skilled employees.

Any factors listed above, either individually or in aggregate, might delay or fail our plan to increase the number of stores in desirable locations at manageable cost levels.

In addition, we may not be able to successfully operate our existing stores and may choose to shut down certain stores from time to time.

Adverse incidents or reports of food-safety issues, whether true or not, may harm our business.

Instances or reports of food-safety issues, such as food or beverage-borne illnesses, tampering, adulteration, contamination or mislabeling, either during growing, manufacturing, packaging, storing or preparation, whether true or not, have in the past severely injured the reputations of companies in China's food and beverage market and could affect us as well. Product safety or quality issues, actual or perceived, or allegations of product contamination, even when false or unfounded, could tarnish the image of our brand and may cause customers to choose other products. Such issues could materially and negatively affect our reputation, results of operations and financial performance.

Any lack of requisite approvals, licenses or permits applicable to our business may have a material and adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In accordance with the relevant laws and regulations in jurisdictions in which we operate, we are required to maintain various approvals, licenses and permits to operate our business, including but not limited to business licenses, food operation licenses and fire safety inspections. These approvals, licenses and permits are obtained upon satisfactory compliance with, among other things, the applicable laws and regulations. If we or our retail partners fail to obtain the necessary licenses, permits and approvals, we may be subject to fines, confiscation of the gains derived from the related stores or the suspension of operations of the related stores. We may also experience adverse publicity arising from such noncompliance with government regulations that negatively impacts our brand. We may experience difficulties or failures in obtaining the necessary approvals, licenses and permits for new stores. If we fail to obtain the material licenses, our store opening and expansion plan may be delayed. In addition, there can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain and/or renew all of the approvals, licenses and permits required for our existing business operations upon their expiration in a timely manner or at all, which could adversely affect our business operations. The following are some particular risks and potential negative consequences regarding certain lack of requisite approvals, licenses or permits, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing.

As of the date of this annual report, a small portion of our stores have not obtained business licenses, and we are in the process of obtaining business licenses for these stores. We may be ordered by the government authorities to rectify such noncompliance or to suspend operations of these stores and may be subject to fines of up to RMB500,000 for each store that fails to obtain business licenses.

As of the date of this annual report, a small portion of our stores have not obtained food operation licenses, and we are in the process of obtaining food operation licenses for these stores. The relevant government authorities may confiscate the income of these stores since commencing operation as well as the food and beverage products sold at these stores and the raw materials and equipment used in store operation, and may impose fines based on the value of the food and beverage products sold at each store (if the value of the food and beverage products is less than RMB10,000, a fine up to RMB100,000 may be imposed; if the value of the food and beverage products is more than RMB10,000, a fine up to 20 times of such value may be imposed).

Some of our stores are required to obtain permits over fire safety inspection by local fire prevention authorities. However, as of the date of this annual report, a substantial number of such stores have not obtained such permits. Our stores that fail to obtain the permits over fire safety inspections may be ordered by the relevant government authorities to close down and may be subject to a fine of up to RMB300,000 per store. In addition, some of our stores have not completed the required as-built acceptance check on fire prevention or fire safety filing. If the stores that fail to complete such fire safety filing are found unqualified by relevant government authorities in random inspection, they may be ordered by the relevant government authorities to close down and may be subject to a fine of up to RMB300,000 per store. As advised by our PRC legal counsel, King & Wood Mallesons, the likelihood that we would be subject to material administrative penalties by fire safety regulatory authorities is low.

For the unmanned retail initiative we officially launched in January 2020, according to the Administrative Measures for Food Operation Licensing and other local rules and regulations, we are required to obtain relevant food operation licenses, which provides that automatic vending be the business type of the licensed entity, for each operating subsidiary. We are also required to file or report to the relevant government authorities the numbers of the vending machines, the locations of the vending machines, the name, address and phone number of the vending operator, information regarding how the food operation licenses are publicized, among other relevant materials. The compliance requirement and the legal consequences of noncompliance with the requirements of conducting unmanned retail business vary among cities. If we fail to satisfy the relevant requirements, we may be ordered by the relevant government authorities to rectify the noncompliance and may be subject to fines, confiscation of the gains and suspension of operations, which could adversely affect our business operations.

We have recorded negative cash flows from operating activities historically and may have a net current liabilities position in the future.

We have experienced significant cash outflow from operating activities since our inception. We had net cash used in operating activities of RMB2,376.8 million, net cash provided by operating activities of RMB123.4 million and net cash provided by operating activities of RMB19.8 million (US$2.9 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively. Despite the improvement of our operating cash position in 2021 and 2022, we cannot guarantee that we will maintain that positive operating cash position in the future. If our cost of continuing operations increases in the future or our cash generated from operating activities does not meet our expectation, our operating cash position could worsen, and our business could be adversely affected because of the limited amount of cash available to meet the cash needs for operating our business and to fund our investments in our business expansion.

We had net current assets of RMB5,419.2 million, RMB1,791.7 million and RMB3,208.2 million (US$465.1 million) as of December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively. We could have a net current liabilities position in the future, which would expose us to liquidity risk. Our future liquidity and ability to make additional capital investments necessary for our operations and business expansion will depend primarily on our ability to maintain sufficient cash generated from operating activities and to obtain adequate external financing. There can be no assurance that we will be able to renew existing bank facilities or obtain other sources of financing.

We had in the past failed to comply with the terms of our indebtedness, which accelerated as a result. Failure to comply with the terms of our existing or future indebtedness could result in acceleration of indebtedness, which could have an adverse effect on our cash flow and liquidity.

We have entered and may from time to time enter into credit facilities and debt financing arrangements containing financial and other covenants that could, among other things, restrict our business and operations. On July 15, 2020, following the appointment of the JPLs by the Cayman Court, which constitutes an event of default under the indenture of the Notes described above, 100% of the principal of, and accrued and unpaid interest on, the Notes automatically became immediately due and payable. On January 28, 2022, the Restructuring of the Notes became effective, and was substantially consummated, which included the issuance of new debt securities in the form of the US$109.9 million New Notes described above. We announced the redemption in full of the New Notes on August 26, 2022, which were our only offshore debt securities. For more information about the restructuring of the Notes and the issuance of the New Notes, see “Note 12 Convertible Senior Notes” to the Company’s consolidated financial statements included in this annual report. Nevertheless, we may incur other debt financial arrangements in the future. Any breach of covenants under future debt financial arrangements, including by failing to maintain certain financial ratios, may entitle the lenders thereunder to accelerate debt obligations. Any default under our debt financial arrangements could also require that we repay these loans prior to maturity as well as limit our ability to obtain additional financing, which in turn may have a material adverse effect on our cash flow and liquidity and in turn affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We have undertaken strategic partnerships which may not be successful. If our collaboration with any of our strategic partners is terminated or curtailed, or if we are no longer able to benefit from the business collaborations with our strategic partners, our business may be adversely affected.

Our business has benefited from our collaborations with our strategic partners, including Weixin, in the areas such as mobile ordering and payment and joint marketing. We have entered into certain collaborations or alliances, such as incorporating joint ventures, with our business partners historically from time to time. We cannot assure you that such alliances or partnerships will contribute to our business, and we might not be able to maintain our cooperative relationships with our strategic partners and their respective affiliates in the future. If the services provided by these strategic partners become limited, compromised, restricted, curtailed or less effective or become more expensive or unavailable to us for any reason, our business may be materially and adversely affected. To the extent we cannot maintain our cooperative relationships with any of these strategic partners, it may be very difficult for us to identify other alternative partners, which may divert significant management attention from existing business operations and adversely impact our daily operation and customer experience.

A significant interruption in the operations of our third-party suppliers, retail partners and service providers could potentially disrupt our operations.

We have limited control over the operations of our third-party suppliers, retail partners, service providers and other business partners and any significant interruption in their operations may have an adverse impact on our operations. For example, a significant interruption in the operations of our roasted coffee bean suppliers’ roasting facilities could cause a shortage of coffee at our stores, a significant interruption impacting our leased warehouses, whether as a result of a natural disaster, labor difficulties, fire or other causes, could cause the shortage of our inventory, and a significant interruption in the operations of our internet service provider could impact the operation of our mobile apps. If we cannot solve the impact of the interruptions of operations of our third-party suppliers, retail partners or service providers, our business operations and financial results may be materially and adversely affected.

Illegal actions or misconduct, or any failure by third-party suppliers, our retail partners, or service providers to provide satisfactory products or services could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may be unable to receive sufficient compensation from suppliers and service providers for the losses caused by them.

Our reputation and operation may be harmed by illegal or unsatisfactory actions taken by suppliers, our retail partners and service providers over which we have limited control. For example, the failure of our raw material suppliers to ensure product quality or to comply with food safety or other laws and regulations could interrupt our operations and result in claims against us, and any delay in delivery of our products, damage to our products during the course of delivery and inappropriate actions taken by delivery riders of our delivery service providers might cause customer complaints.

In the event that we become subject to claims caused by actions taken by our suppliers, our retail partners, or service providers, we may attempt to seek compensation from the relevant suppliers, our retail partners, or service providers. However, such compensation may be limited. For example, we may not be able to fully cover compensation from our retail partners in case that our losses attributed to their actions exceed their deposit withheld by us. If no claim can be asserted against a supplier, our retail partners, or service provider, or amounts that we claim cannot be fully recovered from the supplier, our retail partners, or service provider, we may be required to bear such losses and compensation at our own costs. This could have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We face the risk of fluctuations in the cost, availability and quality of our raw materials and pre-made products, which could adversely affect our results of operations.

The cost, availability and quality of our principal raw material, Arabica coffee beans, coffee condiments, tea leaves as well as pre-made food and beverage items, are important to our operations. We usually enter into fixed-price purchase agreements with suppliers of raw materials and pre-made food and beverage items with a term of one year. However, such contract prices may be renegotiated when there is significant fluctuation in the market price of these products. If the cost of raw materials and pre-made products increases after expiration of existing agreements, due to large market price fluctuation or due to any other reason, our business and results of operations could be adversely affected.

In addition, as coffee beans and most of our coffee condiments and pre-made products have relatively short shelf life, frequent and timely supply of these products are essential to our operations. Lack of availability of these products, whether due to shortages in supply, delays or interruptions in processing, failure of timely delivery or otherwise, could interrupt our operations and adversely affect our financial results.

Uncertainties relating to the growth of China's coffee industry and food and beverage industry could adversely affect our revenues and business prospects.

Our business is affected by the development of China's coffee industry and food and beverage industry in general. The demand for our coffee items and our future results of operations will depend on numerous factors affecting the development of China's coffee industry and food and beverage industry in general, such as governmental regulations and policies over this industry, investments in this industry and the drinking culture and hobby of Chinese consumers, and some of them are completely beyond our control.

A decline in the popularity of coffee, especially freshly brewed coffee, or any failure by us to adapt our strategies in response to trends in China's coffee industry and food and beverage industry in general may adversely affect our results of operations and business prospects.

Adverse public or medical opinion about the health effects of our products may harm our business.

Some of our products contain caffeine, dairy products, sugar and other active compounds, the health effects of which are not fully understood. The excessive consumption of these compounds may result in adverse health effects and have caused increasing public awareness. For example, a number of research studies conclude or suggest that excessive consumption of caffeine may lead to increased heart rate, nausea and vomiting, restlessness and anxiety, depression, headaches, tremors, sleeplessness and other adverse health effects. A number of research studies suggest the excess consumption of added sugar is associated with a variety of preventable diseases, obesity and damaged metabolism. Unfavorable reports on the health effects of caffeine or other compounds of our products could significantly reduce the sales of our products. Also, we could become subject to litigation relating to the existence of such compounds in our products and any such litigation could be costly and could divert management attention.

Any of our expansion into international markets will expose us to additional tax, compliance, market and other risks and there can be no assurance that any such expansion will be successful.

We are exploring expanding our operation into international markets. Our operations in international markets expose us to various risks, including those arising from competition with local competitors (which may have greater resources and/or more favorable market positions), the diversity of customer preferences and demand and our ability to anticipate or respond to such preferences and demand; changes in the political and economic environments in the countries where we operate; changes in regulations, including tax regulations, and the imposition of new duties or other protectionist measures; regulatory or customary restrictions to any aspect of our existing business model; the occurrence of acts of terrorism or similar events, conflicts, civil unrest or situations of political instability. These or other factors may harm our business in international markets or cause us to incur significant costs in these markets, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Overall tightening of the labor market, increases in labor costs or any possible labor unrest may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business requires a substantial number of personnel. Any failure to retain stable and dedicated labor by us may lead to disruption to our business operations.

Although we have not experienced any material labor shortage as of the date of this annual report, we have observed an overall tightening and increasingly competitive labor market. We have experienced, and expect to continue to experience, increases in labor costs due to increases in salary, social benefits and employee headcount. We compete with other companies in our industry and other labor-intensive industries for labor, and we may not be able to offer competitive remuneration and benefits compared to them. If we are unable to manage and control our labor costs, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

Our business generates and processes a large amount of data, which subjects us to evolving governmental regulations and other legal obligations related to privacy, cybersecurity, information security and data protection, many of which are subject to changes and uncertain interpretations. Any failure to comply with these governmental regulations and legal obligations, improper use or disclosure of such data by us, our employees or our business partners could subject us to significant reputational, financial, legal and operational consequences.

Our business generates and processes a large quantity of personal, transaction, and behavior data. We face risks inherent in handling large volumes of data and in protecting the security of such data. In particular, we face a number of challenges relating to data from transactions and other activities on our system, including:

- protecting the data in and hosted on our system, including against attacks on our system by third parties or fraudulent behavior by our employees;
- addressing concerns related to privacy and sharing, safety, security and other factors; and
- complying with applicable laws, rules and regulations relating to the collection, use, disclosure or security of personal information, including any requests from regulatory and government authorities relating to such data.

Any systems failure or security breach or lapse that results in the release of customer data could harm our reputation and brand and, consequently, our business, in addition to exposing us to potential legal liability. Furthermore, our business partners and their employees may improperly use or disclose the data we disclose to them for our operation and we have limited control over the actions of our business partners and their employees. Any failure, or perceived failure, by us, our employees, our business partners, or their employees to comply with privacy policies or with any regulatory requirements or privacy protection-related laws, rules and regulations could result in proceedings or actions against us by governmental entities or others. These proceedings or actions may subject us to significant penalties and negative publicity, require us to change our business practices, increase our costs and severely disrupt our business.

Recently, companies' practices regarding collection, use, retention, transfer, disclosure and security of user data have been the subject of enhanced regulations and increased public scrutiny. For example, historically, we have been named by regulatory authorities among other apps for not expressly obtaining all authorizations from users, for which we have taken measures, including adjustments to our user privacy terms, to address the issue. The regulatory frameworks regarding privacy issues in many jurisdictions are constantly evolving and can be subject to significant changes from time to time.

In China, the PRC Cybersecurity Law, which became effective in June 2017, provides that personal information and important data collected and generated by operators of critical information infrastructure in the course of their operations in the PRC should be stored in the PRC. The PRC government is increasingly focused on data security, and has launched cybersecurity review against a number of mobile apps operated by several U.S.-listed Chinese companies and prohibited these apps from registering new users during the review period.

In addition, regulators in China may implement measures to ensure that encryption of users' data does not hinder law enforcement agencies' access to that data. For example, according to the PRC Cybersecurity Law and relevant regulations, network operators, are obligated to provide assistance and support in accordance with the law for public security and national security authorities to protect national security or assist with criminal investigations. Compliance with these laws and requirements in manners that are perceived as harming privacy could lead to significant damage to our reputation and proceedings and actions against us by regulators and private parties.

On March 12, 2021, the CAC, the MIIT, the Ministry of Public Security and the SAMR jointly promulgated the Provisions on the Scope of Necessary Personal Information Required for Common Types of Mobile Internet Applications, which became effective on May 1, 2021, clarifying the scope of necessary information required for certain common mobile apps and stating that mobile apps operators may not deny users' access to basic functions and services when the users opt out of the collection of unnecessary personal information. The CAC has since named a number of mobile apps in its regulatory announcement for failure to comply with privacy and data security regulations, and ordered these apps to rectify their data collection and use practices. On June 10, 2021, the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress of China promulgated the Data Security Law which took effect on September 1, 2021, and on August 20, 2021, the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress of China promulgated the Personal Information Protection Law which took effect on November 1, 2021. The Data Security Law provides for data security and privacy obligations of entities and individuals carrying out data activities, prohibits entities and individuals in China from providing any foreign judicial or law enforcement authority with any data stored in China without approval from competent PRC authority, and sets forth the legal liabilities of entities and individuals found to be in violation of their data protection obligations, including rectification order, warning, fines of up to RMB10 million, suspension of relevant business, and revocation of business permits or licenses. See "Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Regulation—Regulation on Internet Privacy." The Personal Information Protection Law took effect on November 1, 2021, integrates the various rules with respect to personal information rights and privacy protection and applies to the processing of personal information within mainland China as well as certain personal information processing activities outside mainland China, including those for the provision of products and services to natural persons within China or for the analysis and assessment of acts of natural persons within China.

Numerous regulations, guidelines and other measures have been or are expected to be adopted under the umbrella of, or in addition to, the Cybersecurity Law and Data Security Law. For example, Regulations on the Security Protection of Critical Information Infrastructure, or the CII Protection Regulations, became effective on September 1, 2021. According to the CII Protection Regulations, critical information infrastructure, or the CII, refers to any important network facilities or information systems of the important industry or field such as public communication and information service, energy, transportation, water conservancy, finance, public services, e-government affairs and national defense science, which may endanger national security, people's livelihood and public interest in the case of damage, function loss or data leakage. Regulators supervising specific industries are required to formulate detailed guidance to identify CII in the respective sectors, and a critical information infrastructure operator, or a CIOO, must take the responsibility to protect the CII's security by performing certain prescribed obligations. For example, CIOOs are required to conduct network security test and risk assessment, report the assessment results to relevant regulatory authorities, and timely rectify the issues identified at least once a year. As of the date of this annual report, we have not been identified as a CIOO by the relevant regulatory authority.

Additionally, in December 2021, the CAC and several other administrations jointly promulgated the amended Cybersecurity Review Measures, or the Cybersecurity Review Measures, which took effect on February 15, 2022. Pursuant to the Cybersecurity Review Measures, where the relevant activity affects or may affect national security, a CIO that purchases network products and services, or an internet platform operator that conducts data process activities, shall be subject to the cybersecurity review. The Cybersecurity Review Measures also expands the cybersecurity review requirement to cover “internet platform operators” in possession of personal information of over one million users if such operators intend to list their securities in a foreign country. See “—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China—The approval, filing or other requirements of the CSRC, the CAC or other PRC government authorities may be required under PRC law in connection with our offshore securities offering (including equity securities and debt securities), and, if required, we cannot predict whether or for how long we will be able to obtain such approval.” Additionally, relevant governmental authorities in the PRC may initiate cybersecurity review if they determine an internet platform operator’s network products or services or data processing activities affect or may affect national security.

Furthermore, on November 14, 2021, Measures on Network Data Security Management (Draft for Comment), or the Draft Measures on Network Data, was proposed by the CAC for public comments until December 13, 2021. The Draft Measures on Network Data requires data processors to apply for cybersecurity review in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations for carrying out activities including but not limited to: (i) a merger, reorganization, or division to be conducted by an internet platform operator who has amassed a substantial amount of data resources that concern national security, economic development or the public interest, which will or may impact national security; (ii) an overseas initial public offering to be conducted by a data processor processing the personal information of more than one million individuals; (iii) an overseas initial public offering in Hong Kong to be conducted by a data processor, which will or may impact national security; and (iv) other data processing activities that will or may have an impact national security. Any failure to comply with such requirements may subject us to, among others, suspension of services, fines, revoking relevant business permits or business licenses and penalties on responsible persons. The Draft Measures on Network Data was released for public comment only, there remains substantial uncertainty, including but not limited to its final content, adoption timeline, effective date or relevant implementation rules.

The Administrative Provisions on the Account Information of Internet Users, which was promulgated by the CAC on June 27, 2022 and became effective on August 1, 2022, sets out guidelines on the administration of the account information of internet users. Internet-based information service providers shall perform their responsibilities as the administrative subjects of the account information of internet users, have in place professionals and technical capacity appropriate to the scale of services, and establish, improve and strictly implement the authentication of real identity information, verification of account information, security of information content, ecological governance, emergency responses, protection of personal information and other management systems.

On July 7, 2022, the CAC promulgated the Data Outbound Transfer Security Assessment Measures, or the Security Assessment Measures, which became effective on September 1, 2022. The Security Assessment Measures provide that, among others, data processors shall apply to competent authorities for security assessment when (1) the data processors transferring important data abroad; (2) a CIO and personal information processor that has processed personal information of more than one million people, transferring personal information abroad; (3) a data processor who has provided personal information of one hundred thousand individuals or sensitive personal information of ten thousand individuals to overseas recipients, in each case as calculated cumulatively, since January 1 of the previous year, and (4) other circumstances where the security assessment of data cross-border transfer is required as prescribed by the CAC. Since these laws and regulations in China are relatively new, uncertainties still exist in relation to their interpretation and implementation. Any change in laws and regulations relating to privacy, data protection and information security and any enhanced governmental enforcement action of such laws and regulations could greatly increase our cost in providing our products and services, limit their use or adoption or require certain changes to be made to our operations. If we fail to comply with these new laws and regulations described above, we may be ordered to rectify and terminate any actions that are deemed illegal by the government authorities and become subject to fines and other government sanctions, which may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Complying with these obligations under the PRC Cybersecurity Law, the PRC National Security Law, the Data Security Law, the Personal Information Protection Law, the Cybersecurity Review Measures, the Measures on Network Data Security Management, as well as additional laws and regulations that PRC regulatory bodies may enact in the future, including data security and personal information protection laws could cause us to incur substantial costs and subject us to negative publicity, which could harm our reputation among users and negatively affect the trading prices of our ADSs and/or other securities. There are also uncertainties with respect to how the PRC Cybersecurity Law, the PRC National Security Law, the Personal Information Protection Law, the Data Security Law, the Cybersecurity Review Measures and the Measures on Network Data Security Management will be implemented and interpreted. In practice, PRC regulators, including the Department of Public Security, the MIIT, the SAMR and the CAC, have been increasingly focused on regulation in the areas of data security and data protection, including for mobile apps, and are enhancing the protection of privacy and data security by rulemaking and enforcement actions at central and local levels. We expect that these areas will receive greater and continued attention and scrutiny from regulators and the public going forward, which could increase our compliance costs and subject us to heightened risks and challenges associated with data security and protection. Any failure to comply with applicable regulations, whether by us, business partners, or other third parties, or as a result of employee error or negligence or otherwise, could result in regulatory enforcement actions, including fines, suspension of business, prohibition against new user registration (even for a short period of time) and revocation of required licenses, against us and have an adverse impact on our business operations and our reputation.

If we fail to adopt new technologies to evolving customer needs or emerging industry standards, our business may be materially and adversely affected.

To remain competitive, we must continue to stay abreast of evolving industry trends and to enhance and improve our technology accordingly. Our success will depend, in part, on our ability to identify, develop, acquire or license leading technologies useful in our business. There can be no assurance that we will be able to use new technologies effectively or adapt our mobile apps to meet customer requirements. If we are unable to adapt in a cost-effective and timely manner in response to changing market conditions or customer preferences, whether for technical, legal, financial or other reasons, our business may be materially and adversely affected.

Security breaches and attacks against our technology systems, and any potentially resulting breach or failure to otherwise protect confidential and proprietary information, could damage our reputation and negatively impact our business, as well as materially and adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Although we have employed significant resources to develop our security measures against breaches, our cybersecurity measures may not detect or prevent all attempts to compromise our systems, including distributed denial-of-service attacks, viruses, malicious software, break-ins, phishing attacks, social engineering, security breaches or other attacks and similar disruptions that may jeopardize the security of information stored in and transmitted by our systems or that we otherwise maintain. Breaches of our cybersecurity measures could result in unauthorized access to our systems, misappropriation of information or data, deletion or modification of customer information, or a denial of service or other interruption to our business operations. As techniques used to obtain unauthorized access to or sabotage systems change frequently and may not be known until launched against us or our third-party service providers, we may be unable to anticipate, or implement adequate measures to protect against, these attacks.

We have in the past and are likely again in the future to be subject to these types of attacks, although as of the date of this annual report no such attack has resulted in any material damages or remediation costs. If we are unable to avert these attacks and security breaches, we could be subject to significant legal and financial liability, our reputation would be harmed and we could sustain substantial lost sales and customer dissatisfaction. We may not have the resources or technical sophistication to anticipate or prevent rapidly evolving types of cyberattacks. Actual or anticipated attacks and risks may cause us to incur significantly higher costs, including costs to deploy additional personnel and network protection technologies, train employees and engage third-party experts and consultants.

We are subject to risks related to the payment methods we accept, including uncertainties in regulations governing payment processing and risks relating to third-party payment providers.

We are subject to various rules, regulations and requirements, regulatory or otherwise, and governing payment processing, which could change or be reinterpreted to make it difficult or impossible for us to comply. For example, according to Announcement No. 10 (2018) of the People's Bank of China issued in July 2018 (the "Announcement No. 10"), companies that refuse to accept cash payment should rectify such noncompliance. According to People's Bank of China's interpretation of Announcement No. 10, e-commerce platforms, self-service counters and other companies (i) that offer products and services online and in a cashier-less manner, (ii) whose entire customer purchase process does not involve payment or receipt of cash, and (iii) who have obtained consent from customers to use electronic payment methods, may use electronic payment methods instead of accepting cash. The People's Bank of China further issued Announcement No. 18 (2020) in December 2020 (the "Announcement No. 18"). Pursuant to Announcement No. 18, large and medium-sized commercial institutions including catering service providers shall establish cash collection and payment channels at their business places. If all transactions, payments, and services are completed through the internet, business entities shall publicize payment methods in advance. As of the date of this annual report, we have not been subject to monetary penalties in connection with such noncompliance. However, we cannot assure you that the relevant governmental authorities will have the same interpretation. If we fail to comply with these rules or requirements, we may be subject to fines and higher transaction fees or no longer be able to offer certain payment methods, and our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, we accept a variety of payment methods, including but not limited to, Weixin Pay, Alipay and Union Pay. We pay these payment providers varying service fees, which may increase over time and raise our operating costs. We may also be subject to fraud, security breaches and other illegal activities in connection with the various payment methods we offer.

We use software licensed from third parties. Our ability to provide customers with a high-quality online experience also depends on the satisfactory performance, reliability and availability of software licensed from third parties.

We use software licensed from third parties. Any system interruptions caused by telecommunications failures, computer viruses, or hacking or other attempts to harm the software licensed from third parties that result in the unavailability of our mobile apps or reduced performance would affect the attractiveness of the services offered on our platform. We may encounter problems when software licensed from third parties is upgraded and undetected programming errors could adversely affect the performance of the software we use to provide our services. In addition, we could be required to seek licenses from third parties in order to continue using the open source software we are permitted to use currently, in which case licenses may not be available on terms that are acceptable to us, or at all. Alternatively, we may need to re-engineer our platform or discontinue the use of portions of the functionality provided by our platforms. Our inability to use third-party software could result in disruptions to our business, or delays in the development of future offerings or enhancements of our existing platforms, which could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Unexpected termination of leases, failure to renew the lease of our existing premises or to renew such leases at acceptable terms, or failures to obtain necessary real-estate certificates, could materially and adversely affect our business.

We lease the premises for all of our self-operated stores. Generally, lessors may terminate our lease agreements unilaterally upon advance notice. In addition, the PRC government has the statutory power to acquire any land in the PRC. As a result, we may be subject to compulsory acquisition, closure or demolition of any of the properties on which our stores are situated. Although we may receive liquidated damages or compensation if our leases are terminated unexpectedly, we may be forced to suspend operations of the relevant store and divert management attention, time and costs to find a new site and relocate our store, which will negatively affect our business and results of operations.

We generally enter into long-term leases of approximately three years with an option to renew for our stores. Rent for our leases is typically fixed amounts and subject to annual or biennially incremental increases as stipulated in the lease agreements. We cannot assure you that we would be able to renew the relevant lease agreements without substantial additional cost or increase in the rental cost payable by us. If a lease agreement is renewed at a rent substantially higher than the current rate, or currently existing favorable terms granted by the lessor are not extended, our business and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected. If we are unable to renew the leases for our store sites, we will have to close or relocate the store, which could subject us to decoration and other costs and risks, and loss of existing customers, and could have a material and adverse effect on our business and results of operations. In addition, the relocated store may not perform as well as the existing store.

We entered into a cooperation agreement with the Xiamen municipal government to acquire our new headquarters under favorable pricing terms that came with certain commitments, including meeting certain requirements around tax contribution, operating performance and capital investments. However, as of the date of this annual report, it is unlikely that we will be able to fulfill our commitments to the Xiamen municipal government under the cooperation agreement. We are currently in communication with the Xiamen municipal government to discuss a variety of solutions, including to increase our payment or to return several floors of our headquarters, or to modify or enter into a new cooperation agreement. Additionally, we are in the process of obtaining the real property ownership certificate for our headquarters, but we have not obtained such certificate as of the date of this annual report. We cannot assure you that we would be able to amend our agreement without substantial additional cost and expenses, or at all, nor can we assure you that we can successfully obtain the necessary real property certificate. If we are unable to amend our agreement with the Xiamen municipal government, we may be liable for breach of contract. If we are unable to obtain the real property certificate, under applicable PRC property law, the property right of the real estate may not be effectively transferred to us until it is registered by the relevant registration authority, and therefore we may not have the full legal right to use, own or dispose the real estate.

Certain lease agreements of our leased properties have not been registered with the relevant PRC government authorities as required by PRC law, which may expose us to potential fines.

Under PRC law, all lease agreements are required to be registered with the local land and real estate administration bureau. Although failure to do so does not in itself invalidate the leases, the lessees may not be able to defend these leases against bona fide third parties and may also be exposed to potential fines if they fail to rectify such noncompliance within the prescribed time frame after receiving notice from the relevant PRC government authorities. The penalty ranges from RMB1,000 to RMB10,000 for each unregistered lease, at the discretion of the relevant authority. As of the date of this annual report, the lease agreements for some of our leased properties in China, including leased properties for our stores, have not been registered with the relevant PRC government authorities. In the event that any fine is imposed on us for our failure to register our lease agreements, we may not be able to recover such losses from the lessors.

Our rights to use our leased properties could be challenged by property owners or other third parties, which may disrupt our operations and incur relocation costs.

As of the date of this annual report, the lessors of certain of our leased properties in China failed to provide us with valid property ownership certificates or authorizations from the property owners for the lessors to sublease the properties. There is a risk that such lessors may not have the relevant property ownership certificates or the right to lease or sublease such properties to us, in which case the relevant lease agreements may be deemed invalid and we may be forced to vacate these properties, which could interrupt our business operations and incur relocation costs. Moreover, if our lease agreements are challenged by third parties, it could result in diversion of management attention and cause us to incur costs associated with defending such actions, even if such challenges are ultimately determined in our favor.

We may experience significant liability claims or complaints from customers, or adverse publicity involving our products, our services or our stores.

We face an inherent risk of liability claims or complaints from our customers. Most of the customer complaints we received were related to the taste and temperature of our food and beverage offerings, consistency in the quality of our products, a long waiting time and the service quality of our staff. We take these complaints seriously and endeavor to reduce such complaints by implementing various remedial measures. Nevertheless, we cannot assure you that we can successfully prevent or address all customer complaints.

Any complaints or claims against us, even if meritless and unsuccessful, may divert management attention and other resources from our business and adversely affect our business and operations. Customers may lose confidence in us and our brand, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations. Furthermore, negative publicity including but not limited to negative online reviews on social media and crowd-sourced review platforms, industry findings or media reports related to food quality, safety, public health concerns, illness, injury or government, whether or not accurate, and whether or not concerning our products, can adversely affect our business, results of operations and reputation.

If we encounter contractual disputes or dispute of other natures with our suppliers, business partners and other third parties, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

We deal with and enter into contracts with our suppliers, business partners and other third parties in our ordinary course of business. If we encounter contractual disputes with our suppliers, business partners and other third parties or other claims by such parties, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected. The contractual terms between us and our suppliers, business partners or other third parties vary depending on factors such as our business needs, our past dealings with the counterparty, among others. The terms of such contracts are generally negotiated on a case-by-case basis and are commercially reasonable at the time they are entered into. From time to time, there may be contractual disputes between us and suppliers, business partners or other third parties relating to our business.

In addition, we may be subject to other claims relating to our transactions with our suppliers, business partners and other third parties. For example, in November 2020, UCAR Inc. approached us seeking payment for certain historical expenses UCAR Inc. allegedly paid on behalf of us, including but not limited to the costs incurred for leasehold improvements of certain office space that we occupied. In September 2021, UCAR Inc. initiated an arbitration proceeding against Luckin China in China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, seeking to recover its costs and other relevant expenses allegedly incurred of approximately RMB38.4 million. As of December 31, 2022, the arbitration proceeding was closed with the final judgment that we were obligated to pay approximately RMB 31.7 million for the leasehold improvement and related legal fees. We have made full payment and the ending balance of this liability was nil as of December 31, 2022. There are uncertainties as to whether there would be other similar events and whether any of them would evolve into litigation or other formal proceedings.

Any such disputes may not only be costly and time-consuming to solve, but may also harm our reputation, subject us to contractual liabilities or significant settlement amounts, or otherwise adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We, our directors, management and employees may be subject to litigation and regulatory investigations and proceedings, such as claims in relation to commercial, food safety, labor, employment, privacy, information security, antitrust, securities matters or any other subject, and may not always be successful in defending ourselves against such claims or proceedings.

We face potential liability, expenses for legal claims and harm due to our business nature. For example, customers could assert legal claims against us in connection with personal injuries related to food poisoning or tampering. The PRC government, media outlets and public advocacy groups have been increasingly focused on customer protection in recent years. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview — Regulation—Regulations Relating to Customer Rights Protection.” Selling of defective products may expose us to liabilities associated with customer protection laws. Sellers are responsible for compensation on customer’s loss even if the contamination of food is not caused by the sellers. Thus, we may also be held liable if our suppliers or other business partners fail to comply with applicable food-safety related rules and regulations. Though we can ask the responsible parties for indemnity, our reputation could still be adversely affected.

From time to time, we are subject to legal and administrative proceedings and claims arising in the ordinary course of business relating to, among other things, lease and other commercial disputes, contract disputes, trademark and other intellectual property infringement claims, personal injury claims and employment-related claims, such as wage and hour and wrongful termination. Unless otherwise indicated, we cannot reasonably predict the outcome of these legal proceedings, nor can we estimate the amount of loss, or range of loss, if any, that may result from these proceedings. An adverse outcome in certain of these proceedings could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations, and could cause the market value of our ADSs and/or other securities to decline. In addition, our directors, management and employees may from time to time be subject to litigation and regulatory investigations and proceedings or otherwise face potential liability and expense in relation to commercial, labor, employment, privacy, information security, antitrust, securities or other matters, which could adversely affect our reputation and results of operations.

As a public company, we may face additional exposure to claims and lawsuits. We are subject to a number of legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries by governmental agencies, as well as a number of lawsuits filed by purchasers of our securities, including class action lawsuits. See “Item 8. Financial Information—8.A. Consolidated Statements and Other Financial Information—Legal Proceedings” for more details. We anticipate that we will continue to be a target for lawsuits in the future, including other class action lawsuits. There can be no assurance that we will be able to prevail in our defense or reverse any unfavorable judgment on appeal, and we may decide to settle lawsuits on unfavorable terms. Any adverse outcome of these cases, including any plaintiffs’ appeal of the judgment in these cases, could result in payments of substantial monetary damages or fines, or changes to our business practices, and thus have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and reputation. In addition, there can be no assurance that our insurance carriers will cover all or part of the defense costs, or any liabilities that may arise from these matters. Following disclosure of the Fabricated Transactions, we have had difficulties in obtaining desirable insurance coverage, or any insurance coverage, regarding legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries, and we cannot assure you with any certainty that we will be able to obtain such coverage in the future. The litigation process may utilize a significant portion of our cash resources and divert management’s attention from the day-to-day operations of our company, all of which could harm our business. We also may be subject to claims for indemnification related to these matters, and we cannot predict the impact that indemnification claims may have on our business or financial results.

Allegations against us or our management may harm our reputation and have a material and adverse impact on our business, results of operations and cash flows.

We have been, and may become, subject to allegations brought by our competitors, customers, business partners, short sellers, investment research firms or other individuals or entities. Any such allegation, with or without merit, or any perceived unfair, unethical, fraudulent or inappropriate business practice by us or perceived malfeasance by our management could harm our reputation and user base and distract our management from our daily operations. For example, on January 3, 2021, our Board received a letter from certain employees containing allegations against our Chairman and CEO, Dr. Jinyi Guo. The Board immediately formed an independent panel, led by one of the joint provisional liquidators appointed by the Cayman Court and joined by two independent non-executive directors, to conduct an investigation into the allegations and the circumstances of the letter. The independent panel, with the assistance of outside counsels and forensic accounting experts, conducted a comprehensive and independent investigation into the allegations contained in the letter. On February 17, 2021, we announced that the independent panel found no substantiating evidence with respect to the alleged misconduct in the letter, and had reported its findings to the Board. Allegations against us or our management may also generate negative publicity that significantly harms our reputation, which may materially and adversely affect our user base and our ability to attract customers. In addition to the related cost, managing and defending such allegations can significantly divert management’s attention. All of these could have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations and cash flows.

We may be subject to intellectual property infringement claims from time to time, which are expensive to defend and may disrupt our business if we are found liable.

We cannot be certain that our operations or any aspects of our business do not or will not infringe upon or otherwise violate intellectual property rights held by third parties. We have been subject to legal proceedings and claims relating to the intellectual property rights of others, such as certain software vendors, from time to time. Such legal proceedings and claims could be costly and divert our management’s attention and other resources from our business and operations.

There could also be existing intellectual property of which we are not aware that our products may inadvertently infringe. Holders of intellectual property purportedly relating to some aspects of our technology platform or business have sought and may continue to seek to enforce such intellectual property against us in China, the United States or any other jurisdictions. To defend against these infringement claims, regardless of their merits, we have incurred and may continue to incur significant expenses, and we have been and may continue to be forced to divert our management's time and other resources from our business and operations. If we are found to have violated the intellectual property rights of others, we may be subject to significant monetary liabilities for our infringement activities. In that event, we may also be restricted or prohibited from using such intellectual property and thus incur licensing fees or be forced to develop alternatives of our own. These consequences, among others, may substantially disrupt our business and operations, and our financial position and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

We may not be able to prevent others from unauthorized use of our intellectual property, which could harm our business and competitive position.

We regard our trademarks, software copyrights, copyright of works, domain names, know-how, proprietary technologies and similar intellectual property as critical to our success. There have been instances where third parties registered social media accounts under names similar to our trademarks in order to gain illegal benefits, against which we have initiated legal proceedings, and we may continue to become an attractive target to such attacks in the future with the increasing recognition of our brand. Any of our intellectual property rights could be challenged, invalidated, circumvented or misappropriated, or such intellectual property may not be sufficient to provide us with competitive advantages. We may also face challenges from third parties relating to the use or ownership of trademarks, domain names and other intellectual property. In addition, there can be no assurance that (i) our pending applications for intellectual property rights will be approved, (ii) all of our intellectual property rights will be adequately protected, or (iii) our intellectual property rights will not be challenged or disputed by third parties, including the ownership of such rights, or found by a judicial authority to be invalid or unenforceable.

We are subject to regulations, and future regulations may impose additional requirements and obligations on our business or otherwise materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

The industries in which we operate are highly regulated. As China's coffee industry as well as China's food and beverage market in general is evolving rapidly and the PRC government is very concerned about customer protection, new laws and regulations may be adopted to address new issues that arise from time to time and to impose additional restrictions on our current business.

As we continue to grow in scale and significance, we expect to face increased scrutiny, which will, at a minimum, result in our having to increase our investment in compliance and related capabilities and systems. The increasing sophistication and development of our customer base will also increase the need for higher standards of customer protection, privacy protection and dispute management. Any increased involvement in inquiries or investigations could result in significantly higher legal and other costs and diversion of management and other resources, as well as negative publicity, which could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

Our operations depend on the performance of the mobile-based systems, telecommunications networks and digital infrastructure in China.

Our new retail business model relies heavily on mobile-based systems, telecommunications networks and digital infrastructure. Almost all access to the internet in China is maintained through state-owned telecommunication operators under the administrative control and regulatory supervision of the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology. Moreover, we primarily rely on a limited number of telecommunication service providers to provide us with data communications capacity through local telecommunications lines and internet data centers to host our servers. We have limited access to alternative networks or services in the event of disruptions, failures or other problems with China's internet infrastructure or the fixed telecommunications networks provided by telecommunication service providers. With the expansion of our business, we may be required to upgrade our technology and infrastructure to keep up with the increasing traffic on our mobile apps. We cannot assure you that the digital infrastructure and the telecommunications networks in China will be able to support the demands associated with the continued growth in digital usage.

In addition, we have no control over the costs of the services provided by telecommunication service providers. If the prices we pay for telecommunications and digital services rise significantly, our results of operations may be materially and adversely affected. Furthermore, if data access fees or other charges to mobile users increase, our user traffic may decline and our business may be harmed.

If we fail to manage our inventory effectively, our results of operations, financial condition and liquidity may be materially and adversely affected.

Our inventories are mostly coffee beans, coffee condiments, tea leaves, tea powder and pre-made food and beverage items with short shelf life, which require us to manage our inventory effectively. We rely on our demand forecasts for various kinds of raw materials and pre-made products to make purchase decisions and to manage our inventory. Such demand, however, can change significantly between the time inventory is ordered and the date by which we hope to sell it. Demand may be affected by seasonality, new product launches, pricing and discounts, product defects, changes in customer spending patterns, changes in customer tastes and other factors, and our customers may not order products in the quantities that we expect. In addition, when we begin selling a new product, it may be difficult to establish supplier relationships, determine appropriate product selection, and accurately forecast demand. The acquisition of certain types of inventory may require significant lead time and prepayment and they may not be returnable.

Furthermore, as we plan to continue expanding our product offerings, we expect to include a wider variety of products and raw materials in our inventory, which will make it more challenging for us to manage our inventory and logistics effectively. We cannot guarantee that our inventory levels will be able to meet the demands of customers, which may adversely affect our sales. We also cannot guarantee that all of our inventories can be consumed within their shelf lives. If we fail to manage our inventory effectively, we may be subject to a heightened risk of inventory obsolescence, a decline in inventory value, and significant inventory write-downs or write-offs. Any of the above may materially and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. On the other hand, if we underestimate demand for our products, or if our suppliers fail to supply quality raw materials and pre-made products in a timely manner, we may experience inventory shortages, which might result in diminished brand loyalty and lost revenues, any of which could harm our business and reputation.

We have granted share-based awards in the past and will continue to grant share-based awards in the future, which may have an adverse effect on our future profit. Exercise of the share-based awards granted will increase the number of our shares in circulation, which may adversely affect the market price of our shares.

We adopted a share incentive plan in January 2019 (the “2019 Share Option Plan”) to enhance our ability to attract and retain exceptionally qualified individuals and to encourage them to acquire a proprietary interest in our growth and performance. The maximum aggregate number of Ordinary Shares we are authorized to issue pursuant to all awards under the 2019 Share Option Plan is 79,015,500 Ordinary Shares. As of March 31, 2023, 66,695,568 options (excluding any granted options that were subsequently canceled) have been granted with 13,306,680 vested yet not exercised and 2,907,808 unvested options under the 2019 Share Option Plan. We also adopted an equity incentive plan in January 2021 (the “2021 Equity Incentive Plan”) to retain, attract and motivate employees and directors by providing them with equity incentives. The maximum aggregate number of Ordinary Shares we are authorized to issue pursuant to all awards under the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan is 222,769,232 Ordinary Shares. As of March 31, 2023, restricted share units to receive ADSs representing 128,816,432 Class A Ordinary Shares (excluding any granted restricted share units that were subsequently canceled) have been granted with restricted share units to receive ADSs representing 75,769,328 Class A Ordinary Shares vested under the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan. See “Item 6. Directors, Senior Management and Employees—6.B. Compensation—Share Incentive Plan.” For the avoidance of doubt, the 2019 Share Option Plan (and any award offered thereunder) is not replaced or superseded by the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan and both plans continue to operate contemporaneously and independently.

We believe the granting of share-based awards is of significant importance to our ability to attract and retain key personnel and employees, and we expect to grant share-based compensation to employees in the future. As a result, our expenses associated with share-based compensation may increase, which may have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

Our business is subject to seasonal fluctuations and unexpected interruptions.

We experience seasonality in our business. We generally experience fewer purchase orders during holiday seasons, such as the Chinese New Year holidays. We also experience fluctuations in the types of products sold as a result of weather changes that affect consumers' preference for different drinks, which have different average selling prices. For example, our sales in the third quarter of 2022 benefited from the relatively hot weather in the summer, as some of our higher margin iced drinks were predominantly sold in hotter months, as compared to relatively colder seasons. However, we cannot guarantee that we will continue to benefit from relatively hotter weather or that such trend will be indicative of our future performance. Therefore, our financial condition and results of operations for future quarters may continue to fluctuate and our historical quarterly results may not be comparable to future quarters. As a result, the trading price of the ADSs may fluctuate from time to time due to seasonality.

Climate change may materially adversely affect our business and financial condition.

The impacts of climate change may materially and adversely impact the cost, production and financial performance of our operations. For example, the supply and price of the raw materials and pre-made products we purchase can be affected by multiple factors which may be caused by or exacerbated by climate change. Further, any impacts to our business and financial condition as a result of climate change are likely to occur over a sustained period of time and are therefore difficult to quantify with any degree of specificity. For example, extreme weather events may result in adverse physical effects on portions of our plants and facilities, which could disrupt our supply chain and ultimately our business operations. In addition, disruption of transportation and distribution systems could result in reduced operational efficiency and customer service interruption. Climate related events have the potential to disrupt our business, including the business of our suppliers, and may cause us to experience higher attrition, losses and additional costs to resume operations.

The growth and profitability of our business depend on the level of customer demand and discretionary spending in China. A severe or prolonged downturn in China's economy could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

China's coffee industry as well as China's food and beverage market in general is affected by macroeconomic factors, including changes in international, national, regional and local economic conditions, employment levels, customer demand and discretionary spending. All of our stores are located in China and accordingly, our results of operations are affected by the macroeconomic conditions in China. Any deterioration of the PRC economy, decrease in disposable customer income and fear of a recession may lead to a reduction of customer demand and average spending per customer at our stores, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Moreover, the occurrence of a financial crisis, sovereign debt crisis, banking crisis or other disruptions in the global financial markets may have a material and adverse impact on our operating results.

Changes in accounting standards and subjective assumptions, estimates and judgments by management related to complex accounting matters could significantly affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Generally accepted accounting principles and related accounting pronouncements, implementation guidelines and interpretations with regard to a wide range of matters that are relevant to our business, including revenue recognition, impairment of long-lived assets and other intangible assets, lease accounting, share-based compensation and recoverability of deferred tax assets are highly complex and involve many subjective assumptions, estimates and judgments. Changes in these rules or their interpretation or changes in underlying assumptions, estimates or judgments could significantly change our reported or expected financial performance or financial condition. New accounting guidance may require systems and other changes that could increase our operating costs and/or change our financial statements.

We have limited insurance coverage, which could expose us to significant costs and business disruption.

We have obtained insurance to cover certain potential risks and liabilities that we face. However, insurance companies in China offer limited business insurance products. As a result, we may not be able to acquire insurance for all the potential risks we face in our operations in China, and our coverage may not be adequate to compensate for all losses that may occur, particularly with respect to loss of business or operations. As of the date of this annual report, we do not have adequate business interruption insurance to cover our operations and potential product liabilities. We also do not maintain key-man life insurance. Following disclosure of the Fabricated Transactions, we have had difficulties in obtaining desirable insurance coverage, or any insurance coverage, regarding legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries, and we cannot assure you with any certainty that we will be able to obtain such coverage in the future.

There can be no assurance that our insurance coverage is sufficient to prevent us from any loss or that we will be able to successfully claim our losses under our current insurance policy on a timely basis, or at all. If we incur any loss that is not covered by our insurance policies, or the compensated amount is significantly less than our actual loss, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

Risks Relating to Our Corporate Structure

We are a Cayman Islands holding company. As a result, you may experience difficulties in effecting service of legal process, enforcing foreign judgments or bringing actions in China against us or our management based on foreign laws.

We are a holding company with no operations of our own. We conduct substantially all of our operations in China through our subsidiaries in China and substantially all of our assets are located in China. As such, investors in our ADSs are not purchasing equity securities of our subsidiaries that have substantive business operations in China but instead are purchasing equity securities of a Cayman Islands holding company. In addition, all of our directors and executive officers except Mr. Joel A. Getz (including Dr. Jinyi Guo, Wenbao Cao, Feng Liu, Yang Cha, Sean Shao, Shaoqiang (Gary) Liu, Qianli Liu, Weihao (Michael) Chen, Jun Liu, Jing An, Reinout Hendrik Schakel, Gang Wu, Fei Yang, Shan Jiang and Weiming Zhou) reside within the PRC for a significant portion of the time. See “Item 6. Directors, Senior Management and Employees — 6.A Directors and Senior Management” for the names of our executive officers. As a result, it may be difficult for our shareholders to effect service of process upon us or those persons residing inside China. In addition, China does not have treaties providing for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments of courts with the Cayman Islands, United States and many other countries and regions.

Therefore, recognition and enforcement in China of judgments of a court in any of these non-PRC jurisdictions in relation to any matter not subject to a binding arbitration provision may be difficult or impossible.

We established the VIE to hold certain foreign restricted licenses and permits that we might need in the future. There are substantial uncertainties regarding the interpretation and application of current and future PRC laws, regulations, and rules relating to the agreements that establish the VIE structure, including potential future actions by the PRC government, which could affect the enforceability of our contractual arrangements with the VIE and, consequently, affect our financial condition and results of operations. If the PRC government finds such agreements noncompliant with relevant PRC laws, regulations, and rules, or if these laws, regulations, and rules or the interpretation thereof change in the future, we could be subject to severe penalties or be forced to relinquish our interests in the VIE.

PRC laws and regulations prohibit or limit foreign ownership in certain telecommunication related businesses, for example, value-added telecommunication services. Pursuant to the list of special management measures for the market entry of foreign investment, or the Negative List, published by the National Development and Reform Commission and the Ministry of Commerce on December 27, 2021 and effective on January 1, 2022, with a few exceptions, foreign investors are not allowed to own more than 50% of the equity interests in a value-added telecommunication service provider and the major foreign investor must have experience in providing value-added telecommunications services overseas and maintain a good track record. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Regulation—Regulations Relating to Value-Added Telecommunication Services.”

Additionally, on July 6, 2021, the General Office of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and the General Office of the State Council jointly promulgated the Opinions on Strictly Cracking Down on Illegal Securities Activities in Accordance with Law, which require the relevant governmental authorities to accelerate rulemaking related to overseas issuance and listing of securities and cross-border data flow and legal enforcement. As there are still uncertainties regarding the interpretation and implementation of such regulatory guidance, we cannot assure you that we would be able to comply with new regulatory requirements relating to our future overseas capital raising activities or the maintenance of the status of overseas listing and we may become subject to more stringent requirements with respect to matters including data privacy, cross-border investigation and enforcement of legal claims.

We are a Cayman Islands company and our wholly owned PRC subsidiaries are currently considered foreign-invested enterprise. Accordingly, our PRC subsidiaries are not eligible to provide value-added telecommunication services in China. To hold the foreign restricted licenses and permits which we might need in the future, such as the ICP license, we established the VIE. The VIE used to hold some of our intellectual properties that have since been transferred. Beijing WFOE has entered into a series of contractual arrangements with the VIE and its shareholders, which enable us to (i) exercise effective control over the VIE, (ii) receive substantially all of the economic benefits of the VIE, and (iii) have an exclusive option to purchase all or part of the equity interests and assets in the VIE when and to the extent permitted by PRC law. As a result of these contractual arrangements, we have control over and are the primary beneficiary of the VIE and hence consolidate its financial results under U.S. GAAP. However, our control over the VIE is through contractual arrangements, not equity ownership. The VIE is owned by certain nominee shareholders, not us. Investors who are non-PRC residents may not directly hold equity interests in the VIE under current PRC laws and regulations. Our VIE is consolidated for accounting purposes, but the Company does not own equity in it. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.C. Organizational Structure—Contractual Arrangements with the VIE and Its Nominee Shareholders” for further details.

Our contractual arrangements with the VIE have not been tested in court. If the PRC government finds that our contractual arrangements do not comply with its restrictions on foreign investment in the value-added telecommunication services, if the regulations having an impact on the contractual arrangements change or are interpreted differently in the future, or if the PRC government otherwise finds that we or the VIEs are in violation of PRC laws or regulations or lack the necessary permits or licenses to operate our business, the relevant PRC regulatory authorities, including the MIIT, would have broad discretion in dealing with such violations or failures, including, without limitation:

- revoking the business licenses and/or operating licenses of such entities;
- discontinuing or placing restrictions or onerous conditions on our operation through any transactions between our PRC subsidiaries and the VIE;
- imposing fines, confiscating the income from our PRC subsidiaries or the VIE, or imposing other requirements with which we or the VIE may not be able to comply;
- requiring us to restructure our ownership structure or operations, including terminating the contractual arrangements with the VIE and deregistering the equity pledges of the VIE, which in turn would affect our ability to consolidate, derive economic interests from, or exert effective control over the VIE; or
- restricting or prohibiting our use of the proceeds of financing activities to finance our business and operations in China.

Any of these actions could cause significant disruptions to our business operations and severely damage our reputation, which would in turn materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations, and our securities could decline in value or become worthless as a result. In addition, new PRC laws, regulations, and rules may be introduced to impose additional requirements, posing additional challenges to our corporate structure and contractual arrangements. Such events could result in a material change in our operations and a material change in the value of our securities, including that they could cause the value of such securities to significantly decline or become worthless. If any of these occurrences results in our inability to direct the activities of the VIE or our failure to receive the economic benefits from the VIE and/or our inability to claim our contractual control rights over the assets of the VIE, we may not be able to consolidate the entity in our consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Any failure by the VIE or its shareholders to perform their obligations under our contractual arrangements with them could have a material adverse effect on our business.

PRC laws and regulations prohibit or limit foreign ownership in certain telecommunication related businesses. To comply with these foreign ownership restrictions, we rely on contractual arrangements with the VIE rather than equity ownership in it to use, or otherwise benefit from, certain foreign restricted licenses and permits that we might need in the future, such as the ICP license held by the VIE.

However, these contractual arrangements may not be as effective as direct ownership in providing us with control over our affiliated entities. Any of our affiliated entities, including the VIE and its shareholders, could breach their contractual arrangements with us by, among other things, failing to conduct their operations in an acceptable manner or taking other actions that are detrimental to our interests. In the event that the shareholders of the VIE breach the terms of these contractual arrangements and voluntarily liquidate the VIE, or the VIE declares bankruptcy and all or part of its assets become subject to liens or rights of third-party creditors, or are otherwise disposed of without our consent, we may be unable to conduct some of our business operations or otherwise benefit from the assets held by our affiliated entities, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The enforceability of the contractual agreements between us, the VIE and its shareholders depends to a large extent upon whether the VIE and its shareholders will fulfill these contractual agreements. Their interests in enforcing these contractual agreements may not align with our interests or the interests of our shareholders. If their interest diverges from that of our company and other shareholders, it may potentially increase the risk that they could seek to act contrary to these contractual arrangements. If the VIE or its shareholders fail to perform their respective obligations under the contractual arrangements, we may have to incur substantial costs and expend additional resources to enforce such arrangements. We may also have to rely on legal remedies under PRC law, including seeking specific performance or injunctive relief, and contractual remedies, which we cannot assure you will be sufficient or effective under PRC law. Our contractual arrangements are governed by PRC law and provide for the resolution of disputes through litigation in China. Accordingly, these agreements would be interpreted in accordance with PRC law and any disputes would be resolved in accordance with PRC legal procedures. The legal system in the PRC is not as developed as in some other jurisdictions, such as the United States. Meanwhile, there are very few precedents and little formal guidance as to how contractual arrangements in the context of a consolidated variable interest entity should be interpreted or enforced under PRC law. As a result, uncertainties in the PRC legal system and the interpretation of PRC laws could limit our ability to enforce these contractual arrangements.

There remain significant uncertainties regarding the ultimate outcome of such adjudication should legal action become necessary. In the event that we are unable to enforce these contractual arrangements, or if we suffer significant delay or other obstacles in the process of enforcing these contractual arrangements, we may not be able to exert effective control over the VIE, and our ability to hold the foreign restricted licenses and permits and conduct our business in the future may be negatively affected.

If any of our business operations carried out by our subsidiaries were to be restricted or prohibited from foreign investment or if our VIE structure were to be deemed as a method of foreign investment under any current or future PRC laws, regulations and rules, our current corporate structure, business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

On January 19, 2015, the PRC Ministry of Commerce (the “MOFCOM”), published the Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015). At the same time, MOFCOM published an accompanying explanatory note of the draft Foreign Investment Law (2015), which contains important information about the draft Foreign Investment Law (2015), including its drafting philosophy and principles, main table of contents, plans to transition to the new legal regime and treatment of business in China controlled by foreign-invested enterprises. The Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015) proposes significant changes to the PRC foreign investment legal regime and, when implemented, may have a significant impact on business in China controlled by foreign-invested enterprises primarily through contractual arrangements, such as our business. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Regulation—Regulations on Foreign Investment” for further details. MOFCOM suggests both registration and approval as potential options for the regulation of variable interest entity structures, depending on whether they are “Chinese” or “foreign controlled.” One of the core concepts of the draft Foreign Investment Law (2015) is “de facto control,” which emphasizes substance over form in determining whether an entity is “Chinese” or “foreign-controlled”. “Chinese investors” are individuals who are Chinese nationals, Chinese government agencies and any domestic enterprise controlled by Chinese nationals or government agencies. “Foreign investors” are foreign citizens, foreign governments, international organizations and entities controlled by foreign citizens and entities.

It is unclear whether our current corporate structure will be considered “Chinese” under the scheme of the Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015). In the event that our contractual arrangements with our VIE and shareholders of our VIE are not treated as a domestic investment and/or the foreign restricted licenses and permits held by the VIE are classified as a “prohibited business” in the Prohibited List or a “restricted business” in the Restricted List under the Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015) when officially enacted, such contractual arrangements may be deemed as invalid and illegal and we may be required to unwind the contractual arrangements and/or dispose of such business.

In December 2018, the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress of PRC published the Draft Foreign Investment Law (2018) for public comments. On March 15, 2019, the Foreign Investment Law was formally issued, which became effective on January 1, 2020. The Foreign Investment Law mainly focuses on foreign investment promotion, foreign investment protection and foreign investment management. Compared with the draft Foreign Investment Law (2015), the Foreign Investment Law does not mention concepts including “De facto control” and “controlling PRC companies by contracts or trusts,” nor did it specify the regulation on controlling through contractual arrangements.

However, since the Foreign Investment Law is relatively new, uncertainties still exist in relation to its interpretation and implementation. For example, the Foreign Investment Law of the PRC adds a catchall clause to the definition of “foreign investment” so that foreign investment, by its definition, includes “investments made by foreign investors in China through other means defined by other laws or administrative regulations or provisions promulgated by the State Council” without further elaboration on the meaning of “other means.” It leaves leeway for future legislation promulgated by the State Council to provide for contractual arrangements as a form of foreign investment. The Implementing Regulation of the Foreign Investment Law Regulations, or the FIL Interpretations, adopted by the State Council on December 12, 2019 also did not provide further clarification for such “other means.” In accordance with the FIL Interpretations, where a party concerned claims an investment agreement to be invalid on the basis that it is for investment in prohibited industries under the Negative List or it is for investment in restricted industries under the Negative List and violates the restrictions set out therein, the courts should support such claim. It leaves leeway for future legislations to be promulgated by competent PRC legislative institutions to provide for contractual arrangements as a form of foreign investment.

Furthermore, on December 19, 2020, the NDRC and MOFCOM promulgated the Foreign Investment Security Review Measures, which took effect on January 18, 2021.

Under the Foreign Investment Security Review Measures, investments in military, national defense-related areas or in locations in proximity to military facilities, or investments that would result in acquiring the actual control of assets in certain key sectors, such as critical agricultural products, energy and resources, equipment manufacturing, infrastructure, transport, cultural products and services, IT, internet products and services, financial services and technology sectors, are required to be approved by designated governmental authorities in advance. Although the term “investment through other means” is not clearly defined under the Foreign Investment Security Review Measures, we cannot rule out the possibility that control through contractual arrangement may be regarded as a form of actual control and therefore require approval from the competent governmental authority. As the Foreign Investment Security Review Measures were recently promulgated, there are great uncertainties with respect to its interpretation and implementation. Accordingly, there are substantial uncertainties as to whether our VIE structure may be deemed as a method of foreign investment in the future. If our VIE structure were to be deemed as a method of foreign investment under any future laws, regulations and rules, and if any of our business operations were to fall under the Negative List for foreign investment, we would need to take further actions in order to comply with these laws, regulations and rules, which may materially and adversely affect our current corporate structure, business, financial condition and results of operations.

Contractual arrangements in relation to the VIE may be subject to scrutiny by the PRC tax authorities, and they may determine that we or the VIE owe additional taxes, which could negatively affect our financial condition and the value of your investment.

Under applicable PRC laws and regulations, arrangements and transactions among related parties may be subject to audit or challenge by the PRC tax authorities within ten years after the taxable year when the transactions are conducted. We could face material and adverse tax consequences if the PRC tax authorities determine that the VIE contractual arrangements were not entered into on an arm's-length basis in such a way as to result in an impermissible reduction in taxes under applicable PRC laws, rules and regulations, and adjust the income of the VIE, if any, in the form of a transfer pricing adjustment. A transfer pricing adjustment could, among other things, result in a reduction of expense deductions recorded by the VIE for PRC tax purposes, which could in turn increase its tax liabilities without reducing our PRC subsidiaries' tax expenses. In addition, the PRC tax authorities may impose late payment fees and other penalties on the VIE for the adjusted but unpaid taxes according to the applicable regulations. Our financial position could be materially and adversely affected if the VIE's tax liabilities increase or if it is required to pay late payment fees and other penalties.

You may face difficulties in protecting your interests, and your ability to protect your rights through U.S. courts may be limited because we are incorporated under Cayman Islands law.

We are an exempted company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands. Our corporate affairs are governed by our memorandum and articles of association, the Cayman Islands Companies Act (2023 Revision) (the "Companies Act") and other applicable legislation and the common law of the Cayman Islands. The rights of shareholders to take action against our directors, actions by our minority shareholders and the fiduciary duties of our directors to us under Cayman Islands law are to a large extent governed by the common law of the Cayman Islands. The common law of the Cayman Islands is derived in part from comparatively limited judicial precedent in the Cayman Islands as well as from the common law of England, the decisions of whose courts are of persuasive authority, but are not binding, on a court in the Cayman Islands. The rights of our shareholders and the fiduciary duties of our directors under Cayman Islands law are not as clearly established as they would be under statutes or judicial precedent in some jurisdictions in the United States. In particular, the Cayman Islands have a less developed body of securities laws than the United States. Some U.S. states, such as Delaware, have more fully developed and judicially interpreted bodies of corporate law than the Cayman Islands. In addition, purchasers of our ADS do not have the same standing as purchasers of our Ordinary Shares under Cayman Islands law. Shareholders of Cayman Islands companies may not have standing to initiate a shareholder derivative action in a federal court of the United States.

Shareholders of Cayman Islands exempted companies like us have no general rights under Cayman Islands law to inspect corporate records or to obtain copies of lists of shareholders of these companies. Our directors have discretion under our sixth amended and restated articles of association to determine whether or not, and under what conditions, our corporate records may be inspected by our shareholders, but are not obliged to make them available to our shareholders. This may make it more difficult for you to obtain the information needed to establish any facts necessary for a shareholder motion or to solicit proxies from other shareholders in connection with a proxy contest.

Moreover, certain judgments obtained against us by our shareholders may not be enforceable. Substantially all of our assets are located outside the United States, and substantially all of our operations are conducted in China. In addition, most of our directors and officers are nationals and residents of countries other than the United States. Substantially all of the assets of these persons are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult or impossible for you to bring an action against us or against these individuals in the United States in the event that you believe that your rights have been infringed under the U.S. federal securities laws or otherwise. Even if you are successful in bringing an action of this kind, the laws of the Cayman Islands and of China may render you unable to enforce a judgment against our assets or the assets of our directors and officers.

As a result of all of the above, investors who purchase our ADS may have more difficulty in protecting their interests in the face of actions taken by our management or the Board than they would as public shareholders of a company incorporated in the United States.

Centurium Capital, our controlling shareholder, has had and will continue to have effective control over the outcome of shareholder actions in our company. The interests of Centurium Capital may not be aligned with the interests of our other shareholders and holders of the ADSs.

As of February 28, 2023, Centurium Capital, our controlling shareholder, beneficially owns through its affiliates 18.6 % of our total Class A Ordinary Shares, 100% of our total Class B Ordinary Shares and 96% of our total Senior Preferred Shares, representing 55.7 % of the voting power of all of our Ordinary Shares and Senior Preferred Shares as a single class. See “Item 6. Directors, Senior Management and Employees—6.E. Share Ownership.” Centurium Capital’s voting power gives it the power to control certain actions that require shareholder approval under Cayman Islands law and our memorandum and articles of association, including authorization of a plan of merger, changes to our memorandum and articles of association and an increase of our authorized share capital.

Centurium Capital’s voting control may cause transactions to occur that might not be beneficial to our other shareholders or you as a holder of the ADSs and may prevent transactions that could have been beneficial to our other shareholders or to you. For example, Centurium Capital’s voting control may prevent a transaction involving a change of control in us, including transactions in which you as a holder of the ADSs might otherwise receive a premium for the ADSs over the then-current market price. In addition, Centurium Capital is not prohibited from selling the controlling interest in us to a third party and may do so without your approval and without providing for a purchase of your ADSs. If Centurium Capital is acquired, otherwise undergoes a change of control or is subject to a corporate restructuring, an acquirer, successor or other third party may be entitled to exercise the voting control and contractual rights of Centurium Capital, and may do so in a manner that could vary significantly from that of Centurium Capital.

Risks Relating to Doing Business in China

Changes in China’s economic, political or social conditions or government policies could have a material adverse effect on our business and operations. The PRC government exerts substantial influence over the manner in which we conduct our business and may intervene in our offerings conducted overseas or foreign investment in China-based issuer. Any actions by the PRC government to exert more oversight and discretion could result in a material adverse change in our operations or hinder our ability to offer or continue to offer securities to investors. In such events, our Ordinary Shares and ADSs could decline in value or become worthless.

Substantially all of our assets and operations are located in China. Accordingly, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be influenced to a significant degree by political, economic and social conditions in China generally. The Chinese economy differs from the economies of most developed countries in many respects, including the level of government involvement, level of development, growth rate, control of foreign exchange and allocation of resources. Although the Chinese government has implemented measures emphasizing the utilization of market forces for economic reform, the reduction of state ownership of productive assets, and the establishment of improved corporate governance in business enterprises, a substantial portion of productive assets in China is still owned by the government. In addition, the Chinese government continues to play a significant role in regulating industry development by imposing industrial policies. The Chinese government also exercises significant control over China’s economic growth through allocating resources, controlling payment of foreign currency-denominated obligations, setting monetary policy and providing preferential treatment to particular industries or companies. Specifically, the PRC government has significant oversight over the conduct of our business and may intervene in our operations as the government deems appropriate, which may potentially result in a material adverse effect on our operations. The PRC government has also recently indicated an intent to exert more oversight over securities offerings that are conducted overseas and foreign investment in China-based issuers, which could impact our ability to raise capital in international capital markets. Any such action could significantly limit or completely hinder our ability to offer or continue to offer securities to investors and cause the value of such securities to significantly decline or be worthless.

While the Chinese economy has experienced significant growth over past decades, growth has been uneven, both geographically and across various sectors of the economy. Any adverse changes in economic conditions in China, in the policies of the Chinese government or in the laws and regulations in China could have a material adverse effect on the overall economic growth of China. Such developments could adversely affect our business and operating results, lead to a reduction in demand for our products and adversely affect our competitive position. The Chinese government has implemented various measures to encourage economic growth and guide the allocation of resources. Some of these measures may benefit the overall Chinese economy, but may have a negative effect on us. For example, our financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected by government control over capital investments or changes in tax regulations. In addition, in the past the Chinese government has implemented certain measures, including interest rate adjustment, to control the pace of economic growth. These measures may cause decreased economic activity in China, which may adversely affect our business and operating results.

Moreover, the PRC government has significant authority to exert influence on the ability of a China-based company, like us, to conduct its business, accept foreign investments or be listed on a U.S. stock exchange. For example, we face risks associated with recent statements and regulatory actions by the PRC government, including those related to regulatory approvals of offshore securities offerings, anti-monopoly regulatory investigations and actions, cybersecurity and data privacy compliance; also, the PRC government has recently indicated an intent to exert more oversight over overseas securities offerings and published a series of laws and regulations to regulate such transactions. See "Item 4. Information on the Company – 4.A. History and Development of the Company –Recent Regulatory Development" for more information about these new laws and regulations. If the CSRC, CAC or other PRC regulatory agencies determine that prior approval is required for any of our offerings of securities overseas or maintenance of the trading status of the ADSs, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to obtain such approval in a timely manner, or at all. The CSRC, CAC or other PRC regulatory agencies may also take actions requiring us, or making it advisable for us, not to proceed with such offering or maintain the trading status of our ADSs. If we proceed with any of such offering or maintain the trading status of our ADSs without obtaining the CSRC's, CAC's or other PRC regulatory agencies' approval to the extent it is required, or if we are unable to comply with any new approval requirements which might be adopted for offerings that we have completed, we may face regulatory actions or other sanctions from the CSRC, CAC or other PRC regulatory agencies. These regulatory agencies may impose fines and penalties on our operations in China, limit our ability to pay dividends outside of China or accept foreign investments, delay or restrict the repatriation of the proceeds from offering of securities overseas into China or take other actions that could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, as well as the trading price of our ADSs.

The PRC government may also intervene with or influence our operations as it deems appropriate to further regulatory, political and societal goals. The PRC government has recently published new policies that affected various industries, and we cannot rule out the possibility that it will in the future release regulations or policies regarding our industry that could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. While we believe that our business operations comply with relevant PRC laws and regulations currently in force in all material respects, we cannot guarantee that new rules or regulations promulgated in the future will not impose any additional requirement on us or otherwise tighten the regulations on companies like us. Any such action, once taken by the PRC government, could cause the value of our securities to significantly decline or become worthless.

Changes in laws, regulations and policies in China and uncertainties with respect to the PRC legal system could adversely affect us. Rules and regulations in China can change quickly with little advance notice.

We face various legal and operational risks and uncertainties as a company based in and primarily operating in China. Rules and regulations in China can change quickly with little advance notice. In addition, the interpretation and enforcement of PRC laws and regulations involve additional uncertainties. The PRC legal system is a civil law system based on written statutes. Unlike the common law system, prior court decisions under the civil law system may be cited for reference but have limited precedential value.

In 1979, the PRC government began to promulgate a comprehensive system of laws and regulations governing economic matters in general. The overall effect of legislation since then has significantly enhanced the protections afforded to various forms of foreign investments in China. However, China has not developed a fully integrated legal system, and recently enacted laws and regulations may not sufficiently cover all aspects of economic activities in China. Since PRC administrative and court authorities have significant discretion in interpreting and implementing statutory provisions and contractual terms, it may be difficult to evaluate the outcome of administrative and court proceedings and the level of legal protection we enjoy.

These uncertainties may affect our judgment on the relevance of legal requirements and our ability to enforce our contractual rights or tort claims. In addition, the regulatory uncertainties may be exploited through unmerited or frivolous legal actions or threats in attempts to extract payments or benefits from us.

Furthermore, the PRC legal system is based in part on government policies and internal rules, some of which are not published on a timely basis or at all and may have a retroactive effect. As a result, we may not be aware of our violation of any of these policies and rules until sometime after the violation. In addition, any administrative and court proceedings in China may be protracted, resulting in substantial costs and diversion of resources and management attention.

If the PCAOB is prevented from fully evaluating audits and quality control procedures of our auditor, investors may be deprived of the benefits of such PCAOB inspections.

Our auditor, the independent registered public accounting firm that issues the audit report included elsewhere in this annual report, as an auditor of companies that are traded publicly in the United States and a firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), or the PCAOB, is subject to laws in the United States pursuant to which the PCAOB conducts regular inspections to assess its compliance with the applicable professional standards.

On December 16, 2021, the PCAOB issued the HFCA Act Determination Report to notify the SEC of its determinations that the PCAOB was unable to inspect or investigate completely registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong, including our auditor. On December 15, 2022, the PCAOB announced that it was able to conduct inspections and investigations of PCAOB-registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong in 2022. The PCAOB vacated its previous 2021 Determinations accordingly. However, whether the PCAOB will continue to be able to satisfactorily conduct inspections and investigations of PCAOB-registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong is subject to uncertainty and depends on a number of factors out of our, and our auditor's, control, including positions taken by authorities of the PRC. If the PCAOB determines in the future that it no longer has full access to inspect and investigate accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong and we continue to use such accounting firm to conduct audit work, investors may be deprived of the benefits of such PCAOB inspections. In addition, we would be identified as a "Commission-Identified Issuer" under the HFCA Act following the filing of the annual report for the relevant fiscal year, and if we were so identified for two consecutive years, trading in our securities on U.S. markets would be prohibited under the HFCA Act.

Trading in our ADSs on the OTC may be prohibited under the HFCA Act, if the PCAOB determines in the future that it no longer has full access to inspect or fully investigate our auditors. The prohibition of trading in our ADSs on the OTC may materially and adversely affect the value of your investment. If this happens there is no certainty that we will be able to list our Ordinary Shares on a non-U.S. exchange or that a market for our Ordinary Shares will develop outside the United States.

As part of a continued regulatory focus in the United States on access to audit and other information currently protected by national law, in particular China's, the Holding Foreign Companies Accountable Act, or the HFCA Act, has been signed into law on December 18, 2020. The HFCA Act requires the SEC to prohibit the trading of securities of a Chinese or non-U.S. company on U.S. securities exchanges or the over-the-counter market if the PCAOB has determined that it has been unable to inspect or investigate completely registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong for two consecutive years because of a position taken by an authority in the company's jurisdiction.

On December 16, 2021, the PCAOB issued the HFCA Act Determination Report to notify the SEC of its determinations that the PCAOB was unable to inspect or investigate completely registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong, including our auditor. In May 2022, we were conclusively identified by the SEC under the HFCA Act as having filed audit reports issued by a registered public accounting firm that cannot be inspected or investigated completed by the PCAOB in connection with our filing of our annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021.

On August 26, 2022, the PCAOB signed a Statement of Protocol with the CSRC and the Ministry of Finance of the PRC, taking the first step toward opening access for the PCAOB to inspect and investigate registered public accounting firms headquartered in China completely. On December 15, 2022, the PCAOB announced that it was able to conduct inspections and investigations of PCAOB-registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong in 2022. The PCAOB vacated its previous 2021 Determinations accordingly. However, whether the PCAOB will continue to be able to satisfactorily conduct inspections and investigations of PCAOB-registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong is subject to uncertainty and depends on a number of factors out of our, and our auditor's, control, including positions taken by authorities of the PRC. The PCAOB is expected to continue to demand complete access to inspections and investigations against accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong in the future and states that it has already made plans to resume regular inspections in early 2023 and beyond. The PCAOB is required under the HFCA Act to make its determination on an annual basis with regards to its ability to inspect and investigate completely accounting firms based in the mainland China and Hong Kong. The possibility of being a "Commission-Identified Issuer" and risk of delisting could continue to adversely affect the trading price of our securities. If the PCAOB determines in the future that it no longer has full access to inspect and investigate accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong and we continue to use such accounting firm to conduct audit work, we would be identified as a "Commission-Identified Issuer" under the HFCAA following the filing of the annual report for the relevant fiscal year, and if we were so identified for two consecutive years, trading in our securities on U.S. markets would be prohibited under the HFCA Act. Such a trading prohibition would substantially impair your ability to sell or purchase our ADSs when you wish to do so, and the risk and uncertainty associated with delisting or trading prohibition would have a negative impact on the price of our ADSs. The threatened trading prohibition would significantly affect our ability to raise capital on terms acceptable to us, or at all, which would have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and prospects.

Various legislative and regulatory developments related to U.S.-listed China-based companies and other developments due to political tensions between the United States and China may have a material adverse impact on our listing and trading in the United States and the trading prices of our ADSs.

We may be affected by the legislative and regulatory developments related to U.S.-listed China-based companies. For example, on July 6, 2021, the General Office of the Communist Party of China Central Committee and the General Office of the State Council issued Several Opinions Concerning Lawfully and Strictly Cracking Down Illegal Securities Activities, pursuant to which the supervision of U.S.-listed China-based companies will be strengthened and the development of relevant regulatory systems in the PRC will be promoted. Furthermore, according to the Trial Administrative Measures of Overseas Securities Offering and Listing by Domestic Companies, which became effective on March 31, 2023, an overseas listed company shall file with the CSRC within three business days after the completion of its subsequent securities offering on the same market, and an overseas listed company shall file with the CSRC within three business days after its application of offering and listing on a different market. If an overseas listed company purchase PRC domestic assets through a single or multiple acquisitions, share swaps, shares transfers or other means, and such purchase constitutes direct or indirect listing of PRC domestic assets, a filing with the CSRC is also required. In addition, an overseas listed company is required to report to the CSRC the occurrence of any of the following material events within three business days after the occurrence and announcement thereof: (i) a change of control of the listed company; (ii) the investigation, sanction or other measures undertaken by any foreign securities regulatory agencies or relevant competent authorities in respect of the listed company; (iii) a change of listing status or transfer of listing segment; and (iv) the voluntary or mandatory delisting of the listed company. If there is any material change of the principal business of the listed company after the overseas offering and listing so that the listed company is no longer required to file with the CSRC, it shall file a specific report and a legal opinion issued by a domestic law firm to the CSRC within three business days after the occurrence hereof. Furthermore, on July 30, 2021, Gary Gensler, the chair of the SEC, released a statement that, among other things, outlined efforts by the SEC to seek certain disclosures from offshore issuers associated with China-based operating companies before their registration statements will be declared effective. The statement also indicated efforts of the SEC to engage in targeted additional reviews of filings for companies with significant China-based operations. Recently, there have been heightened tensions in international economic relations, such as those that between the United States and China, but also as a result of the conflict in Ukraine and sanctions on Russia. In addition, the political tensions between the United States and China have escalated due to, among other things, trade disputes, the COVID-19 outbreak, sanctions imposed by the U.S. Department of Treasury on certain officials of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and the central government of the PRC and the president executive orders in August 2020 that prohibit certain transactions with certain Chinese companies and their applications. Rising political tensions could reduce levels of trades, investments, technological exchanges and other economic activities between the two major economies, which would have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, there have been recent media reports on deliberations within the U.S. government regarding potentially limiting or restricting China-based companies from accessing U.S. capital markets. If any such deliberations were to materialize, the resulting legislation may have material and adverse impact on the stock performance of China-based issuers listed in the United States. Our ADS prices may be materially and adversely affected as a result of investors' general concern over China-based companies in light of any such developments.

Cash in our business in the PRC may not be available to fund operations or for other use outside of the PRC due to interventions in or the imposition of restrictions and limitations by the PRC government to the transfer of cash. We may rely on dividends and other distributions on equity paid by our PRC subsidiaries to fund any cash and financing requirements we may have, and any limitation on the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to make payments to us could have a material and adverse effect on our ability to conduct our business. In particular, the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to pay dividends may be subject to foreign exchange restrictions and dividends may be paid only out of the distributable profits of our PRC subsidiaries as defined under the PRC laws and regulations.

We are a Cayman Islands holding company and we rely principally on dividends and other distributions on equity from our PRC subsidiaries for our cash requirements, including for services of any debt we may incur. To the extent cash in the business is in the PRC or a PRC entity, the funds may not be available to fund operations or for other use outside of the PRC due to interventions in or the imposition of restrictions and limitations on the ability of Luckin Coffee Inc., its subsidiaries, or the VIE by the PRC government to transfer cash.

Our PRC subsidiaries' ability to distribute dividends is based upon their distributable earnings. Current PRC regulations permit our PRC subsidiaries to pay dividends to their respective shareholders only out of their accumulated profits, if any, determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations. In addition, each of our PRC subsidiaries and our VIE are required to set aside at least 10% of its after-tax profits each year, if any, to fund a statutory reserve until such reserve reaches 50% of its registered capital. Before January 1, 2020, each of our PRC subsidiaries as a Foreign Invested Enterprise (the "FIE"), is also required to further set aside a portion of its after-tax profits to fund the employee welfare fund, although the amount to be set aside, if any, is determined at its discretion. These reserves are not distributable as cash dividends. If our PRC subsidiaries incur debt on their own behalf in the future, the instruments governing the debt may restrict their ability to pay dividends or make other payments to us. Any limitation on the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to distribute dividends or other payments to their respective shareholders could materially and adversely limit our ability to grow, make investments or acquisitions that could be beneficial to our business, pay dividends or otherwise fund and conduct our business.

In addition, the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law and its implementation rules provide that a withholding tax rate of up to 10% will be applicable to dividends payable by Chinese companies to non-PRC-resident enterprises unless otherwise exempted or reduced according to treaties or arrangements between the PRC central government and governments of other countries or regions where the non-PRC resident enterprises are incorporated.

For details about the applicable PRC regulations and rules relating to such cash transfers through our Group, see "Item 4. Information on the Company—4.A. History and Development of the Company—Recent Regulatory Development—Restrictions on Foreign Exchange and the Ability to Transfer Cash between Entities, Across Borders and to U.S. Investors." and "— Governmental control of currency conversion may limit our ability to utilize our revenues effectively and affect the value of your investment."

The approval, filing or other requirements of the CSRC, the CAC or other PRC government authorities may be required under PRC law in connection with our offshore securities offering (including equity securities and debt securities), and, if required, we cannot predict whether or for how long we will be able to obtain such approval.

The Opinions on Strictly Cracking Down on Illegal Securities Activities emphasized the need to strengthen the administration over "illegal securities activities" and the supervision on overseas listings by China-based companies, and proposed to take effective measures, such as promoting the construction of relevant regulatory systems to deal with the risks and incidents faced by China-based overseas-listed companies, although such opinions did not specify the definition of "illegal securities activities."

On February 17, 2023, the CSRC released the Trial Administrative Measures of Overseas Securities Offering and Listing by Domestic Companies, or the Overseas Listing Trial Measures and five supporting guidelines, which came into effect on March 31, 2023. According to the Overseas Listing Trial Measures, (1) domestic companies that seek to offer or list securities overseas, both directly and indirectly, should fulfill the filing procedure and report relevant information to the CSRC; if a domestic company fails to complete the filing procedure or conceals any material fact or falsifies any major content in its filing documents, such domestic company may be subject to administrative penalties, such as order to rectify, warnings, fines, and its controlling shareholders, actual controllers, the person directly in charge and other directly liable persons may also be subject to administrative penalties, such as warnings and fines; (2) if the issuer meets both of the following conditions, the overseas offering and listing shall be determined as an indirect overseas offering and listing by a domestic company: (i) any of the total assets, net assets, revenues or profits of the domestic operating entities of the issuer in the most recent accounting year accounts for more than 50% of the corresponding figure in the issuer's audited consolidated financial statements for the same period; (ii) its major operational activities are carried out in China or its main places of business are located in China, or the senior managers in charge of operation and management of the issuer are mostly Chinese citizens or are domiciled in China; and (3) where a domestic company seeks to indirectly offer and list securities in an overseas market, the issuer shall designate a major domestic operating entity responsible for all filing procedures with the CSRC, and where an issuer makes an application for listing in an overseas market, the issuer shall submit filings with the CSRC within three business days after such application is submitted.

On the same day, the CSRC also held a press conference for the release of the Overseas Listing Trial Measures and issued the Notice on Administration for the Filing of Overseas Offering and Listing by Domestic Companies, which, among others, clarifies that the domestic companies that have already been listed overseas on or before the effective date of the Overseas Listing Trial Measures (i.e. March 31, 2023) shall be deemed as existing issuers, or the Existing Issuers. Existing Issuers are not required to complete the filling procedures, and they shall be required to file with the CSRC when subsequent matters such as refinancing are involved.

According to the Overseas Listing Trial Measures, an overseas listed company shall file with the CSRC within three business days after the completion of its subsequent securities offering on the same market, and an overseas listed company shall file with the CSRC within three business days after its application of its offering and listing on a different market. If an overseas listed company purchase PRC domestic assets through a single or multiple acquisitions, share swaps, shares transfers or other means, and such purchase constitutes direct or indirect listing of PRC domestic assets, a filing with the CSRC is also required. In addition, an overseas listed company is required to report to the CSRC the occurrence of any of the following material events within three business days after the occurrence and announcement thereof: (i) a change of control of the listed company; (ii) the investigation, sanction or other measures undertaken by any foreign securities regulatory agencies or relevant competent authorities in respect of the listed company; (iii) a change of listing status or transfer of listing segment; and (iv) the voluntary or mandatory delisting of the listed company. If there is any material change of the principal business of the listed company after the overseas offering and listing so that the listed company is no longer required to file with the CSRC, it shall file a specific report and a legal opinion issued by a domestic law firm to the CSRC within three business days after the occurrence hereof.

In addition, on December 28, 2021, the CAC and several other regulatory authorities in China jointly promulgated the Cybersecurity Review Measures, which came into effect on February 15, 2022 and replaced its previous version promulgated on April 13, 2020. Pursuant to the Cybersecurity Review Measures, (i) where the relevant activity affects or may affect national security, a CIIO that purchases network products and services, or an internet platform operator that conducts data process activities, shall be subject to the cybersecurity review, (ii) an application for cybersecurity review shall be made by an issuer who is an internet platform operator holding personal information of more than one million users before such issuer applies to list its securities on a foreign stock exchange, and (iii) relevant governmental authorities in the PRC may initiate cybersecurity review if they determine an operator's network products or services or data processing activities affect or may affect national security. As of the date of this annual report, we have not been required to go through a cybersecurity review by the CAC or other regulatory approvals in connection with maintaining our trading status in the U.S. In addition, (a) from time to time we have been communicating with the competent authorities and will closely monitor and assess further regulatory developments regarding cybersecurity and data privacy laws, including the development on cybersecurity review, and comply with the latest regulatory requirements; (b) we endeavor to improve our data security protection technologies and plan to engage external professional consultants to advise us on cybersecurity and data protection requirements, if needed. However, there remain uncertainties as to how the Cybersecurity Review Measures would be interpreted and enforced, and to what extent it may affect us.

If we do not receive prior approval or complete the filing, to the extent it is required, for any of our future offerings of securities overseas or to maintain the trading status of our ADSs, or if we inadvertently conclude that such prior approval or any filing is not required, the CSRC or other PRC regulatory agencies may take actions requiring us, or making it advisable for us, not to proceed with such offering or maintain the trading status of our ADSs. If we proceed with any of such offering or maintain the trading status of our ADSs without obtaining these regulatory agencies' approval or completing the filing to the extent it is required, or if we are unable to comply with any new approval requirements or regulatory requirements which might be adopted for offerings that we have completed prior to the publication of the above-referenced opinions, we may face regulatory actions or other sanctions from these regulatory agencies. These regulatory agencies may impose fines and penalties on our operations in China, limit our ability to pay dividends outside China, limit our operating privileges in China, delay or restrict the repatriation of the proceeds from offering of securities overseas into China or take other actions that could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, as well as the trading price of the ADSs. Additionally, if the CSRC or other relevant PRC regulatory agencies subsequently determine that such approval is required , we cannot guarantee that we will be able to obtain such approval in a timely manner, or at all. See also “Item 4. Information on the Company – 4.A. History and Development of the Company–Recent Regulatory Development–Potential CSRC Approval Required for the Maintenance of Trading of our ADSs” for details of potential approval requirements under the current PRC laws and regulations.

On January 5, 2023, the NDRC promulgated the Administrative Measures for the Approval and Registration of Medium and Long-term Foreign Debts of Enterprises, or the NDRC Measures, effective on February 10, 2023. Pursuant to the NDRC Measures, if a PRC enterprise or an offshore enterprise controlled by a PRC enterprise wishes to issue bonds outside the PRC with a maturity of more than one year, such PRC enterprise must, in advance of issuing such bonds, file certain prescribed documents with the NDRC and obtain a registration certificate from the NDRC in respect of such issue. According to the NDRC Measures, the NDRC will decide whether to accept a submission within five working days upon receipt of the submission and is expected to issue a registration certificate within three months after it accepts the submission. The enterprise must also report certain details of the bonds to the NDRC within 10 business days upon the completion of the bond issuance. Accordingly, we are required to complete the NDRC registration for any note offering outside the PRC and with a maturity of more than one year.

Furthermore, if there are any other approvals, filings and/or other administration procedures to be obtained from or completed with the CSRC or other PRC regulatory agencies as required by any new laws and regulations for any of our future proposed offering of securities overseas or the listing of the ADSs, we cannot assure you that we can obtain the required approval or complete the required filings or other regulatory procedures in a timely manner, or at all. Any failure to obtain the relevant approvals or complete the filings and other relevant regulatory procedures may subject us to regulatory actions or other sanctions from the CSRC or other PRC regulatory agencies, which may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

On February 24, 2023, the Provisions on Strengthening the Confidentiality and Archives Administration of Overseas Securities Issuance and Listing by Domestic Enterprises was promulgated, or the Provision on Confidentiality, which became effective on March 31, 2023. Pursuant to the Provision on Confidentiality, where a domestic enterprise publicly discloses or provides documents and materials involving state secrets and working secrets of state organs, or Relevant Documents and Materials, to the relevant securities companies, securities service institutions, overseas regulatory authorities and other entities and individuals, or provides or publicly discloses Relevant Documents and Materials through its overseas listing subjects, it shall report to the competent department with the examination and approval authority for approval in accordance with the law, and submit to the secrecy administration department of the same level for filing. Where a domestic enterprises provides accounting archives or copies of such archives to entities and individuals such as securities companies, securities service institutions and overseas regulatory authorities, it shall complete the corresponding procedures pursuant to relevant rules of the State. The working materials formed within the territory of the PRC by the securities companies and securities service institutions that provide corresponding services for the overseas issuance and listing of domestic enterprises shall be kept within the territory of the PRC, and outbound transfers of such materials shall go through approval procedures in accordance with relevant rules of the State.

We may be subject to liability for placing advertisements with content that is deemed inappropriate or misleading under PRC laws.

PRC laws and regulations prohibit advertising companies from producing, distributing or publishing any advertisement with content that violates PRC laws and regulations, impairs the national dignity of the PRC, involves designs of the PRC national flag, national emblem or national anthem or the music of the national anthem, is considered reactionary, obscene, superstitious or absurd, is fraudulent, or disparages similar products. We may be subject to claims by customers misled by information on our mobile apps, website or other portals where we put our advertisements on. We may not be able to recover our losses from advertisers by enforcing the indemnification provisions in the contracts, which may result us in diverting management's time and other resources from our business and operations to defend against these infringement claims. As a result, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

We may be subject to laws and regulations in the PRC relating to anti-monopoly and prohibition of unfair competition.

On February 7, 2021, the Anti-Monopoly Committee of the State Council promulgated the Anti-Monopoly Guidelines for the Internet Platform Economy Sector which prohibits certain monopolistic acts of internet platforms so as to protect market competition and safeguard interests of users and operators participating in internet platform economy, including without limitation, prohibiting platforms with dominant position from abusing their market dominance (such as discriminating customers in terms of pricing and other transactional conditions using big data and analytics, requiring counterparties to trade in restrictive patterns and means, coercing counterparties into exclusivity arrangements, using technology means to block competitors' interface, favorable positioning in search results of goods displays, using bundle services to sell services or products, compulsory collection of unnecessary user data).

On August 17, 2021, the SAMR issued the Provisions on Prohibition of Unfair Competition on the Internet (Draft for Comments), which prohibits business operators from using data, algorithms and other technical means to unreasonably provide different transaction information for counterparties with the same trading conditions by collecting and analyzing the transaction information of the counterparties, or the content browsed and times of browsing, or the brand and value of the terminal equipment used in transactions by the counterparties, etc., which infringes the right to know, the right of choice, and the right to fair trading of the counterparties, and disrupts the fair trading order of the market.

Furthermore, on June 24, 2022, the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress promulgated the amended PRC Anti-monopoly Law, which came into effect on August 1, 2022. The amended PRC Anti-monopoly Law further regulates monopolistic behaviors in the Internet sector, which provides, among others, (i) enterprises must not engage in monopolistic behaviors by taking advantage of data and algorithms, technology, capital advantages, or platform rules; and (ii) enterprises with dominant market position must not abuse their dominant positions by taking advantage of data and algorithms, technology, capital advantages, or platform rules.

There is still uncertainty how the requirement will be implemented and whether further legislation and administration activities will be entailed. The heightened regulatory scrutiny of business operators under the relevant laws and regulations may increase our compliance costs, divert significant management time and attention and our financial resources, and subject us to heightened risks and challenges. We cannot assure you that our business operations comply with the regulations and authorities' requirements in all respects. If we are found to have any non-compliance issues by relevant authorities, we may be subject to fines and other penalties, and our reputation and business operations may be materially and adversely affected.

Our employment practices may be adversely impacted under the labor contract law of the PRC.

The PRC National People's Congress promulgated the Labor Contract Law which became effective on January 1, 2008 and was amended on December 28, 2012, and the State Council promulgated implementing rules for the labor contract law on September 18, 2008. The labor contract law and the implementing rules impose requirements concerning, among others, the execution of written contracts between employers and employees, the time limits for probationary periods, and the length of employment contracts. The interpretation and implementation of these regulations are still evolving, our employment practices may violate the labor contract law and related regulations and we could be subject to penalties, fines or legal fees as a result. If we are subject to severe penalties or incur significant legal fees in connection with labor law disputes or investigations, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

We may be subject to additional contributions of social insurance and housing fund and late payments and fines imposed by relevant governmental authorities.

Companies operating in China are required to participate in various government-sponsored employee benefit plans, including certain social insurance, housing funds and other welfare-oriented payment obligations, and contribute to the plans in amounts equal to certain percentages of salaries, including bonuses and allowances, of our employees up to a maximum amount specified by the local government from time to time at locations where we operate our businesses. The requirement of employee benefit plans has not been implemented consistently by the local governments in China given the different levels of economic development in different locations. The relevant government authorities may examine whether an employer has made adequate payments of the requisite employee benefit payments, and employers who fail to make adequate payments may be subject to late payment fees, fines and/or other penalties.

According to Notice of the General Office of the State Council on Accelerating the Reform of the "Five in One" and "One License One Code" Registration System, PRC subsidiaries shall no longer separately obtain any social insurance registration certificate. Under the Regulations on the Administration of Housing Fund, PRC subsidiaries shall register with applicable housing fund management centers and establish a special housing fund account in an entrusted bank. Both PRC subsidiaries and their employees are required to contribute to the employee benefits.

As of the date of this annual report, all of our PRC subsidiaries have completed the required social insurance and housing fund registration; however, we have not made adequate contributions to social insurance and housing fund for some of our employees. We have recorded accruals for the estimated underpaid amounts of social insurance and housing fund in our financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. Going forward, we may be required by relevant government authorities to pay any other outstanding amount, and we may also be subject to late fees or fines. If we fail to make the outstanding employee benefit plans contributions within the prescribed time frame, we may be subject to a fine of up to three times the amount of the overdue payment. If we are otherwise subject to investigations related to noncompliance with labor laws and are imposed severe penalties or incur significant legal fees in connection with labor law disputes or investigations, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

Noncompliance with labor-related laws and regulations of the PRC may have an adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operations.

We have been subject to stricter regulatory requirements in terms of entering into labor contracts with our employees and paying various statutory employee benefits, including pensions, housing fund, medical insurance, work-related injury insurance, unemployment insurance and childbearing insurance to designated government agencies for the benefit of our employees. Pursuant to the PRC Labor Contract Law, or the Labor Contract Law, that became effective in January 2008 and was amended in December 2012 and its implementing rules that became effective in September 2008, employers are subject to stricter requirements in terms of signing labor contracts, minimum wages, paying remuneration, determining the term of employees' probation and unilaterally terminating labor contracts. In the event that we decide to terminate some of our employees or otherwise change our employment or labor practices, the Labor Contract Law and its implementation rules may limit our ability to effect those changes in a desirable or cost-effective manner, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations. We engage independent third-party service providers to recruit some outsourced staff. A majority of our part-time storefront staff were such outsourced staff as of December 31, 2022. We believe that we are in compliance with labor-related laws and regulations of the PRC. However, the relevant governmental authorities may take a different view and impose punishment, such as fines, on us.

As the interpretation and implementation of labor-related laws and regulations are still evolving, our employment practice could violate labor-related laws and regulations in China, which may subject us to labor disputes or government investigations. If we are deemed to have violated relevant labor laws and regulations, we could be required to provide additional compensation to our employees and our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

The custodians or authorized users of our controlling non-tangible assets, including chops and seals, may fail to fulfill their responsibilities, or misappropriate or misuse these assets.

Under PRC law, legal documents for corporate transactions, including agreements and contracts are executed using the chop or seal of the signing entity or with the signature of a legal representative whose designation is registered and filed with relevant PRC industry and commerce authorities.

In order to secure the use of our chops and seals, we have established internal control procedures and rules for using these chops and seals. In any event that the chops and seals are intended to be used, the responsible personnel will submit the application through our office automation system and the application will be verified and approved by authorized employees in accordance with our internal control procedures and rules. In addition, in order to maintain the physical security of our chops, we generally have them stored in secured locations accessible only to authorized employees. Although we monitor such authorized employees, the procedures may not be sufficient to prevent all instances of abuse or negligence. There is a risk that our employees could abuse their authority, for example, by entering into a contract not approved by us or seeking to gain control of one of our subsidiaries or VIE. If any employee obtains, misuses or misappropriates our chops and seals or other controlling non-tangible assets for whatever reason, we could experience disruption to our normal business operations, and we may have to take corporate or legal action, which could involve significant time and resources to resolve and divert management from our operations.

PRC regulation of loans to and direct investment in PRC entities by offshore holding companies may delay us from using the proceeds of our offshore financing to make loans or additional capital contributions to our PRC subsidiaries, which could materially and adversely affect our liquidity and our ability to fund and expand our business.

Any funds we transfer to our PRC subsidiaries, either as a shareholder loan or as an increase in registered capital, are subject to approval by or registration with relevant governmental authorities in China. According to the relevant PRC regulations on FIEs in China, capital contributions to our PRC subsidiaries are subject to the reporting obligations to MOFCOM or their respective local branches and registration with a local bank authorized by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange (the “SAFE”). In addition, (i) any foreign loan procured by our PRC subsidiaries is required to be registered with SAFE or their respective local branches and (ii) our PRC subsidiaries may not procure loans which exceed the difference between their respective total investment amount and registered capital. Any medium or long-term loan to be provided by us to our VIE must be registered with the NDRC and SAFE or its local branches. We may not be able to complete such registrations on a timely basis, with respect to future capital contributions or foreign loans by us to our PRC subsidiaries. If we fail to complete such registrations, our ability to use the proceeds of our offshore financing, and to capitalize our PRC operations may be negatively affected, which could adversely affect our liquidity and our ability to fund and expand our business.

Fluctuations in exchange rates could have a material and adverse effect on our results of operations and the value of your investment.

The value of the Renminbi against the U.S. dollar and other currencies may fluctuate and is affected by, among other things, changes in political and economic conditions and the foreign exchange policy adopted by the PRC government. It is difficult to predict how long such depreciation of Renminbi against the U.S. dollar may last and when and how the relationship between the Renminbi and the U.S. dollar may change again. All of our revenues and substantially all of our costs are denominated in Renminbi. We are a holding company and we rely on dividends paid by our operating subsidiaries in China for our cash needs. Any significant revaluation of Renminbi may materially and adversely affect our results of operations and financial position reported in Renminbi when translated into U.S. dollars, and the value of, and any dividends payable on, the ADSs in U.S. dollars. To the extent that we need to convert U.S. dollars into Renminbi for our operations, appreciation of the Renminbi against the U.S. dollar would have an adverse effect on the Renminbi amount we would receive. Conversely, if we decide to convert our Renminbi into U.S. dollars for the purpose of making payments for dividends on our Ordinary Shares, Senior Preferred Shares or the ADSs or for other business purposes, appreciation of the U.S. dollar against the Renminbi would have a negative effect on the U.S. dollar amount.

Governmental control of currency conversion may limit our ability to utilize our revenues effectively and affect the value of your investment.

The PRC government imposes controls on the convertibility of the Renminbi into foreign currencies and, in certain cases, the remittance of currency out of China. We receive substantially all of our revenues in Renminbi. Under our current corporate structure, our Cayman Islands holding company primarily relies on dividend payments from our PRC subsidiaries to fund any cash and financing requirements we may have. Under existing PRC foreign exchange regulations, payments of current account items, including profit distributions, interest payments and trade and service-related foreign exchange transactions, can be made in foreign currencies without prior approval of SAFE by complying with certain procedural requirements. Specifically, under the existing exchange restrictions, without prior approval of SAFE, cash generated from the operations of our PRC subsidiaries in China may be used to pay dividends to our company. However, approval from or registration with appropriate government authorities is required where Renminbi is to be converted into foreign currency and remitted out of China to pay capital expenses such as the repayment of loans denominated in foreign currencies. As a result, we need to obtain SAFE approval to use cash generated from the operations of our PRC subsidiaries and VIE to pay off their respective debt in a currency other than Renminbi owed to entities outside China, or to make other capital expenditure payments outside China in a currency other than Renminbi. The PRC government may at its discretion restrict access to foreign currencies for current account transactions in the future. If the foreign exchange control system prevents us from obtaining sufficient foreign currencies to satisfy our foreign currency demands, we may not be able to pay dividends in foreign currencies to our shareholders, including holders of the ADSs.

Certain PRC regulations may make it more difficult for us to pursue growth through acquisitions.

Among other things, the M&A Rules, adopted by six PRC regulatory agencies in 2006 and amended in 2009, established additional procedures and requirements that could make merger and acquisition activities by foreign investors more time-consuming and complex. Such regulation requires, among other things, that the MOFCOM be notified in advance of any change-of-control transaction in which a foreign investor acquires control of a PRC domestic enterprise or a foreign company with substantial PRC operations, if certain thresholds under the Provisions on Thresholds for Prior Notification of Concentrations of Undertakings, issued by the State Council in 2008, are triggered. Moreover, the Anti-Monopoly Law promulgated by the Standing Committee of the NPC, which became effective in 2008 requires that transactions which are deemed concentrations and involve parties with specified turnover thresholds must be cleared by the MOFCOM before they can be completed. In addition, PRC national security review rules which became effective in September 2011 require acquisitions by foreign investors of PRC companies engaged in military-related or certain other industries that are crucial to national security be subject to security review before consummation of any such acquisition. We may pursue potential strategic acquisitions that are complementary to our business and operations.

Complying with the requirements of these regulations to complete such transactions could be time-consuming, and any required approval processes, including obtaining approval or clearance from the MOFCOM, may delay or inhibit our ability to complete such transactions, which could affect our ability to expand our business or maintain our market share.

PRC regulations relating to the establishment of offshore special purpose companies by PRC residents may subject our PRC resident beneficial owners or our PRC subsidiaries to liability or penalties, limit our ability to inject capital into our PRC subsidiaries, limit our PRC subsidiaries' ability to increase their registered capital or distribute profits to us, or may otherwise adversely affect us.

In July 2014, SAFE promulgated the Circular on Relevant Issues Concerning Foreign Exchange Control on Domestic Residents' Offshore Investment and Financing and Roundtrip Investment Through Special Purpose Vehicles (the "SAFE Circular 37"), to replace the Notice on Relevant Issues Concerning Foreign Exchange Administration for Domestic Residents' Financing and Roundtrip Investment Through Offshore Special Purpose Vehicles (the "SAFE Circular 75"), which ceased to be effective upon the promulgation of SAFE Circular 37. SAFE Circular 37 requires PRC residents (including PRC individuals and PRC corporate entities) to register with SAFE or its local branches in connection with their direct or indirect offshore investment activities. SAFE Circular 37 is applicable to our shareholders who are PRC residents and may be applicable to any offshore acquisitions that we make in the future.

Under SAFE Circular 37, PRC residents who make, or have prior to the implementation of SAFE Circular 37 made, direct or indirect investments in offshore special purpose vehicles (the "SPVs"), will be required to register such investments with SAFE or its local branches. In addition, any PRC resident who is a direct or indirect shareholder of an SPV is required to update its filed registration with the local branch of SAFE with respect to that SPV, to reflect any material change. Moreover, any subsidiary of such SPV in China is required to urge the PRC resident shareholders to update their registration with the local branch of SAFE. If any PRC shareholder of such SPV fails to make the required registration or to update the previously filed registration, the subsidiary of such SPV in China may be prohibited from distributing its profits or the proceeds from any capital reduction, share transfer or liquidation to the SPV, and the SPV may also be prohibited from making additional capital contributions into its subsidiary in China. On February 13, 2015, the SAFE promulgated a Notice on Further Simplifying and Improving Foreign Exchange Administration Policy on Direct Investment ("SAFE Notice 13"), which became effective on June 1, 2015. Under SAFE Notice 13, applications for foreign exchange registration of inbound foreign direct investments and outbound overseas direct investments, including those required under SAFE Circular 37, will be filed with qualified banks instead of SAFE. The qualified banks will directly examine the applications and accept registrations under the supervision of SAFE.

Some of our shareholders that we are aware of are subject to SAFE regulations, and some of our shareholders have completed all necessary registrations with the local SAFE branch or qualified banks as required by SAFE Circular 37. We cannot assure you, however, that all of these individuals have completed all necessary registrations required by SAFE 37 and will continue to make required filings or updates in a timely manner, or at all. We can provide no assurance that we are or will in the future continue to be informed of identities of all PRC residents holding direct or indirect interest in our company. Any failure or inability by such individuals to comply with SAFE regulations may subject us to fines or legal sanctions, such as restrictions on our cross-border investment activities or our PRC subsidiaries' ability to distribute dividends to, or obtain foreign exchange-denominated loans from, our company or prevent us from making distributions or paying dividends. As a result, our business operations and our ability to make distributions to you could be materially and adversely affected.

Furthermore, as these foreign exchange regulations are still relatively new and their interpretation and implementation have been constantly evolving, it is unclear how these regulations, and any future regulation concerning offshore or cross-border transactions, will be interpreted, amended and implemented by the relevant government authorities. For example, we may be subject to a more stringent review and approval process with respect to our foreign exchange activities, such as remittance of dividends and foreign-currency-denominated borrowings, which may adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. In addition, if we decide to acquire a PRC domestic company, we cannot assure you that we or the owners of such company, as the case may be, will be able to obtain the necessary approvals or complete the necessary filings and registrations required by the foreign exchange regulations. This may restrict our ability to implement our acquisition strategy and could adversely affect our business and prospects.

Any failure to comply with PRC regulations regarding the registration requirements for employee stock incentive plans may subject the PRC plan participants or us to fines and other legal or administrative sanctions.

In February 2012, SAFE promulgated the Notices on Issues Concerning the Foreign Exchange Administration for Domestic Individuals Participating in Stock Incentive Plan of Overseas Publicly Listed Company, replacing earlier rules promulgated in 2007. Pursuant to these rules, PRC citizens and non-PRC citizens who reside in China for a continuous period of not less than one year who participate in any stock incentive plan of an overseas publicly listed company, subject to a few exceptions, are required to register with SAFE through a domestic qualified agent, which could be the PRC subsidiaries of such overseas-listed company, and complete certain other procedures. In addition, an overseas-trusted institution must be retained to handle matters in connection with the exercise or sale of stock options and the purchase or sale of shares and interests. We and our executive officers and other employees who are PRC citizens or who reside in the PRC for a continuous period of not less than one year and who have been granted share-based awards are subject to these regulations as our company is an overseas-listed company. Failure to complete the SAFE registrations may subject them to fines and legal sanctions, there may be additional restrictions on the ability of them to exercise their stock options or remit proceeds gained from the sale of their stock into the PRC. We also face regulatory uncertainties that could restrict our ability to adopt incentive plans for our directors, executive officers and employees under PRC law. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview— Regulation—Regulations Relating to Stock Incentive Plans.”

Any adverse change in our tax treatment could have a material and adverse impact on our business and results of operations.

Our products and services are subject to value-added tax (the “VAT”), at a rate of 6%, 10% and 16% before April 1, 2019 and since then 6%, 9% and 13%. VAT is recorded as reduction of our revenue, which amounted to RMB275.7 million in 2020, RMB564.6 million in 2021 and RMB986.4 million (US$143.0 million) in 2022. If the tax authority has a different view on our VAT accounting treatment, our results of operations may be adversely affected.

If our offshore companies are classified as a PRC resident enterprise for PRC enterprise income tax purposes, such classification could result in unfavorable tax consequences to us and our non-PRC shareholders and the ADS holders.

Under the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law and its implementation rules, an enterprise established outside the PRC with its “de facto management body” within the PRC is considered a “resident enterprise” and will be subject to the enterprise income tax on its global income at the rate of 25%. The implementation rules define the term “de facto management body” as the body that exercises full and substantial control and overall management over the business, productions, personnel, accounts and properties of an enterprise. In 2009, the State Administration of Taxation (the “SAT”) issued a circular, known as SAT Circular 82, which provides certain specific criteria for determining whether the “de facto management body” of a PRC-controlled enterprise that is incorporated offshore is located in China. Although this circular applies only to offshore enterprises controlled by PRC enterprises or PRC enterprise groups, not those controlled by PRC individuals or foreigners, the criteria set forth in the circular may reflect the SAT’s general position on how the “de facto management body” text should be applied in determining the tax resident status of all offshore enterprises.

According to SAT Circular 82, an offshore incorporated enterprise controlled by a PRC enterprise or a PRC enterprise group will be regarded as a PRC tax resident by virtue of having its “de facto management body” in China, and will be subject to PRC enterprise income tax on its global income only if all of the following conditions are met: (i) the primary location of the day-to-day operational management is in the PRC; (ii) decisions relating to the enterprise’s financial and human resource matters are made or are subject to approval by organizations or personnel in the PRC; (iii) the enterprise’s primary assets, accounting books and records, company seals, and Board and shareholder resolutions are located or maintained in the PRC; and (iv) at least 50% of voting board members or senior executives habitually reside in the PRC.

We believe our offshore companies (i.e., our companies other than PRC subsidiaries and VIE) are not PRC resident enterprises for PRC tax purposes. However, the tax resident status of an enterprise is subject to determination by the PRC tax authorities and uncertainties remain with respect to the interpretation of the term “de facto management body.” If the PRC tax authorities determine that any of our offshore companies is a PRC resident enterprise for enterprise income tax purposes, we would be subject to PRC enterprise income on our worldwide income at the rate of 25%. Furthermore, the Company would be required to withhold a 10% tax from dividends it pays to its shareholders that are non-resident enterprises, including the holders of the ADSs. In addition, non-resident enterprise shareholders (including the ADS holders) may be subject to PRC tax at a rate of 10% on gains realized on the sale or other disposition of the ADSs, Senior Preferred Shares or Ordinary Shares, if such income is treated as sourced from within the PRC. Furthermore, if the Company is deemed a PRC resident enterprise, dividends paid to its non-PRC individual shareholders (including the ADS holders) and any gain realized on the transfer of the ADSs, Senior Preferred Shares or Ordinary Shares by such shareholders may be subject to PRC tax at a rate of 20% (which, in the case of dividends, may be withheld at source by the Company). These rates may be reduced by an applicable tax treaty, but it is unclear whether non-PRC shareholders of the Company would be able to obtain the benefits of any tax treaties between their country of tax residence and the PRC in the event that the Company is treated as a PRC resident enterprise. Any such tax may reduce the returns on your investment in the ADSs, Senior Preferred Shares or Ordinary Shares.

We face uncertainty with respect to indirect transfers of equity interests in PRC resident enterprises by their non-PRC holding companies.

On February 3, 2015, the SAT issued the Public Notice Regarding Certain Corporate Income Tax Matters on Indirect Transfer of Properties by Non-Tax Resident Enterprises (the “SAT Bulletin 7”). SAT Bulletin 7 extends its tax jurisdiction to transactions involving the transfer of taxable assets through offshore transfer of a foreign intermediate holding company. In addition, SAT Bulletin 7 has introduced safe harbors for internal group restructurings and the purchase and sale of equity through a public securities market. SAT Bulletin 7 also brings challenges to both foreign transferor and transferee (or other person who is obligated to pay for the transfer) of taxable assets, as such persons need to determine whether their transactions are subject to these rules and whether any withholding obligation applies.

On October 17, 2017, the SAT issued the Announcement of the State Administration of Taxation on Issues Concerning the Withholding of Non-resident Enterprise Income Tax at Source (the “SAT Bulletin 37”), which came into effect on December 1, 2017. The SAT Bulletin 37 further clarifies the practice and procedure of the withholding of non-resident enterprise income tax.

Where a non-resident enterprise transfers taxable assets indirectly by disposing of the equity interests of an overseas holding company, which is an Indirect Transfer, the non-resident enterprise as either transferor or transferee, or the PRC entity that directly owns the taxable assets, may report such Indirect Transfer to the relevant tax authority. Using a “substance over form” principle, the PRC tax authority may disregard the existence of the overseas holding company if it lacks a reasonable commercial purpose and was established for the purpose of reducing, avoiding or deferring PRC tax. As a result, gains derived from such Indirect Transfer may be subject to PRC enterprise income tax, and the transferee or other person who pays for the transfer is obligated to withhold the applicable taxes currently at a rate of 10% for the transfer of equity interests in a PRC resident enterprise. Both the transferor and the transferee may be subject to penalties under PRC tax laws if the transferee fails to withhold the taxes and the transferor fails to pay the taxes.

We face uncertainties as to the reporting and other implications of certain past and future transactions where PRC taxable assets are involved, such as offshore restructuring, sale of the shares in our offshore subsidiaries and investments. Our company may be subject to filing obligations or taxed if our company is transferor in such transactions, and may be subject to withholding obligations if our company is transferee in such transactions, under SAT Bulletin 7 and/or SAT Bulletin 37. For transfer of shares in our company by investors who are non-PRC resident enterprises, our PRC subsidiaries may be requested to assist in the filing under SAT Bulletin 7 and/or SAT Bulletin 37. As a result, we may be required to expend valuable resources to comply with SAT Bulletin 7 and/or SAT Bulletin 37 or to request the relevant transferors from whom we purchase taxable assets to comply with these circulars, or to establish that our company should not be taxed under these circulars, which may have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Regulation and censorship of information disseminated over the internet in China may adversely affect our business and reputation and subject us to liability for information displayed on our website.

The PRC government has adopted regulations governing internet access and the distribution of news and other information over the internet. Under these regulations, internet content providers and internet publishers are prohibited from posting or displaying over the internet content that, among other things, violates PRC laws and regulations, impairs the national dignity of China, or is reactionary, obscene, superstitious, fraudulent or defamatory. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in the revocation of licenses to provide internet content and other licenses, and the closure of the concerned websites. The website operator may also be held liable for such censored information displayed on or linked to the websites. If our website is found to be in violation of any such requirements, we may be penalized by relevant authorities, and our operations or reputation could be adversely affected.

Risks Relating to the ADSs

Our dual-class share structure with different voting rights limits your ability to influence corporate matters and could discourage others from pursuing any change of control transactions that holders of our Class A Ordinary Shares and the ADSs may view as beneficial.

We have adopted a dual-class share structure such that our Ordinary Shares consist of Class A Ordinary Shares and Class B Ordinary Shares. In respect of matters requiring the votes of shareholders, each Class A Ordinary Share is entitled to one vote and each Class B Ordinary Share is entitled to ten votes. Each Class B ordinary share is convertible into one Class A ordinary share at any time by the holder thereof. Class A Ordinary Shares are not convertible into Class B Ordinary Shares under any circumstances.

Due to this dual-class share structure, our shareholders have experienced changes to their voting powers when certain Class B Ordinary Shares are converted into Class A Ordinary Shares, and our shareholders may experience future changes in the voting powers resulting from the factors including new Class B share conversion or future share issuances, among others. As of February 28, 2023, Class B Ordinary Shares constituted 5.8 % of our total issued and outstanding share capital and 37.9 % of the aggregate voting power of our total issued and outstanding share capital. As of February 28, 2023, Centurium Capital and its affiliates hold 100% of our Class B Ordinary Shares.

As a result of this dual-class share structure, the holders of our Class B Ordinary Shares have concentrated control over the outcome of matters put to a vote of shareholders and have significant influence over our business, including decisions regarding mergers, consolidations, liquidations and the sale of all or substantially all of our assets, election of directors and other significant corporate actions. The holders of Class B Ordinary Shares may take actions that are not in the best interest of us or our other shareholders or holders of the ADSs. This concentration of ownership may discourage, delay or prevent a change in control of our company, which could have the effect of depriving our other shareholders of the opportunity to receive a premium for their shares as part of a sale of our company and may reduce the trading price of the ADSs. This concentrated control limits your ability to influence corporate matters and could discourage others from pursuing any potential merger, takeover or other change of control transactions that holders of Class A Ordinary Shares and ADSs may view as beneficial. In addition, future issuances of Class B Ordinary Shares may be dilutive to the holders of Class A Ordinary Shares. As a result, the market price of our Class A Ordinary Shares could be adversely affected.

Our Senior Preferred Shares have rights, preferences and privileges that are not held by, and are preferential to, the rights of our Ordinary Shares and ADSs, which could result in the interests of the holders of our Senior Preferred Shares differing from those of the holders of our Ordinary Shares and ADSs.

In April 2021, we announced that we had entered into an investment agreement (the “Investment Agreement”) with an affiliate of Centurium Capital, as the lead investor, and Joy Capital. On December 1, 2021, we announced that we closed the Investment Agreement with the lead investor, pursuant to which we issued and sold a total of 295,384,615 Senior Preferred Shares to the lead investor. On January 7, 2022, we closed the Investment Agreement with Joy Capital, pursuant to which we issued and sold a total of 12,307,692 Senior Preferred Shares to an affiliate controlled by Joy Capital.

The holders of our Senior Preferred Shares have certain rights that are preferential to the rights of the holders of our Ordinary Shares and ADSs, such as certain customary protective provisions and certain downside protection provisions intended to mitigate the impact of certain regulatory risks in connection with the previously disclosed Fabricated Transactions, including but not limited to the following.

- The approval of the holders of a majority of the then issued and outstanding Senior Preferred Shares shall be required for any adverse alteration to the rights and privileges of the holders of Senior Preferred Shares, any creation, authorization or issuance of any class or series of equity securities of the Company that are superior to or on a parity with the Senior Preferred Shares and certain other actions of the Company set forth in the Certificate of Designation.
- In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of Senior Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive distribution in cash out of the assets of the Company available for distribution in preference to the holders of other Shares.
- Each Senior Preferred Share can be convertible into a number of Class A ordinary share(s) of the Company (or an equivalent number of ADSs) at the ratio calculated using the then-applicable conversion price, which shall initially be the original issue price and is subject to adjustment from time to time.
- With respect to each Senior Preferred Share, during the period from April 15, 2021 to the third anniversary of its original issuance, if upon an announcement or reporting by any person of any U.S. governmental authority (other than the SEC) entering into an agreement with us, imposing penalty or restriction in connection with the previously disclosed Fabricated Transactions, the trading prices of our ADSs are negatively affected, as determined in accordance with the mechanisms set forth in the Certificate of Designation, the then applicable conversion price of such Senior Preferred Share shall be adjusted downward to reflect the impact of such event.

See “Item 10. Additional Information—10.B. Memorandum and Articles of Association—Certificate of Designation.” The existence of the aforesaid rights, preferences and privileges of our Senior Preferred Shares and other rights, preferences and privileges of our Senior Preferred Shares as set forth in the Certificate of Designation, may reduce the value of our Ordinary Shares and ADSs, cause dilution to holders of our Ordinary Shares and ADSs, result in divergent interests between the holders of our Senior Preferred Shares and the holders of our Ordinary Shares and ADSs, make it harder for us to sell ADSs in offerings in the future and/or prevent or delay a change of control.

The trading price of the ADSs has been and may continue to be volatile, which could result in substantial losses to investors.

Our ADSs were listed on NASDAQ Global Select Market (the “Nasdaq”), since our SEC-registered initial public offering in May 2019. We received a delisting notice from Nasdaq on May 15, 2020 and requested a hearing on May 22, 2020. We received another delisting notice from Nasdaq for failure to file our annual report on June 17, 2020. We notified Nasdaq of the Company’s decision to withdraw its request for the hearing on June 24, 2020. On July 1, 2020, we were delisted from Nasdaq when the staff of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC filed a Form 25 Notification of Delisting. Our ADSs have been quoted on the OTC Pink Limited Information initially under the symbol “LKNCY” since the Nasdaq suspended the trading of our ADSs on June 29, 2020.

The OTC Market is a significantly more limited market than Nasdaq. The quotation of our ADSs on the OTC Market may result in a less liquid market available for existing and potential stockholders to trade our ADSs, could depress the trading price of our ADSs and could have a long-term adverse impact on our ability to raise capital in the future.

For the period from January 1, 2020 to June 29, 2020 (suspension by the Nasdaq of the trading of our ADSs on the Nasdaq), the daily closing trading prices of our ADSs ranged from US$1.38 to US$50.02 per ADS. The daily closing trading prices of our ADSs ranged from US$6.24 to US$24.94 per ADS in 2022. Since our ADSs have been quoted on the OTC market, the daily closing trading prices of our ADSs ranged from US$1.54 to US$32.13 per ADS up to the date of this annual report. The trading price of the ADSs has been volatile and could fluctuate widely due to factors beyond our control. This may happen because of broad market and industry factors, including the performance and fluctuation of the market prices of other companies with business operations located mainly in China that have listed their securities in the United States. In addition to market and industry factors, the price and trading volume for the ADSs may be highly volatile for factors specific to our own operations, including the following:

- variations in our revenues, earnings and cash flows;
- announcements of new investments, acquisitions, strategic partnerships or joint ventures by us or our competitors;
- announcements of new offerings and expansions by us or our competitors;
- changes in financial estimates by securities analysts;
- detrimental adverse publicity about us, our products and services or our industry;
- announcements of new regulations, rules or policies relevant for our business;
- additions or departures of key personnel;
- release of lock-up or other transfer restrictions on our outstanding equity securities or sales of additional equity securities;
- sales of additional ADSs in the public market or other equity-linked securities, or the perception of these events;
- convertible arbitrage strategy employed by certain investors in our Notes, including related short selling of our ADSs; and
- potential litigation or regulatory investigations.

Any of these factors may result in large and sudden changes in the volume and price at which the ADSs will trade.

In addition, the stock market in general, and the market prices for internet-related companies and companies with operations in China in particular, have experienced volatility that often has been unrelated to the operating performance of such companies. The securities of some China-based companies that have listed their securities in the United States have experienced significant volatility since their initial public offerings in recent years, including, in some cases, substantial declines in the trading prices of their securities. The trading performances of these companies' securities after their offerings may affect the attitudes of investors towards Chinese companies listed in the United States in general, which consequently may impact the trading performance of the ADSs, regardless of our actual operating performance. In addition, any negative news or perceptions about inadequate corporate governance practices or fraudulent accounting, corporate structure or other matters of other Chinese companies may also negatively affect the attitudes of investors towards Chinese companies in general, including us, regardless of whether we have engaged in any inappropriate activities. In particular, the global financial crisis and the ensuing economic recessions in many countries have contributed and may continue to contribute to extreme volatility in the global stock markets. These broad market and industry fluctuations may adversely affect the trading price of the ADSs. Volatility or a lack of positive performance in the trading price of the ADSs may also adversely affect our ability to retain key employees, most of whom have been granted options or other equity incentives.

In the past, shareholders of public companies have often brought securities class action suits against those companies following periods of instability in the market price of their securities. Our involvement in such class actions could divert a significant amount of our management's attention and other resources from our business and operations and require us to incur significant expenses to defend the suit, which could harm our results of operations. Any such class action suit, whether or not successful, could harm our reputation and restrict our ability to raise capital in the future. In addition, if a claim is successfully made against us, we may be required to pay significant damages, which could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations. Substantial future sales or perceived potential sales of ADSs in the public market or other equity-linked securities could cause the price of ADSs to decline. See “—Risks Relating to the Fabricated Transactions, Internal Investigation, Internal Control, Offshore Restructuring and Related Matters—We have been named as a defendant in a number of lawsuits filed by purchasers of our securities, including class action lawsuits that, absent settlement, could have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, and our reputation.”

Sales of substantial amounts of ADSs in the public market or other equity-linked securities, or the perception that these sales could occur, could adversely affect the trading price of ADSs. Certain holders of our Ordinary Shares and Senior Preferred Shares have the right to cause us to register under the Securities Act the sale of their shares. Registration of these shares under the Securities Act would result in ADSs representing these shares becoming freely tradable without restriction under the Securities Act immediately upon the effectiveness of the registration. Sales of these registered shares in the form of ADSs in the public market could cause the price of the ADSs to decline.

The voting rights of holders of the ADSs are limited by the terms of the deposit agreement, and you may not be able to exercise your right to direct the voting of your Class A Ordinary Shares underlying the ADSs.

Holders of the ADSs do not have the same rights as our registered shareholders. As a holder of the ADSs, you will not have any direct right to attend general meetings of our shareholders or to cast any votes at such meetings. You will only be able to exercise the voting rights which attach to the Class A Ordinary Shares underlying the ADSs indirectly by giving voting instructions to the depositary in accordance with the provisions of the deposit agreement. Under the deposit agreement, you may vote only by giving voting instructions to the depositary, as holder of the Class A Ordinary Shares underlying the ADSs. If we ask for your instructions, then upon receipt of your voting instructions, the depositary will try to vote the underlying Class A Ordinary Shares in accordance with those instructions. If we do not instruct the depositary to ask for your instructions, you can still give instructions, and the depositary may vote in accordance with instructions you give, but it is not required to do so. You will not be able to directly exercise any right to vote with respect to the underlying Class A Ordinary Shares unless you withdraw the shares and become the registered holder of such shares prior to the record date for the general meeting. When a general meeting is convened, you may not receive sufficient advance notice of the meeting to enable you to withdraw the shares underlying the ADSs and become the registered holder of such shares prior to the record date for the general meeting to allow you to attend the general meeting and to vote directly with respect to any specific matter or resolution to be considered and voted upon at the general meeting. In addition, under our sixth amended and restated articles of association, for the purposes of determining those shareholders who are entitled to attend and vote at any general meeting, our directors may close our register of members and/or fix in advance a record date for such meeting, and such closure of our register of members or the setting of such a record date may prevent you from withdrawing the Class A Ordinary Shares underlying the ADSs and becoming the registered holder of such shares prior to the record date, so that you would not be able to attend the general meeting or to vote directly. Where any matter is to be put to a vote at a general meeting, the depositary will notify you of the upcoming vote and to deliver our voting materials to you if we ask it to. We cannot assure you that you will receive the voting material in time to ensure you can direct the depositary to vote your shares. In addition, the depositary and its agents are not responsible for failing to carry out voting instructions or for their manner of carrying out your voting instructions. This means that you may not be able to exercise your right to direct how the shares underlying the ADSs are voted, and you may have no legal remedy if the shares underlying the ADSs are not voted as you requested.

Because we do not expect to pay dividends periodically in the foreseeable future, you may mainly rely on a price appreciation of the ADSs for a return on your investment.

We currently intend to retain most, if not all, of our available funds and any future earnings to fund the development and growth of our business. As a result, we do not expect to pay cash dividends periodically in the foreseeable future. Therefore, you should not rely on an investment in the ADSs as a source for any future dividend income.

Techniques employed by short sellers and/or the convertible bond arbitrage strategy employed by investors in our Notes may drive down the trading price of the ADSs.

Short selling is the practice of selling securities that the seller does not own but rather has borrowed from a third party with the intention of buying identical securities back at a later date to return to the lender. The short seller hopes to profit from a decline in the value of the securities between the sale of the borrowed securities and the purchase of the replacement shares, as the short seller expects to pay less in that purchase than it received in the sale. As it is in the short seller's interest for the price of the security to decline, many short sellers publish, or arrange for the publication of, negative opinions regarding the relevant issuer and its business prospects in order to create negative market momentum and generate profits for themselves after selling a security short. These short attacks have, in the past, led to selling of shares in the market.

We have been and may in the future again become the subject of short selling, the target of harassing or other detrimental conduct by third parties. We have to expend a significant amount of resources to investigate such allegations. Such a situation could be costly and time-consuming, and could distract our management from growing our business. Even if such allegations are ultimately proven to be groundless, allegations against us could severely impact our business operations, and any investment in the ADSs could be greatly reduced or even rendered worthless.

If securities or industry analysts do not publish research or publish inaccurate or unfavorable research about our business, the trading price for the ADSs and trading volume could decline.

The trading market for the ADSs will depend in part on the research and reports that securities or industry analysts publish about us or our business. If research analysts do not establish and maintain adequate research coverage or if one or more of the analysts who covers us downgrades the ADSs or publishes inaccurate or unfavorable research about our business, the trading price for the ADSs would likely decline. If one or more of these analysts cease coverage of our company or fail to publish reports on us regularly, we could lose visibility in the financial markets, which, in turn, could cause the trading price or trading volume for the ADSs to decline.

You may experience dilution of your holdings due to the inability to participate in rights offerings.

We may, from time to time, distribute rights to our shareholders, including rights to acquire securities. Under the deposit agreement, the depositary will not distribute rights to holders of the ADSs unless the distribution and sale of rights and the securities to which these rights relate are either exempt from registration under the Securities Act with respect to all holders of the ADSs, or are registered under the provisions of the Securities Act. The depositary may, but is not required to, attempt to sell these undistributed rights to third parties, and may allow the rights to lapse. We may be unable to establish an exemption from registration under the Securities Act, and we are under no obligation to file a registration statement with respect to these rights or underlying securities or to endeavor to have a registration statement declared effective. Accordingly, holders of the ADSs may be unable to participate in our rights offerings and may experience dilution of their holdings as a result.

Anti-takeover provisions contained in our memorandum and articles of association and our shareholder rights plan could have a material adverse effect on the rights of holders of our Ordinary Shares and the ADSs.

Our memorandum and articles of association contain provisions which limit the ability of others to acquire control of our company or cause us to engage in change-of-control transactions. For example, our Board has the authority subject to any resolution of the shareholders to the contrary, to issue preferred shares in one or more series and to fix their designations, powers, preferences, privileges, and relative participating, optional or special rights and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions, including dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption and liquidation preferences, any or all of which may be greater than the rights associated with our Ordinary Shares. Using such authority, we issued and sold a total of 295,384,615 Senior Preferred Shares to an affiliate of Centurium Capital and a total of 12,307,692 Senior Preferred Shares to an affiliate controlled by Joy Capital, each of which pursuant to an investment agreement that we entered into with these two investors in April 2021. For more details, see "Item 4. Information on the Company—4.A. History and Development of the Company." Preferred shares could be issued quickly with terms calculated to delay or prevent a change in control of our company or make removal of management more difficult. If our Board decides to issue preferred shares, the trading price of the ADSs may fall and the voting and other rights of the holders of our Ordinary Shares and the ADSs may be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, on October 14, 2021, we adopted a shareholder rights plan (the “Rights Plan”), which is filed as Exhibit 4.21 to this annual report, incorporated by reference to Exhibit 4.1 of the Company’s Current Report on Form 6-K, furnished on October 14, 2021. Pursuant to the Rights Plan, if a person or group acquires 10% or more of our shares or voting power, except as specifically permitted under the Rights Plan, our shareholders other than such acquiring person or group will have the right to purchase additional securities from us at potentially a substantial discount to those securities’ fair market value, thus causing substantial dilution to the ownership of such acquiring person or group.

The anti-takeover provisions contained in our memorandum and articles of association and the existence of the Rights Plan may discourage transactions that otherwise could involve payment of a premium over prevailing market prices for the ADSs and could have the effect of depriving our shareholders and ADS holders of an opportunity to realize such premium by discouraging third parties from seeking to obtain control of our company in a tender offer or other similar transaction.

We incur significant costs as a result of being a public company.

As a public company, we incur significant legal, accounting and other expenses. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as rules subsequently implemented by the SEC, impose various requirements on the corporate governance practices of public companies. We expect to incur significant expenses and devote substantial management effort toward ensuring compliance with the requirements of Section 404 and the other rules and regulations of the SEC.

We expect the rules and regulations applicable to public companies to increase our legal and financial compliance costs and to make some corporate activities more time-consuming and costly. For example, as a public company, we need to adopt policies regarding internal control and disclosure control and procedures. We also expect that operating as a public company makes it more difficult and more expensive for us to obtain director and officer liability insurance, and we may be required to accept reduced policy limits and coverage or incur substantially higher costs to obtain the same or similar coverage. In addition, we incur additional costs associated with our public company reporting requirements. It is also more difficult for us to find qualified persons to serve on our Board or as executive officers.

We are a foreign private issuer within the meaning of the rules under the Exchange Act, and as such we are exempt from certain provisions applicable to U.S. domestic public companies.

Because we qualify as a foreign private issuer under the Exchange Act, we are exempt from certain provisions of the securities rules and regulations in the United States that are applicable to U.S. domestic issuers, including:

- the rules under the Exchange Act requiring the filing with the SEC of quarterly reports on Form 10-Q or current reports on Form 8-K;
- the sections of the Exchange Act regulating the solicitation of proxies, consents or authorizations in respect of a security registered under the Exchange Act;
- the sections of the Exchange Act requiring insiders to file public reports of their stock ownership and trading activities and liability for insiders who profit from trades made in a short period of time; and
- the selective disclosure rules by issuers of material nonpublic information under Regulation FD.

We are required to file an annual report on Form 20-F within four months of the end of each fiscal year. Press releases relating to financial results and material events will also be furnished to the SEC on Form 6-K. However, the information we are required to file with or furnish to the SEC will be less extensive and less timely compared to that required to be filed with the SEC by U.S. domestic issuers. As a result, you may not be afforded the same protections or information that would be made available to you were you investing in a U.S. domestic issuer.

Our status as a passive foreign investment company (a “PFIC”) for U.S. federal income tax purposes for certain prior taxable years is subject to uncertainty, and there can be no assurances that we will not be a PFIC for the current or any future taxable year, which would result in adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. investors in our ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares.

In general, a non-U.S. corporation is a PFIC for any taxable year in which (i) 75% or more of its gross income consists of passive income or (ii) 50% or more of the average value of its assets (generally determined on a quarterly basis) consists of assets that produce, or are held for the production of, passive income. For purposes of the above calculations, a non-U.S. corporation that owns at least 25% by value of the shares of another corporation is treated as if it held its proportionate share of the assets of the other corporation and received directly its proportionate share of the income of the other corporation. Passive income generally includes dividends, interest, rents, royalties and investment gains. Cash is generally a passive asset for these purposes. Goodwill is an active asset under the PFIC rules to the extent attributable to activities that produce active income.

The determination of our PFIC status is subject to certain uncertainties and is made by applying principles and methodologies that are in some circumstances unclear.

Because we hold a substantial amount of cash, our PFIC status for any taxable year may depend, in part, on the value of our goodwill. The value of our goodwill may be determined by averaging (on a quarterly basis) the excess of the sum of our market capitalization and liabilities over the value of our other assets. If the value of our goodwill for 2019 and 2020 is determined in such manner, based on the trading prices of our ADSs we were not a PFIC for our taxable years of 2019 and 2020. However, because our market capitalization declined significantly since the second quarter of 2020 and throughout 2020, there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert that the true value of our goodwill for 2019 and the first quarter of 2020 is in fact lower. If the assertion of that position is successful, our PFIC status for our taxable years of 2019 and 2020 would depend on the asserted value of our goodwill for those years.

Based on the composition of our income and assets and the value of our assets (including goodwill), we believe that we were not a PFIC for our 2022 taxable year. However, there can be no assurances that we will not be a PFIC for the current or any future taxable year because our PFIC status is an annual determination that can be made only after the end of the relevant taxable year and will depend on the composition of our income and assets and the value of our assets from time to time (including the value of our goodwill, which, as discussed above, may be determined, in part, by reference to our market capitalization, which has been, and may continue to be, volatile). Because we hold and may continue to hold significant amounts of cash and cash equivalents, and because the value of our goodwill may be determined by reference to our market capitalization from time to time, fluctuations in the market price of our ADSs may cause us to be or become a PFIC for the current or any future taxable year.

Moreover, it is not entirely clear how the contractual arrangements between us and our VIE will be treated for purposes of the PFIC rules, and we may be or become a PFIC if our VIE is not treated as owned by us. For these reasons, our PFIC status is uncertain.

If we are a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. investor owns our ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares (even if we cease to be a PFIC in a later taxable year), certain adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences and additional reporting obligations will apply to such U.S. investor. See “Item 10. Additional Information—10.E. Taxation—U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations—Passive Foreign Investment Company Rules.”

U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding our PFIC status for any taxable year.

ADS holders may not be entitled to a jury trial with respect to claims arising under the deposit agreement, which could result in less favorable outcomes to the plaintiff(s) in any such action.

The deposit agreement governing the ADSs representing our Class A Ordinary Shares provides that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, ADS holders waive the right to a jury trial of any claim they may have against us or the depositary arising out of or relating to our shares, the ADSs or the deposit agreement, including any claim under the U.S. federal securities laws.

If we or the depositary opposed a jury trial demand based on the waiver, the court would determine whether the waiver was enforceable based on the facts and circumstances of that case in accordance with the applicable state and federal law. To our knowledge, the enforceability of a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver in connection with claims arising under the federal securities laws has not been finally adjudicated by the United States Supreme Court. However, we believe that a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver provision is generally enforceable, including under the laws of the State of New York, which govern the deposit agreement, by a federal or state court in the City of New York, which has non-exclusive jurisdiction over matters arising under the deposit agreement. In determining whether to enforce a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver provision, courts will generally consider whether a party knowingly, intelligently and voluntarily waived the right to a jury trial. We believe that this is the case with respect to the deposit agreement and the ADSs. It is advisable that you consult legal counsel regarding the jury waiver provision before entering into the deposit agreement.

If you or any other holders or beneficial owners of ADSs bring a claim against us or the depositary in connection with matters arising under the deposit agreement or the ADSs, including claims under federal securities laws, you or such other holder or beneficial owner may not be entitled to a jury trial with respect to such claims, which may have the effect of limiting and discouraging lawsuits against us and/or the depositary. If a lawsuit is brought against us and/or the depositary under the deposit agreement, it may be heard only by a judge or justice of the applicable trial court, which would be conducted according to different civil procedures and may result in different outcomes than a trial by jury would have had, including results that could be less favorable to the plaintiff(s) in any such action.

Nevertheless, if this jury trial waiver provision is not permitted by applicable law, an action could proceed under the terms of the deposit agreement with a jury trial. No condition, stipulation or provision of the deposit agreement or ADSs serves as a waiver by any holder or beneficial owner of ADSs or by us or the depositary of compliance with any substantive provision of the U.S. federal securities laws and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Item 4. Information on the Company

4.A. History and Development of the Company

In June 2017, we incorporated Lucky Coffee Inc. under the laws of the Cayman Islands as our offshore holding company, which later changed its name to Luckin Coffee Inc. in September 2017. We are known as Luckin Coffee. In June 2017, we incorporated Lucky Coffee Inc. under the laws of the British Virgin Islands as Luckin Coffee Inc.'s wholly owned subsidiary and our intermediate holding company to facilitate financing, which later changed its name to Luckin Coffee Investment Inc. in December 2017. Luckin Coffee (China) Limited was incorporated in June 2017 as Luckin Coffee Investment Inc.'s wholly owned subsidiary in Hong Kong, which changed its name to Luckin Coffee (Hong Kong) Limited in October 2018, or Hong Kong Luckin. In April 2019, Luckin Coffee Investment Inc. incorporated another two wholly owned subsidiaries, Luckin Coffee Roasting (Hong Kong) Limited and Luckin Coffee Roastery (Hong Kong) Limited, in Hong Kong.

In October 2017, December 2017 and March 2018, Hong Kong Luckin incorporated Beijing Luckin Coffee Co., Ltd., or Beijing WFOE, Luckin Investment (Tianjin) Co., Ltd. and Luckin Coffee (China) Co., Ltd., or Luckin China, as its wholly owned subsidiaries in the PRC successively and began to operate coffee retail business.

See “—4.C. Organizational Structure.”

In July 2018 and September 2018, Beijing WFOE entered into a series of contractual arrangements with the VIE established in June 2017, which enable us to obtain control over the VIE through Beijing WFOE. Such contractual arrangements consist of proxy agreement and power of attorney, confirmation and guarantee letters, spousal consent letter, share pledge agreement, master exclusive service agreement, business cooperation agreement and exclusive option agreement. See “—4.C. Organizational Structure—Contractual Arrangements with the VIE and Its Nominee Shareholders.”

Luckin Coffee Inc. issued one Ordinary Share in June 2017 and issued one Ordinary Share in August 2017. In March 2018, Luckin Coffee Inc. increased Ordinary Shares to 750 shares and effected a share split, pursuant to which, the 750 Ordinary Shares were subdivided into 750,000 Ordinary Shares. After that, Luckin Coffee Inc. (i) issued 915,750 angel-1 shares, 513,000 angel-2 shares and 544,688 Series A convertible redeemable preferred shares in June 2018; (ii) issued 272,343 Series B convertible redeemable preferred shares in November 2018; (iii) issued 6,809 Series B convertible redeemable preferred shares in January 2019; and (iv) issued 188,393 Series B-1 convertible redeemable preferred shares in April 2019, to certain investors.

In May 2019, we completed the IPO in which we offered and sold an aggregate of 264,000,000 Class A Ordinary Shares in the form of ADSs. Concurrently with the IPO, we issued and sold 23,529,412 Class A Ordinary Shares to Louis Dreyfus Company B.V. Upon the IPO, 1,587,886,000 Class B Ordinary Shares and 7,605,500 Class A Ordinary Shares were automatically converted from our outstanding Ordinary Shares, angel shares and preferred shares prior to the IPO and after the 1:500 share split. On May 17, 2019, the ADSs began trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, under the symbol "LK." In June 2019, we closed on the exercise in full of the over-allotment option to purchase an additional 39,600,000 Class A Ordinary Shares in the form of ADSs by the underwriters of our IPO. We received net proceeds of approximately US$607.2 million from our IPO and US$50.0 million from the concurrent private placements to Louis Dreyfus Company B.V. in May 2019 and exercise of over-allotment option after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and other offering expenses payable by us.

In January 2020, we completed a follow-on public offering in which we and a selling shareholder offered and sold an aggregate of 110,400,000 Class A Ordinary Shares in the form of ADSs, concurrent with US$400 million 0.75% convertible senior notes due 2025 (the "Notes"). In the same month, we closed on the exercise in full of the over-allotment option to purchase an additional 16,560,000 Class A Ordinary Shares in the form of ADSs by the underwriters of our follow-on public offering and an additional US$60,000,000 principal amount of Notes by the initial purchasers of our convertible note offering. We received net proceeds of approximately US$418.3 million from our public offering in January 2020 and exercise of over-allotment option after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and other offering expenses payable by us. And we received net proceeds of approximately US$448.5 million from our convertible note offering in January 2020 and exercise of over-allotment option after deducting initial purchasers discounts and commissions and other offering expenses payable by us.

In May 2020, we received delisting notice from Nasdaq and requested a hearing. We received another delisting notice from Nasdaq for failure to file our annual report on June 17, 2020. We notified Nasdaq of the Company's decision to withdraw its request for the hearing on June 24, 2020. On July 1, 2020, we were delisted from Nasdaq when the staff of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC filed a Form 25 Notification of Delisting. Our ADSs have been quoted on the OTC Pink Limited Information initially under the symbol "LKNCY" since the Nasdaq suspended the trading of our ADSs on June 29, 2020.

In July 2020, the Cayman Court appointed Alexander Lawson of Alvarez & Marsal Cayman Islands Limited and Wing Sze Tiffany Wong of Alvarez & Marsal Asia Limited to act as "light-touch" JPLs. The JPLs were appointed on the application of the Company in response to the presentation of a winding up petition by a creditor of the Company in the Cayman Islands. Following the JPLs' appointment, which constituted an event of default under our convertible senior notes indenture, 100% of the principal of, and accrued and unpaid interest on, the Notes automatically became immediately due and payable. Accordingly, we took steps to negotiate a restructuring of our financial obligations owing under the Notes (the "Restructuring"), under the supervision of the JPLs. During the provisional liquidation, we operated our business under the day-to-day control of our Board under the supervision of the JPLs, in accordance with a protocol executed on October 16, 2020, which set out the terms upon which the JPLs and our Board would cooperate with respect to the management of the Company. Pursuant to the protocol, we were required to obtain the JPLs' approval in respect of key management matters, such as our cash allocation, certain outward payments and any steps proposed to be taken by our Board outside of the ordinary course of the business of the Company and its subsidiaries. Under Cayman Islands law, no suit, action or other proceedings could be commenced or continued against the Company in the Cayman Islands during the course of the provisional liquidation, without the leave of the Cayman Court. In addition, the commencement or continuation of suits, actions or proceedings in the territorial jurisdiction of the United States against the Company and its assets in the territorial jurisdiction of the United States. were stayed, to the extent provided in section 362 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "U.S. Bankruptcy Code"). This stay arose pursuant to the order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Bankruptcy Court") entered in the case commenced with respect to us under chapter 15 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (the "Chapter 15 Case"). The stay remained effective for the duration of the Chapter 15 Case, which was closed on April 8, 2022.

During the provisional liquidation, we negotiated the Restructuring under the supervision of the JPLs. On March 16, 2021, we announced that we had entered into a Restructuring Support Agreement (the “RSA”) with holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount outstanding under the Notes. We were required to complete certain milestones under the RSA, including obtaining reasonable assurance of funding outside the PRC in an amount sufficient to satisfy the cash consideration to be distributed to the holders of the Notes (the “Financing Milestone”). On June 15, 2021, we announced that we had completed the PRC regulatory approval process, including obtaining relevant approvals from The State Administration of Foreign Exchange (the “SAFE”) of the PRC through a designated PRC foreign exchange handling bank, to transfer such sufficient amount of funds out of the PRC through a planned capital reduction, which satisfied the Financing Milestone under the RSA. On September 1, 2021, we announced that the Company, the JPLs and the holders of a majority of the Notes had extended the milestone to launch the Scheme from September 1, 2021 to September 22, 2021. In accordance with the terms of the RSA (as amended), on September 20, 2021, we filed a summons and a petition in the Cayman Court seeking sanction of the Scheme and directions to convene a meeting of creditors affected by the Scheme. On November 30, 2021, the Scheme was unanimously approved by all creditors who attended the Scheme meeting (in person or by proxy), representing approximately 97.7% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Notes. On December 14, 2021, we announced that the Cayman Court had sanctioned the Scheme, which became fully effective in accordance with its terms on December 17, 2021 following the entry of a final order of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court recognizing and enforcing the Scheme in the territorial jurisdiction of the United States. On December 17, 2021, the Board entered into the Scheme Supervisor Protocol by which the JPLs were appointed in the capacity as Scheme Supervisors in respect of the Company and granted certain rights, powers and duties to oversee and monitor the finances and operations of the Company and its subsidiaries beyond the end of the provisional liquidation, subject to the terms of the Scheme Supervisor Protocol.

On January 28, 2022, the Restructuring of the Notes as contemplated by the Scheme became effective, and was substantially consummated. Subsequently, the parties to the amended winding-up petition (filed in substitution on January 7, 2021) applied consensually to the Cayman Court for leave to withdraw or have the petition dismissed. By order of the Cayman Court dated February 25, 2022, the petition was dismissed and the JPLs were formally discharged with effect from March 4, 2022, bringing the provisional liquidation to a close. In addition, a final report was filed with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court on March 4, 2022 requesting entry of an order closing the Chapter 15 Case, and the U.S. Bankruptcy Court entered an order closing the Chapter 15 Case on April 8, 2022. In aggregate, in exchange for the Notes, we have issued consideration to creditors under the Scheme totaling US$245.5 million of cash, the New Notes and 9,527,601 ADSs representing 76,220,808 Class A Ordinary Shares, which includes 291,699 ADSs issued on April 4, 2022 pursuant to the top-up mechanism under the Scheme, of which 25,004 ADSs were not claimed by creditors and therefore 200,032 Class A Ordinary Shares underlying such unclaimed ADSs were returned to the Company. We announced the redemption in full of the New Notes on August 26, 2022, which were our only offshore debt securities. The aggregate redemption price of the New Notes was US$115.6 million, which constitutes the aggregate principal amount outstanding plus the aggregate accrued interest. The aggregate redemption price was paid from our available offshore cash balance. With the full redemption of the New Notes, the role of the Scheme Supervisors under the previously announced RSA was terminated. See “Note 12 Convertible Senior Notes” to the Company’s consolidated financial statements included in this annual report.

In April 2021, we announced that we entered into the Investment Agreement with an affiliate of Centurium Capital, as the lead investor, and Joy Capital. Both Centurium Capital and Joy Capital are leading private equity investment firms in China and then current shareholders of the Company. Pursuant to the Investment Agreement, (i) Centurium Capital agreed to an investment, through a private placement, totaling US$240 million in Senior Preferred Shares of the Company, and (ii) Joy Capital agreed to an investment, through a private placement, totaling US$10 million in Senior Preferred Shares (collectively, the “Transactions”). On December 1, 2021, we announced that we closed the Investment Agreement with the lead investor, pursuant to which we issued and sold a total of 295,384,615 Senior Preferred Shares to the lead investor, with aggregate gross proceeds of US$240 million. On January 7, 2022, we closed the Investment Agreement with Joy Capital, pursuant to which we issued and sold a total of 12,307,692 Senior Preferred Shares to an affiliate controlled by Joy Capital, with aggregate gross proceeds of US$10 million. We used and plan to use the proceeds of the Transactions to facilitate the Restructuring and fulfill our obligations under the settlement with the SEC. For the SEC settlement, see “Item 8. Financial Information—8.A. Consolidated Statements and Other Financial Information—Legal Proceedings—Governmental and Regulatory Inquiries—SEC Investigation and Settlement.”

On September 20, 2021, we entered into a binding term sheet with the lead plaintiffs in the provisionally certified class action In re Luckin Coffee Inc. Securities Litigation, Case No.1:20-cv-01293-JPC-JLC (SDNY) to fully resolve all claims that have been or could be filed on behalf of the provisionally certified class of purchasers Company's ADS between May 17, 2019 through July 15, 2020, inclusive, and on October 20, 2021, we entered into a Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement reflecting the terms of the settlement (Federal Class Settlement). The amount of the Federal Class Settlement is US$175 million. The Federal Class Settlement was sanctioned by the Cayman Court overseeing the Company's "light touch" provisional liquidation on October 21, 2021, and received final approval from the U.S. Court overseeing the class action on July 22, 2022.

On January 21, 2022, we received a request from a Centurium Capital led buyer consortium that also includes IDG Capital and Ares SSG Capital Management (the "Buyer Consortium") to consent to close Centurium Capital's previously announced transaction to purchase an aggregate of 383,425,748 Class A Ordinary Shares (the "Sale Shares") from certain sellers (the "Secondary Sale"). The sellers are Primus Investment Fund, L.P. (in official liquidation) ("Primus"), Haode Investment Inc. (in liquidation) ("Haode") and Summer Fame Limited (in liquidation) ("Summer Fame", and collectively with Primus and Haode, the "Sellers"). The Sellers are affiliates of and were formerly controlled by Mr. Charles Zhengyao Lu and Ms. Jenny Zhiya Qian, former management members of the Company, and their families (the "Former Management Members"). The Sellers were ordered to be wound up and are currently in liquidation pursuant to an order of the Cayman Court in respect of Primus, and pursuant to orders of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court in the High Court of Justice of the British Virgin Islands (the "BVI Court") in respect of Haode and Summer Fame. The joint liquidators appointed in respect of the Sellers have exercised their statutory powers to enter into definitive documents to give effect to the Secondary Sale. Proceeds of the Secondary Sale are to be distributed by the joint liquidators to the creditors and stakeholders of each of the Sellers in accordance with the joint liquidators' statutory duties. Accordingly, we did not receive any of the proceeds from the Secondary Sale. By judgment dated January 17, 2022, the BVI Court sanctioned transactions that form part of the Secondary Sale, as required by the securities purchase agreement that gave effect to the Secondary Sale. After careful consideration, our Board and JPLs of the Company determined the Secondary Sale to be in the long-term best interest of the Company, and accordingly approved the transaction. On January 25, 2022, after receiving consent from the Company, the Buyer Consortium closed the Secondary Sale. Upon the closing of the Secondary Sale, the Former Management Members ceased to have any interest in the Sale Shares and Centurium Capital became our controlling shareholder, holding more than 50% of the voting interest of the Company. Our corporate headquarters is located at 28th Floor, Building T3, Haixi Jingu Plaza, 1-3 Taipei Road, Siming District, Xiamen, Fujian, PRC. Our telephone number at this address is +86-592-3386666. Our registered office in the Cayman Islands is located at the offices of Conyers Trust Company (Cayman) Limited, Cricket Square, Hutchins Drive, P.O. Box 2681, Grand Cayman, KY1-1111, Cayman Islands. Our agent for service of process in the United States is Cogency Global Inc. located at 122 East 42nd Street, 18th Floor, New York, N.Y. 10168.

Recent Regulatory Development

Cybersecurity Review Measures

On December 28, 2021, the CAC and several other regulatory authorities in China jointly promulgated the Cybersecurity Review Measures, which came into effect on February 15, 2022 and replaced its previous version promulgated on April 13, 2020. Pursuant to the Cybersecurity Review Measures, (i) where the relevant activity affects or may affect national security, a CIIO that purchases network products and services, or an internet platform operator that conducts data process activities, shall be subject to the cybersecurity review, (ii) an application for cybersecurity review shall be made by an issuer who is an internet platform operator holding personal information of more than one million users before such issuer applies to list its securities on a foreign stock exchange, and (iii) relevant governmental authorities in the PRC may initiate cybersecurity review if they determine an operator's network products or services or data processing activities affect or may affect national security. As of the date of this annual report, uncertainties still exist in relation to the interpretation and implementation of the Cybersecurity Review Measures. Although we have not been identified as a CIIO by any regulatory authority, we cannot rule out the possibility that we, or certain of our customers or suppliers, may be deemed as a CIIO. If we are deemed as a CIIO, our purchases of network products or services, if deemed to be affecting or may affect national security, will need to be subject to cybersecurity review, before we can enter into agreements with relevant customers or suppliers, and before the conclusion of such procedures, these customers will not be allowed to use our products or services, and we are not allowed to purchase products or services from our suppliers. For details of the associated risks, see "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—Our business generates and processes a large amount of data, which subjects us to evolving governmental regulations and other legal obligations related to privacy, cybersecurity, information security and data protection, many of which are subject to changes and uncertain interpretations. Any failure to comply with these governmental regulations and legal obligations, improper use or disclosure of such data by us, our employees or our business partners could subject us to significant reputational, financial, legal and operational consequences."

As of the date of this annual report, we have not been involved in any investigations or become subject to a cybersecurity review initiated by the CAC based on the Cybersecurity Review Measures, and we have not received any inquiry, notice, warning, sanctions in such respect or any regulatory objections to our listing status from the CAC.

Security Assessment Measures

On July 7, 2022, the CAC promulgated the Data Outbound Transfer Security Assessment Measures, or the Security Assessment Measures, which became effective on September 1, 2022. The Security Assessment Measures provide that, among others, data processors shall apply to competent authorities for security assessment when (1) the data processors transferring important data abroad; (2) a CIIO and personal information processor that has processed personal information of more than one million people, transferring personal information abroad; (3) a data processor who has provided personal information of one hundred thousand individuals or sensitive personal information of ten thousands individuals to overseas recipients, in each case as calculated cumulatively, since January 1 of the previous year; and (4) other circumstances where the security assessment of data cross-border transfer is required as prescribed by the CAC.

Administrative Provisions on the Account Information of Internet Users

The Administrative Provisions on the Account Information of Internet Users, which was promulgated by the CAC on June 27, 2022 and became effective on August 1, 2022, sets out guidelines on the administration of the account information of internet users. Internet-based information service providers shall perform their responsibilities as the administrative subjects of the account information of internet users, have in place professionals and technical capacity appropriate to the scale of services, and establish, improve and strictly implement the authentication of real identity information, verification of account information, security of information content, ecological governance, emergency responses, protection of personal information and other management systems.

Potential CSRC Approval or Filing Required for the Maintenance of Trading of Our ADSs

On July 6, 2021, certain PRC regulatory authorities issued Opinions on Strictly Cracking Down on Illegal Securities Activities. These opinions call for strengthened regulation over illegal securities activities and supervision on overseas listings by China-based companies and propose to take effective measures, such as promoting the development of relevant regulatory systems to deal with the risks and incidents faced by China-based overseas-listed companies.

On February 17, 2023, the CSRC released the Trial Administrative Measures of Overseas Securities Offering and Listing by Domestic Companies, or the Overseas Listing Trial Measures and five supporting guidelines, which came into effect on March 31, 2023. According to the Overseas Listing Trial Measures, (1) domestic companies that seek to offer or list securities overseas, both directly and indirectly, should fulfill the filing procedure and report relevant information to the CSRC; if a domestic company fails to complete the filing procedure or conceals any material fact or falsifies any major content in its filing documents, such domestic company may be subject to administrative penalties, such as order to rectify, warnings, fines, and its controlling shareholders, actual controllers, the person directly in charge and other directly liable persons may also be subject to administrative penalties, such as warnings and fines; (2) if the issuer meets both of the following conditions, the overseas offering and listing shall be determined as an indirect overseas offering and listing by a domestic company: (i) any of the total assets, net assets, revenues or profits of the domestic operating entities of the issuer in the most recent accounting year accounts for more than 50% of the corresponding figure in the issuer's audited consolidated financial statements for the same period; (ii) its major operational activities are carried out in China or its main places of business are located in China, or the senior managers in charge of operation and management of the issuer are mostly Chinese citizens or are domiciled in China; and (3) where a domestic company seeks to indirectly offer and list securities in an overseas market, the issuer shall designate a major domestic operating entity responsible for all filing procedures with the CSRC, and where an issuer makes an application for listing in an overseas market, the issuer shall submit filings with the CSRC within three business days after such application is submitted.

On the same day, the CSRC also held a press conference for the release of the Overseas Listing Trial Measures and issued the Notice on Administration for the Filing of Overseas Offering and Listing by Domestic Companies, which, among others, clarifies that the domestic companies that have already been listed overseas on or before the effective date of the Overseas Listing Trial Measures (i.e., March 31, 2023) shall be deemed as existing issuers, or the Existing Issuers. Existing Issuers are not required to complete the filling procedures, and they shall be required to file with the CSRC when subsequent matters such as refinancing are involved.

According to the Overseas Listing Trial Measures, an overseas listed company shall file with the CSRC within three business days after the completion of its subsequent securities offering on the same market, and an overseas listed company shall file with the CSRC within three business days after its application of offering and listing on a different market. If an overseas listed company purchase PRC domestic assets through a single or multiple acquisitions, share swaps, shares transfers or other means, and such purchase constitutes direct or indirect listing of PRC domestic assets, a filing with the CSRC is also required. In addition, an overseas listed company is required to report to the CSRC the occurrence of any of the following material events within three business days after the occurrence and announcement thereof: (i) a change of control of the listed company; (ii) the investigation, sanction or other measures undertaken by any foreign securities regulatory agencies or relevant competent authorities in respect of the listed company; (iii) a change of listing status or transfer of listing segment; and (iv) the voluntary or mandatory delisting of the listed company. If there is any material change of the principal business of the listed company after the overseas offering and listing so that the listed company is no longer required to file with the CSRC, it shall file a specific report and a legal opinion issued by a domestic law firm to the CSRC within three business days after the occurrence hereof.

We cannot assure you that we will not be required to obtain the approval of or complete the filing with the CSRC or other regulatory authorities to maintain the trading status of our ADSs or to conduct overseas securities offerings in the future. For details of the associated risks, see "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Corporate Structure—The approval, filing or other requirements of the CSRC, the CAC or other PRC government authorities may be required under PRC law in connection with our offshore securities offering (including equity securities and debt securities), and, if required, we cannot predict whether or for how long we will be able to obtain such approval." We have been closely monitoring regulatory developments in China regarding any necessary approvals from the CSRC, the CAC, or other PRC regulatory authorities required for overseas listings and securities offerings. As of the date of this annual report, we have not received any inquiry, notice, warning, sanctions or regulatory objection from the CSRC in this regard.

On February 24, 2023, the Provisions on Strengthening the Confidentiality and Archives Administration of Overseas Securities Issuance and Listing by Domestic Enterprises was promulgated, or the Provision on Confidentiality, which became effective on March 31, 2023. Pursuant to the Provision on Confidentiality, where a domestic enterprise publicly discloses or provides documents and materials involving state secrets and working secrets of state organs, or Relevant Documents and Materials, to the relevant securities companies, securities service institutions, overseas regulatory authorities and other entities and individuals, or provides or publicly discloses Relevant Documents and Materials through its overseas listing subjects, it shall report to the competent department with the examination and approval authority for approval in accordance with the law, and submit to the secrecy administration department of the same level for filing. Where a domestic enterprises provides accounting archives or copies of such archives to entities and individuals such as securities companies, securities service institutions and overseas regulatory authorities, it shall complete the corresponding procedures pursuant to relevant rules of the State. The working materials formed within the territory of the PRC by the securities companies and securities service institutions that provide corresponding services for the overseas issuance and listing of domestic enterprises shall be kept within the territory of the PRC, and outbound transfers of such materials shall go through approval procedures in accordance with relevant rules of the State.

Contractual Arrangements with the VIE and Its Nominee Shareholders

We established the VIE to hold certain foreign restricted licenses and permits which we might need in the future, such as the ICP license. The VIE also held some of our intellectual properties which have since been transferred to our PRC subsidiaries. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the VIE did not generate any revenue.

The contractual arrangements entered into by and among the Beijing WFOE, the VIE and its shareholders, as described in more detail below, allow us to:

- direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact its economic performance;
- receive substantially all of the economic benefits of the VIE for accounting purposes; and
- have an exclusive option to purchase all or part of the equity interest in and/or assets of the VIE when and to the extent permitted by PRC laws.

As a result of these contractual arrangements, we are the primary beneficiary of the VIE for accounting purposes and, therefore, have consolidated the financial results of the VIE in our consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. However, our contractual arrangements with the VIE may be less effective than having ownership in providing operational control and we may incur substantial costs to enforce the terms of the arrangements, and may not be successful.

In the opinion of our PRC legal counsel, King & Wood Mallesons:

- the ownership structure of the VIE is not in violation of applicable PRC laws and regulations currently in effect; and
- the contractual arrangements among the Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE, governed by PRC law, are legal, valid, binding and enforceable in accordance with its terms and applicable PRC laws.

However, our PRC legal counsel has also advised us that there are substantial uncertainties regarding the interpretation and application of current and future PRC laws, regulations and rules. Accordingly, the PRC regulatory authorities may take a view that is contrary to the opinion of our PRC legal counsel.

Material Licenses and Permits

As advised by our PRC legal counsel, King & Wood Mallesons, our PRC subsidiaries and the VIE have obtained all material licenses and approvals required for our operations in China, except as disclosed in “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risk Related to Our Business and Industry— Any lack of requisite approvals, licenses or permits applicable to our business may have a material and adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.” For risks relating to licenses and approvals required for our operations in China, see “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry.”

Pursuant to the relevant laws and regulations in PRC where our PRC subsidiaries and the VIE operate their business, we are required to maintain various approvals, licenses and permits, as well as to make certain filings, to operate our business, including business licenses, food operation licenses, fire safety inspections, single-purpose prepaid card filings and commercial franchise filings. If we fail to receive or maintain the necessary licenses, permits and approvals and make the necessary filings, we may be subject to fines, confiscation of the gains derived from the related operations or the suspension of related operations. If we inadvertently conclude that certain permissions or approvals are not required while the PRC regulatory authorities take a view that is contrary to our interpretation, we may be subject to fines, confiscation of the gains derived from the related operations or the suspension of related operations. If applicable laws, regulations or interpretations change and we are required to obtain certain permissions or approvals in the future, there can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain such permissions or approvals required for our existing business operations in a timely manner or at all, which could adversely affect our business operations.

Restrictions on Foreign Exchange and the Ability to Transfer Cash between Entities, Across Borders and to U.S. Investors

Luckin Coffee Inc.’s ability to pay dividends, if any, to its shareholders and ADS holders and to service any debt it may incur will depend upon dividends paid by our PRC subsidiaries. Under PRC laws and regulations, our PRC subsidiaries are subject to certain restrictions with respect to paying dividends or otherwise transferring any of their net assets offshore to Luckin Coffee Inc. In particular, under the current effective PRC laws and regulations, dividends may be paid only out of distributable profits.

Distributable profits are the net profit as determined under PRC GAAP, less any recovery of accumulated losses and appropriations to statutory and other reserves required to be made. Each of our PRC subsidiaries is required to set aside at least 10% of its after-tax profits each year, after making up previous years’ accumulated losses, if any, to fund certain statutory reserve funds, until the aggregate amount of such a fund reaches 50% of its registered capital. As a result, our PRC subsidiaries may not have sufficient distributable profits to pay dividends to us in the near future.

Furthermore, if certain procedural requirements are satisfied, the payment of current account items, including profit distributions and trade and service related foreign exchange transactions, can be made in foreign currencies without prior approval from State Administration of Foreign Exchange (the “SAFE”) or its local branches. However, where RMB is to be converted into foreign currency and remitted out of China to pay capital expenses, such as the repayment of loans denominated in foreign currencies, approval from or registration with competent government authorities or its authorized banks is required. The PRC government may take measures at its discretion from time to time to restrict access to foreign currencies for current account or capital account transactions. If the foreign exchange control system prevents us from obtaining sufficient foreign currencies to satisfy our foreign currency demands, we may not be able to pay dividends in foreign currencies to our offshore intermediary holding companies or ultimate parent company, and therefore, our shareholders or investors in our ADSs. Further, we cannot assure you that new regulations or policies will not be promulgated in the future, which may further restrict the remittance of RMB into or out of the PRC. We cannot assure you, in light of the restrictions in place, or any amendment to be made from time to time, that our current or future PRC subsidiaries will be able to satisfy their respective payment obligations that are denominated in foreign currencies, including the remittance of dividends outside the PRC. If any of our subsidiaries incurs debt on its own behalf in the future, the instruments governing such debt may restrict its ability to pay dividends to Luckin Coffee Inc. In addition, our PRC subsidiaries are required to make appropriations to certain statutory reserve funds, which are not distributable as cash dividends except in the event of a solvent liquidation of the companies.

For PRC and United States federal income tax consideration of an investment in the ADSs, see “Item 10. Additional Information—10.E. Taxation.”

Implication of the Holding Foreign Companies Accountable Act

The Holding Foreign Companies Accountable Act, or the HFCA Act, was enacted on December 18, 2020. According to the HFCA Act, if the SEC determines that we have filed audit reports issued by a registered public accounting firm that has not been subject to inspection by the PCAOB for two consecutive years, the SEC shall prohibit our shares or ADSs from being traded on a national securities exchange or in the over-the-counter trading market in the United States. On December 16, 2021, PCAOB issued the HFCA Act Determination Report, according to which our auditors are subject to the determinations. Our auditor, the independent registered public accounting firm that issues the audit report included elsewhere in this annual report, as an auditor of companies that are traded publicly in the United States and a firm registered with the PCAOB, is subject to laws in the United States pursuant to which the PCAOB conducts regular inspections to assess its compliance with the applicable professional standards. On August 26, 2022, the PCAOB signed a Statement of Protocol with the CSRC and the Ministry of Finance of the PRC, taking the first step toward opening access for the PCAOB to inspect and investigate registered public accounting firms headquartered in China completely. On December 15, 2022, the PCAOB announced that it was able to conduct inspections and investigations completely of PCAOB-registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong in 2022. The PCAOB vacated its previous 2021 Determinations accordingly. However, whether the PCAOB will continue to conduct inspections and investigations completely to its satisfaction of PCAOB-registered public accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong is subject to uncertainty and depends on a number of factors out of our, and our auditor's, control, including positions taken by authorities of the PRC. If the PCAOB determines in the future that it no longer has full access to inspect and investigate accounting firms headquartered in mainland China and Hong Kong and we continue to use such accounting firm to conduct audit work, we would be identified as a "Commission-Identified Issuer" under the HFCA ACT following the filing of the annual report for the relevant fiscal year, and if we were so identified for two consecutive years, trading in our securities on U.S. markets would be prohibited. For the details of the risks associated with the enactment of the HFCA ACT, see "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China—Trading in our ADSs on the OTC may be prohibited under the HFCA Act, if the PCAOB determines in the future that it no longer has full access to inspect or fully investigate our auditors. The prohibition of trading in our ADSs on the OTC may materially and adversely affect the value of your investment. If this happens there is no certainty that we will be able to list our Ordinary Shares on a non-U.S. exchange or that a market for our Ordinary Shares will develop outside the United States."

4.B. Business Overview

Our Mission

To create lucky moments and inspire.

Our Vision

To build a world-class coffee brand and become a part of everyone's daily life.

Our Values

At Luckin, our five core values define who we are and guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision:

- Integrity — We strive to be transparent and do what's right. This includes following the rules, speaking the truth and being objective, honest and transparent.
- Craftsmanship — We strive to provide products and services of the highest quality. This includes maintaining strict quality control measures, being receptive to the needs of our customers and continuously improving our products and services.
- Innovation — We strive to stay curious and be open-minded about new ideas. This includes stepping out of our comfort zone and exploring ways to be at the forefront of new ideas and technology.
- Ownership — We strive to work with passion and reach for excellence in whatever we do. This includes having an optimistic and proactive attitude to solving problems and being accountable for our actions.

- Cooperation — We strive to build an environment of trust with every partner. This includes respecting the views of our partners, sharing information with our partners and thinking from the perspective of our partners.

Overview

We believe we are one of the largest coffee networks in China in terms of the number of stores as of December 31, 2022. We have pioneered a technology-driven new retail model to provide coffee, tea and other products with high quality, high convenience and high affordability to our customers. We believe that our disruptive model has fulfilled the large unmet demand for coffee and driven its mass market consumption in China, while allowing us to achieve significant scale and growth since our inception.

Driven by technology, our new retail model is built upon our mobile apps and store network.

- Mobile apps: Our mobile apps cover the entire customer purchase process, offering our customers a cashier-less environment. This enhances our customer experience, improves our operating efficiency, and allows us to stay connected with our customers and engage them anytime, anywhere.
- Store network: We operate most stores on our own. We primarily operate two types of stores, namely pick-up stores and relax stores, for different purposes, and we strategically focus on pick-up stores, which accounted for 97.6% of our total self-operated stores as of December 31, 2022. Our pick-up stores have limited seating and are typically located in areas with high demand for coffee, such as office buildings, malls, shopping districts and university campuses. This enables us to stay close to our target coffee customers and expand rapidly with low rental and decoration costs. Additionally, we cooperate with our selective retail partners to open partnership stores they operate. We launched our retail partnership model initiative in September 2019 and opened the first partnership store in October 2019. This retail partnership model will complement our existing store network expansion strategy and enable us to penetrate new markets, especially lower tier cities, more efficiently and with limited capital requirements.

By disrupting the status quo of the traditional coffee shop model, we have gained significant cost advantages and provided attractive value propositions to our customers.

Technology is at the core of our business. With our centralized technology system, we are able to simplify and standardize our operations to improve operational efficiency and to quickly expand and scale up our business. We leverage our operating experiences and deep understanding of the coffee market in China, which enable us to continually enhance our products and services, drive customer engagement and improve customer retention. We also leverage our proprietary technologies in store operations and supply chain to support our business, such as new store selection, inventory management and workforce management.

We offer premium coffee, tea and other high-quality products to our customers. We source premium Arabica coffee beans from prominent suppliers and engage World Barista Champion teams to design our coffee recipes. We procure coffee machines and coffee condiments from renowned global suppliers such as Schaefer. Our Espresso blend coffee beans have won numerous awards, including the Gold Medal in the IIAC International Coffee Tasting competition in five consecutive years, from 2018 to 2022. We launched our Newer Latte in September 2020 and SOE coffee series in November 2020, which became popular and were well received by our customers. We also won the Platinum Medal in the IIAC International Coffee Tasting competition in 2020 for the Yirgacheffe coffee beans used for our SOE coffee series. In 2021, we launched our coconut milk series, which became a fast-selling product series that spread quickly and widely on social media and achieved record-breaking sales. We sold over 70 million cups of coconut milk latte in 2021. In 2022, we launched our cheese flavored latte and achieved gross sales of approximately 6.6 million cups within one week. Our coconut milk latte was selected as the Phenomenal Product in the 2021 Boom Grand, and our coconut milk series and cheese-flavored latte were listed on Living Trend of China and won the Flavor Innovation Leading Award by New Weekly in 2021 and 2022, respectively. To diversify our product offering and provide different experiences for our customers, we also partner with reputable suppliers for other products such as tea and light meals.

We have also been able to cultivate a large and loyal customer base and achieve strong growth. We expanded from a single trial store in Beijing to 5,652 self-operated stores and 2,562 partnership stores in nearly 240 cities in China as of December 31, 2022. We had 134.7 million cumulative transacting customers as of December 31, 2022.

China's coffee market is highly underpenetrated. Inconsistent quality, high prices and inconvenience have hampered the growth of the freshly brewed coffee market in China. We believe that our model has successfully driven mass market coffee consumption in China by addressing these pain points.

Our Strengths

We believe that the following strengths contribute to our success:

- Leading and fast growing player with extensive coffee network in China;
- Pioneer of disruptive new retail model anchored upon strong technology capabilities;
- Robust product development capabilities;
- Superior customer propositions: high quality, high affordability and high convenience;
- Strong supply chain with high resilience and premium quality; and
- Premium brand recognition.

Our Strategies

We intend to achieve our mission and further grow our business by pursuing the following strategies:

- Serve more people and further enhance customer retention and frequency;
- Expand our sales network through a well-balanced mix of self-operated and partnership stores;
- Continuously launch new product offerings with a focus on coffee-related SKUs;
- Further enhance our technological capabilities;
- Expand and optimize the management of our supply chain;
- Prudently explore expansion into overseas markets; and
- Improve operational efficiency by leveraging technological innovations, increased scale and enhanced organizational agility.

Our Store Network

We believe we are one of the largest coffee networks in China in terms of number of stores as of December 31, 2022. Most of our stores are self-operated and located in the economically vibrant regions in China. We primarily operate two types of stores, namely pick-up stores and relax stores, for different purposes. We strategically focus on pick-up stores, which are typically located in areas with high demand for coffee, such as office buildings, commercial areas and university campuses. This enables us to stay close to our target coffee customers and expand rapidly with low rental and decoration costs. We have continued to optimize our store portfolio and in particular during the second half of 2020. Following a detailed review of store performance, we strategically closed a substantial number of underperforming stores while opening new stores based on strict store opening criteria in strategic locations.

Self-Operated Store Model

We opened our first trial store in October 2017, and have rapidly expanded our self-operated store network. As of December 31, 2022, we had 5,652 self-operated stores in operation, including 5,516 pick-up stores and 136 relax stores. The table below sets forth a breakdown of our self-operated stores by store formats as of the dates indicated. Our self-operated store network covered around 60 cities, the majority of which are tier I and tier II cities, as of December 31, 2022.

Pick-up Stores

We strategically focus on pick-up stores, which accounted for 97.6% of our stores as of December 31, 2022. Pick-up stores are small-sized stores where our customers can pick up their orders or have their orders delivered to them.

Our pick-up stores are typically located in areas with high demand for coffee, such as office buildings, commercial areas and university campuses.

The majority of these stores generally range from 20 to 60 square meters in size and have limited seating. Such store set-up allows us to get closer to our coffee customers and expand rapidly by virtue of the low rental and decoration costs.

We leverage delivery services to achieve greater geographic coverage and serve more customers, especially when we expand into new areas and cities. Our delivery orders as a percentage of total orders were 20.6%, 27.4% and 28.6% in 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Relax Stores

We open relax stores for branding purposes. Our relax stores accounted for 2.4% of our stores as of December 31, 2022. Relax stores are generally spacious and larger than 120 square meters in size.

Store Network Expansion and Development

Our store network strategically focuses on economically vibrant regions in China. We typically locate our self-operated stores in areas with high demand for coffee, such as office buildings, commercial areas and university campuses.

When entering a new city, we strategically set up pick-up stores and accumulate valuable operating experiences. We leverage such experiences and our understanding of consumer behavior to precisely identify customer demand and guide us for network expansion plan.

Site Selection

Our headquarters formulates our national store expansion strategy and identifies potential sites for expansion. By leveraging our advanced technology platform, close cooperation with our city branches and our operational experience, we have developed site selection methodology that has significantly enhanced the effectiveness of our site selection. We have also devised a dedicated training program for our store development personnel, to pass on the relevant know-how to continuously optimize our site selection criteria.

Licenses and Compliance

We have standard internal protocols in place guiding city branches and our strategic expansion team in obtaining necessary licenses and permits before opening our stores, including but not limited to business licenses and food operation licenses. However, given local PRC administrative authorities vary in interpreting, implementing and enforcing relevant laws and regulations, we and our retail partners might not be able to obtain all applicable licenses and permits in a timely manner. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—Any lack of requisite approvals, licenses or permits applicable to our business may have a material and adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.”

Store Renovation and Other Preopening Preparation

We have an in-house renovation team responsible for the renovation and decoration of our self-operated stores. To maintain our consistent brand image and store quality, our headquarters prepares the design of all stores. We adopt standardized design for our pick-up stores, and such standardization allows us to carry out renovation procedures effectively, and recycle furnishing materials efficiently. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the average renovation and decoration expenses per our self-operated store was around RMB188,000, RMB184,000 and RMB181,396, respectively.

As part of the preopening preparation, we install machines, equipment and procure raw materials as well as other materials and consumables. Typically, each of our self-operated stores is equipped with two to three coffee machines and other equipment, such as ice machine and freezer. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the average costs for the procurement of coffee machines per our self-operated store was around RMB104,000, RMB102,000 and RMB97,105, respectively. For more information on procurement, see “—Supply Chain.”

Retail Partnership Model

Since September 2019, we started to cooperate with selective partners to operate our partnership stores. As of December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, we had 874, 1,627 and 2,562 partnership stores, respectively, covering 232 cities as of December 31, 2022.

We leverage our retail partners to efficiently expand our footprint, and we strategically select our partners to penetrate lower-tier cities. This partnership model has proved highly complementary to our self-operated store strategy. The partnership stores enable us to penetrate new markets and generate revenue without significant investment in assets. Additionally, we are able to leverage our local partners to enhance our customer insight to further improve our product design and service capabilities.

Under our retail partnership model, we provide our retail partners with our storefront design and other marketing materials to ensure a consistent brand image. We also provide our partners with our logistics network, as well as raw materials and equipment. Most importantly, we provide training to our partners, and the products sold at our partnership stores are subject to our strict product quality control. To ensure our partnership stores comply with our standards, we conduct regular store operation reviews. We do not charge a franchise fee and will begin to share in the profits of our partners only when the partnership stores reach a certain profitability threshold. Such arrangement provides incentives for these partners to work with us.

Our Mobile Apps

Our mobile apps offer customers a cashier-less environment, enabling them to purchase coffee, tea and other product items at their fingertips. Our mobile apps cover the entire customer purchase process with user-friendly interfaces. Through our mobile apps, our customers can easily choose the nearest store automatically recommended and view other store options, place orders in advance without queuing, make payment, watch live streams of the preparation of their drinks and receive real-time order status updates.

We offer an array of product selections, including coffee, tea, snacks, light meals and other products, and design our mobile apps to optimize the customer experiences. For example, once a customer adds his or her preference settings for a drink to favorites, our mobile apps will display their preference settings for the same drink the next time he or she places an order.

Our stores offer pick-up and/or delivery options. When placing orders, customers can choose between these two options and our mobile apps will give our customers estimated time for pick-ups or deliveries. Customers placing pick-up orders may specify the stores where they plan to pick up or dine-in. Delivery orders are assigned to the most suitable stores based on a number of factors such as the stores’ distance to the customers, order processing capacity and inventory.

Our mobile apps offer multiple payment options to our customers. We accept a variety of payment methods, including Weixin Pay, Alipay and Union Pay. Customers may also purchase our drinks using the vouchers stored in the “Coffee Wallet” of our Luckin mobile app.

To provide our customers with real-time updates on their orders, we have specially designed a live-streaming feature in our mobile apps to give our customers the option to watch the drinks preparation process. This feature helps us build trust among our customers and also offers them a novel customer experience.

We notify customers via Weixin message, in-app notifications and short messaging service. This way, our customers can pick up their orders without queuing up at the stores. For delivery orders, we partner with our delivery service providers and provide real-time location, delivery rider contact details and estimated arrival time on our mobile apps. See “—Delivery Services.”

Furthermore, we have additional features on our mobile apps for corporate account customers. Our corporate clients may grant authorization to their employees so that their employees can place orders via the corporate account and enjoy corporate prices.

Our Product Offerings

We offer a wide variety of high-quality food and beverage items, mainly freshly brewed coffee. We offer both hot and iced freshly brewed coffee such as Americano, Latte, Cappuccino, Macchiato, Flat White and Mocha, and from time to time also offer specialty coffee based on market and seasonal trends. Our coffee recipes are tailored to Chinese customers’ palette based on results of extensive study and research.

Our success is powered by our robust product development capabilities. We have a product development center, staffed with around 60 dedicated employees as of December 31, 2022 and expanding, committed to developing cutting-edge product design and premium product quality. In 2022, we launched 108 new SKUs of freshly brewed drinks. With our blockbuster products, such as coconut milk latte, and leading frequency of product releases, we believe our product development capabilities stand at the frontline of the coffee industry in China.

We have been constantly rolling out new products that became popular among customers and well recognized by KOLs. Our major selective product releases include:

- Coconut milk series. Launched in April 2021, our coconut milk series spread quickly and widely on social media and achieved record-breaking sales. Over 70 million cups of coconut milk latte were sold in 2021. The series were listed on 2021 Living Trend of China by New Weekly, and coconut milk latte was selected as the Phenomenal Product in the 2021 Boom Grand and the Next 30 in Global Tech: Innovative Consumer Products in the World Innovators Meet 2021.
- Velvet series. The velvet series was another of our widely celebrated product series. Known as “the first cup of velvet latte in autumn” on social media, our velvet latte has been one of our best-sellers since its launch in September 2021. We also released our coconut milk velvet series to promote cross selling by leveraging the established market popularity of our coconut milk series.
- SOE coffee series. Our SOE coffee series, currently consisting of Yirgacheffe and Hambella, is representative of our premium products that have received recognition from coffee professionals. Featuring the award-winning Hambella 5.0 green beans from Ethiopia, our Hambella series has been one of the most talked about coffee products on social media in China and sold quickly since its release in 2022. We also won the Platinum Medal in the IIAC International Coffee Tasting competition in 2020 for the Yirgacheffe coffee beans used for our SOE products.
- Newer series. Launched in September 2020, the Newer series is one of our signature innovative products and has been contributing to our sales. With creamy milk add-ons that balance the bitterness of natural coffee, our Newer series has been well received by Chinese consumers and successfully attracted new customers who were not used to drinking coffee.

- Luckin Exfreezo series. Our Exfreezo drink series is one of our most successful non-coffee products. With a wide variety of flavors and fast-adapting seasonal offerings, the Luckin Exfreezo series complements our product portfolio to cover incremental customer demand and to accommodate changing consumer preferences.

Going forward, we aspire to drive the trend in coffee consumption in China and endeavor to continuously offer innovative food and beverage products that have strong demand and high quality, with a focus on freshly brewed coffee drinks.

We also explore supplemental product offerings in addition to coffee. For example, as tea drinks have become increasingly popular, particularly among young people in China, we offer selective tea drinks to cater to certain consumers' preferences. We also work with reputable suppliers to offer pre-made beverages and pre-made food items, such as pastries, sandwiches and snacks.

In addition, we provide various "Luckin Pop" e-commerce offerings, such as our premium instant coffee and inspirational cups on our mobile apps and e-commerce platforms we collaborated. Such diversity of our product offerings caters to a variety of consumer needs, expands the foothold of our Luckin brand, enhances our brand power and increases customer loyalty.

We are committed to maintaining and improving product quality. We source premium Arabica coffee beans from prominent suppliers and engage World Barista Champion teams to design our coffee recipes. We also source our premium SOE coffee beans in China (Yunnan), Columbia and Ethiopia. We procure coffee machines and coffee condiments from renowned global suppliers such as Schaefer. Our coffee beans have won numerous awards, including winning the Gold Medal in the IIAC International Coffee Tasting competition for five consecutive years from 2018 to 2022. We also partner with reputable suppliers for our other products such as light meals. See "—Supply Chain."

Branding, Marketing and Sales

Since inception, we have successfully built a premium brand of distinguished value propositions—high quality, high convenience and high affordability. We believe we are one of the leading coffee brands in China, with strong brand equity and a brand image of professionalism, youth, fashion and wellness, captured by our new slogan "Livin' Young, Luckin On". In 2022, Luckin ranked among the Top 50 Emerging Chinese Consumption Brands with Strong Growth of the Year by CBNData, and was also awarded the Top Chinese Brand of 2022 by YiMagazine. Our brand ambassadors include several world-renowned baristas and celebrities welcomed especially by young generations in China. Our superior brand and distinguished value propositions allow us to expand our business through word of mouth.

Starting from April 2020, we have implemented two cost-effective initiatives to refine our customer operations, grow our customer base and increase our wallet share, which we believe are critical to our success. First, we leverage our operating experiences and technology capabilities to deepen our understanding of the coffee market in China and to learn and discover patterns of customer behavior, so that we are able to improve our customer experience and in turn to increase customer engagement and sales of our products. Secondly, we endeavor to build private domain traffic in our Luckin mobile app, Weixin mini program and Weixin ecosystem, cultivating a comprehensive private domain ecosystem that enables us to acquire and retain our customers with continuous consumptions. As a result of our marketing efforts and keen understanding of consumers, we successfully developed various blockbuster products that spread quickly and widely on social media and sold quickly, such as coconut milk latte, velvet latte and cheese flavored latte, which we leveraged to expand our customer base and to enhance brand recognition. See "— Our Product Offerings."

We have adopted a multi-channel branding and advertising strategy. We collaborate with popular cultural and sports icons, sponsor events and movies as well as initiate viral and interactive marketing and advertising. In addition, we leverage our existing customer base and their social networks to promote our products by strategically placing ads on social network platforms, such as Weixin, to attract customers. We also promote our products by engaging KOLs and broadcasting in trendy content channels, including video live streaming platforms to boost marketing effectiveness.

Delivery Services

We fulfill customer orders with speedy delivery so that they can enjoy our coffee, tea and other products on time. Our delivery fee schedule is competitively priced, and we offer our customers a discount on the delivery fee if the total order value (based on item list price) exceeds a certain threshold. We have outsourced delivery services to various selected delivery companies. Through our own delivery system and the integration with delivery companies' system, we are able to improve order-rider matching based on our store location, customer locations and real-time locations of delivery riders, and monitor and track the delivery process. In 2022, approximately 99.4% of our orders were delivered on time.

Customer Services

Leveraging our new retail model and strong technology capabilities, we stay connected with our customers and engage them virtually anytime, anywhere. We also offer our customers a cashier-less environment, limit their queuing time, and enable them to purchase coffee, tea and other product items at their fingertips. See “—Our Mobile Apps” and “—Our Store Network.”

Our mobile apps enable us to track each order placed with us. We evaluate and track our customers' feedback 24/7 through our mobile apps, Weixin Official Account and other social media channels. Our customers can ask questions, provide reviews and file complaints through our mobile apps or Weixin Official Account or call our service representatives. We leverage self-service tools and AI-powered automated customer service chatbots to answer frequently asked questions from our customers efficiently, and also engage a dedicated customer service team to address more complicated issues.

We value our customers' opinions and encourage our customers to give reviews. We regularly analyze our customer feedback, through which we identify causes of customer dissatisfaction and improve our products and services accordingly. To motivate and maintain high-quality customer service at storefronts, we consider customer feedback a key performance indicator when evaluating individual store performance.

Supply Chain

We source a variety of high-quality raw materials, including coffee beans, coffee condiments, ingredients, and tea leaves, as well as pre-made food and beverage items, from selected suppliers. We also purchase different equipment, such as coffee machines, ice machines, packaging materials and other consumables in bulk from our suppliers. Due to our significant scale, we are able to procure high-quality products from our suppliers at favorable prices.

To help ensure the stable supply of our major raw materials, we have identified a number of reliable suppliers and established strong relationships with them. Moreover, we continue to deepen the penetration into the upstream of our supply chain through the meticulous design of the recipes and the stringent control over the entire production process, aiming to guarantee our product quality and improve our production efficiency. For example, we commenced the construction of our second fully automatic intelligent coffee roasting facility in Kunshan, Jiangsu in late 2022, expecting to continuously expanding the leading edge of our supply chain in terms of scale. Based on our relationships with reliable suppliers and our increasing involvement in the supply chain, we believe the risk of systematic shortage of our major raw materials is generally low. However, we may experience temporary supply shortages or transportation delays due to unexpected circumstances, such as changes in customer demand and behaviors as well as impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—Any disruption to our supply chain and delivery services would negatively impact our business.”

Coffee Beans

We source premium green coffee beans from renowned plantations in China (Yunnan), Guatemala, Brazil, Ethiopia and Colombia, among others, and we only cooperate with selective coffee bean suppliers to ensure the high quality of our products. As of the date of this annual report, our main roasted coffee bean suppliers include Luckin Coffee Roasting (Pingnan) Co., Ltd., one of our PRC subsidiaries, and Kunshan Yizheng Coffee Co., Ltd. To solidify our control over the process of sourcing and roasting coffee beans, we endeavor to construct and operate our own coffee roasting plants. As of the date of this annual report, we own two coffee roasting facilities, one is in Pingnan, Fujian with approximately 45,000 square meters and the other is in Kunshan, Jiangsu with approximately 53,000 square meters which is under construction. We have been negotiating with coffee bean providers who are interested in investing in our coffee roasting plants.

To enhance quality control of green coffee beans, we now purchase all the green coffee beans directly and supply them to our roasted coffee bean suppliers.

We set detailed specifications for green coffee beans based on their origin, including size, flavor and moisture. We employ three rounds of quality screening to ensure the quality of the green coffee beans from the coffee beans origin to the roasting facilities.

We have set up a designated coffee beans quality control team in our headquarters, as well as OEM production management teams at each coffee roasting facility. These teams carry out quality control checks of each batch of the roasted coffee beans. In addition, our coffee beans quality control team performs quality checks of coffee beans in our warehouses.

Condiments and Ingredients

Coffee condiments, mainly dairy products and syrup, are crucial to the overall quality of our coffee. We source our dairy products, mainly milk and cream, from leading suppliers to ensure their freshness and syrup mainly from distributors of imported syrup. We also source ingredients such as fruits from leading suppliers to ensure that we provide high-quality products for our customers.

Similar to coffee beans, we have in place stringent quality control measures regarding condiments and ingredients. For example, we work with our dairy suppliers in conducting various testing on dairy products.

Tea Leaves and Tea Powder

We source various kinds of premium tea leaves, including green tea, Oolong tea and black tea, and tea powder, such as matcha, from leading suppliers to ensure their fresh taste and aroma.

We set detailed specifications for the tea leaves procured by our suppliers, including weight and packaging requirements, places of origin, shape, fragrance and color of tea leaves. We conduct sample testing on tea leaves before preparing our tea drinks and reject any products which fail to meet our standards.

Pre-made Food and Beverage Items

We purchase high-quality pre-made food and beverage items, including water, pastries and breads, from a few selected national, regional and local sources. We are actively seeking additional suppliers to increase our product offerings.

We require our suppliers to supply products according to agreed-upon specifications, including weight and packaging requirements for standardized products and weight of each ingredient, plate presentation and production procedures for customized products, and are entitled to return any products that fail to meet such standards.

Machines and Equipment

We use premium coffee machines and other machines and equipment from renowned global suppliers. We primarily procure coffee machines directly from manufacturers and rely on a combination of manufacturers and distributors for other machines and equipment.

Our coffee machines and other machines generally come with one to two years' warranty, during which period the manufacturers will provide training on installation and maintenance of the machines and also provide free repair and maintenance services. We have also assembled an engineering team which is in charge of daily repair and maintenance of machines. We have a centralized monitoring system that automatically monitors the performance of our coffee machines and promptly reports any repair and maintenance requests. We are in the process of integrating all our coffee machines into our centralized monitoring system.

Packaging Materials and Other Consumables

In addition to food and beverage items, we procure a broad range of paper and plastic products, such as cups, straws and cutlery, from a number of suppliers.

We inspect the categories, specifications and qualities of our packaging materials and other consumables supplies against our standards set out in the respective supply agreements.

Warehouse and Fulfillment

We do not own any warehouses, and currently cooperate with three renowned third-party warehouse and fulfillment service providers, for our inventory storage, fulfillments between warehouses, and fulfillments from warehouses to our stores. Our warehouse and fulfillment service providers are responsible for the management of our inventory stored at their warehouses, in collaboration with our employees we assign to these warehouses. As of December 31, 2022, we leased approximately 30 warehouses across China from third-party logistics providers.

We maintain an intelligent warehouse management system and order management system that are integrated with the systems of our warehouse and fulfillment service providers. Our systems enable real-time analysis of the sales status at each store and automated order placement with our leased warehouses for replenishment purposes. We are also able to track inventory level at each leased warehouse in realtime, and monitor and administer warehouse operations from the moment goods enter the warehouses until they are dispatched and delivered to our stores.

Food Safety and Quality Control

We pay close attention to food safety and quality control, monitoring each step in the food and beverage preparation process from procurement to store operation and from warehousing to delivery. In 2021, we set up a cross-functional Food Safety and Quality Control Committee chaired by our CEO to oversee important food safety matters.

Suppliers. We carefully select our suppliers through a stringent selection process and assess the performance of our suppliers on a regular basis. During the supplier selection process, we review their qualifications and conduct onsite visits and inspection. Once the suppliers are on board, we monitor their daily operations and conduct regular evaluations. In our agreements with suppliers, we have in place anti-kickback policies to ensure the integrity of our food safety and quality control and procurement systems.

Inventories. We send our staff to each leased warehouse regularly to make sure that inventories are well categorized and properly stored, that our suppliers and warehouse and fulfillment service providers are following our food safety and quality control protocols, and that any defective goods are immediately disposed.

Stores. We have established an efficient reporting structure and mechanism for monitoring the daily operations of our stores. We are determined to maintain high-level and consistent service quality across all of our stores. We have a detailed employee code of conduct, including specific requirements on the usage and storage of raw materials and other food and beverage items, equipment handling, store environment and delivery service management. We regularly evaluate the performance of our store managers and employees, the results of which are linked to their performance-based salary and promotion opportunities. When selecting our retail partners, we usually conduct comprehensive evaluations based on a set of stringent criteria. We also provide extensive training to our retail partners. We will also supervise our retail partners, and we reserve the right to terminate our cooperation with them if they fail to adhere to our standards.

We conduct onsite inspection to check whether the operations of stores meet our criteria of food safety and quality control. We also conduct environmental microbiological testing at our stores to ensure a hygienic coffee-making environment, and initiate proposals from time to time to improve our store operations and enhance customer experience.

Technology

Technology is at the core of our business. Our technology covers every aspect of our business, from customer engagement, storefront operations to supply chain management. We continually leverage our operation experience to optimize our technology systems, coping with our business needs. Our focus on technologies has enabled us to optimize customer experience, operate efficiently and grow rapidly while maintaining quality control.

We leverage our capabilities in data analytics to deepen our understanding of the market. Equipped with such understanding, we are able to recommend products to our customers with more precision and personalize their menus for easy ordering, so that we can offer superior user experience to our customers and improve the efficiency of our operations.

We leverage our strong technology capabilities to streamline our storefront operations and optimize workforce management. Our smart scheduling system automatically schedules staff shifts and order assignments. We also have an automated in-store inventory management system that connects our stores with our warehouses, which analyzes sales, supply and inventory status for each store in real time, and enables us to timely and sufficiently stock up our stores and limit overall waste.

Our smart supply chain management system integrates intelligent warehousing management and order management functions, enabling us to accurately predict demand and manage our inventory. Supported by our strong data analytics capabilities and smart supply chain management system, we are able to intelligently forecast demand, analyze inventory and place orders directly with suppliers, which allows us to further reduce our procurement costs and improve operational efficiency.

Intellectual Property

We develop and protect our intellectual property portfolio by registering our trademarks, copyrights and domain names. As of February 28, 2023, we own 1,650 registered trademarks with the Trademark Office of the PRC National Intellectual Property Administration, 23 registered copyrights of software and 19 registered copyrights of works with the PRC National Copyright Administration, and 11 domain names with the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology.

In addition, we have entered into standard employee confidentiality agreements with our technology development employees, which provide that the employees own confidentiality obligations in relation to our trade and technology secrets and we own intellectual property rights of works developed within the scope of employment of the employees.

User Privacy and Data Security

Various laws and regulations, such as the Civil Code of the PRC, the Cybersecurity Law of the PRC, the Data Security Law of the PRC, which took effect on September 1, 2021, the Personal Information Protection Law of the PRC, which took effect on November 1, 2021, the Administrative Provisions on the Account Information of Internet Users, which took effect on August 1, 2022, and the Security Assessment Measures, which took effect on September 1, 2022, govern the collection, use, retention, sharing and security of the personal data we receive from and about our users. Privacy groups and government bodies have increasingly scrutinized the ways in which companies link personal identities and data associated with particular users with data collected through the internet, and we expect such scrutiny to continue to increase.

We have adopted policies, procedures and guidelines and update these policies, procedures and guidelines from time to time, in order to comply with these laws and regulations and protect the personal privacy of our customers and the security of their data. We also conduct regular information security training for our employees to further elevate their awareness. In addition, we have a dedicated cybersecurity team, which is responsible for formulating and implementing systems related to user privacy and data security, as well as monitoring system vulnerabilities and detecting coding errors. To keep abreast with recent regulatory developments, we have engaged external cybersecurity experts to advise on and evaluate the security performance of our information system and maintained active communication with regulatory authorities. In December 2022, our self-developed Luckin mobile app's level of classified protection was graded level 3 by China Software Test Center pursuant to the Information Security Technology – Evaluation Requirement for Classified Protection of Cybersecurity issued by the PRC Standardization Administration. Our self-developed Luckin mobile app has passed the evaluation by the China Cybersecurity Review Technology and Certification Center (the "CCRC") and obtained the CCRC-APP security certification. We were also accredited to ISO27001 Information Security Management System certification by British Standards Institution (the "BSI") in 2022.

Our Board has general oversight power over cybersecurity issues and delegates the daily supervision responsibility to our chief executive officer, Dr. Guo. The head of our IT department directly reports cybersecurity status to Dr. Guo, and in case of a cybersecurity incident, Dr. Guo will report the incident to our Board to take appropriate and timely measures in response to the incident. In 2022 and up to the date of this annual report, we did not experience any leakage or loss of user data or any other data security incidents, nor did we receive any administrative penalty regarding user privacy and data security issues.

See also "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—Our business generates and processes a large amount of data, which subjects us to evolving governmental regulations and other legal obligations related to privacy, cybersecurity, information security and data protection, many of which are subject to changes and uncertain interpretations. Any failure to comply with these governmental regulations and legal obligations, improper use or disclosure of such data by us, our employees or our business partners could subject us to significant reputational, financial, legal and operational consequences."

Competition

We face intense competition in China's coffee industry and food and beverage sector in general. Our current or potential competitors are mainly coffee shop operators.

We believe that the principal competitive factors in China coffee industry include the following:

- Store network;
- Product quality and safety;
- Product pricing;
- Supply chain management and operating efficiency;
- Quality of customer service;
- Brand recognition and reputation;
- Effectiveness of sales and marketing; and
- Customer experience.

We believe that we are well positioned to effectively compete on the basis of the factors listed above. However, our competitors may have longer operating history, greater brand recognition, more capital, better supplier relationships and a larger customer base. For discussion of risks relating to our competitors, see "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—We face intense competition in China's coffee industry and food and beverage sector in general, and our products are not proprietary. If we fail to compete effectively, we may lose market share and customers, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected."

Sustainable Development

Sustainable Development Committee

To enhance our environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) initiatives, the Board has established a Sustainable Development Committee, comprised of certain directors, executives and external experts, to advise the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with regard to sustainability matters. The Sustainable Development Committee is co-chaired by Mr. Weihao (Michael) Chen and Dr. Jinyi Guo, who will be responsible for developing and implementing sustainability related initiatives, policies and disclosures.

Corporate Governance Report

We released our Corporate Governance Report for the period January 1, 2022 through September 30, 2022, highlighting the Company's focus on corporate innovation and sustainable development, and is aimed at helping Luckin Coffee stakeholders better understand its operations and long-term strategic priorities. The full report is available on the Company's website: <https://investor.lkcoffee.com/corporate-governance/governance>.

The report discloses information and developments on Luckin Coffee's strengthened corporate governance concepts, structure and practices. Below are some of the key highlights of our corporate governance initiatives and practices, as outlined in the report:

- Introduced the Company's core values of integrity, craftsmanship, innovation, ownership and cooperation;
- Reshaped corporate governance structure to enable a multi-faceted supervision system with clear segregation of duties;

Table of Contents

- Implemented a “Three Lines of Defense” risk management structure which utilizes a cross-organizational, multi-functional audit and control mechanism;
- Established Sustainable Development Committee and introduced an environmental, social and governance framework;
- Implemented strict quality-control measures, guided by Food Safety and Quality Control Committee which identifies, assesses, mitigates and continuously monitors all product quality-related risks;
- Developed a stringent raw material management system to ensure product quality and safety and integrate ethical supply chain practices;
- Conducted multiple training programs to support the diversity and the rapid growth of the Company’s personnel; nearly 50% of full-time staff are women.

Sustainability Strategic Direction

We announced our sustainability strategic direction: we plan to leverage the advantages of the internet and digitalization, starting from the promotion of a sustainable business model, the construction of sustainable value chain and the cultivation of sustainable social ecology, to link a wider range of value chain partners, and strive to create value for the economy, society and environment. Based on this, we aim to develop the sustainable development strategy, goals and commitments of Luckin Coffee within 2023, and promote comprehensive sustainable development practices with a scientific and prudent attitude.

Compliance, Licenses and Permits

For compliance requirements related to our business, including applicable licenses and permits, see “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Regulation.” For risks in relation to deficiencies of applicable license and permits, see “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—Any lack of requisite approvals, licenses or permits applicable to our business may have a material and adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.”

Insurance

We provide social security insurance including medical insurance, maternity insurance, workplace injury insurance, unemployment insurance and pension benefits for our employees. We provide personal accident insurance for certain of our management. Consistent with customary industry practice in China, we do not have adequate business interruption insurance to cover our operations and potential product liabilities. We have obtained insurance to cover certain potential risks and liabilities, such as public liability insurance, property all risks, engineering all risks and safety manufacturing insurance. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—We have limited insurance coverage, which could expose us to significant costs and business disruption.”

Enforcement of Civil Liabilities

Cayman Islands

We are incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted company with limited liability. We enjoy the following benefits:

- political and economic stability;
- an effective judicial system;
- a favorable tax system;

Table of Contents

- the absence of exchange control or currency restrictions; and
- the availability of professional and support services.

However, certain disadvantages accompany incorporation in the Cayman Islands. These disadvantages include, but are not limited to, the following:

- the Cayman Islands has a less developed body of securities laws as compared to the United States and these securities laws provide significantly less protection to investors; and
- Cayman Islands companies may not have standing to sue before the federal courts of the United States.

Our constitutional documents do not contain provisions requiring that disputes, including those arising under the securities laws of the United States, between us, our officers, directors and shareholders, be arbitrated.

Substantially all of our operations are conducted in China, and a most of our assets are located in China. All of our directors and executive officers are nationals or residents of jurisdictions other than the United States and a substantial portion of their assets are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for a shareholder to effect service of process within the United States upon these persons, or to enforce against us or them judgments obtained in United States courts, including judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state in the United States.

We have appointed Cogency Global Inc. as our agent upon whom process may be served in any action brought against us under the securities laws of the United States.

Harney Westwood & Riegels, our counsel as to Cayman Islands law, and King & Wood Mallesons, our counsel as to PRC law, have advised us, respectively, that there is uncertainty as to whether the courts of the Cayman Islands and China, respectively, would: recognize or enforce judgments of United States courts obtained against us or our directors or officers predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state in the United States; or entertain original actions brought in each respective jurisdiction against us or our directors or officers predicated upon the securities laws of the United States or any state in the United States.

We have been advised by our Cayman Islands legal counsel, Harney Westwood & Riegels, that the courts of the Cayman Islands are unlikely (i) to recognize or enforce against us judgments of courts of the United States predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any State; and (ii) in original actions brought in the Cayman Islands, to impose liabilities against us predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any State, so far as the liabilities imposed by those provisions are penal in nature. In those circumstances, although there is no statutory enforcement in the Cayman Islands of judgments obtained in the United States, the courts of the Cayman Islands, will, at common law, recognize and enforce a foreign money judgment of a foreign court of competent jurisdiction without retrial on the merits based on the principle that a judgment of a competent foreign court imposes upon the judgment debtor an obligation to pay the sum for which judgment has been given provided certain conditions are met. For such a foreign judgment to be enforced in the Cayman Islands, such judgment must be final and conclusive and for a liquidated sum, and must not be in respect of taxes or a fine or penalty, inconsistent with a Cayman Islands judgment in respect of the same matter, impeachable on the grounds of fraud or obtained in a manner, and or be of a kind the enforcement of which is, contrary to natural justice or the public policy of the Cayman Islands (awards of punitive or multiple damages may well be held to be contrary to public policy). A Cayman Islands court may stay enforcement proceedings if concurrent proceedings are being brought elsewhere.

PRC

We have been advised by King & Wood Mallesons, our PRC legal counsel, that there is uncertainty as to whether the courts of the PRC would enforce judgments of United States courts or Cayman courts obtained against us or these persons predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the United States federal and state securities laws. King & Wood Mallesons has further advised us that the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments are provided for under PRC Civil Procedures Law. PRC courts may recognize and enforce foreign judgments in accordance with the requirements of PRC Civil Procedures Law based either on treaties between China and the country where the judgment is made or on reciprocity between jurisdictions. China does not have any treaties or other form of reciprocity with the United States or the Cayman Islands that provide for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments. In addition, according to the PRC Civil Procedures Law, courts in the PRC will not enforce a foreign judgment against us or our directors and officers if they decide that the judgment violates the basic principles of PRC law or national sovereignty, security or public interest. As a result, it is uncertain whether and on what basis a PRC court would enforce a judgment rendered by a court in the United States or in the Cayman Islands. Under the PRC Civil Procedures Law, foreign shareholders may originate actions based on PRC law against us in the PRC, if they can establish sufficient nexus to the PRC for a PRC court to have jurisdiction, and meet other procedural requirements, including, among others, the plaintiff must have a direct interest in the case, and there must be a concrete claim, a factual basis and a cause for the suit. However, it would be difficult for foreign shareholders to establish sufficient nexus to the PRC by virtue only of holding the ADSs or our Ordinary Shares.

Regulation

This section sets forth a summary of the most significant rules and regulations that affect our business activities in China or our shareholders' rights to receive dividends and other distributions from us.

Regulations on Food Safety and Licensing Requirement for Customer Food Services

Food Safety Law

In accordance with the Food Safety Law of the PRC, or the Food Safety Law, as effective on June 1, 2009 and most recently amended on April 29, 2021, the State Council implements a licensing system for the food production and trading. A person who engages in food production, food selling or catering services shall obtain the license in accordance with the Food Safety Law.

According to the Food Safety Law, the State Council shall establish a food safety committee whose duties shall be defined by the State Council. The food safety supervision and administration department under the State Council shall exercise supervision and administration over food production and trading activities according to the duties defined by the law and the State Council. The health administrative department under the State Council shall organize the implementation of risk monitoring and risk assessment of food safety according to the duties defined by the Food Safety Law, and shall formulate and issue national food safety standards together with the food safety supervision and administration department under the State Council. Other relevant departments under the State Council shall carry out relevant food safety work according to the duties defined by the Food Safety Law.

The Food Safety Law sets out, as penalties for violation, various legal liabilities in the form of warnings, orders to rectify, confiscations of illegal gains, confiscations of utensils, equipment, raw materials and other articles used for illegal production and operation, fines, recalls and destruction of food in violation of laws and regulations, orders to suspend production and/or operation, revocations of production and/or operation license, and even criminal punishment.

The Implementation Rules of the Food Safety Law, as effective on July 20, 2009 and most recently amended on October 11, 2019 and effective on December 1, 2019, further specify the detailed measures to be taken and conformed to food producers and business operators in order to ensure food safety as well as the penalties that shall be imposed should these required measures not be implemented.

Food Operation Licensing

On August 31, 2015, the China Food and Drug Administration promulgated the Administrative Measures for Food Operation Licensing, which was amended on November 17, 2017. According to the Administrative Measures for Food Operation Licensing, a food operation license shall be obtained in accordance with the law to engage in food selling and catering services within China. The principle of one license for one site shall apply to the licensing for food operation, that is, a food operator shall obtain a food operation license to engage in food operation activities in one operation site. Food and drug administrative authorities shall implement classified licensing for food operation according to food operators' types of operation and the degree of risk of their operation projects.

The issuance date of a food operation license is the date when the decision on granting the license is made and the license is valid for five years. Food operators shall hang or place their food operation license originals in prominent places of their operation sites.

Where the licensing items that are indicated on a food operation license change, the food operator shall, within ten business days after the changes take place, apply to the food and drug administrative authority that originally issued the license for alteration of the operation license. Those who fail to obtain a food operation license and engage in food operation activities shall be punished by the local food and drug administrative authorities at or above the county level according to Article 122 of the Food Safety Law, which states that the authorities shall confiscate their illegal income, the food or food additives illegally produced or dealt in, and the tools, equipment, raw materials, and other items used for illegal production or operation; and impose a fine of not less than RMB50,000 but not more than RMB100,000 on them if the goods value of the food or food additives illegally produced or dealt in is less than RMB10,000 or a fine of not less than 10 times but not more than 20 times the goods value if the goods value is RMB10,000 or more.

Online Catering Services

In accordance with the Measures for the Supervision and Administration of the Safety of Food Offered through Online Catering Services, as effective on January 1, 2018 and amended on October 23, 2020, online catering service providers shall have their own physical stores and have obtained the food operation licenses according to the law, and shall carry out business activities pursuant to the business forms and business items specified on their own food operation licenses, and they shall not do business beyond the business scope. The provider of a third-party online catering service platform shall, within 30 business days upon approval by the competent communications department, undergo the recordation formalities with the provincial food and drug supervision and administration department at the place where it is located. A catering service provider with a self-built website shall, within 30 business days after undergoing the recordation formalities with the competent communications department, undergo the recordation formalities with the food and drug administrative authority at the county level at the place where it is located. The headquarters of a catering service chain company that provides online trading service for its stores by its website shall be governed by reference to the requirements on providers of third-party online catering service platforms.

Regulations on Single-Purpose Commercial Prepaid Cards

The Administrative Measures for Single-Purpose Commercial Prepaid Cards (for Trial Implementation) were issued on September 21, 2012, and amended on August 18, 2016. The law applies to business in the retail industry, accommodation and catering industry, and resident service industry that conduct single-purpose commercial prepaid card business within China. A card issuer shall undergo filing formalities within 30 days from the day it conducts single-purpose card business.

Regulations on Environmental Protection

Environmental Protection Law

The Environmental Protection Law of the PRC, or the Environmental Protection Law, was promulgated and effective on December 26, 1989, and most recently amended on April 24, 2014. This Environmental Protection Law has been formulated for the purpose of protecting and improving both the living environment and the ecological environment, preventing and controlling pollution and other public hazards and safeguarding people's health.

According to the provisions of the Environmental Protection Law, in addition to other relevant laws and regulations of the PRC, the Ministry of Environmental Protection and its local counterparts take charge of administering and supervising said environmental protection matters. Pursuant to the Environmental Protection Law, the environmental impact statement on any construction project must assess the pollution that the project is likely to produce and its impact on the environment, and stipulate preventive and curative measures; the statement shall be submitted to the competent administrative department of environmental protection for approval.

Installations for the prevention and control of pollution in construction projects must be designed, built and commissioned together with the principal part of the project.

Permission to commence production at or utilize any construction project shall not be granted until its installations for the prevention and control of pollution have been examined and confirmed to meet applicable standards by the appropriate administrative department of environmental protection that examined and approved the environmental impact statement. Installations for the prevention and control of pollution shall not be dismantled or left idle without authorization. Where it is absolutely necessary to dismantle any such installation or leave it idle, prior approval shall be obtained from the competent local administrative department of environmental protection.

The Environmental Protection Law makes it clear that the legal liabilities of any violation of said law include warning, fine, rectification within a time limit, compulsory ceasing of operation, compulsory reinstallation of dismantled installations of the prevention and control of pollution or compulsory reinstallation of those left idle, compulsory shutout or closedown, or even criminal punishment.

Law on Environment Impact Assessment

Pursuant to the Law of the People's Republic of China on Environment Impact Assessment, which was issued on October 28, 2002 and most recently amended on December 29, 2018, the State implements a classification-based management on the environmental impact assessment, or EIA, of construction projects according to the impact of the construction projects on the environment. Construction units shall prepare an Environmental Impact Report, or EIR, or the Environmental Impact Statement, or EIS, or fill out the Environmental Impact Registration Form, or EIRF (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "EIA documents"), according to the following rules:

- For projects with potentially serious environmental impacts, an EIR shall be prepared to provide a comprehensive assessment of their environmental impacts;
- For projects with potentially mild environmental impacts, an EIS shall be prepared to provide an analysis or specialized assessment of their environmental impacts; and
- For projects with very small environmental impacts so that an EIA is not required, an Environmental Impact Registration Form shall be filled in.

According to the Classification Administration Catalogue of Environmental Impact Assessments for Construction Projects issued on September 2, 2008 and most recently amended on November 30, 2020, the food and beverage services were classified as to fill in an Environmental Impact Registration Form before January 1, 2021. Where the construction entity fails to fill in the Environmental Impact Registration Form in accordance with the law, the environmental protection administrative department at or above the county level shall order it to fill it in, and impose a fine of not more than RMB50,000 on it. Since January 1, 2021, construction projects of food and beverage services are not specified in the catalogue and shall not be included in the management on the EIA.

Regulations on Fire Prevention

Fire Protection Design Approval and Filing

The Fire Prevention Law of the PRC, or the Fire Prevention Law, was adopted on April 29, 1998 and last amended on April 29, 2021. According to the Fire Prevention Law and other relevant laws and regulations of the PRC, the emergency management authority of the State Council and its local counterparts at or above county level shall monitor and administer the fire prevention affairs. The fire and rescue department of such a people's government is responsible for implementation. The Fire Prevention Law provides that the fire prevention design or construction of a construction project must conform to the national fire prevention technical standards (as the case may be). According to the Interim Provisions on the Administration of the Fire Protection Design Review and Final Inspection of Construction Projects, issued on April 1, 2020 and effective on June 1, 2020, for those construction projects for a café with entertainment functions with more than 500 square meters, the construction entity shall apply to the housing and urban-rural development authority for fire protection design approval. For the construction projects other than the conditions foregoing, the construction entity shall provide fire protection design drawings or technical information as needed for construction to the housing and urban-rural development authority when applying for a construction permit or a construction commencement report.

Fire Protection Final Inspection or Filing

Upon completion of a construction project to which a fire prevention design has been applied, according to the requirements of relevant regulations on fire prevention, such project must go through a final inspection on fire prevention by, or filed with, the relevant housing and urban-rural development authority. For construction projects with more than 500 square meters, the construction entity or entity using such venue shall, prior to use and operation of any business thereof, apply for a final inspection on fire prevention with the relevant housing and urban-rural development authority at or above the county level where the venue is located. For the construction projects other than the conditions foregoing, the construction entity shall submit the filing for final inspection of the project to the relevant housing and urban-rural development authority.

Fire Safety Inspection

The Fire Prevention Law requires that the employer or user entity apply to the fire and rescue department of the local people's government at or above the county level for a fire safety inspection before a public gathering place is put into use or opens for business. The fire and rescue department shall examine the materials submitted by the applicant; and if the application materials are complete and of the statutory form, it shall grant a permit. Any construction illegally putting into use or operating a public gathering place without obtaining the permit of the fire safety inspection or without satisfying the fire safety requirements upon inspection shall be ordered to stop construction, stop use or stop production or business operation and be fined not less than RMB30,000 but not more than RMB300,000.

Regulations on Commercial Franchising

Pursuant to the Regulations on the Administration of Commercial Franchising, or the Franchising Regulations, which took effect on May 1, 2007, commercial franchising refers to the business activities where a franchisor, being an enterprise possessing registered trademarks, corporate logos, patents, proprietary technology or other business resources, licenses its business resources to the franchisees, being other business operators, through contracts, and the franchisees carry out business operation under the uniform business model and pay franchising fees to the franchisor pursuant to the contracts. The Franchising Regulations set forth a number of prerequisite requirements for the franchisors, including the possession of a mature business model, the capability to provide business guidance, technical support and business training to the franchisees, and the ownership of at least two direct stores, all of which shall have been in operation for at least one year in China. The Franchising Regulations also set forth a number of requirements governing the franchise agreements; for example, the franchisors and franchisees are required to enter into franchising agreements containing certain required terms, and the franchise term thereunder shall not be less than three years unless agreed by the franchisee.

Pursuant to the Administrative Measures on the Filing of the Commercial Franchise, which took effect on February 1, 2012, and the Franchising Regulations, within 15 days after executing the first franchise agreement, the franchisors shall file with the MOFCOM or its local counterparts for record, and if there occurs any change to the franchisee network and franchisee stores throughout China, the franchisor shall file such change to MOFCOM for the record within 30 days after the occurrence of the change. Furthermore, within the first quarter of each year, the franchisors shall report the execution, renewal, termination and revocation of the franchise agreements that occurred in the last year to MOFCOM or its local counterparts. Any failure to comply with the aforementioned requirement may result in being ordered to stop the illegal business operations by the competent department, confiscation of the illegal proceeds and fines ranging from RMB 100,000 to RMB 500,000.

Furthermore, the franchisors are required to implement an information disclosure system. The Administrative Measures on the Information Disclosure of Commercial Franchising, which took effect on April 1, 2012, provide a list of information that the franchisors shall disclose to the franchisees in writing at least 30 days before execution of the franchising agreements, and if there is any material change to the disclosed information, the franchisor shall notify the franchisees in a timely manner.

Regulations Relating to Customer Rights Protection

The PRC Customer Rights and Interests Protection Law, or Customer Protection Law, as amended on October 25, 2013 and effective on March 15, 2014, sets out the obligations of business operators and the rights and interests of the customers. Pursuant to this law, business operators must guarantee that the commodities they sell satisfy the requirements for personal or property safety, provide customers with authentic information about the commodities, and guarantee the quality, function, usage and term of validity of the commodities. Failure to comply with the Customer Protection Law may subject business operators to civil liabilities such as refunding purchase prices, exchange of commodities, repairing, ceasing damages, compensation, and restoring reputation, and even subject the business operators or the responsible individuals to criminal penalties if business operators commit crimes by infringing the legitimate rights and interests of customers.

Regulations on Foreign Investment

MOFCOM and NDRC promulgated the Special Management Measures (Negative List) for the Access of Foreign Investment, or the Negative List, effective on January 1, 2022. The Negative List expands the scope of permitted industries by foreign investment by reducing the number of industries that fall within the Negative List where restrictions on the shareholding percentage or requirements on the composition of Board or senior management still exist. Foreign investment in value-added telecommunications services (except for e-commerce) falls within the Negative List.

Pursuant to the Provisions on Administration of Foreign-Invested Telecommunications Enterprises promulgated by the State Council in December 2001 and most recently amended in March 2022 and effective on May 1, 2022, or the FITE Regulations, except as otherwise stipulated by the state, the ultimate foreign equity ownership in a value-added telecommunications services, or the VATS, provider may not exceed 50%. Pursuant to the Decision of the State Council to Amend and Repeal Certain Administrative Regulations (2022), which was promulgated on March 29, 2022 and became effective on May 1, 2022, except as otherwise stipulated by the state, the ultimate foreign equity ownership in a VATS provider may not exceed 50% and the foreign investor contemplating to acquire equity interest in a VATS provider in China will not be required to demonstrate a good track record and experience in operating value-added telecommunication business overseas.

In June 2015, MIIT issued the Circular on Removing the Restrictions on Equity Ratio Held by Foreign Investors in Online Data Processing and Transaction Processing (Operating E-Commerce) Business to amend the relevant provisions in the FITE Regulations, allowing foreign investors to own more than 50% of equity interest in an operator that “conducts e-commerce” business. However, other requirements provided by the Foreign Investment Telecommunications Rules (such as the track record and experience requirement for a major foreign investor) still apply, and foreign investors are still prohibited from holding more than 50% of equity interest in a provider of other subcategories of value-added telecommunications services.

Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015)

In January 2015, MOFCOM published a Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015) for public comment. According to the Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015), foreign investments in the restricted industries must apply for approval from the foreign investment administration authority, whereas foreign investments in business sectors outside of the “negative list” will only be subject to filing procedures.

MOFCOM suggests both registration and approval as potential options for the regulation of variable interest entity structures, depending on whether they are “Chinese controlled” or “foreign controlled.” One of the core concepts of the Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015) is “de facto control,” which is broadly defined and emphasizes substance over form in determining whether an entity is “Chinese controlled” or “foreign controlled.” “De facto control” can be established if a person has the power to exert decisive influence on an entity, via contractual or trust arrangements, over the subject entity’s operations, financial matters or other key aspects of business operations. The Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015) specifically provides that entities established in China but “controlled” by foreign investors, such as via contracts or trusts, will be treated as FIEs, whereas an investment in China in the foreign investment-restricted industries by a foreign investor may nonetheless apply for treatment as a PRC domestic investment if the foreign investor is determined to be “controlled” by PRC entities and/or citizens. According to the Draft Foreign Investment Law (2015), VIEs would also be deemed to be FIEs if they are ultimately “controlled” by foreign investors, and be subject to the restrictions on foreign investments.

Foreign Investment Law and the Implementation Regulations

In December 2018, the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress of PRC published the Draft Foreign Investment Law (2018) for public comments. On March 15, 2019, the National People’s Congress adopted the Foreign Investment Law of the PRC (the “Foreign Investment Law”). Upon taking effect on January 1, 2020, the Foreign Investment Law has replaced the Law of the People’s Republic of China on Chinese-Foreign Equity Joint Ventures, the Law of the People’s Republic of China on Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprises, and the Law of the People’s Republic of China on Chinese-Foreign Cooperative Joint Ventures to become the legal foundation for foreign investment in the PRC. The Foreign Investment Law mainly focuses on the foreign investment promotion, foreign investment protection and foreign investment management.

The Foreign Investment Law defines “foreign investment” as any investment activity directly or indirectly carried out in the PRC by one or more foreign natural persons, enterprises or other organizations (the “Foreign Investor(s)”), and specifically stipulates four forms of investment activities as foreign investments, namely, (i) establishment of a foreign-invested enterprise in the PRC by a Foreign Investor, either individually or collectively with any other investor; (ii) obtaining shares, equities, property shares or any other similar rights or interests of an enterprise in the PRC by a Foreign Investor; (iii) investment in any new construction project in the PRC by a Foreign Investor, either individually or collectively with any other investor; and (iv) investment in any other manners stipulated under laws, administrative regulations or provisions prescribed by the State Council.

Compared with the draft Foreign Investment Law (2015), the Foreign Investment Law does not mention concepts such as “de facto control” and “controlling PRC companies by contracts or trusts,” nor did it specify the regulation requirements on controlling through contractual arrangements.

In order to ensure the effective implementation of the Foreign Investment Law, the Ministry of Justice, the Ministry of Commerce, the National Development and Reform Commission and other departments have jointly studied and drafted the regulations for the implementation of the Foreign Investment Law. On November 1, 2019, the Ministry of Justice published the Implementation Regulations of Foreign Investment Law (Draft for Comments). On December 12, 2019, the State Council promulgated the Implementation Regulations of Foreign Investment Law, or the Implementation Regulations, which have simultaneously come into force with the Foreign Investment Law from January 1, 2020. The Implementation Regulations provides specific operation rules for the principles of investment protection, investment promotion and investment management in the Foreign Investment Law.

Foreign Investment Security Review Measures

On December 19, 2020, the NDRC and MOFCOM promulgated the Foreign Investment Security Review Measures, which took effect on January 18, 2021. Under the Foreign Investment Security Review Measures, investments in military, national defense-related areas or in locations in proximity to military facilities, or investments that would result in acquiring the actual control of assets in certain key sectors, such as critical agricultural products, energy and resources, equipment manufacturing, infrastructure, transport, cultural products and services, IT, internet products and services, financial services and technology sectors, are required to be approved by designated governmental authorities in advance. Although the term “investment through other means” is not clearly defined under the Foreign Investment Security Review Measures, we cannot rule out the possibility that control through contractual arrangement may be regarded as a form of actual control and therefore require approval from the competent governmental authority. As the Foreign Investment Security Review Measures were recently promulgated, there are great uncertainties with respect to its interpretation and implementation. Accordingly, there are substantial uncertainties as to whether our VIE structure may be deemed as a method of foreign investment in the future.

Regulations Relating to Value-Added Telecommunication Services

Among all of the applicable laws and regulations, the Telecommunications Regulations of the People's Republic of China, or the Telecom Regulations, promulgated by the PRC State Council on September 25, 2000 and most recently amended on February 6, 2016, are the primary governing law, and sets out the general framework for the provision of telecommunications services by domestic PRC companies. Under the Telecom Regulations, telecommunications service providers are required to procure operating licenses prior to their commencement of operations. The Telecom Regulations distinguish “basic telecommunications services” from VATS. VATS are defined as telecommunications and information services provided through public networks. The Telecom Catalogue was issued as an attachment to the Telecom Regulations to categorize telecommunications services as either basic or value-added. In February 2003, December 2015 and June 2019 the Telecom Catalogue was updated respectively, categorizing online data and transaction processing and information services, among others, as VATS.

The Administrative Measures on Telecommunications Business Operating Licenses, issued on March 1, 2009 and most recently amended on July 3, 2017, set forth more specific provisions regarding the types of licenses required to operate VATS, the qualifications and procedures for obtaining such licenses and the administration and supervision of such licenses. Under these regulations, a commercial operator of VATS must first obtain a VATS license, from the MIIT or its provincial level counterparts, otherwise such operator might be subject to sanctions including corrective orders and warnings from the competent administration authority, fines and confiscation of illegal gains and, in the case of significant infringements, the websites may be ordered to close.

In September 2000, the State Council promulgated the Administrative Measures on Internet Information Services, or the Internet Measures, most recently amended on January 8, 2011. Under the Internet Measures, commercial internet content-related services operators shall obtain a VATS license for internet content provision business, or the ICP license, from the relevant government authorities before engaging in any commercial internet content-related services operations within China.

Our VIE holds a valid ICP license.

Regulation on Information Security

The Standing Committee of the National People's Congress promulgated the Cybersecurity Law of the PRC, or the Cybersecurity Law, which became effective on June 1, 2017, to protect cyberspace security and order. Pursuant to the Cybersecurity Law, any individual or organization using the network must comply with the constitution and the applicable laws, follow the public order and respect social moralities, and must not endanger cybersecurity, or engage in activities by making use of the network that endanger the national security, honor and interests; incite subversion of state power; overthrow the socialist system; incite secession, undermining national unity, terrorism and extremism promotion, ethnic hatred and discrimination; spread violence and disseminate pornographic information, fabricating and spreading false information that disturbs economic and social order; or infringe on the fame, privacy, intellectual property and other legitimate rights and interests of others. The Cybersecurity Law sets forth various security protection obligations for network operators, which are defined as "owners and administrators of networks and network service providers," including, among others, complying with a series of requirements of tiered cyber protection systems; verifying users' real identity; localizing the personal information and important data gathered and produced by key information infrastructure operators during operations within the PRC; and providing assistance and support to government authorities where necessary for protecting national security and investigating crimes.

On December 28, 2021, the Cyberspace Administration of China, or the CAC, the NDRC, the MIIT, and several other administrations jointly promulgated the Cybersecurity Review Measures, which took effect on February 15, 2022. The Cybersecurity Review Measures replaces its previous version promulgated on April 13, 2020. According to the Cybersecurity Review Measures, (i) when the purchase of network products and services by a critical information infrastructures operator or the data processing activities conducted by a network platform operator affect or may affect national security, a cybersecurity review shall be conducted pursuant to the Cybersecurity Review Measures. The aforesaid operators shall file for a cybersecurity review with Cybersecurity Review Office under the CAC if their behavior affects or may affect national security; (ii) an application for cybersecurity review shall be made by an issuer who is a network platform operator holding personal information of more than one million users before such issuer applies to list its securities on a foreign stock exchange; and (iii) the relevant PRC governmental authorities may initiate cybersecurity review if such governmental authorities determine that the issuer's network products or services, or data processing activities affect or may affect national security. Cybersecurity reviews focus on assessing the following national security risks factors associated with relevant objects or circumstances: (i) the risk of illegal control, interference or destruction of critical information infrastructure, arising from the purchase and utilization of network products and services; (ii) the harm on the business continuity of critical information infrastructure incurring from a disruption of network products and services supply; (iii) the safety, openness, transparency, diversity of sources of network products and services; the reliability of suppliers; and the risk of supply disruption due to political, diplomatic, trade and other reasons; (iv) the level of compliance with the PRC laws, administrative regulations and ministry rules of the suppliers of network products and services; (v) the risk of core data, important data or a large amount of personal information being stolen, leaked, destroyed, and illegally used or illegally exited the country; (vi) the risk of critical information infrastructure, core data, important data or a large amount of personal information being affected, controlled, or maliciously used by foreign governments and the network information security risk in relation to listing abroad; and (vii) other factors that may harm critical information infrastructure, cyber security and/or data security.

The Administrative Provisions on the Account Information of Internet Users, which was promulgated by the CAC on June 27, 2022 and became effective on August 1, 2022, sets out guidelines on the administration of the account information of internet users. Internet-based information service providers shall perform their responsibilities as the administrative subjects of the account information of internet users, have in place professionals and technical capacity appropriate to the scale of services, and establish, improve and strictly implement the authentication of real identity information, verification of account information, security of information content, ecological governance, emergency responses, protection of personal information and other management systems.

On July 7, 2022, the CAC promulgated the Data Outbound Transfer Security Assessment Measures, or the Security Assessment Measures, which became effective on September 1, 2022. The Security Assessment Measures provide that, among others, data processors shall apply to competent authorities for security assessment when (1) the data processors transferring important data abroad; (2) a CIO and personal information processor that has processed personal information of more than one million people, transferring personal information abroad; (3) a data processor who has provided personal information of one hundred thousand individuals or sensitive personal information of ten thousands individuals to overseas recipients, in each case as calculated cumulatively, since January 1 of the previous year; and (4) other circumstances where the security assessment of data cross-border transfer is required as prescribed by the CAC.

To comply with these laws and regulations, we have adopted security policies and measures to protect our cyber system and customer information.

Regulation on Internet Privacy

Pursuant to the Administrative Provisions on Mobile Internet Applications Information Services, effective on August 1, 2016 and amended on June 14, 2022 and effective on August 1, 2022, owners or operators of mobile applications that provide information services shall obtain the relevant qualifications prescribed by laws and regulations, strictly implement their information content administrator responsibilities and carry out certain duties, including to authenticate the real identity information of users, establish and complete information content inspection and management mechanisms, perform the data security protection obligations and regulate personal information processing activities. On May 8, 2017, the Supreme People's Court and the Supreme People's Procuratorate released the Interpretations of the Supreme People's Court and the Supreme People's Procuratorate on Several Issues Concerning the Application of Law in the Handling of Criminal Cases Involving Infringement of Citizens' Personal Information, which clarifies several concepts regarding the crime of "infringement of citizens' personal information" stipulated by Article 253A of the Criminal Law of the People's Republic of China, including "citizen's personal information," "provision" and "unlawful acquisition of citizens' personal information." Also, it specifies the standards for determining the "serious circumstances" and "particularly serious circumstances" of this crime.

On June 10, 2021, the Data Security Law was promulgated by the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress and became effective on September 1, 2021. The Data Security Law mainly sets forth specific provisions regarding establishing basic systems for data security management, including a hierarchical data classification management system, risk assessment system, monitoring and early warning system, and emergency disposal system. In addition, it clarifies the data security protection obligations of organizations and individuals carrying out data activities and implementing data security protection responsibility.

On August 20, 2021, the Personal Information Protection Law was promulgated by the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress and became effective on November 1, 2021. The Personal Information Protection Law provides for various requirements on personal information protection, including the legal basis for data collection and processing, requirements on data localization and cross-border data transfer, requirements for consent of personal data collection and processing, and requirements on processing sensitive personal information. The Personal Information Protection Law also provides that the customers shall be entitled to opt out of the information recommendation or commercial marketing to individuals conducted by means of automated decision-making, or to be provided simultaneously with options not specific to individuals' characteristics.

To comply with these laws and regulations, we collect and use personal information and data from our customers with their prior consent, and have established information security systems to protect customers' privacy. There are uncertainties with respect to the interpretation and implementation of these data security laws and regulations, so our data-related measures may be subject to additional compliance requirements and regulatory burdens, and we may be required to make further adjustments to our business practices to comply with the interpretation and implementation of such laws.

Regulations on E-Commerce and Platform Economy

The Standing Committee of the National People's Congress of PRC enacted the PRC E-Commerce Law on August 31, 2018, which became effective on January 1, 2019. Under the PRC E-Commerce Law, e-commerce refers to operating activities of selling goods or providing services through the internet or other information networks. The PRC E-Commerce Law generally applies to: (i) platform operators, which refer to legal persons or unincorporated organizations that provide network places of business, transaction matching, information release and other services to enable the transaction parties to carry out independent transaction activities; (ii) operators on the platform, which refer to e-commerce operators that sell goods or provide services to customers through e-commerce platforms; and (iii) other e-commerce operators that sell goods or provide services through self-established websites or other network services. The e-commerce operators must comply with the principles of voluntariness, equality, fairness, and good faith, abide by laws, observe business ethics, equally participate in market competition, perform obligations regarding the protection of consumers' rights and interests, environmental protection, intellectual property protection, and the protection of cybersecurity and personal information, take charge of the quality of products and services, and receive the supervision of the government and the general public. In particular, the E-Commerce Law requires e-commerce operators to respect and equally protect consumers' legitimate rights and provide options to consumers without targeting their personal characteristics, and also requires e-commerce operators to clearly point out to consumers their tie-in sales in which additional services or products are added by merchants to a purchase, and not to assume consumers' consent to such tie-in sales by default. The PRC E-commerce Law also provides rules in relation to e-commerce contracts, dispute settlements, e-commerce development as well as legal liabilities involved in e-commerce.

Pursuant to the Online Trading Supervision and Management Measures promulgated by the SAMR on March 15, 2021, and effective on May 1, 2021, provisions are made on the information collection and transactions involved in online transactions, including that online trading operators shall follow the principles of legality, propriety and necessity when collecting and using consumers' personal information, specifically notify consumers about the purpose, method and scope of the collection and use of the information and obtain the consumers' consent. Online trading operators who collect and use consumers' personal information should announce their policies on collection and use and should not collect and use the information in breach of laws and regulations and the agreement between the parties. Online trading operators shall fully, truly, accurately and timely disclose commodity or service information to protect consumers' right to know and choose.

On December 31, 2021, the Cybersecurity Administration of China, MIIT, Department of Public Safety and SAMR released the Regulations on Algorithm Recommendation Management of Internet Information Service, effective on March 1, 2022, pursuant to which the algorithm recommendation service provider shall fulfill the principal responsibility of algorithm security, establish and improve management systems and be equipped with professional staff and technical support suitable for the scale of the algorithm recommendation service. The Regulations on Algorithm Recommendation Management of Internet Information Service implements classification and hierarchical management for algorithm recommendation service providers based on various criteria. Moreover, it requires algorithmic recommendation service providers to provide users with options that are not specific to their personal characteristics, or provide users with convenient options to cancel algorithmic recommendation services. If the users choose to cancel the algorithm recommendation service, the algorithm recommendation service provider shall immediately stop providing relevant services. Algorithmic recommendation service providers shall also provide users with the function to select or delete user labels that are based on personal characteristics and used for algorithmic recommendation services.

In addition, on February 7, 2021, the Anti-Monopoly Committee of the State Council promulgated the Anti-Monopoly Guidelines for the Internet Platform Economy Sector, or the Anti-Monopoly Guidelines, which sets out detailed standards and rules in respect to the definition of relevant markets, typical types of cartel activity and abusive behavior by companies with market dominance, which provide further guidance for enforcement of anti-monopoly laws regarding online platform operators. The Anti-Monopoly Guidelines further details the types of horizontal agreements, vertical agreements, hub-and-spoke agreements and collusion which may constitute monopoly agreements in the platform economy. It also sets out a number of key factors that may be relevant in identifying a dominant undertaking, including, among others, predatory pricing, unfair pricing, refusal to deal, restraint of trade, tie-in, unreasonable trading conditions and discrimination. The Anti-Monopoly Guidelines prohibits certain monopolistic acts of internet platforms so as to protect market competition and safeguard interests of users and operators participating in internet platform economy, including without limitation, prohibiting platforms with dominant position from abusing their market dominance (such as discriminating customers in terms of pricing and other transactional conditions using big data and analytics, requiring counterparties to trade in restrictive patterns and means, coercing counterparties into exclusivity arrangements, using technology means to block competitors' interface, favorable positioning in search results of goods displays, using bundle services to sell services or products, compulsory collection of unnecessary user data).

On August 17, 2021, the SAMR issued the Provisions on Prohibition of Unfair Competition on the Internet (Draft for Comments), or the Unfair Competition Prohibition Provisions, which prohibits business operators from using data, algorithms and other technical means to unreasonably provide different transaction information for counterparties with the same trading conditions by collecting and analyzing the transaction information of the counterparties, or the content browsed and times of browsing, or the brand and value of the terminal equipment used in transactions by the counterparties, etc., which infringes the right to know, the right of choice, and the right to fair trading of the counterparties, and disrupts the fair trading order of the market. The Unfair Competition Prohibition Provisions further prohibits business operators from using data, algorithms and other technical means to commit traffic hijacking, interference, malicious incompatibility and other improprieties to influence user choices or hinder or damage the normal operation of network products or services legally offered by other business operators. Furthermore, business operators are not allowed to (i) fabricate or spread misleading information to damage the reputation of competitors, or (ii) employ marketing practices such as fake reviews or use coupons or “red envelopes” to entice positive ratings.

The Anti-Monopoly Law of the PRC, or the Anti-Monopoly Law, which was promulgated by the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress on August 30, 2007 and amended on June 24, 2022, prohibits monopolistic conduct such as entering into monopoly agreements, abuse of dominant market position and concentration of undertakings that have the effect of eliminating or restricting competition. The Anti-monopoly Law, among others further regulates monopolistic behaviors in the Internet sector, which provides, among others, (i) enterprises must not engage in monopolistic behaviors by taking advantage of data and algorithms, technology, capital advantages, or platform rules; and (ii) enterprises with dominant market position must not abuse their dominant positions by taking advantage of data and algorithms, technology, capital advantages, or platform rules.

Regulations on Foreign Exchange

Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Administration Regulations, as amended in August 2008, the RMB is freely convertible for current account items, including the distribution of dividends, interest payments, trade and service-related foreign exchange transactions, but not for capital account items, such as direct investments, loans, repatriation of investments and investments in securities outside the PRC, unless SAFE's prior approval is obtained and prior registration with SAFE is made. In May 2013, SAFE promulgated the Circular of the SAFE on Printing and Distributing the Administrative Provision on Foreign Exchange in Domestic Direct Investment by Foreign Investors and Relevant Supporting Documents, which provides for and simplifies the operational steps and regulations on foreign exchange matters related to direct investment by foreign investors, including foreign exchange registration, account opening and the use, receipt and payment of funds, and the settlement and sales of foreign exchange.

Pursuant to the Circular on Relevant Issues Concerning Foreign Exchange Administration of Overseas Investment and Financing and Return Investments Conducted by Domestic Residents through Overseas Special Purpose Vehicles or the SAFE Circular 37, promulgated by SAFE and which became effective on July 4, 2014, (a) a PRC resident shall register with the local SAFE branch before he or she contributes assets or equity interests in an overseas special purpose vehicle, or Overseas SPV, that is directly established or controlled by the PRC resident for the purpose of conducting investment or financing; and (b) following the initial registration, the PRC resident is also required to register with the local SAFE branch for any major change, in respect of the Overseas SPV, including, among other things, a change of the Overseas SPV's PRC resident shareholder(s), the name of the Overseas SPV, the term of operation, or any increase or reduction of the Overseas SPV's registered capital, a share transfer or swap, and a merger or division. Pursuant to the SAFE Circular 37, failure to comply with these registration procedures may result in penalties.

Pursuant to the Circular of the State Administration of Foreign Exchange on Further Simplifying and Improving the Direct Investment-Related Foreign Exchange Administration Policies, or the SAFE Notice 13, which was promulgated on February 13, 2015 and with effect from June 1, 2015, the foreign exchange registration under domestic direct investment and the foreign exchange registration under overseas direct investment are directly reviewed and handled by banks in accordance with the SAFE Notice 13, and the SAFE and its branches shall perform indirect regulation over the foreign exchange registration via banks.

Regulations Relating to Dividend Distributions

Before the Foreign Investment Law came into effect on January 1, 2020, the principal regulations governing the distribution of dividends paid by wholly foreign-owned enterprises include the PRC Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprise Law issued in April 1986 and most recently amended in September 2016, and the PRC Implementation Regulations on the Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprise Law issued in December 1990 and most recently amended in February 2014. Under these regulations, wholly foreign-owned enterprises in China may pay dividends only out of their accumulated profits, if any, as determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations. In addition, a wholly foreign-owned enterprise in China is required to set aside at least 10% of its after-tax profit based on PRC accounting standards each year to its general reserves until its cumulative total reserve funds reach 50% of its registered capital. These reserve funds, however, may not be distributed as cash dividends.

On January 1, 2020, the Foreign Investment Law and the Implementation Regulations came into effect, which repealed the PRC Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprise Law and the Implementation Regulations on the Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprise Law.

Pursuant to the Foreign Investment Law, the corporate governance matters, including the distribution of dividends, shall be governed by the Company Law of the PRC, the Partnership Law of the PRC, or other laws of the PRC. Pursuant to the Company Law of the PRC, issued on December 29, 1993 and most recently amended on October 26, 2018, a company is required to set aside 10% of its after-tax profit of the current year to its general reserves until its cumulative total reserve funds reach 50% of its registered capital. If the reserve funds are insufficient to make up the company's losses of the previous year, the after-tax profit of the current year shall first be used for making up the losses before being set aside to reserve funds. After the losses have been made up and common reserves have been drawn, the remaining profits shall be distributed to shareholders.

According to the Foreign Investment Law and the Implementation Regulations, the foreign-invested enterprises established before January 1, 2020 may elect to maintain their current corporate governance rules, including the dividend distribution policy, adopted under the Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprise Law, within five years after January 1, 2020.

Regulations Relating to Stock Incentive Plans

According to the Notice of Issues Related to the Foreign Exchange Administration for Domestic Individuals Participating in Stock Incentive Plan of Overseas Listed Company, or the Share Incentive Rules, which was issued by the SAFE in February 2012 and other regulations, directors, supervisors, senior management and other employees participating in any share incentive plan of an overseas publicly listed company who are PRC citizens or non-PRC citizens residing in China for a continuous period of not less than one year, subject to certain exceptions, are required to register with the SAFE. All such participants need to authorize a qualified PRC agent, such as a PRC subsidiary of an overseas publicly listed company to register with the SAFE and handle foreign exchange matters such as opening accounts, transferring and settlement of the relevant proceeds. The Share Incentive Rules further require an offshore agent to be designated to handle matters in connection with the exercise of share options and sale of proceeds for the participants of share incentive plans.

Failure to complete the SAFE registrations for our employee incentive plans after our listing may subject them to fines and legal sanctions, and may also limit our ability to contribute additional capital into our PRC subsidiaries and limit our PRC subsidiaries' ability to distribute dividends to us.

Regulations Relating to Overseas Listings

In August 2006, six PRC regulatory authorities, including the CSRC, jointly adopted the Regulations on Mergers and Acquisitions of Domestic Enterprises by Foreign Investors, or the M&A Rules, amended in June 2009. The M&A Rules, among other things, require that if an overseas company established or controlled by PRC companies or individuals, or PRC citizens, intends to acquire equity interests or assets of any other PRC domestic company affiliated with the PRC citizens, such acquisition must be submitted to the MOFCOM for approval. The M&A Rules also require that an Overseas SPV formed for overseas listing purposes and controlled directly or indirectly by the PRC citizens shall obtain the approval of the CSRC prior to overseas listing and trading of such Overseas SPV's securities on an overseas stock exchange.

On July 6, 2021, the General Office of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and the General Office of the State Council jointly promulgated the Opinions on Strictly Cracking Down on Illegal Securities Activities in Accordance with Law, or the Opinions. The Opinions emphasized the need to strengthen the administration over illegal securities activities, and the need to strengthen the supervision over overseas listings by Chinese companies. Effective measures, such as promoting the construction of relevant regulatory systems will be taken to deal with risks and incidents of China-based overseas listed companies, and cybersecurity and data privacy protection requirements. The Opinions and any related implementing rules to be enacted may subject us to compliance requirement in the future.

On February 17, 2023, the CSRC released the Trial Administrative Measures of Overseas Securities Offering and Listing by Domestic Companies, or the Overseas Listing Trial Measures and five supporting guidelines, which came into effect on March 31, 2023. According to the Overseas Listing Trial Measures, (1) domestic companies that seek to offer or list securities overseas, both directly and indirectly, should fulfill the filing procedure and report relevant information to the CSRC; if a domestic company fails to complete the filing procedure or conceals any material fact or falsifies any major content in its filing documents, such domestic company may be subject to administrative penalties, such as order to rectify, warnings, fines, and its controlling shareholders, actual controllers, the person directly in charge and other directly liable persons may also be subject to administrative penalties, such as warnings and fines; (2) if the issuer meets both of the following conditions, the overseas offering and listing shall be determined as an indirect overseas offering and listing by a domestic company: (i) any of the total assets, net assets, revenues or profits of the domestic operating entities of the issuer in the most recent accounting year accounts for more than 50% of the corresponding figure in the issuer's audited consolidated financial statements for the same period; (ii) its major operational activities are carried out in China or its main places of business are located in China, or the senior managers in charge of operation and management of the issuer are mostly Chinese citizens or are domiciled in China; and (3) where a domestic company seeks to indirectly offer and list securities in an overseas market, the issuer shall designate a major domestic operating entity responsible for all filing procedures with the CSRC, and where an issuer makes an application for listing in an overseas market, the issuer shall submit filings with the CSRC within three business days after such application is submitted.

On the same day, the CSRC also held a press conference for the release of the Overseas Listing Trial Measures and issued the Notice on Administration for the Filing of Overseas Offering and Listing by Domestic Companies, which, among others, clarifies that the domestic companies that have already been listed overseas on or before the effective date of the Overseas Listing Trial Measures (i.e., March 31, 2023) shall be deemed as existing issuers, or the Existing Issuers. Existing Issuers are not required to complete the filling procedures, and they shall be required to file with the CSRC when subsequent matters such as refinancing are involved.

According to the Overseas Listing Trial Measures, an overseas listed company shall file with the CSRC within three business days after the completion of its subsequent securities offering on the same market, and an overseas listed company shall file with the CSRC within three business days after its application of offering and listing on a different market. If an overseas listed company purchases PRC domestic assets through a single or multiple acquisitions, share swaps, shares transfers or other means, and such purchase constitutes direct or indirect listing of PRC domestic assets, a filing with the CSRC is also required. In addition, an overseas listed company is required to report to the CSRC the occurrence of any of the following material events within three business days after the occurrence and announcement thereof: (i) a change of control of the listed company; (ii) the investigation, sanction or other measures undertaken by any foreign securities regulatory agencies or relevant competent authorities in respect of the listed company; (iii) a change of listing status or transfer of listing segment; and (iv) the voluntary or mandatory delisting of the listed company. If there is any material change of the principal business of the listed company after the overseas offering and listing so that the listed company is no longer required to file with the CSRC, it shall file a specific report and a legal opinion issued by a domestic law firm to the CSRC within three business days after the occurrence hereof.

Our PRC legal counsel, King & Wood Mallesons, has advised us that, should we seek to (i) offer or list subsequent securities on U.S. stock exchanges, (ii) offer or list securities on other overseas stock exchange, or (iii) purchase PRC domestic assets through a single or multiple acquisitions, share swaps, shares transfers or other means, and such purchase constitutes direct or indirect listing of PRC domestic assets, we are required to file with the CSRC. However, our PRC legal counsel has further advised us that there are substantial uncertainties as to how the M&A Rules and Overseas Listing Trial Measures will be interpreted or implemented in the context of an overseas offering, and its opinions summarized above are subject to any new laws, rules and regulations or detailed implementations and interpretations in any form relating to the M&A Rules and Overseas Listing Trial Measures.

On February 24, 2023, the Provisions on Strengthening the Confidentiality and Archives Administration of Overseas Securities Issuance and Listing by Domestic Enterprises was promulgated, or the Provision on Confidentiality, which became effective on March 31, 2023. Pursuant to the Provision on Confidentiality, where a domestic enterprise publicly discloses or provides documents and materials involving state secrets and working secrets of state organs, or Relevant Documents and Materials, to the relevant securities companies, securities service institutions, overseas regulatory authorities and other entities and individuals, or provides or publicly discloses Relevant Documents and Materials through its overseas listing subjects, it shall report to the competent department with the examination and approval authority for approval in accordance with the law, and submit to the secrecy administration department of the same level for filing. Where a domestic enterprises provides accounting archives or copies of such archives to entities and individuals such as securities companies, securities service institutions and overseas regulatory authorities, it shall complete the corresponding procedures pursuant to relevant rules of the State. The working materials formed within the territory of the PRC by the securities companies and securities service institutions that provide corresponding services for the overseas issuance and listing of domestic enterprises shall be kept within the territory of the PRC, and outbound transfers of such materials shall go through approval procedures in accordance with relevant rules of the State.

Regulations on Labor

Labor Contract Law

As of January 1, 2008 and as amended on December 28, 2012, labor contracts shall be concluded in writing if labor relationships are to be or have been established between enterprises or institutions and the laborers fall under the Labor Contract Law of the PRC, or the Labor Contract Law. Enterprises and institutions are forbidden to force the laborers to work beyond the time limit and the employers shall pay laborers overtime working compensation in accordance with national regulations. In addition, the labor wages shall not be lower than local standards on minimum wages and shall be paid to the laborers timely. According to the Labor Law of the PRC effective as of January 1, 1995, and as amended on December 29, 2018, enterprises and institutions shall establish and perfect their systems of workplace safety and sanitation, strictly abide by state rules and standards on workplace safety and sanitation, and educate laborers on workplace safety and sanitation. Workplace safety and sanitation facilities shall comply with state-fixed standards.

Regulations on Social Insurance and Housing Fund

According to the Social Insurance Law of the PRC effective as of July 1, 2011, and as amended on December 29, 2018, the Regulations on Occupational Injury Insurance effective as of January 1, 2004 and as amended on December 20, 2010, the Interim Measures Concerning the Maternity Insurance for Enterprise Employees effective as of January 1, 1995, the Interim Regulations Concerning the Levy of Social Insurance effective as of January 22, 1999 and amended on March 24, 2019 and the Regulations Concerning the Administration of Housing Fund effective as of April 3, 1999 and last amended on March 24, 2019, enterprises and institutions in the PRC shall provide their employees with welfare schemes covering pension insurance, unemployment insurance, maternity insurance, work-related injury insurance and medical insurance, as well as a housing provident fund and other welfare plans.

Regulations on Labor Dispatch

The Interim Provisions on Labor Dispatch were promulgated by the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security and became effective on March 1, 2014. The Interim Provisions on Labor Dispatch set forth that labor dispatch should only be applicable to temporary, auxiliary or substitute positions, or the Three-Nature Requirements. Temporary positions shall mean positions subsisting for no more than six months, auxiliary positions shall mean positions of non-major business that serve positions of major businesses, and substitute positions shall mean positions that can be held by substitute employees for a certain period of time during which the employees who originally hold such positions are unable to work as a result of full-time study, being on leave or other reasons.

Regulations on Property Leasing

Under the Administrative Measures on the Lease of Commodity Housing issued by the Ministry of Housing and Urban-Rural Development on December 1, 2010, the parties to a lease agreement shall go through the lease registration and filing process with the competent construction (real estate) departments of the municipalities directly under the PRC Government, cities and counties where the housing is located within 30 days after the lease agreement is signed. For those who fail to comply with the above regulations, such competent departments may impose a fine of between RMB1,000 and RMB10,000 per lease. Under the Civil Code of the PRC issued by the National People's Congress on May 28, 2020 and effective on January 1, 2021, where the parties fail to perform the registration and filing procedures for the leasing contract in accordance with the laws and administrative regulations, the validity of the contract is not affected.

Regulations on Intellectual Property Rights

Copyright

Pursuant to the Copyright Law of the PRC, as most recently amended in November 2020, copyrights include personal rights such as the right of publication and that of attribution as well as property rights such as the right of production and that of distribution.

Reproducing, distributing, performing, projecting, broadcasting or compiling a work or communicating the same to the public via an information network without permission from the owner of the copyright therein, unless otherwise provided in the Copyright Law of the PRC, shall constitute infringements of copyrights. The infringer shall, according to the circumstances of the case, undertake to cease the infringement, take remedial action, and offer an apology, pay damages, etc.

Pursuant to the Computer Software Copyright Protection Regulations promulgated on December 20, 2001 and amended on January 30, 2013, the software copyright owner may go through the registration formalities with a software registration authority recognized by the State Council's copyright administrative department. The software copyright owner may authorize others to exercise that copyright and is entitled to receive remuneration.

Trademark

Pursuant to the Trademark Law of the PRC, as most recently amended on April 23, 2019 and effective on November 1, 2019, the right to exclusive use of a registered trademark shall be limited to trademarks that have been approved for registration and to goods for which the use of such trademark has been approved. The period of validity of a registered trademark shall be ten years, counted from the day the registration is approved. According to this law, using a trademark that is identical to or similar to a registered trademark in connection with the same or similar goods without the authorization of the owner of the registered trademark constitutes an infringement of the exclusive right to use a registered trademark. The infringer shall, in accordance with the regulations, undertake to cease the infringement, take remedial action, pay damages, etc.

Domain Name

Domain names are protected under the Administrative Measures on the Internet Domain Names, which were promulgated by the MIIT on August 24, 2017 and became effective on November 1, 2017. The MIIT is the major regulatory authority responsible for the administration of the PRC internet domain names. The registration of domain names in PRC is on a “first-apply-first-registration” basis. A domain name applicant will become the domain name holder upon completion of the application procedure.

Regulations Relating to Tax in the PRC

Income Tax

The PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law was promulgated in March 2007 and was most recently amended in December 2018. The PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law applies a uniform 25% enterprise income tax rate to both foreign-invested enterprises and domestic enterprises, except where tax incentives are granted to special industries and projects. Under the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law, an enterprise established outside China with “de facto management bodies” within China is considered a “resident enterprise” for PRC enterprise income tax purposes and is generally subject to a uniform 25% enterprise income tax rate on its worldwide income. Under the implementation regulations to the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law, a “de facto management body” is defined as the body that exercises full and substantial control and overall management over the business, productions, personnel, accounts and properties of an enterprise.

In April 2009, the Ministry of Finance, or MOF, and SAT jointly issued the Notice on Issues Concerning Process of Enterprise Income Tax in Enterprise Restructuring Business, or the Circular 59. In December 2009, SAT issued the Notice on Strengthening Administration of Enterprise Income Tax for Share Transfers by Non-PRC Resident Enterprises, or the Circular 698. Both Circular 59 and Circular 698 became effective retroactively as of January 2008. In March 2011, SAT issued the Notice on Several Issues Regarding the Income Tax of Non-PRC Resident Enterprises, or the SAT Circular 24, effective in April 2011. By promulgating and implementing these circulars, the PRC tax authorities have enhanced their scrutiny over the direct or indirect transfer of equity interests in a PRC resident enterprise by a non-resident enterprise.

In February 2015, SAT issued the Notice on Certain Corporate Income Tax Matters on Indirect Transfer of Properties by Non-PRC Resident Enterprises, or the SAT Circular 7, to supersede existing provisions in relation to the indirect transfer as set forth in Circular 698, while the other provisions of Circular 698 remain in force. SAT Circular 7 introduces a new tax regime that is significantly different from that under Circular 698. SAT Circular 7 extends its tax jurisdiction to capture not only indirect transfers as set forth under Circular 698 but also transactions involving transfer of immovable property in China and assets held under the establishment, and placement in China, of a foreign company through the offshore transfer of a foreign intermediate holding company. SAT Circular 7 also addresses transfer of the equity interest in a foreign intermediate holding company broadly. In addition, SAT Circular 7 provides clearer criteria than Circular 698 on how to assess reasonable commercial purposes and introduces safe harbor scenarios applicable to internal group restructurings and the purchase and sale of equity through public securities markets. However, it also brings challenges to both the foreign transferor and transferee of the indirect transfer as they have to determine whether the transaction should be subject to PRC tax and to file or withhold the PRC tax accordingly. In October 2017, SAT issued the Announcement on Issues Relating to Withholding at Source of Income Tax of Non-resident Enterprises, or the SAT Circular 37, amended in June 2018. The SAT Circular 37 superseded the Non-resident Enterprises Measures and SAT Circular 698 as a whole and partially amended some provisions in SAT Circular 24 and SAT Circular 7. SAT Circular 37 purports to clarify certain issues in the implementation of the above regime, by providing, among others, the definition of equity transfer income and tax basis, the foreign exchange rate to be used in the calculation of withholding amount, and the date of occurrence of the withholding obligation.

Specifically, SAT Circular 37 provides that where the transfer income subject to withholding at source is derived by a non-PRC resident enterprise in installments, the installments may first be treated as recovery of costs of previous investments. Upon recovery of all costs, the tax amount to be withheld must then be computed and withheld.

Value-Added Tax

Pursuant to the Provisional Regulations on Value-Added Tax of the PRC promulgated on December 13, 1993 and last amended on November 19, 2017 and its implementation rules, all entities or individuals in the PRC engaging in the sale of goods, the provision of processing services, repairs and replacement services, and the importation of goods are required to pay value-added tax. Pursuant to the Circular on Comprehensively Promoting the Pilot Program of the Collection of Value-Added Tax in Lieu of Business Tax (the “Circular 36”), which was promulgated by the Ministry of Finance and the State Administration of Taxation on March 23, 2016, implemented on May 1, 2016, and recently amended on March 20, 2019, the pilot program of the collection of value-added tax in lieu of business tax shall be promoted nationwide in a comprehensive manner as of May 1, 2016, and all taxpayers of business tax engaged in the building industry, the real estate industry, the financial industry and the life service industry shall be included in the scope of the pilot program with regard to payment of value-added tax instead of business tax. Pursuant to the Circular of the Ministry of Finance and the State Administration of Taxation on Adjusting Value-added Tax Rates promulgated on April 4, 2018 and effective on May 1, 2018, by Ministry of Finance and State Administration of Taxation, where a taxpayer engages in a taxable sales activity for the value-added tax purpose or the imports of goods, the previous applicable 17% and 11% tax rates are adjusted to be 16% and 10% respectively.

Pursuant to the Announcement on Relevant Policies for Deepening Value-Added Tax Reform promulgated on March 20, 2019 by MOF, SAT and the General Administration of Customs and effective on April 1, 2019, with respect to VAT taxable sales or imported goods of a VAT general taxpayer, where the VAT rate of 16% and 10% applies currently, it shall be adjusted to 13% and 9%, respectively.

4.C. Organizational Structure

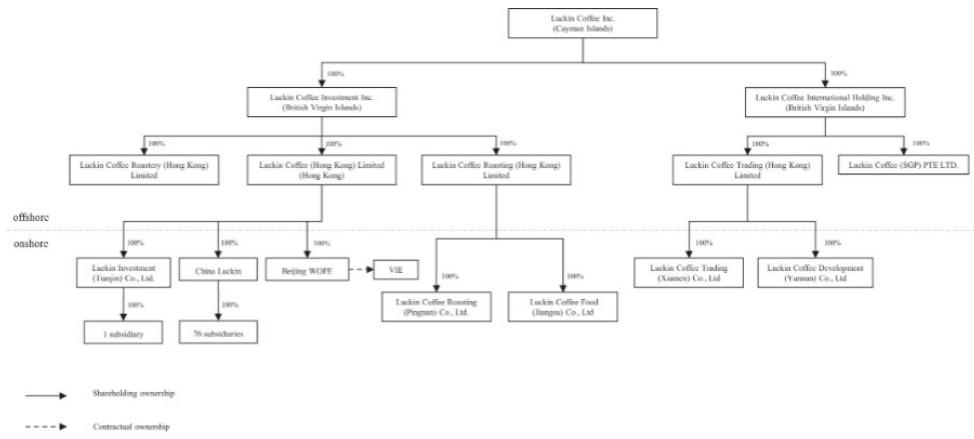

Contractual Arrangements and Corporate Structure

Investors in the ADSs are not purchasing equity securities of our subsidiaries that have substantive business operations in China, but instead are purchasing equity securities of a Cayman Islands holding company, Luckin Coffee Inc., which primarily operates its business in China through its PRC subsidiaries and holds certain foreign restricted licenses and permits, such as the ICP license, which it might need in the future through the VIE. As current PRC laws and regulations restrict foreign investment in certain telecommunications-related businesses, Luckin Coffee Inc. or its direct and indirect subsidiaries do not and cannot hold such licenses and permits through equity ownership in practice.

Our corporate structure involves unique risks to investors in the ADSs. The Company does not conduct operations by itself, but only through its subsidiaries. Additionally, we have, through the Beijing WFOE, entered into a series of contractual arrangements with the VIE as well as its shareholders, but the VIE is owned by certain nominee shareholders, not us. Investors in the ADSs may not hold any equity interests in the VIE, directly or indirectly, under current PRC laws and regulations. The terms contained in these contractual arrangements enable the Company to (i) direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact its economic performance, (ii) receive substantially all of the economic benefits of the VIE, and (iii) have an exclusive option to purchase all or part of the equity interests in the VIE when and to the extent permitted by the PRC law. As a result, the Company is considered the primary beneficiary of the VIE for accounting purposes and is able to consolidate the financial results of the VIE in its consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. However, the Company does not own equity interest in the VIE and its rights through these contractual arrangements may be less effective than equity ownership. Uncertainties with respect to our corporate structure exist because the PRC courts have not determined whether the contractual arrangements with the VIE are enforceable and the PRC courts may determine that the VIE structure violates the restriction on foreign investment. If the enforceability of the contractual arrangements with the VIE became the subject of legal proceedings in China, we could incur substantial legal expenses in the effort to enforce our contractual rights with no assurance of ultimate success, and the value of our securities could decline significantly or become worthless.

The following chart shows our corporate structure as of the date of this annual report, including our principal subsidiaries and the VIE.

- (1) Mr. Jinyi Guo, the Company's Chairman and CEO, and Mr. Gang Wu, the Company's Senior Vice President, are nominal shareholders of the VIE, holding 83.33% and 16.67% of the equity interest, respectively.

Contractual Arrangements with the VIE and Its Nominee Shareholders

We established the VIE to hold certain foreign restricted licenses and permits which we might need in the future, such as the ICP license. The VIE also held some of our intellectual properties which have been transferred to our PRC subsidiaries. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the VIE did not contribute any external revenues to our total revenues.

The contractual arrangements entered into by and among the Beijing WFOE, the VIE and its shareholders, as described in more detail below, allow us to:

- direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact its economic performance;
 - receive substantially all of the economic benefits of the VIE for accounting purposes; and
 - have an exclusive option to purchase all or part of the equity interest in and/or assets of the VIE when and to the extent permitted by PRC laws.

As a result of these contractual arrangements, we are the primary beneficiary of the VIE for accounting purposes and, therefore, have consolidated the financial results of the VIE in our consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. However, our contractual arrangements with the VIE may be less effective than having ownership in providing operational control and we may incur substantial costs to enforce the terms of the arrangements, and may not be successful.

In the opinion of our PRC legal counsel, King & Wood Mallesons:

- the ownership structure of the VIE is not in violation of applicable PRC laws and regulations currently in effect; and
 - the contractual arrangements among the Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE, governed by PRC law, are legal, valid, binding and enforceable in accordance with its terms and applicable PRC laws.

However, our PRC legal counsel has also advised us that there are substantial uncertainties regarding the interpretation and application of current and future PRC laws, regulations and rules. Accordingly, the PRC regulatory authorities may take a view that is contrary to the opinion of our PRC legal counsel.

The following is a summary of the contractual arrangements by and among the Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE and their spouses, as applicable.

Agreements That Provide Us with Controlling Financial Interest Over the VIE

Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney. Pursuant to the Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney among Beijing WFOE, the VIE and shareholders of the VIE, these shareholders irrevocably authorize Beijing WFOE or any person(s) designated by Beijing WFOE to act as his or her attorney-in-fact to exercise all of his or her rights as a shareholder of the VIE, including, but not limited to, the right to call and attend shareholders' meetings, to execute and deliver any and all written resolutions and meeting minutes as a shareholder, to keep the official seal, the original and duplicate business licenses, proof of administrative permits, articles of association of the VIE and other key materials for the operation of the VIE in accordance with the applicable internal rules of Beijing WFOE, to vote by itself or by proxy on any matters discussed on shareholders' meetings, to sell, transfer, pledge or dispose of any or all of the shares, to nominate, appoint or remove the directors, supervisors and senior management, to oversee the economic performance of the VIE, to have full access to the financial information of the VIE at any time, to approve annual budgets or declare dividends, to manage and dispose of the assets of the VIE, to have the full rights to control and manage the VIE's finance accounting and daily operation, and other shareholder rights conferred by the articles of association of the VIE and the relevant laws and regulations. This agreement will remain in force as long as the VIE exists. The shareholders shall not have the right to terminate this agreement or revoke the appointment of the attorney-in-fact without the prior written consent of the Beijing WFOE.

Confirmation and Guarantee Letters. Each shareholder of the VIE has signed a Confirmation and Guarantee Letter. Under the Confirmation and Guarantee Letters, each of the shareholders of the VIE confirmed, represented and guaranteed that in no circumstances will their ability to exercise their rights in the VIE be affected or any act that may affect or hinder the fulfillment of their obligations under the contractual agreements be carried out by any other person that may be entitled to assume rights and interests in their equity rights in the VIE. Each of the shareholders of the VIE further confirmed that they will unwind the contractual agreements and transfer all of the shares of the VIE to Beijing WFOE or any party designated by Beijing WFOE as soon as the applicable laws of the PRC allow Beijing WFOE to operate the business operated by the VIE without the contractual agreements, and will return any consideration received through this to Beijing WFOE or any party designated by Beijing WFOE. Each of the shareholders of the VIE undertook that unless otherwise agreed by the Beijing WFOE in written form, they will not engage in, own or acquire any business that competes or might compete with the business of the VIE or its affiliated companies, will not give rise to conflict of interest between themselves and Beijing WFOE and will take any action as instructed by Beijing WFOE to eliminate the conflict once such conflict arises.

Spousal Consent Letters. The spouse of Mr. Guo Jinyi and the spouse of Mr. Wu Gang have signed spousal consent letters separately. Under each spousal consent letter, the spouse unconditionally and irrevocably waives any rights or entitlements whatsoever to such shares that may be granted to her pursuant to applicable laws and undertakes not to make any assertion of rights to such shares. The spouse agrees and undertakes that she will take all necessary actions to ensure the proper performance of the contractual arrangements, and will be bound by the contractual arrangements in case she obtains any equity of the VIE due to any reason.

Share Pledge Agreement. Pursuant to the Share Pledge Agreement among Beijing WFOE and the shareholders of the VIE, the shareholders of the VIE have pledged 100% equity interest in the VIE to Beijing WFOE to guarantee the performance by the VIE and its shareholders of their obligations under the Master Exclusive Service Agreement, Business Cooperation Agreement, Exclusive Option Agreement and agreements to be executed among Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders from time to time. If the VIE or its shareholders breach their contractual obligations under these agreements, Beijing WFOE, as pledgee, will have the right to dispose of the pledged shares entirely or partially. The shareholders of the VIE also agreed, without Beijing WFOE's prior written consent, not to transfer the pledged shares, establish or permit the existence of any security interest or other encumbrance on the pledged shares, or dispose of the pledged shares by any other means, except by the performance of the Exclusive Option Agreement. We have completed the registration of the pledge of equity interests in the VIE with the relevant office of State Administration for Market Regulation in accordance with the PRC Property Rights Law.

Agreements That Allow Us to Receive Economic Benefits from the VIE For Accounting Purposes

Master Exclusive Service Agreement. Pursuant to the Master Exclusive Service Agreement between Beijing WFOE and the VIE, Beijing WFOE or its designated affiliated entities have the exclusive right to provide the VIE with technical support and business support services in return for fees equal to 100% of the consolidated net profits of the VIE. Without Beijing WFOE's prior written consent, the VIE shall not, directly and indirectly, obtain the same or similar services as provided under this agreement from any third party, or enter into any similar agreement with any third party. Beijing WFOE has the right to determine the service fee charged to the VIE under this agreement by considering, among other things, the complexity of the services, the time spent by employees of the Beijing WFOE to provide the services, content and commercial value of the service provided, as well as the benchmark price of similar services in the market. Beijing WFOE will have the exclusive ownership of all intellectual property rights developed by performance of this agreement. This agreement will remain effective until it is terminated at the discretion of Beijing WFOE or upon the transfer of all the shares of the VIE to Beijing WFOE and/or a third party designated by Beijing WFOE.

Business Cooperation Agreement. Pursuant to the Business Cooperation Agreement among Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE, the VIE and the shareholders of the VIE agreed and covenanted that, without obtaining Beijing WFOE's written consent, the VIE shall not, and the shareholders shall cause the VIE not to, engage in any transaction that may materially affect its asset, obligation, right or operation, including but not limited to any activities not within its normal business scope, or operating its business in a way that is inconsistent with its past practice, a merger, reorganization, acquisition or restructuring of its principal business or assets, or an acquisition or investment in any other form, in favor of a third party, selling to or acquiring any tangible or intangible asset other than in the ordinary course of business, incurrence of any encumbrance on any of its assets, or an amendment to its articles of association. The VIE shall accept, and the shareholders shall cause the VIE to accept, suggestions raised by Beijing WFOE over the employee engagement and replacement, daily operation, dividend distribution and financial management systems of the VIE. The shareholders of the VIE shall only appoint persons designated by Beijing WFOE to be the directors of the VIE. This agreement will remain effective until it is terminated at the discretion of Beijing WFOE or upon the transfer of all the shares of the VIE to Beijing WFOE and/or a third party designated by Beijing WFOE.

Agreements That Provide Us with the Option to Purchase the Equity Interests in the VIE

Exclusive Option Agreement. Pursuant to the Exclusive Option Agreement among Beijing WFOE, the VIE and its shareholders, the shareholders of the VIE irrevocably grant Beijing WFOE or any third party designated by Beijing WFOE an exclusive option to purchase all or part of their equity interests in the VIE at the lowest price permitted by applicable PRC laws. Those shareholders further undertake that they will neither allow the encumbrance of any security interest in the VIE, except for the pledge placed pursuant to the Share Pledge Agreement, nor transfer, mortgage or otherwise dispose of their legal or beneficial interests in the VIE without the prior written consent of Beijing WFOE, and will cause the shareholders' meeting and/or the board of directors and/or the executive directors of the VIE not to approve such proposal. This agreement will remain effective until it is terminated at the discretion of Beijing WFOE or upon the transfer of all the equity interest in the VIE to Beijing WFOE and/or a third party designated by Beijing WFOE.

4.D. Property, Plant and Equipment

Our principal executive office is located in Xiamen, China with an aggregate area of approximately 59,237.6 square meters. We are in the process of obtaining the real property ownership certificates of the building with such area.

We lease all of our self-operated store premises and some of our office space. For more information on our stores, see “—4.B. Business Overview—Our Store Network.”

We own one parcel of site area of approximately 45,000 square meters in Pingnan, Fujian, China and one parcel of site area of approximately 53,000 square meters in Kunshan, Jiangsu, China, both of which are used as roasting facilities. The land use rights for the two parcels of site area have been granted with expiry date on June 20, 2069 and November 24, 2072, respectively. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—Unexpected termination of leases, failure to renew the lease of our existing premises or to renew such leases at acceptable terms, or failures to obtain necessary real-estate certificates, could materially and adversely affect our business.” In connection with the construction of own coffee roasting plants, we had paid an aggregate of approximately RMB215.6 million (US$31.3 million) for acquisition of land use rights, building of facilities and purchase of equipment as of December 31, 2022. We plan to expand our supply chain network by leasing, constructing or purchasing additional facilities across China over the next several years.

Item 4A. Unresolved Staff Comments

None.

Item 5. Operating and Financial Review and Prospects

You should read the following discussion together with our consolidated financial statements and the related notes included elsewhere in this annual report. This discussion contains forward-looking statements about our business and operations. Our actual results may differ materially from those we currently anticipate as a result of many factors, including those we describe under "Item 3.D. Risk Factors" and elsewhere in this annual report.

5.A. Operating Results

General Factors Affecting Our Results of Operations

Our business and results of operations are affected by a number of general factors in China, including:

- China's overall economic growth, level of urbanization and level of per capita disposable income;
- COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on the economic life;
- Growth in consumer expenditure, especially the expenditure on food and beverage;
- Consumers' demand for coffee and tea, especially for freshly brewed coffee and tea drinks; and
- Increasing usage of mobile internet and increasing adoption of mobile payment.

Unfavorable changes in any of these general factors could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Specific Factors Affecting Our Results of Operations

Our Ability to Attract and Engage Customers

Our revenue growth is mainly driven by our ability to attract new customers and actively engage and retain existing customers. Driven by technology, our new retail model is built upon our mobile apps and store networks, which allows us to stay close to our customers and engage them anytime, anywhere. We leverage our deep understanding of the coffee market in China and our operation experiences to analyze our customer behavior and industry trends, which enable us to attract new customers and retain and engage existing customers to increase items sold. As of December 31, 2022, we had 5,652 self-operated stores and 2,562 partnership stores in China and had 134.7 million cumulative transacting customers.

Increase Product Offerings and Cross-Sell

We offer a wide variety of high-quality food and beverage items, mainly freshly brewed coffee. Powered by our robust product development capabilities, we have been constantly rolling out new products that became popular among consumers and well recognized by KOLs, such as our coconut milk series, velvet series and Newer series. Going forward, we endeavor to continuously offer innovative food and beverage products, as we believe that focusing on high-quality product development and strategically diversifying our product offerings will increase items sold and revenue per item. For the year ended December 31, 2022, we sold approximately 654.0 million coffee, tea and other product items, among which 16.3% were non-coffee products from our self-operated stores, while for the year ended December 31, 2021, we sold approximately 447.2 million coffee, tea and other product items, among which 24.7% were non-coffee products from our self-operated stores.

The Optimization of Our Sales Network

Our store network affects our business and revenue growth. We started our business in October 2017 and we believe we are one of the largest coffee networks in China in terms of number of stores as of December 31, 2022. The following tables set out the total number of our self-operated stores and retail partnership stores and their movement for the periods indicated.

	For the three months ended,

In September 2019, we launched our retail partnership model initiative and opened the first partnership store in October 2019. Under this model, we will cooperate with selective retail partners to own and manage stores. This model will complement our self-operated store network and enable us to penetrate new markets more efficiently.

To improve profitability, we have conducted store performance reviews and upgraded our store opening criteria. In 2020, we opened certain new stores in areas with strong growth potential, while closing certain existing stores with relatively lower performance levels. As of December 31, 2022, we had 5,652 self-operated stores and 2,562 partnership stores.

Our scale, supported by technology, enables us to gain more bargaining power over our suppliers and lower our operating cost as a percentage of our revenue. Our expanding presence in the market will also enhance our brand image, which we believe will further reduce our customer acquisition costs. We believe that our new retail model can help create a virtuous cycle which reinforces our leadership position.

Effective Selling Prices of Our Products

We have adopted a market-oriented pricing model where we take into account a number of factors, including cost of materials and market demand for our products, as well as our customers' preferences. To achieve effective pricing, we leverage our deep understanding of the coffee market in China and operating experiences to learn the market dynamics and discover patterns of customer behavior. We implement incentive programs in the form of coupons and discount vouchers. The effective selling prices of our products represent our retail prices after applying such discounts. Our future profitability will be affected by our ability to properly manage the effective selling prices of our products.

Efficient Store Operations

We pursue and achieve store operational efficiency by leveraging technology. With our strong technology capabilities and smart supply chain management system, we are able to analyze sales and inventory status for each store on a real-time basis and efficiently replenish inventory. Our technology also helps us manage our overall workforce and enables us to maintain efficient storefront operations.

Table of Contents

Our technology-driven new retail business model significantly improves our operational efficiency. We measure our store performance with store-level operating profit (loss), which is calculated by deducting cost of direct materials (including wastage in stores), cost of delivery packaging materials, storage and logistics expenses, store depreciation expense (including decoration loss for store closure), store rental and other operating costs, net delivery expense, transaction fees, rental deposit of closed stores and rental expense for preopening stores from our self-operated store revenue. We have changed the way we calculate our store-level operating profit (loss) to include all relevant store expenses at the store level (excluding sales and marketing expenses and general and administrative expenses) to align this metric with our internal KPIs. Our store-level operating loss accounted for 12.5% of our self-operated store revenue for the year ended December 31, 2020. We achieved store-level operating profit which accounted for 20.2% and 26.4% of our self-operated store revenue for the year ended December 31, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Seasonality

We experience seasonality in our business, primarily as a result of order fluctuations in holiday seasons as well as the product mix sold for different seasons. For example, we generally experience fewer purchase orders during Chinese New Year holidays which fall between late January and February. The decrease of sales during the holiday seasons is a typical pattern in the coffee market, since commuters contribute significantly to coffee consumption. However, our partnership stores may benefit from the holiday seasons as many of them are located in shopping malls of lower-tier cities, which usually have higher foot traffic during holidays. We also experience fluctuations in the types of products sold as a result of weather changes that affect consumers' preference for different drinks. For example, our sales in the third quarter of 2022 benefited from the relatively hot weather in the summer, as some of our higher margin iced drinks were predominantly sold in hotter months, as compared to relatively colder seasons. For risks related to the seasonality of our business, see "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—Our business is subject to seasonal fluctuations and unexpected interruptions."

Impact of COVID-19

The Chinese markets and our business have been adversely affected by COVID-19. In particular, we were materially and adversely impacted by COVID-19 in the fourth quarter of 2022, with weak customer demand and high numbers of daily temporary store closures, reaching a peak of around 1,500 daily temporary store closures.

However, with the recent lifting of substantially all COVID-19 restrictions in China, the number of daily temporary store closures due to COVID-19 have dropped to single digits since January 2023 and our operations have mostly returned to normalized levels. For risks relating to COVID-19 and its impact on us, see "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—Our operations have been and may continue to be affected by the COVID-19 pandemic." While uncertainties remain around the COVID-19 situation in China, we are optimistic that the negative impacts on operations due to COVID-19 will continue to lessen for the foreseeable future.

Revenues from product sales. Revenues from product sales include:

- Revenues from freshly brewed drinks. We offer an array of freshly brewed drinks, with a focus on freshly brewed coffee, supplemented with non-coffee drinks such as the Luckin Exfreezo series. Net revenues from sales of freshly brewed drinks are recognized upon delivery to customers, net of VAT, surcharges and discounts, if any.
- Revenues from other products. Other products mainly consist of food and beverage items, such as light meals and various merchandise, including premium instant coffee, inspirational cups and other consumer goods.
- Revenues from others. Our revenues from others mainly include delivery fees derived from self-operated stores paid by our customers and membership fees collected from our subscribed members.

Revenues from partnership stores. Revenues from partnership stores mainly consist of sales of materials, equipment and store construction-related materials to the partnership stores, profit-sharing revenue from the partnership stores for using the Luckin Coffee or Luckin Tea brand as well as integrated store operation solution, and other services including delivery services and pre-opening services.

Cost of materials. Cost of materials consists primarily of raw material costs, costs for low-value consumables, storage fees, and logistic expenses for deliveries from warehouses to stores.

Store rental and other operating costs. Our store rental and other operating costs consist primarily of lease payments to lessors of our opened stores, payroll costs for our storefront employees, utility expenses and other operating expenses.

Depreciation and amortization expenses. Depreciation expenses consist primarily of depreciation charges for our machines and equipment and amortization expenses for leasehold improvements.

Delivery expenses. Delivery expenses consist primarily of fees for delivery service providers that we cooperate with to provide delivery services to our customers.

Sales and marketing expenses. Sales and marketing expenses consist primarily of advertising expenses, commissions for third party service providers such as delivery platforms, subcontract service fee, as well as payroll expenses for sales and marketing employees.

General and administrative expenses. General and administrative expenses consist primarily of payroll and other employee benefits for our administrative employees, share-based compensation for key eligible managements and employees, research and development expenses, rental expenses for our office buildings, regular professional service fees and other office expenses.

Store preopening and other expenses. Before opening new stores, it usually takes us some time to decorate the new stores and make preparation for store opening. Store preopening expenses primarily include rental costs incurred before opening of new stores. Other expenses mainly include lease exit costs.

Impairment loss of long-lived assets. Impairment loss of long-lived assets primarily consists of impairment loss of our long-lived assets whose fair value is less than the carrying amount. It consists of the impairment loss in connection with Luckin Coffee EXPRESS and Luckin Pop Mini, self-operating stores, idle equipment, and license of Linefriends food for products sold in Luckin Pop Mini.

Losses and expenses related to Fabricated Transactions and Restructuring. Losses and expenses related to Fabricated Transactions and Restructuring consist primarily of (i) our legal and professional fees incurred to respond to a number of legal proceedings and U.S. securities litigations negotiations and claims; (ii) professional fees and expenses reimbursed for the JPLs; (iii) advisory service fees and other professional fees for the Restructuring; (iv) legal fees reimbursed for security holders, underwriters of the Company's initial public offering and follow-on offering, and directors and officers; (v) professional fees related to the Internal Investigation; (vi) a penalty imposed by SAMR on two of our PRC subsidiaries and certain implicated third-party companies and relevant allowance as the result of Fabricated Transactions in connection with the legal proceedings and Restructuring; and (vii) contingent loss of VAT correction of Fabricated Transactions, etc.

Taxation

Cayman Islands

We are incorporated in the Cayman Islands. Under the current law of the Cayman Islands, we are not subject to income or capital gains tax. In addition, dividend payments are not subject to withholding tax in the Cayman Islands.

British Virgin Islands

Our subsidiary is incorporated in the British Virgin Islands. Under the current laws of the British Virgin Islands, it is not subject to income or capital gains tax under the current laws of the British Virgin Islands. The British Virgin Islands do not impose a withholding tax on dividends.

Hong Kong

Our subsidiaries incorporated in Hong Kong are subject to Hong Kong profit tax. Under the two-tiered profits tax rates regime, the first 2.0 million Hong Kong Dollar ("HKD") of profits of the qualifying group entity will be taxed at 8.25%, and profits above HKD2.0 million will be taxed at 16.5%. No Hong Kong profit tax has been levied as we did not have assessable profit that was earned in or derived from the Hong Kong subsidiary during the periods presented. Hong Kong does not impose a withholding tax on dividends.

PRC

Our subsidiaries incorporated in China and our VIE are subject to PRC enterprise income tax on their taxable income in accordance with the relevant PRC income tax laws. Pursuant to the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law, or the EIT Law, which became effective on January 1, 2008 and most recently amended on December 29, 2018, a uniform 25% enterprise income tax rate is generally applicable to both foreign-invested enterprises and domestic enterprises, except where a special preferential rate applies. For example, enterprises qualified as "High and New Technology Enterprises" are entitled to a 15% enterprise income tax rate rather than the 25% uniform statutory tax rate. From January 1, 2019 to December 31, 2020, the first RMB1.0 million of assessable profit before tax is subject to the preferential income tax rate of 20% followed by a 75% exemption for subsidiaries that qualify as "Small Profit Enterprises", while the remaining assessable profit before tax under RMB3.0 million is subject to the tax rate of 20% followed by a 50% exemption. From January 1, 2021 to December 31, 2021, the first RMB1.0 million of assessable profit before tax is subject to the preferential income tax rate of 20% followed by an 87.5% exemption for subsidiaries that qualify as "Small Profit Enterprises", while the remaining assessable profit before tax under RMB3.0 million is subject to the tax rate of 20% followed by a 50% exemption. From January 1, 2022 to December 31, 2022, the first RMB1.0 million of assessable profit before tax is subject to the preferential income tax rate of 20% followed by an 87.5% exemption for subsidiaries that qualify as "Small Profit Enterprises", while the remaining assessable profit before tax under RMB3.0 million is subject to the tax rate of 20% followed by a 75% exemption. From January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2024, the assessable profit before tax under RMB3.0 million is subject to the preferential income tax rate of 20% followed by a 75% exemption for subsidiaries that qualify as "Small Profit Enterprises". The enterprise income tax is calculated based on the entity's global income as determined under PRC tax laws and accounting standards.

Our PRC subsidiaries are subject to value-added tax, or VAT, at a rate of 6%, 10% and 16% before April 1, 2019 and since then 6%, 9% and 13%, on our products and services, less any deductible VAT we have already paid or borne. They are also subject to surcharges on VAT payments in accordance with PRC law. As a Cayman Islands holding company, we may receive dividends from our PRC subsidiaries. The PRC EIT Law and its implementing rules provide that dividends paid by a PRC entity to a non-resident enterprise for income tax purposes are subject to PRC withholding tax at a rate of 10%, subject to reduction by an applicable tax treaty with China. Pursuant to the Arrangement between PRC and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and Tax Evasion on Income, the withholding tax rate in respect to the payment of dividends by a PRC enterprise to a Hong Kong enterprise may be reduced to 5% from a standard rate of 10% if the Hong Kong enterprise directly holds at least 25% of the PRC enterprise. Pursuant to the Notice of the State Administration of Taxation on the Issues concerning the Application of the Dividend Clauses of Tax Agreements, or SAT Circular 81, a Hong Kong resident enterprise must meet the following conditions, among others, in order to apply the reduced withholding tax rate: (i) it must be a company; (ii) it must directly own the required percentage of equity interests and voting rights in the PRC resident enterprise; and (iii) it must have directly owned such required percentage in the PRC resident enterprise throughout the 12 months prior to receiving the dividends. In October 2019, the State Administration of Taxation promulgated the State Taxation Administration on Issuing the Measures for Non-Resident Taxpayers' Enjoyment of Treaty Benefits, or SAT Circular 35, which became effective on January 1, 2020. SAT Circular 35 provides that non-resident enterprises are not required to obtain preapproval from the relevant tax authority in order to enjoy the reduced withholding tax. Instead, non-resident enterprises and their withholding agents may, by self-assessment and on confirmation that the prescribed criteria to enjoy the tax treaty benefits are met, directly apply the reduced withholding tax rate, and file necessary forms when performing tax filings and collect and retain supporting documents, which will be subject to post-tax filing examinations by the relevant tax authorities.

Accordingly, we may be able to benefit from the 5% withholding tax rate for the dividends received from PRC subsidiaries if we satisfy the conditions prescribed under SAT Circular 81 and other relevant tax rules and regulations. However, according to SAT Circular 81 and SAT Circular 35, if the relevant tax authorities consider that the transactions or arrangements we have are for the primary purpose of enjoying a favorable tax treatment, the relevant tax authorities may adjust the favorable withholding tax in the future.

If our holding company in the Cayman Islands or any of our subsidiaries outside of China were deemed to be a “resident enterprise” under the PRC EIT Law, it would be subject to enterprise income tax on its worldwide income at a rate of 25%. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China—If our offshore companies are classified as a PRC resident enterprise for PRC enterprise income tax purposes, such classification could result in unfavorable tax consequences to us and our non-PRC shareholders and the ADS holders.”

Net Revenues

Our net revenues were RMB13,293.0 million (US$1,927.3 million) in 2022, increased by 66.9% from RMB7,965.3 million in 2021. The growth of our net revenues was primarily attributable to the significant increase in the number of our transacting customers, the increase in our items sold, the increase in average selling price of items sold and the increase in our store footprint. As of December 31, 2022, we had 134.7 million cumulative transacting customers, compared to 92.0 million as of December 31, 2021. In 2022, our average monthly total items sold in self-operated stores and unmanned coffee machines were approximately 54.8 million, compared to 37.5 million in 2021. In 2022, the net increase in the number of our self-operated stores was 1,255, resulting in a year-over-year self-operated store unit growth of 28.5%, ending the year with 5,652 self-operated stores.

Revenues from product sales

Our revenues from product sales were RMB10,223.7 million (US$1,482.3 million) in 2022, increased by 53.5% from RMB6,659.2 million in 2021. Our revenues from product sales consist of revenues from freshly brewed drinks, revenues from other products and revenues from others.

(i) Revenues from freshly brewed drinks

Our net revenues from freshly brewed drinks were RMB9,079.3 million (US$1,316.4 million) in 2022, increased by 53.6% from RMB5,909.7 million in 2021. The growth of our revenue from freshly brewed drinks was primarily driven by the increase in the number of our freshly brewed drinks sold and the increased price per item.

(ii) Revenues from other products

Our net revenues from other products were RMB686.8 million (US$99.6 million) in 2022, increased by 73.6% from RMB395.6 million in 2021, primarily driven by the increase in the number of non-freshly brewed items sold and products sold through e-commerce platforms.

(iii) Revenues from others

Our revenues from others increased by 29.3% from RMB354.0 million in 2021 to RMB457.5 million (US$66.3 million) in 2022, primarily as a result of our increased revenue from membership service and increased delivery service fees derived from self-operated stores due to the increase of number of delivery orders.

Revenues from partnership stores

Our revenues from partnership stores were RMB3,069.3 million (US$445.0 million) in 2022, including sales of materials of RMB2,011.2 million (US$291.6 million), sales of equipment and store construction-related materials of RMB278.1 million (US$40.3 million), profit sharing of RMB427.9 million (US$62.0 million) and other services, including delivery services, of RMB352.1 million (US$51.0 million). Our revenues from partnership stores in 2022 increased by 135.0% from RMB1,306.1 million in 2021. The growth of our revenues from partnership stores was primarily driven by the significant increase in the number of our partnership stores, items sold and delivery orders. As of December 31, 2022, we had 2,562 partnership stores compared to 1,627 stores in 2021, and our average monthly total items sold in partnership stores was approximately 27.4 million in 2022, compared with approximately 12.0 million in 2021.

Operating Expenses

Our operating expenses were RMB12,136.8 million (US$1,759.7 million) in 2022, compared to RMB8,504.4 million in 2021. The growth of our operating expenses was generally in line with our business expansion. Meanwhile, our operating expenses as a percentage of our net revenues decreased from 106.8% in 2021 to 91.3% in 2022, mainly driven by the increased economies of scale and our technology-driven operations.

Our cost of materials was RMB5,179.0 million (US$750.9 million) in 2022, compared to RMB3,198.6 million in 2021. The increase in the cost of materials was in line with the increase in the number of products sold.

Store rental and other operating costs

The following table sets forth the components of our store rental and other operating costs in absolute amounts and as percentages of total store rental and other operating costs for the periods indicated.

	For the year ended December 31,
	2020		2021		2022		2022
	RMB	%	RMB	%	RMB	%	US$	%
Store rental	645,155	37.4	677,869	33.3	900,214	31.7	130,519	31.7
Payroll	917,835	53.1	1,147,227	56.3	1,586,488	56.1	230,019	56.1
Utilities and other store expenses	163,629	9.5	211,676	10.4	343,285	12.2	49,772	12.2
Total	1,726,619	100.0	2,036,772	100.0	2,829,987	100	410,310	100

Our store rental and other operating costs were RMB2,830.0 million (US$410.3 million) in 2022, compared to RMB2,036.8 million in 2021. The increased store rental and other operating costs in 2022 were primarily attributable to the increased expenses in relation to labor costs, the increased number of stores we operated and increased number of items sold per store.

Depreciation and amortization expenses

The following table sets forth the components of our depreciation expenses in absolute amounts and as percentages of total depreciation expenses for the periods indicated.

	For the year ended December 31,
	2020		2021		2022		2022
	RMB	%	RMB	%	RMB	%	US$	%
Depreciation of equipment	203,310	42.1	211,009	45.3	225,585	57.5	32,706	57.5
Amortization of leasehold improvements and others	279,969	57.9	254,228	54.7	166,139	42.4	24,088	42.4

Our depreciation and amortization expenses decreased from RMB465.4 million in 2021 to RMB391.9 million (US$56.8 million) in 2022, primarily due to the decrease in amortization of leasehold improvements for the stores whose leasehold improvements had been fully amortized in 2022, partially offset by the increase of depreciation expenses of additional equipment put into use in new stores.

Delivery expenses

Our delivery expenses increased from RMB819.5 million in 2021 to RMB1,373.2 million (US$199.1 million) in 2022, primarily due to the increased number of delivery orders.

We separated delivery expenses out of sales and marketing expenses to optimize our disclosure and better reflect the nature of our expenses from the year of 2021. This reclassification is retrospectively applied to our financial disclosures for 2020 as reflected in this annual report.

Sales and marketing expenses

The following table sets forth the components of our sales and marketing expenses in absolute amounts and as percentages of total sales and marketing expenses for the periods indicated.

	For the year ended December 31,
	2020		2021		2022		2022
	RMB	%	RMB	%	RMB	%	US$	%

Our sales and marketing expenses were RMB570.1 million (US$82.7 million) in 2022, compared to RMB336.9 million in 2021. The increase in sales and marketing expenses mainly driven by (i) an increase in advertising expenses as we continued to make strategic investments in our branding through various channels, (ii) an increase in subcontract service fees to support our e-commerce business and (iii) an increase in commission fees to third-party delivery platforms which is in line with the increase in the number of delivery orders.

General and administrative expenses

The following table sets forth the components of our general and administrative expenses in absolute amounts and as percentages of total general and administrative expenses for the periods indicated.

	For the year ended December 31,
	2020		2021		2022		2022

Our general and administrative expenses were RMB1,459.6 million (US$211.6 million) in 2022, compared to RMB1,270.0 million in 2021. The increase in general and administrative expenses was mainly driven by (i) the increase in share-based compensation due to more Restricted Share Units (“RSUs”) issued to incentivize management and employees, (ii) the increase in payroll costs for headquarter staff and (iii) the increase in research and development expenses as we further strengthened our IT initiatives. The increase was partially offset by the decrease of professional service fees.

Store preopening and other expenses

Our store preopening and other expenses were RMB36.0 million (US$5.2 million) in 2022, compared to RMB16.4 million in 2021. Our store preopening and other expenses increased in 2022 from 2021 primarily due to the increased rental costs for new store openings as we opened more stores in 2022.

Impairment loss of long-lived assets

Our impairment loss of long-lived assets was RMB221.8 million (US$32.2 million) in 2022, compared to RMB21.4 million in 2021. The impairment loss of long-lived assets in 2022 was provided for a full impairment for Luckin Coffee EXPRESS machines due to historical underperformance and updated strategy and business projections for Luckin Coffee EXPRESS machines determined by the management.

Losses and expenses related to Fabricated Transactions and Restructuring

We incurred losses and expenses related to Fabricated Transactions and Restructuring in a total amount of RMB75.2 million (US$10.9 million) in 2022, compared to RMB339.6 million in 2021, as we had successfully completed the dismissal of provisional liquidation in March 2022. The losses and expenses related to Fabricated Transactions and Restructuring consisted primarily of professional and legal fees for U.S. securities litigations, and other advisory service fees. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Fabricated Transactions, Internal Investigation, Internal Control, Offshore Restructuring and Related Matters—The previously disclosed Fabricated Transactions (as defined in Item 3.D. Risk Factors) have exposed us to a number of legal proceedings, investigations and inquiries, resulted in significant legal and other expenses, and required significant time and attention from our senior management, among other adverse impacts.”

Operating Income/(Loss)

As a result of the foregoing, our operating income was RMB1,156.2 million (US$167.6 million) in 2022, compared to operating loss of RMB539.1 million in 2021.

Interest Income

Our interest income was RMB84.9 million (US$12.3 million) in 2022, compared to RMB102.2 million in 2021. The decrease of interest income was mainly due to the decrease in our cash and cash equivalents following the full redemption of the New Notes in August 2022, the settlement of payable to fulfill our obligations under the federal class action settlement and purchase of property and equipment.

Interest and Financing Expenses

Our interest and financing expenses were RMB23.5 million (US$3.4 million) in 2022 and RMB35.5 million in 2021. The interest and financing expenses in 2022 were primarily consisted of interest expenses for the New Notes. The interest expenses in 2022 were relatively low compared to 2021 primarily due to the successful Restructuring of the Notes and full redemption of the New Notes.

Foreign Exchange Gain/(Loss), Net

We recorded net foreign exchange gain of RMB10.7 million (US$1.5 million) in 2022, compared to net foreign exchange gain of RMB12.4 million in 2021.

Other Income/(Expenses), Net

We recorded net other income of RMB60.7 million (US$8.8 million) in 2022, compared to net other loss of RMB16.5 million in 2021. The net other income in 2022 was primarily attributable to the government grants, partially offset by loss from assets disposal, compared to the net other expense in 2021 that was due from compensation for default of purchase commitment to Schaefer, loss from assets disposal and donations, partially offset by government grants.

Reversal/(Provision) for SEC Settlement

We reversed the provision for SEC settlement of US$180 million (RMB1,146.5 million) in 2021 which was recorded in 2020. Based on all available information as of December 31, 2021, it was very probable that the SEC staff would be satisfied that the cash payment to the bond holders to be made in January 2022, estimated at the time to exceed US$180 million, would fully offset the SEC civil penalty pursuant to the terms of the SEC settlement. Accordingly, we reversed the provision for the SEC Settlement for the year ended December 31, 2021. On February 3, 2022, the SEC filed with the SDNY Court a notice acknowledging that our obligation to pay the civil money penalty had been satisfied.

Provision for U.S. Securities Litigation

We recorded a provision for equity litigation of US$187.5 million (approximately RMB1,226.1 million) in 2020. We recorded an additional US$24.4 million (approximately RMB155.3 million) and US$41.9 million (approximately RMB280.0 million) in 2021 and 2022.

We have been named as a defendant in various U.S. securities litigations. See “Item 8. Financial Information—8.A. Consolidated Statements and Other Financial Information—Legal Proceedings” and “Note 20 Commitments and Contingencies—Legal proceedings—U.S. Class Action” to the consolidated financial statements included in this annual report. Where possible, the Company contests liability and/or the amount of damages appropriate in each pending matter. Where available information indicates that it is probable that a liability had been incurred as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the Company can reasonably estimate the amount of that loss, the Company accrues a provision for that loss in accordance with relevant U.S. GAAP principles. The Company’s estimate of probable losses from these litigations is based on either the amount of a settlement (if a settlement has been reached), the Company’s most recent offer made to a claimant (if no settlement has been reached but settlement negotiations have begun) or the implied recovery represented by the Federal Class Action Settlement (where no settlement negotiations have begun). The actual loss could be greater or smaller than our current estimate.

Income Tax Benefit/(Expense)

The income tax benefits/(expenses) changed from income tax benefits of RMB63.9 million in 2021 to income tax expense of RMB638.5 million in 2022 mainly because our operating subsidiaries have generated net operating income during 2022, which incurred estimated income tax payment for 2022 of approximately RMB115 million, and utilized over RMB1.4 billion cumulative tax losses, which decreased the deferred tax assets significantly.

Net (Loss)/Income

As a result of the foregoing, we recorded a net income of RMB488.2 million (US$70.8 million) in 2022, compared to a net income of RMB578.7 million in 2021.

Discussion of the Years Ended December 31, 2021 and 2020

See “Item 5. Operating and Financial Review and Prospects—5.A. Operating Results—Results of Operations—Discussion of the Years Ended December 31, 2021 and 2020” of our annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 filed with the SEC on April 14, 2022.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In evaluating the business, we consider and use adjusted operating (loss)/income and adjusted net (loss)/income, each a non-GAAP financial measure, in reviewing and assessing our operating performance. The presentation of these non-GAAP financial measures is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP. We present these non-GAAP financial measures because they are used by our management to evaluate operating performance and formulate business plans. We believe that the non-GAAP financial measures help identify underlying trends in our business, provide further information about our results of operations, and enhance the overall understanding of our past performance and future prospects.

The non-GAAP financial measures are not defined under U.S. GAAP and are not presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The non-GAAP financial measures have limitations as analytical tools. Our non-GAAP financial measures do not reflect all items of income and expense that affect our operations and do not represent the residual cash flow available for discretionary expenditures. Furthermore, these non-GAAP measures may differ from the non-GAAP information used by other companies, including peer companies, and therefore their comparability may be limited. We compensate for these limitations by reconciling the non-GAAP financial measures to the nearest U.S. GAAP performance measure, all of which should be considered when evaluating performance. We encourage investors and others to review our financial information in its entirety and not rely on a single financial measure.

We define non-GAAP operating (loss)/income as operating (loss)/income excluding share-based compensation expenses and impairment loss of long-lived assets, non-GAAP net (loss)/income as net (loss)/income excluding share-based compensation expenses, fair value changes of derivative asset bifurcated from Series B Senior Secured Notes, impairment loss of long-lived assets, provision/(reversal) for SEC settlement, provision for equity litigants settlement, impairment of trust investments and gain from extinguishment of Series B Senior Secured Notes and non-GAAP net (loss)/income attributable to our company's ordinary shareholders as net (loss)/income attributable to our company's ordinary shareholders excluding share-based compensation expenses, fair value changes of derivative asset bifurcated from Series B Senior Secured Notes, impairment loss of long-lived assets, provision/(reversal) for SEC settlement, provision for equity litigants settlement, impairment of trust investments and gain from extinguishment of Series B Senior Secured Notes. Starting from the third quarter of 2021, we recorded impairment loss of long-lived assets primarily in the ordinary course of business, rather than unexpected events such as store closures caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Therefore we no longer adjust for such impairment loss of long-lived assets in our non-GAAP measures since then. The table below sets forth a reconciliation of our operating (loss)/income to non-GAAP operating (loss)/income, our net (loss)/income to non-GAAP net (loss)/income and our net (loss)/income attributable to our company's ordinary shareholders to non-GAAP net (loss)/income attributable to our company's ordinary shareholders for the years indicated below.

Our principal source of liquidity has been cash provided by our operating activities and historical equity financing activities, including the proceeds from our IPO in May 2019, and our follow-on public offering and convertible note offering in January 2020, and the Investment Agreement with an affiliate of Centurium Capital and Joy Capital. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.A. History and Development of the Company.” As of December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, we had RMB4,939.0 million, RMB6,555.3 million and RMB3,578.0 million (US$518.8 million) in cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash, respectively. Our cash and cash equivalents consist primarily of bank deposits and are primarily denominated in Renminbi and US dollar. Our operating expenses continued to increase historically and are expected to continue to increase in line with our business expansion. Meanwhile, leveraging our new retail model, we experienced robust growth in net revenues in 2020, 2021 and 2022. As a result of increased economies of scale and technology-driven operations, our operating expenses as a percentage of our net revenues decreased significantly from 128.7% in the first quarter of 2021 to 91.5% in the fourth quarter of 2022. Our operating loss, accounting for 28.7% of our net revenues in the first quarter of 2021, turned into an operating profit in the fourth quarter of 2022, representing 8.5% of our net revenues for the same period. Nevertheless, as we continue to focus on business growth and expansion, our operating expenses in absolute amounts are expected to continue to increase in the near future. Moreover, the competitive landscape and customer demand and preference may also affect our financial performance. As a result, there is substantial uncertainty with respect to our results of operations and our profitability. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry—We have incurred significant operating losses attributable to the Company and we may continue to experience significant operating losses in the future.” We believe that our current cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and anticipated cash flow from operations will be sufficient to meet our anticipated cash needs for our current business plan, including our cash needs for working capital and capital expenditures, for at least the next 12 months.

In utilizing the proceeds we received from our IPO in May 2019, and our follow-on public offering and convertible note offering in January 2020, we have made and may make capital contributions to our PRC subsidiaries, acquire or establish new PRC subsidiaries or give loans to our PRC subsidiaries for further expansion of our store network. However, most of these uses are subject to PRC regulations. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China—PRC regulation of loans to and direct investment in PRC entities by offshore holding companies may delay us from using the proceeds of our offshore financing to make loans or additional capital contributions to our PRC subsidiaries, which could materially and adversely affect our liquidity and our ability to fund and expand our business.” We used and intend to use the proceeds from the Transactions to facilitate the Restructuring and fulfill our obligations under the settlement with the SEC.

As of December 31, 2022, our offshore debt securities were fully redeemed. On July 15, 2020, the Notes became immediately due and payable following the appointment of JPLs, which constituted an event of default. On March 16, 2021, we announced that we had entered into an RSA with holders of a majority of the Notes to restructure the debt under the Notes by way of a scheme of arrangement in the Cayman Islands. On December 14, 2021, we announced that the Cayman Court sanctioned the Scheme. The Scheme became fully effective in accordance with its terms on December 17, 2021 following the entry of a final order of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court recognizing and enforcing the Scheme in the territorial jurisdiction of the United States. On January 28, 2022, the Restructuring of the Notes as contemplated by the Scheme became effective, and was substantially consummated. In aggregate, in exchange for the Notes, we have issued consideration to creditors under the Scheme totaling US$245.5 million of cash, the New Notes and 9,527,601 ADSs representing 76,220,808 Class A Ordinary Shares, which includes 291,699 ADSs issued on April 4, 2022 pursuant to the top-up mechanism under the Scheme, of which 25,004 ADSs were not claimed by creditors and therefore 200,032 Class A Ordinary Shares underlying such unclaimed ADSs were returned to the Company. On August 26, 2022, we fully redeemed the New Notes, our only offshore debt securities. The aggregate redemption price of the New Notes was US$115.6 million, which constitutes the aggregate principal amount outstanding plus the aggregate accrued interest. The aggregate redemption price was paid from our available offshore cash balance. For details about the Notes and the RSA, see “Note 12 Convertible Senior Notes” in the consolidated financial statements included in this annual report.”

Substantially all of our future net revenues are likely to continue to be denominated in Renminbi. Under existing PRC foreign exchange regulations, Renminbi may be converted into foreign currencies for current account items, including profit distributions, interest payments and trade- and service-related foreign exchange transactions, without prior SAFE approval as long as certain routine procedural requirements are fulfilled.

Therefore, our PRC subsidiaries are allowed to pay dividends in foreign currencies to us without prior SAFE approval by following certain routine procedural requirements. However, approval from or registration with competent government authorities is required where the Renminbi is to be converted into foreign currency and remitted out of China to pay capital expenses such as the repayment of loans denominated in foreign currencies. The PRC government may at its discretion restrict access to foreign currencies for current account transactions in the future.

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities was RMB19.8 million (US$2.9 million) in 2022, compared to net cash provided by operating activities RMB123.4 million in 2021. Our net cash provided by operating activities in 2022 reflected a net income of RMB488.2 million (US$70.8 million), adjusted by (i) the add back of non-cash items mainly consisting of amortization of operating lease right-of-use assets of RMB854.6 million, depreciation and amortization of RMB391.9 million, share-based compensation expenses of RMB398.0 million, impairment of long-lived assets of RMB221.8 million, the reversal of deferred income tax of 494.5 million, and (ii) partially offset by gain from extinguishment of Series B Senior Secured Notes of RMB124.1 million, foreign exchange gain of RMB10.7 million and changes in operating assets and liabilities of RMB2,748.7 million. The RMB2,748.7 million change in operating assets and liabilities mainly arises from the payment of equity litigants settlement of RMB1,398.9 million, the decrease of operating lease liabilities of RMB875.7 million, the increase of inventories of RMB604.1 million, the increase of accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and other current assets and other noncurrent assets of RMB145.6 million, offset by the increase of accounts payable of RMB147.7 million and the increase of accrued expenses and other liabilities of RMB107.1 million.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was RMB798.0 million (US$115.7 million) in 2022, compared to net cash provided by investing activities of RMB0.3 million in 2021. The net cash used in investing activities was primarily attributable to the purchase of property and equipment of RMB781.7 million and the payment for land use rights of RMB19.3 million, partially offset by proceeds from disposal of property and equipment of RMB3.0 million.

Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities was RMB2,276.3 million (US$330.0 million) in 2022, compared to net cash provided by RMB1,514.7 million in 2021. The net cash used in financing activities in 2022 was primarily attributable to restructuring of the Notes of RMB1,560.1 million and repayment of New Notes of RMB779.5 million, offset by proceeds from issuance of convertible senior preferred shares of RMB63.4 million.

Material Cash Requirements

Our capital expenditures are incurred primarily in connection with the purchase of property and equipment. Our capital expenditures were RMB781.7 million (US$113.3 million) in 2022, compared to RMB173.2 million in 2021. We intend to fund our future capital expenditures with our existing cash balance and cash from operating activities. Our capital commitments primarily relate to investing activities contracted but not yet reflected in the financial statements. The following table sets forth our contractual obligations and commercial commitments as of December 31, 2022:

	Payment Due by Period
	Total	Less than 1 year (in thousands of RMB)	2–3 years	4–5 years	More than 5 years
Factory and office building construction commitments	156,195	138,744	17,451	—	—
Fixed assets purchasing commitment	159,882	159,882	—	—	—
Total	316,077	298,626	17,451	—	—

We lease stores and offices for operation under operating lease. Payments under operating leases are expensed on a straight-line basis over the periods of their respective leases. As of December 31, 2022, our operating lease commitments were RMB2,028.4 million (US$294.1 million), of which 43.4% were due by within one year.

As of December 31, 2022, we have no outstanding debt obligation.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have not entered into any financial guarantees or other commitments to guarantee the payment obligations of any third parties. We have not entered into any derivative contracts that are indexed to our shares and classified as shareholders' equity or that are not reflected in our consolidated financial statements. Furthermore, we do not have any retained or contingent interest in assets transferred to an unconsolidated entity that serves as credit, liquidity or market risk support to such entity. We do not have any variable interest in any unconsolidated entity that provides financing, liquidity, market risk or credit support to us or engages in leasing, hedging or product development services with us.

Holding Company Structure

The Company, or Luckin Coffee Inc., is a holding company with no material operations of its own. We conduct our operations primarily through our PRC subsidiaries. As a result, the Company's ability to pay dividends depends upon dividends paid by our subsidiaries. If our subsidiaries, our VIE or any newly formed subsidiaries incur debt on their own behalf in the future, the instruments governing their debt may restrict their ability to pay dividends to the Company.

In addition, our subsidiaries in China are permitted to pay dividends to us only out of their retained earnings, if any, as determined in accordance with the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprise as promulgated by the Ministry of Finance of the PRC, or PRC GAAP. Before January 1, 2020, pursuant to the law applicable to China's foreign investment enterprise, our subsidiaries that are foreign investment enterprises in the PRC have to make appropriation from their after-tax profit, as determined under PRC GAAP, to reserve funds including (i) the general reserve fund, (ii) the enterprise expansion fund and (iii) the staff bonus and welfare fund. The appropriation to the general reserve fund must be at least 10% of the after-tax profits calculated in accordance with PRC GAAP. Appropriation is not required if the reserve fund has reached 50% of the registered capital of our subsidiary. Appropriations to the other two reserve funds are at our subsidiary's discretion. On January 1, 2020, the Foreign Investment Law and the Implementation Regulations came into effect, which repealed the PRC Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprise Law and the Implementation Regulations on the Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprise Law and became the legal foundation for foreign investment in the PRC. Pursuant to the Foreign Investment Law, the corporate governance matters, including the dividend distribution, shall be governed by the Company Law, the Partnership Law or other laws of the PRC. In accordance with the Company Law of the PRC, our subsidiaries and VIE in China must make appropriations from their after-tax profit to non-distributable reserve funds including (i) the statutory surplus fund and (ii) the discretionary surplus fund. The appropriation to the statutory surplus fund must be at least 10% of the after-tax profits calculated in accordance with PRC GAAP. Appropriation is not required if the statutory surplus fund has reached 50% of the registered capital of our subsidiaries and VIE. Appropriation to the discretionary surplus fund is made at the discretion of our subsidiaries and VIE. However, according to the Foreign Investment Law and the Implementation Regulations, the foreign investment enterprises established before January 1, 2020 may elect to maintain their current corporate governance rules, including the dividend distribution policy, adopted under the PRC Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprise Law, within five years after January 1, 2020.

As an offshore holding company, we are permitted under PRC laws and regulations to provide funding from the proceeds of our offshore fundraising activities to our PRC subsidiaries only through loans or capital contributions, and to our VIE only through loans, in each case subject to the satisfaction of the applicable government registration and approval requirements. See "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China—PRC regulation of loans to and direct investment in PRC entities by offshore holding companies may delay us from using the proceeds of our offshore financing to make loans or additional capital contributions to our PRC subsidiaries, which could materially and adversely affect our liquidity and our ability to fund and expand our business." As a result, there is uncertainty with respect to our ability to provide prompt financial support to our PRC subsidiaries and our VIE when needed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, our PRC subsidiaries may use their own retained earnings (rather than Renminbi converted from foreign currency denominated capital) to provide financial support to our VIE either through entrustment loans from our PRC subsidiaries to our VIE or direct loans to such VIE's nominee shareholders, which would be contributed to the consolidated variable entity as capital injections. Such direct loans to the nominee shareholders would be eliminated in our consolidated financial statements against the VIE's share capital.

Transfer of Funds and Other Assets

To the extent cash in the business is in the PRC or a PRC entity, the funds may not be available to fund operations or for other use outside of the PRC due to interventions in or the imposition of restrictions and limitations on the ability of Luckin Coffee Inc., its subsidiaries, or the VIE by the PRC government to transfer cash. Our PRC subsidiaries are permitted to pay dividends to their shareholders, and eventually to Luckin Coffee Inc., only out of their retained earnings, if any, as determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations. Such payment of dividends by entities registered in China is subject to limitations, which could result in limitations on the availability of cash to fund dividends or make distributions to shareholders of our securities. For example, our PRC subsidiaries and the VIE are required to make appropriations to certain statutory reserve funds or may make appropriations to certain discretionary funds, which are not distributable as cash dividends except in the event of a solvent liquidation of the companies. For details about the applicable PRC regulations and rules relating to such cash transfers through our Group and the associated risks, see "—Risks Related to Doing Business in China—Cash in our business in the PRC may not be available to fund operations or for other use outside of the PRC due to interventions in or the imposition of restrictions and limitations by the PRC government to the transfer of cash. We may rely on dividends and other distributions on equity paid by our PRC subsidiaries to fund any cash and financing requirements we may have, and any limitation on the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to make payments to us could have a material and adverse effect on our ability to conduct our business. In particular, the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to pay dividends may be subject to foreign exchange restrictions and dividends may be paid only out of the distributable profits of our PRC subsidiaries as defined under the PRC laws and regulations," "—Risks Related to Doing Business in China—Governmental control of currency conversion may limit our ability to utilize our revenues effectively and affect the value of your investment," and "Item 4. Information on the Company – 4.A. History and Development of the Company – Recent Regulatory Development—Restrictions on Foreign Exchange and the Ability to Transfer Cash between Entities, Across Borders and to U.S. Investors."

Luckin Coffee Inc. has not previously declared or paid any cash dividend or dividend in kind, and has no plan to declare or pay any dividends in the near future on its Shares or the ADSs. We currently intend to retain most, if not all, of our available funds and any future earnings to operate and expand our business. None of our PRC subsidiaries has issued any dividends or distributions to their respective parent companies, including Luckin Coffee Inc., or to any investors as of the date of this annual report. Our subsidiaries in the PRC currently retain cash generated from their operating activities and re-invest it in our business operations. In the future, our ability to pay dividends, if any, to our shareholders and ADS holders and to service any debt we may incur will depend upon dividends and other distributions paid by our PRC subsidiaries.

As of the date of this annual report, we do not have cash management policies in place that dictate how funds are transferred between Luckin Coffee Inc., our PRC subsidiaries, the VIE and the investors. Rather, the funds can be transferred in accordance with the applicable PRC laws and regulations. Cash is transferred among Luckin Coffee Inc., Luckin Coffee Investment Inc., our BVI subsidiary, Luckin Coffee (Hong Kong) Limited ("Luckin HK"), Luckin Coffee Roasting (Hong Kong) Limited and Luckin Coffee Roastery (Hong Kong) Limited, our Hong Kong subsidiaries, and their PRC subsidiaries, in the following manner: (i) funds are transferred to Luckin China, a wholly owned subsidiary of Luckin HK that is the holding company of PRC operating subsidiaries, from the Company as needed through Luckin HK in the form of capital contributions or shareholder loans, as the case may be; and (ii) dividends or other distributions may be paid by Luckin China to Luckin Coffee Inc. through Luckin HK.

As of December 31, 2022, Luckin Coffee Inc. made cumulative capital contributions of US$1,800.8 million to its PRC subsidiaries through an intermediate holding company which were accounted as loan to an intermediate holding company of Luckin Coffee Inc. These funds have been used by the PRC subsidiaries for their operations. In the future, cash proceeds raised from overseas financing activities may be transferred by us through Luckin HK to Luckin China via capital contribution and shareholder loans, as the case may be. Luckin China then will transfer funds to its subsidiaries to meet the capital needs of our business operations.

The VIE is not involved in the business operations or fund planning of the Group. However, Luckin Coffee Inc. and its subsidiaries may transfer cash to the VIE by loans or capital support, subject to satisfaction of applicable government registration and approval requirements, to satisfy the VIE's miscellaneous cash demands, such as social insurance fees for employees whose social insurance accounts were registered under the VIE. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, our PRC subsidiaries transferred RMB74.1 million, RMB18.8 million and RMB115.5 million (US$16.7 million), respectively, to the VIE by loans or by capital support. In addition, the VIE may transfer cash as repayment of loans or, on an ad hoc basis, as working capital support to our PRC subsidiaries. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the VIE transferred to our PRC subsidiaries RMB3.3 million, RMB58.8 million and RMB104.1 million (US$15.1 million), respectively. These funds were used for repayment of loans or to support operations of our PRC subsidiaries. The VIE also transferred 1,273 trademarks and two copyrights of works to Luckin China during the course of 2021 and 2022. There were no other assets transferred between our PRC subsidiaries and the VIE in 2020, 2021 and 2022. In addition, we and the VIE do not currently have any plans to distribute earnings or settle amounts owed under the VIE Agreements.

For the purpose of illustration, the below table reflects the hypothetical taxes that might be required to be paid within China, assuming that: (i) we have taxable earnings and (ii) we determine to pay a dividend in the future:

Statutory Tax and Standard Rates
Tax on earnings at statutory rate of 25%	(25)%
Net earnings available for distribution	75 %
Withholding tax at standard rate of 10% ⁽³⁾	(7.5)%
Net distribution to Parent/Shareholders	67.5 %

Notes:

- (1) For purposes of this example, the tax calculation has been simplified. The hypothetical book pre-tax earnings amount, not considering timing differences, is assumed to equal taxable income in China.

- (2) Under the terms of the contractual arrangements between us and the VIE, Beijing WFOE may charge the VIE for services provided to the VIE. These service fees shall be recognized as expenses of the VIE, with a corresponding amount as service income by Beijing WFOE and eliminate in consolidation. For income tax purposes, Beijing WFOE and the VIE file income tax returns on a separate company basis. The service fees paid are recognized as a tax deduction by the VIE and as income by Beijing WFOE and are tax neutral.
- (3) The PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law imposes a withholding income tax of 10% on dividends distributed by a foreign invested enterprise, or FIE, to its immediate holding company outside of China if such immediate holding company is considered as a non-resident enterprise without any establishment or place within China or if the received dividends have no connection with the establishment or place of such immediate holding company within China, unless such immediate holding company's jurisdiction of incorporation has a tax treaty with China that provides for a different withholding arrangement. According to the arrangement between Mainland China and Hong Kong Special Administrative Region on the Avoidance of Double Taxation and Prevention of Fiscal Evasion in August 2006, dividends paid by a FIE in China to its immediate holding company in Hong Kong can be subject to withholding tax at a rate of no more than 5% if the immediate holding company in Hong Kong owns directly at least 25% of the shares of the FIE and could be recognized as a Beneficial Owner of the dividend from PRC tax perspective.

5.C. Research and Development

Technology is at the core of our business, and we will continue to invest in our technology, which covers every aspect of our business, from customer engagement and storefront operations to supply chain management. With our centralized technology system, we are able to simplify and standardize our operations, which allows us to improve operational efficiency and quickly expand and scale up our business. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Technology.”

5.D. Trend Information

Other than as disclosed elsewhere in this annual report, we are not aware of any trends, uncertainties, demands, commitments or events for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022 that are reasonably likely to have a material and adverse effect on our net revenues, income, profitability, liquidity or capital resources, or that would cause the disclosed financial information to be not necessarily indicative of future results of operations or financial condition.

5.E. Critical Accounting Estimates

We prepare our financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, which requires our management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the balance sheet dates and revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. We continually evaluate these judgments and estimates based on our own historical experience, knowledge and assessment of current business and other conditions, our expectations regarding the future based on available information and assumptions that we believe to be reasonable, which together form our basis for making judgments about matters that are not readily apparent from other sources. Since the use of estimates is an integral component of the financial reporting process, our actual results could differ from those estimates. Some of our accounting policies require a higher degree of judgment than others in their application.

The selection of critical accounting policies, the judgments and other uncertainties affecting application of those policies and the sensitivity of reported results to changes in conditions and assumptions are factors that should be considered when reviewing our financial statements. We believe the following accounting policies involve the most significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of our financial statements. You should read the following description of critical accounting policies, judgments and estimates in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements and other disclosures included in this annual report.

Revenue Recognition

Customers pay in advance for prepaid coupons. All prepaid coupons are stored in the “Coffee Wallet” of the customers’ registered accounts for future use with a three-year validity period. Cash received from the sales of prepaid coupons is recognized as deferred revenues, which are contract liabilities under ASC 606 and recognized as revenue when the customer redeems the coupons. However, a portion of the contract liability recognized as revenue may relate to coupons that we expect to expire, which is considered as a breakage amount. When we determine that it expects to be entitled to breakage, the estimated breakage is recognized as revenue in proportion to the pattern of rights exercised by the customer. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, the balance of deferred revenues was RMB96.2 million and RMB97.4 million (US$14.1 million), respectively. Majority of the balance of deferred revenue as of December 31, 2021 was recognized as revenue in the year of 2022.

Impairment of long-lived assets other than goodwill

We evaluate our long-lived assets, including property and equipment with finite lives, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances, such as a significant adverse change to market conditions that indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be fully recoverable. When these events occur, we evaluate the recoverability of long-lived assets by comparing the carrying amount of the assets to the future undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of the assets and their eventual disposition. If the sum of the expected undiscounted cash flows of the asset or asset group is less than the carrying amount of the assets or the asset groups, we recognize an impairment loss based on the excess of the carrying amount of the assets or the asset groups over their fair value. Fair value is generally determined by discounting the cash flows expected to be generated by the assets or asset groups based on forecasted future sales and operating costs, using internal projections, when the market prices are not readily available. The adjusted carrying amount of the assets become new cost basis and are depreciated over the assets’ remaining useful lives. Long-lived assets are grouped with other assets and liabilities at the lowest level for which identifiable cash flows are largely independent of the cash flows of other assets and liabilities.

We estimate of future cash flows requires us to make assumptions and to apply judgment, including forecasting future sales and gross profits and estimating useful lives of the assets or asset groups. These estimates can be affected by factors such as future sales results, store closure plans, economic conditions, business interruptions, interest rates and government regulations that can be difficult to predict. If actual results and conditions are not consistent with the estimates and assumptions used in its calculations, we may be exposed to additional impairments of long-lived assets.

For the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, we recognized impairment of long-lived assets other than goodwill of RMB71.5 million, RMB21.4 million and RMB221.8 million (US$32.2 million), respectively.

Impairment loss of long-lived assets mainly represented RMB46.7 million for the asset group related to Luckin Pop Mini, RMB12.8 million for the Linefriends food licensing and RMB9.8 million for the asset group related to store operating equipment and others for the year ended December 31, 2020, RMB21.4 million for the asset group related to store operating equipment and others for the year ended December 31, 2021, and RMB221.8 million for the asset group related to Luckin Coffee EXPRESS machines for the year ended December 31, 2022.

Income Taxes

We follow the liability method of accounting for income taxes in accordance with ASC 740 (“ASC 740”), Income Taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates that will be in effect in the period in which the differences are expected to reverse. We record a valuation allowance to offset deferred tax assets if based on the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some portion, or all, of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The effect on deferred taxes of a change in tax rate is recognized in tax expense in the period that includes the enactment date of the change in tax rate.

We accounted for uncertainties in income taxes in accordance with ASC 740. Interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefit recognized in accordance with ASC 740 are classified in the consolidated statements of comprehensive loss as income tax expenses. No material interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefit were recorded for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022.

Inventory Reserves

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost of inventory is determined using the weighted average method. We recorded inventory reserves to write down the cost of inventory to the estimated net realizable value due to obsolete and slow-moving inventories, which is dependent upon factors such as historical and forecasted consumer demand, and application of the specific identification method. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, our inventory reserves were RMB5.6 million and RMB33.4 million (US$4.8 million), respectively. Write-downs are recorded in cost of materials in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive (Loss)/Income.

Expected Credit Losses

Our account receivable, receivables from online payment platforms, other receivables and other certain financial assets are within the scope of ASU No. 2016-13. We maintain an estimated allowance for credit losses to reduce them to the amount that we believe will be collected. When developing an estimation of expected credit losses, we apply the historical loss experience with appropriate adjustment. We consider available information relevant to assessing the collectability of cash flows. This information may include internal information, external information, or a combination of both relating to past events, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. We adjust the allowance percentage periodically when there are significant differences between estimated bad debts and actual bad debts. If there is strong evidence indicating that these financial assets are likely to be unrecoverable, we also make specific allowance in the period in which a loss is determined to be probable. The balance of these financial assets is written off after all collection efforts have been exhausted.

Derivative Financial Instrument

All contracts that meet the definition of a derivative are recognized on our consolidated balance sheets as either assets or liabilities and recorded at fair value. Our derivative financial instruments primarily consisted of derivative asset bifurcated from the New Notes. Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognized in our consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive (loss)/income as they were not qualified for hedge accounting. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, there was no balance of the derivative instruments.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Accounting guidance defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurement for assets and liabilities required or permitted to be recorded at fair value, we consider the principal or most advantageous market in which it would transact and it considers assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability.

Accounting guidance establishes a three-tier fair value hierarchy that requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. A financial instrument's categorization within the fair value hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

- Level 1—Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2—Other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.
- Level 3—Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity.

ASC 820 describes three main approaches to measuring the fair value of assets and liabilities: (1) market approach; (2) income approach; and (3) cost approach. The market approach uses prices and other relevant information generated from market transactions involving identical or comparable assets or liabilities. The income approach uses valuation techniques to convert future amounts to a single present value amount. The measurement is based on the value indicated by current market expectations about those future amounts. The cost approach is based on the amount that would currently be required to replace an asset.

Cash equivalents and security deposits held in bank accounts for bank guarantee letters which are included in restricted cash are measured at fair value based on the pervasive interest rates in the market, which are also the interest rates as stated in the contracts with the banks. We classify the valuation techniques that use the pervasive interest rates input as Level 2 of fair value measurements. The carrying values of above financial instruments except for cash equivalents and security deposits held in bank accounts for bank guarantee letters which is included in restricted cash are measured at amortized cost, which approximate their fair values due to their short-term maturities.

Commitments and Contingencies

In the normal course of business, we are subject to contingencies, such as legal proceedings. Liabilities for the contingencies are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the liability can be reasonably estimated.

Certain conditions may exist as of the date the consolidated financial statements are issued, which may result in a loss to us, but which will only be resolved when one or more future events occur or fail to occur. We assess these contingent liabilities, which inherently involves judgment. In assessing loss contingencies related to legal proceedings that are pending against us or unasserted claims that may result in legal proceedings, in consultation with its legal counsel, we evaluate the perceived merits of any legal proceedings or unasserted claims as well as the perceived merits of the amount of relief sought or expected to be sought therein. If the assessment of a contingency indicates that it is probable that a material loss has been incurred and the amount of the liability can be estimated, the estimated liability would be accrued in the consolidated financial statements. If the assessment indicates that a potentially material loss contingency is not probable, or is probable but cannot be estimated, the nature of the contingent liability, together with an estimate of the range of the reasonably possible loss, if determinable and material, would be disclosed. Loss contingencies considered remote are generally not disclosed since they do not involve guarantees.

Share-Based Compensation

We apply ASC 718, Compensation—Stock Compensation (“ASC 718”), to account for our employee share-based payments. In accordance with ASC 718, we determine whether an award should be classified and accounted for as a liability award or equity award. All the share-based awards to employees and directors were classified as equity awards and are recognized in the consolidated financial statements based on their grant date fair values. We recognize share-based compensation expenses for equity awards to employees with a performance condition based on the probable outcome of that performance condition. Compensation expense is recognized over the requisite service period for each separately vesting portion of the award, and only when it is probable that the performance condition, if any, will be achieved. We account for forfeitures as they occur.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

A list of recent relevant accounting pronouncements, if any, is included in Note 2 “Summary of Significant Accounting Policies” to our consolidated financial statements included in this annual report.

Employment Agreements and Indemnification Agreements

We have entered into employment agreements with each of our executive officers. We may terminate an executive officer's employment for cause at any time without advance notice in certain events, including acts of the executive officer, such as conviction or plea of guilty to a felony or any crime involving moral turpitude, negligent or dishonest acts to our detriment. We may terminate an executive officer's employment in circumstances prescribed under and in accordance with the applicable labor law by giving a prior written notice and paying certain compensation. An executive officer may terminate his or her employment at any time by giving a prior written notice. Some of our executive officers are entitled to certain compensation or benefits in the event of a change of control.

Each executive officer has agreed to hold, unless expressly consented to by us, at all times during and after the termination of his or her employment agreement, in strict confidence and not to use, any of our confidential information or the confidential information of our customers and suppliers.

We have also entered into indemnification agreements with each of our directors and executive officers. Under these agreements, we agree to indemnify our directors and executive officers against all liabilities and expenses incurred by such persons in connection with claims made by reason of their being a director or officer of our company to the fullest extent permitted by law with certain limited exceptions.

Share Incentive Plan

2019 Share Option Plan

We adopted the 2019 Share Option Plan, in January 2019. The purpose of the 2019 Share Option Plan is to enhance our ability to attract and retain exceptionally qualified individuals and to encourage them to acquire a proprietary interest in the growth and performance of us. The maximum aggregate number of Class A Ordinary Shares that can be issued under the 2019 Share Option Plan is 79,015,500. As of March 31, 2023, 66,695,568 options (excluding any granted options that were subsequently canceled) have been granted with 13,306,680 vested yet not exercised and 2,907,808 unvested options under the 2019 Share Option Plan.

The following is a summary of the principal terms of the 2019 Share Option Plan.

Eligible participants. Our employees, officers, directors, business associates or any other individual as determined by our Board, in its sole discretion, who has contributed or will contribute to our company, is eligible to participate in the 2019 Share Option Plan.

Exercise of options. Vested options have become exercisable after the IPO of our Ordinary Shares, subject to other terms and conditions provided in the relevant grant letter. Once all the preconditions are met, a participant may exercise options in whole or in part by giving written notice of exercise to us specifying information such as the number of shares to be purchased, as well as making full payment of the aggregate exercise price of the shares so purchased.

Exercise price. The exercise price in respect of options granted under the 2019 Share Option Plan is determined by our Board in its sole discretion and set forth in the grant letter subject to any adjustment as a result of any alteration in the capital structure of our company by way of capitalization of profits or reserves, rights issue, subdivision or consolidation of shares or reduction of share capital of our company from time to time, but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any alteration in the capital structure of our company as a result of an issue of shares or other securities as consideration in a transaction to which our company is a party.

Vesting schedule. Our Board has the sole discretion in determining the individual vesting schedules and other restrictions applicable to shares awarded and options granted under such plan.

Administration. The plan is administered by our Board.

Lapse of option. An option issued under the 2019 Share Option Plan shall lapse automatically under certain circumstances, including but not limited to the expiration of option period, termination of employment for cause and the tenth anniversary of the adoption date of such plan.

Amendment. Any change to the authority of our Board in relation to any alteration to the terms of the 2019 Share Option Plan must be approved by the shareholders in general meeting. Subject to the above, our Board may amend any of the provisions of such plan at any time provided that such amendment shall not affect adversely any rights that have accrued to any grantee at that date.

Termination. The 2019 Share Option Plan will terminate on the tenth anniversary of its date of adoption, unless terminated earlier. We may, by ordinary resolution in a general meeting, or our Board may, at any time, terminate the operation of such plan, and in such event no further options shall be granted. Options granted prior to such termination but not yet exercised at the time of termination shall continue to be valid and exercisable in accordance with the scheme.

Transfer restrictions. An option is personal to the grantee and shall not be assignable or transferable.

The shares reserved and to be issued under our 2019 Share Option Plan have been registered on the Form S-8 on June 13, 2019.

2021 Equity Incentive Plan

We adopted a share incentive plan in January 2021, which we refer to as the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan in this annual report, to retain, attract and motivate employees and directors by providing them with equity incentives. The maximum aggregate number of Ordinary Shares we are authorized to issue pursuant to all awards under the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan is 222,769,232 Ordinary Shares. As of March 31, 2023, restricted share units to receive ADSs representing 128,816,432 Class A Ordinary Shares (excluding any granted restricted share units that were subsequently canceled), have been granted with restricted share units to receive ADSs representing 75,769,328 Class A Ordinary Shares vested under the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan.

The following is a summary of the principal terms of the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan.

Types of awards. The 2021 Equity Incentive Plan permits the awards of options, restricted shares, restricted share unit awards or other types of awards approved by the compensation committee of our Board, or any other committee appointed by the Board to administer the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Committee”) granted to a plan participant pursuant to the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan.

Award agreements. Awards under the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan shall be evidenced by award agreements that set forth the terms, conditions and limitations for each award, which may include the term of an award, the provisions applicable in the event the participant’s employment or service terminates, and the Company’s authority to unilaterally or bilaterally amend, modify, suspend, cancel or rescind an award.

Eligible participants. Our employees, consultants and directors as determined by the compensation committee of our Board, or any other committee appointed by the Board to administer the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan, by record in writing in its sole discretion, are eligible to participate in the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan.

Exercise of options. The Committee shall determine the time or times at which an option may be exercised in whole or in part, including exercise prior to vesting; provided that the term of any option granted under the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan shall not exceed ten years. The Committee shall also determine the conditions, if any, that must be satisfied before all or part of an option may be exercised.

Exercise price. The exercise price per share subject to an option shall be determined by the Committee and set forth in the award agreement which, unless otherwise determined by the Committee, may be a fixed or variable price related to the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant; provided, however, that no option may be granted to an individual subject to taxation in the United States with an exercise price per share at less than the fair market value on the date of grant.

Administration. The 2021 Equity Incentive Plan shall be administered by the Committee to whom the Board shall delegate the authority to grant or amend awards to participants.

Amendment and termination. The Board in its sole discretion may terminate the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan at any time. The Board may amend the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan at any time in such respects as the board may deem advisable; provided that to the extent necessary and desirable to comply with applicable laws, or stock exchange rules, the Company shall obtain shareholder approval of any amendment in such a manner and to such a degree as required.

Transfer restrictions. Except as provided in the 2021 Equity Incentive Plan, all awards are nontransferable and will not be subject in any manner to sale, transfer, anticipation, alienation, assignment, pledge, encumbrance or charge, and will be exercised only by the participant. Amounts payable or shares issuable pursuant to an award will be delivered only to (or for the account of), and, in the case of shares, registered in the name of, the participant.

The following table summarizes, as of the date of this annual report, the number of Class A Ordinary Shares under outstanding options and awards that we granted to our directors and executive officers.

6.C. Board Practices

Board of Directors

Our Board consists of ten directors, including five independent directors, namely Mr. Feng Liu, Mr. Yang Cha, Mr. Sean Shao, Ms. Qianli Liu and Mr. Joel A. Getz. A director is not required to hold any shares in our company to qualify to serve as a director.

A director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with our company is required to declare the nature of his or her interest at a meeting of our directors. A general notice given to the directors by any director to the effect that he or she is a member, shareholder, director, partner, officer or employee of any specified company or firm and is to be regarded as interested in any contract or transaction with that company or firm shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of interest for the purposes of voting on a resolution in respect to a contract or transaction in which he/she has an interest, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give special notice relating to any particular transaction. A director may vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract or arrangement notwithstanding that he/she may be interested therein and if he/she does so, his/her vote shall be counted and he/she may be counted in the quorum at any meeting of the directors at which any such contract or proposed contract or arrangement is considered. Our Board may exercise all of the powers of our company to borrow money, to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock or other securities whenever money is borrowed or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of our company or of any third party. None of our directors has a service contract with us that provides for benefits upon termination of service as a director.

Committees of the Board of Directors

We have established an audit committee, a compensation committee and a nominating and corporate governance committee under our Board. We have adopted a charter for each of the three committees. Each committee's members and functions are described below.

Audit Committee. Our audit committee consists of Mr. Feng Liu, Mr. Yang Cha, Ms. Qianli Liu and Mr. Sean Shao, and is chaired by Mr. Feng Liu. We have determined that each of Mr. Feng Liu, Mr. Yang Cha, Ms. Qianli Liu and Mr. Sean Shao meets the independence standards under Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. We have determined that Mr. Feng Liu qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" within the meaning of the SEC rules. The audit committee oversees our accounting and financial reporting processes and the audits of the financial statements of our company. The audit committee is responsible for, among other things:

- reviewing and recommending to our Board for approval, the appointment, re-appointment or removal of the independent auditor, after considering its annual performance evaluation of the independent auditor;
- approving the remuneration and terms of engagement of the independent auditor and pre-approving all auditing and non-auditing services permitted to be performed by our independent auditor at least annually;
- reviewing with the independent registered public accounting firm any audit problems or difficulties and management's response;
- discussing with our independent auditor, among other things, the audits of the financial statements, including whether any material information should be disclosed and issues regarding accounting and auditing principles and practices;
- reviewing and approving all proposed related party transactions, as defined in Item 404 of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act;
- discussing the annual audited financial statements with management and the independent registered public accounting firm;
- reviewing the adequacy and effectiveness of our accounting and internal control policies and procedures and any special steps taken to monitor and control major financial risk exposures;

Table of Contents

- approving annual audit plans, and undertaking an annual performance evaluation of the internal audit function;
- establishing and overseeing procedures for the handling of complaints and whistleblowing; and
- meeting separately and periodically with management and the independent registered public accounting firm.

Compensation Committee. Our compensation committee consists of Mr. Sean Shao, Dr. Jinyi Guo, Mr. Yang Cha, Mr. Weihao (Michael) Chen, Mr. Feng Liu and Mr. Shaoqiang (Gary) Liu and is chaired by Mr. Sean Shao. The compensation committee assists the Board in reviewing and approving the compensation structure, including all forms of compensation, relating to our directors and executive officers. The compensation committee is responsible for, among other things:

- overseeing the development and implementation of compensation programs in consultation with our management;
- at least annually, reviewing and approving, or recommending to the Board for its approval, the compensation for our executive officers;
- at least annually, reviewing and recommending to the Board for determination with respect to the compensation of our non-executive directors;
- at least annually, reviewing periodically and approving any incentive compensation or equity plans, programs or other similar arrangements;
- reviewing executive officer and director indemnification and insurance matters; and
- overseeing our regulatory compliance with respect to compensation matters, including our policies on restrictions on compensation plans and loans to directors and executive officers.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Our nominating and corporate governance committee consists of Mr. Weihao (Michael) Chen, Dr. Jinyi Guo, Mr. Yang Cha and Mr. Jun Liu, and is chaired by Mr. Weihao (Michael) Chen. The nominating and corporate governance committee assists the Board in selecting individuals qualified to become our directors and in determining the composition of the Board and its committees. The nominating and corporate governance committee is responsible for, among other things:

- recommending nominees to the Board for election or re-election to the Board, or for appointment to fill any vacancy on the Board;
- reviewing annually with the Board the current composition of the Board with regard to characteristics such as independence, knowledge, skills, experience, expertise, diversity and availability of service to us;
- developing and recommending to our Board such policies and procedures with respect to nomination or appointment of members of our Board and chairs and members of its committees or other corporate governance matters as may be required pursuant to any SEC rules, or otherwise considered desirable and appropriate;
- selecting and recommending to the Board the names of directors to serve as members of the audit committee and the compensation committee, as well as of the nominating and corporate governance committee itself; and
- evaluating the performance and effectiveness of the Board as a whole.

Duties and Functions of Directors

Under Cayman Islands law, our directors owe fiduciary duties to our company to act honestly and in good faith with a view to our best interests.

Our directors must also exercise their powers only for a proper purpose. Our directors also owe to our company a duty to exercise the skill they actually possess and such care and diligence that a reasonable prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. In fulfilling their duty of care to us, our directors must ensure compliance with our memorandum and articles of association, as amended and restated from time to time. Our company has the right to seek damages if a duty owed by our directors is breached. The functions and powers of our Board include, among others, (i) convening shareholders' annual and extraordinary general meetings and reporting its work to shareholders at such meetings, (ii) declaring dividends, (iii) appointing officers and determining their terms of offices and responsibilities, and (iv) approving the transfer of shares of our company, including the registering of such shares in our share register.

Terms of Directors and Officers

Our officers are elected by and serve at the discretion of the Board. Each of our directors are appointed for a two-year term and may be re-appointed by the Board upon the term expiration. The current term of all of our directors, except for Mr. Joel A. Getz, will expire on May 20, 2024. The current term of Mr. Joel A. Getz will expire on December 27, 2024. A director's office shall be vacated if, among other things, the director (i) resigns his office by notice in writing to the Company; (ii) dies, becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors; (iii) is found to be or becomes of unsound mind; (iv) is prohibited by law from being a director; or (v) is removed from office pursuant to our sixth amended and restated articles of association.

6.D. Employees

We endeavor to cultivate employees with talent, passion, and strong learning abilities.

We had 8,590 full-time employees and 12,718 part-time employees as of December 31, 2020, 10,555 full-time employees and 16,411 part-time employees as of December 31, 2021 and 14,559 full-time employees and 19,045 part-time employees as of December 31, 2022, all of whom were based in China. As of December 31, 2022, our full-time employees consisted of 12,975 store operation employees, 349 store development employees, 482 technology development employees, 642 general and administration employees and 111 sales and marketing employees.

We formulate our recruitment plan considering our expansion plan and the human resources needs for existing self-operated stores and those in the pipeline. Our full-time employees go through a thorough recruitment and assessment process with HR and the operations manager while our part-time employees are usually interviewed by store managers of the respective stores. Our retail partners will be responsible for recruitment for the partnership stores.

We provide our employees, retail partners and employees at partnership stores with comprehensive training. We train them vigorously mainly through our internal training center, offering them both self-developed programs and external courses. We provide both online and offline training for our storefront staff to sharpen their skills.

We enter into standard employment contracts with our full-time employees. In addition to salaries and benefits, we provide performance-based bonuses for our full-time employees and commission-based compensation for our sales and marketing team. As required by PRC law, we participate in various employee social security plans that are organized by municipal and provincial governments for our PRC-based full-time employees, including pension, medical insurance, maternity insurance, work-related injury insurance, unemployment insurance and housing provident funds.

We pay salaries to our part-time employees based on the time they work. For risks in relation to our contribution for employee social security plans, see "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China—We may be subject to additional contributions of social insurance and housing fund and late payments and fines imposed by relevant governmental authorities."

We engage independent third-party service providers to recruit some outsourced staff. As of December 31, 2022, a majority of our part-time storefront staff were such outsourced staff.

We maintain a good working relationship with our employees, and as of the date of this annual report, we had not experienced any material labor disputes.

6.E. Share Ownership

The following table sets forth information concerning the beneficial ownership of our Shares as of February 28, 2023, assuming conversion of all of our outstanding Class B Ordinary Shares and Senior Preferred Shares into Class A Ordinary Shares on a one-to-one basis, by:

- each of our directors and executive officers; and
- each person known to us to beneficially own more than 5% of our Shares.

The calculations in the table below are based on, (i) 2,062,506,340 issued and outstanding Class A Ordinary Shares, excluding a total of 17,295,616 Class A Ordinary Shares that represent Class A Ordinary Shares underlying share awards under our share incentive plans that are issued but deemed to be not outstanding as of February 28, 2023, (ii) 144,778,552 outstanding Class B Ordinary Shares as of February 28, 2023, and/or (iii) 307,692,307 outstanding Senior Preferred Shares as of February 28, 2023.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC. In computing the number of shares beneficially owned by a person and the percentage ownership of that person, we have included shares that the person has the right to acquire within 60 days, including through the exercise of any option, warrant, or other right or the conversion of any other security.

As reported in the Schedule 13D (Amendment No.2) filed by Lucky Cup and other filers on March 11, 2022, Centurium Holdings Ltd. is an exempted company incorporated with limited liability under the laws of the Cayman Islands, which holds interests in the general partners of certain private equity funds that hold interests in Lucky Cup, Fortunate Cup and Cannonball; Hui Li is the sole shareholder and director of Centurium Holdings (BVI) Ltd., an exempted company incorporated under the laws of the British Virgin Islands and the sole shareholder of Centurium Holdings Ltd. Pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules promulgated thereunder; each of Centurium Holdings Ltd., Centurium Holdings (BVI) Ltd. and Hui Li may be deemed to indirectly beneficially own the shares of the Issuer held by Camel ZQ, Cameleer, Cameleer II, Lucky Cup, Fortunate Cup and Cannonball. The address of the principal business and principal office of each of Camel ZQ, Cameleer, Cameleer II, Lucky Cup, Fortunate Cup and Cannonball is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands.

On December 1, 2021, we announced that we have closed the Investment Agreement with an affiliate of Centurium Capital, pursuant to which we issued and sold a total of 295,384,615 Senior Preferred Shares to an affiliate of Centurium Capital, with aggregate gross proceeds of US$240 million.

On January 21, 2022, we received a request from a Centurium Capital-led buyer consortium that also includes IDG Capital and Ares SSG Capital Management (Buyer Consortium) to consent to close Centurium Capital’s previously announced transaction to purchase an aggregate of 383,425,748 Class A Ordinary Shares (Sale Shares) from certain sellers (Secondary Sale). The sellers are Primus Investment Fund, L.P. (in official liquidation) (Primus), Haode Investment Inc. (in liquidation) (Haode) and Summer Fame Limited (in liquidation) (Summer Fame, and collectively with Primus and Haode, the “Sellers”). The Sellers are affiliates of and were formerly controlled by Mr. Charles Zhengyao Lu and Ms. Jenny Zhiya Qian, former management members of the Company, and their families (Former Management Members). The Sellers were ordered to be wound up and are currently in liquidation pursuant to an order of the Cayman Court in respect of Primus, and pursuant to orders of the BVI Court in respect of Haode and Summer Fame. The joint liquidators appointed in respect of the Sellers have exercised their statutory powers to enter into definitive documents to give effect to the Secondary Sale. Proceeds of the Secondary Sale are to be distributed by the joint liquidators to the creditors and stakeholders of each of the Sellers in accordance with the joint liquidators’ statutory duties. Accordingly, we did not receive any of the proceeds from the Secondary Sale. By judgement dated January 17, 2022, the BVI Court sanctioned transactions that form part of the Secondary Sale, as required by the securities purchase agreement that gave effect to the Secondary Sale. After careful consideration, our Board and JPLs of the Company determined the Secondary Sale to be in the long-term best interest of the Company, and accordingly approved the transaction. On January 25, 2022, after receiving consent from the Company, the Buyer Consortium closed the Secondary Sale. Upon the closing of the Secondary Sale, the Former Management Members ceased to have any interest in the Sale Shares and Centurium Capital became our controlling shareholder, holding more than 50% of the voting interest of the Company.

We self-disclosed to the SEC the Fabricated Transactions referenced in our press release on April 2, 2020. Following our disclosure, the SEC initiated an investigation into the Fabricated Transactions. We cooperated with the SEC’s investigation.

On December 16, 2020, the SEC announced its settlement with us regarding the Fabricated Transactions. Under the terms of the settlement, we, without admitting or denying the allegations of the SEC, consented to the entry of an order (i) requiring us to pay a civil money penalty in the amount of US$180 million to the SEC, eligible for offset by any cash payments made by us to our security holders pursuant to any schemes of arrangement approved by the Cayman Court in the provisional liquidation proceedings and restructuring, and (ii) permanently enjoining us from violations of certain federal securities laws, including Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

In settling this matter, the SEC acknowledged that we self-reported the Fabricated Transactions to the SEC staff, cooperated with the SEC throughout the SEC's investigation and promptly undertook significant remedial efforts. These efforts included initiating an internal investigation, terminating certain personnel, terminating relationships with third parties involved in the fraudulent conduct, reorganizing our finance department and adding internal accounting controls.

On February 4, 2021, the settlement received the necessary approval from the SDNY Court. On February 3, 2022, the SEC filed with the SDNY Court a notice acknowledging that Luckin Coffee's obligation to pay the civil money penalty had been satisfied through the offset of cash payments made to its holders of its debt securities, through a scheme of arrangement implemented in the Cayman Islands.

U.S. DOJ Investigation

We were contacted by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York (the "SDNY") following our press release on April 2, 2020 relating to the Fabricated Transactions. The SDNY indicated that it had commenced an investigation into the Fabricated Transactions. We have apprised the SDNY of the relevant Chinese laws that restrict us from providing evidence and information without prior approval from the Chinese Ministry of Justice. We are committed to cooperating with the DOJ to the extent permissible under the applicable laws of the PRC. We cannot predict the outcome or the duration of this investigation or any other legal proceedings or any enforcement actions or other remedies that may be imposed on us arising out of this investigation.

SAMR Penalties

On September 23, 2020, we received the penalty decisions from the SAMR. The penalty decisions found that our conduct related to the Fabricated Transactions violated the PRC Anti-Unfair Competition Laws. The SAMR imposed an aggregate fine of RMB61.0 million on two entities of our group and certain implicated third-party companies as a result of their involvement in the Fabricated Transactions.

Ministry of Finance Investigation

On May 6, 2020, the Ministry of Finance of the PRC initiated its investigation into the accounting information of two entities of our group since their incorporation. On July 31, 2020, the Ministry of Finance of the PRC announced its investigation has been substantially completed. The Ministry of Finance of the PRC further announced that it would impose and publish its relevant penalty decision to the Company in due course. As of the date of this annual report, the Ministry of Finance of the PRC has not imposed any penalty on the Company. The Company cannot predict the outcome or the duration of this investigation or any other legal proceedings or any enforcement actions or other remedies that may be imposed on the Company arising out of this investigation.

Legal Actions

U.S. Class Action

On February 13, 2020, April 2, 2020, April 8, 2020, and April 10, 2020, putative securities class action complaints were filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York against the Company, certain of its current and former directors and executives, and the underwriters of the Company's initial public offering and follow-on offering. These lawsuits were consolidated in the Southern District of New York, under the caption In re Luckin Coffee Inc. Securities Litigation, 1:20-cv-01293 (S.D.N.Y.). On June 12, 2020, the court appointed co-lead plaintiffs pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and ordered the lawsuits consolidated. A consolidated class action complaint was filed on September 24, 2020 that alleges, among other things, that the Company made false and misleading statements and material omissions in its prior registration statements and other public statements by failing to disclose the Fabricated Transactions disclosed in the Company's April 2, 2020 announcement, and the impact of those Fabricated Transactions on the Company's financial statements. The consolidated class action complaint variously alleges violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, and Sections 11 and 15 of the Securities.

On October 26, 2021, the court issued an order preliminarily approving a class-wide settlement of all claims that had been or could have been asserted in the Federal Class Action, in exchange for payment of US$175 million to the class of investors who purchased or otherwise acquired the Company's ADS during the period from May 17, 2019 through July 15, 2020, inclusive. On July 22, 2022, the court issued an order granting final approval of the settlement.

On May 26, 2020, June 18, 2020, and June 23, 2020, putative securities class actions complaints were filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, against the Company, certain of its current and former directors and executives, and the underwriters of the Company's initial public offering and follow-on offering. The lawsuits variously alleged that the Company made false and misleading statements and material omissions in its prior registration statements and other public statements by failing to disclose the Fabricated Transactions disclosed in the Company's April 2, 2020 announcement, and the impact of those Fabricated Transactions on the Company's financial statements, in violation of Sections 11, 12 and 15 of the Securities Act. On October 16, 2020, the court appointed co-lead plaintiffs and consolidated the lawsuits under the caption In re Luckin Coffee Inc. Securities Litigation, 651939/2020 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.). A consolidated amended complaint was filed on December 23, 2020, adding claims against investment vehicles owned by former officers and directors of the Company and the Company's agent for service of process, Cogency Global Inc. The amended complaint also asserted claims under the Securities Act on behalf of a class of purchasers of the Notes. On January 9, 2022, the Company reached an agreement in principle with the lead plaintiffs in the State Class Action to resolve claims that have been or could be filed on behalf of a class of purchasers of the Notes who did not release their claims in connection with the Scheme. The State Class Settlement received preliminary approval from the State Court on October 7, 2022. As of this date, a fairness hearing for the settlement is scheduled for April 28, 2023. The State Court Settlement remains subject to final approval from the State Court.

U.S. "Opt Out" Claims

The Company was also been named as a defendant in the following opt-out lawsuits alleging violations of U.S. securities laws: Kingstown Capital Management v. Luckin Coffee, 1:20-cv-07029 (S.D.N.Y.); Lai Ye v. Luckin Coffee et al., 1:21-cv-2020 (S.D.N.Y.); Nuveen Winslow Large-Cap Growth ESG Fund et al. v. Luckin Coffee et al., 655177/2020 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.); and Bequai v. Luckin Coffee, GV20019430-00 (Va. D. Ct., Fairfax Cty.). As of the date of this annual report, all of the above lawsuits have been voluntarily dismissed by the plaintiffs.

Certain individuals and institutions claiming to have made investments related to the Company's ADS have made informal demands for the Company to pay alleged losses resulting from the Fabricated Transactions disclosed on April 2, 2020, but have not commenced legal proceedings. In the aggregate, the investors that have made informal demands have asserted losses in excess of US$325 million.

U.S. Derivative Action

The Company was a nominal defendant in a consolidated putative derivative action filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York captioned In re Luckin Coffee Inc.

Derivative Litigation, 652800/2020 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.). The Federal Class Settlement includes releases of derivative claims on behalf of members of the Federal Class. On November 8, 2022, the parties filed a stipulation of discontinuance with prejudice to conclude the derivative litigation, which the court so-ordered on November 9, 2022.

Canadian Class Action

On or about April 14, 2020, an Application for Authorization to Bring a Class Action was filed against Luckin Coffee Inc. by Martin Banoon (the "Applicant") in the Superior Court of Quebec, file no. 500-06-001058-201. The Applicant sought authorization to institute a class action on behalf of the proposed class members comprised of holders of the Company's ADS, as a result of Fabricated Transactions. On August 9, 2022, the Superior Court of Quebec entered judgment approving the Applicant's request to discontinue the proceeding.

Cayman Bondholder Action

In May 2020, a group of holders of the Notes commenced proceedings in the Cayman Court seeking to recover approximately US$155 million of losses from the Company. By summons dated May 1, 2020, the bondholders applied ex parte for a worldwide freezing order (the “WFO”) against the Company. On May 8, 2020, the Cayman Court granted the order sought. On July 1, 2020 to July 3, 2020 the Cayman Court heard the Company’s application to set aside the WFO. By order dated July 22, 2020, the Cayman Court discharged the WFO. The substantive proceedings were automatically stayed on the appointment of the JPLs on July 15, 2020. On August 12, 2020, the Cayman Court ordered that the noteholders could appeal the discharge order until 14 days following the date of discharge of the JPLs. However, there can be no further action in these proceedings as the indebtedness under the Notes has been effectively compromised due to the successful Restructuring as of January 28, 2022. In July 2022, these proceedings were discontinued by a consent order issued by the Cayman Court upon parties’ agreement.

Appointment of “Light-Touch” JPLs in the Cayman Islands

On July 10, 2020, a creditor of the Company filed a winding up petition against the Company in the Cayman Proceeding. On July 10, 2020, the Company made an ex parte application pursuant to section 104(3) of the Companies Act for the appointment of the JPLs. On July 15, 2020, the Cayman Court appointed Alexander Lawson of Alvarez & Marsal Cayman Islands Limited and Wing Sze Tiffany Wong of Alvarez & Marsal Asia Limited to act as “light-touch” JPLs to develop and propose a restructuring of the Company’s indebtedness in a manner designed to allow the Company to continue as a going concern, with a view to making an arrangement with its creditors including (without limitation) a compromise or arrangement by way of a Scheme under section 86 of the Companies Act. In accordance with the appointment order, the Board’s powers to conduct the ordinary, day-to-day business of the Company were preserved, subject to the supervision and oversight of the JPLs. On October 12, 2020, pursuant to a letter of request issued by the Cayman Court dated September 7, 2020, the High Court of Hong Kong made an order recognizing the appointment of the JPLs in Hong Kong. On February 5, 2021, the JPLs, in their capacity as “foreign representatives” of the Company under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, filed a petition seeking, among other things, recognition of the provisional liquidation in the United States. On March 30, 2021, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Recognizing Cayman Proceeding as a Foreign Main Proceeding and Granting Relief in Aid Thereof [Dkt. No. 48] in In re Luckin Coffee Inc. (in Provisional Liquidation), No. 21-10228 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 5, 2021), recognizing the provisional liquidation as a “foreign main proceeding.” The U.S. Bankruptcy Court imposed an automatic stay of all actions against the Company and its assets in the U.S., to the extent provided in the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and for the duration of the Chapter 15 Case, subject to certain carve outs and reserving judgment in respect of a requested stay of proceedings against non-debtor parties.

On September 20, 2021, with the support of the JPLs, we filed a summons and petition in the Cayman Court (proceeding number FSD 276 of 2021 (ASCJ)) seeking sanction of a Scheme for the purposes of the Restructuring, and seeking directions to convene a meeting of creditors affected by the Scheme. On November 30, 2021, the Scheme was unanimously approved by all creditors who attended the Scheme meeting (in person or by proxy), representing approximately 97.7% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Notes. On December 13, 2021 the Cayman Court sanctioned the Scheme, which became fully effective in accordance with its terms on December 17, 2021, following the entry of a final order of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court recognizing and enforcing the Scheme in the territorial jurisdiction of the United States.

On January 28, 2022, the Restructuring of the Notes contemplated by the Scheme became effective and was substantially consummated. In aggregate, we issued consideration for the Scheme totaling US$245.5 million of cash, US$109.9 million of New Notes and 9,527,601 ADSs representing 76,220,808 Class A Ordinary Shares, which included 291,699 ADSs issued on April 4, 2022 pursuant to the top-up mechanism under the Scheme. The parties to the amended winding-up petition (filed in substitution on January 7, 2021), applied consensually to the Cayman Court for leave to withdraw or have the petition dismissed. By an order of the Cayman Court dated February 25, 2022, the petition was dismissed and the JPLs were formally discharged with effect from March 4, 2022, bringing the provisional liquidation to a close. Shortly thereafter, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court entered an order closing the Chapter 15 Case on April 8, 2022.

UCAR Inc. Proceedings

We entered into an agreement with UCAR Inc. on July 1, 2020 to pay RMB36.6 million to UCAR Inc. for the costs UCAR Inc. incurred as a result of the leasehold improvements of certain office space that we occupied. In September 2021, UCAR Inc. initiated an arbitration proceeding against Luckin China in China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, seeking to recover its costs and other relevant expenses allegedly incurred of approximately RMB38.4 million. As of December 31, 2022, the arbitration proceeding was closed with the final judgment that we are obligated to pay approximately RMB 31.7 million for the leasehold improvement and related legal fees. We have made full payment and the ending balance of this liability was nil as of December 31, 2022.

Dividend Policy

We have not previously declared or paid cash dividends and we have no plan to declare or pay any dividends in the near future on our shares or the ADSs representing our Class A Ordinary Shares. We currently intend to retain most, if not all, of our available funds and any future earnings to operate and expand our business.

We are a holding company incorporated in the Cayman Islands. We rely principally on dividends from our PRC subsidiaries for our cash requirements, including any payment of dividends to our shareholders. PRC regulations may restrict the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to pay dividends to us. See “Item 4. Information on the Company—4.B. Business Overview—Regulation—Regulations Relating to Dividend Distributions.”

Our Board has discretion as to whether to distribute dividends, subject to certain requirements of Cayman Islands law. Under Cayman Islands law, a Cayman Islands company may pay a dividend out of either profit or credit standing in the share premium account, provided that in no circumstances may a dividend be paid if this would result in the company being unable to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business. Even if our Board decides to pay dividends, the form, frequency and amount will depend upon our future operations and earnings, capital requirements and surplus, general financial condition, contractual restrictions and other factors that the Board may deem relevant. If we pay any dividends on our Ordinary Shares, we will pay those dividends which are payable in respect of the Class A Ordinary Shares underlying the ADSs to the depositary, as the registered holder of such Class A Ordinary Shares, and the depositary then will pay such amounts to the ADS holders in proportion to the Class A Ordinary Shares underlying the ADSs held by such ADS holders, subject to the terms of the deposit agreement, including the fees and expenses payable thereunder.

8.B. Significant Changes

Except as otherwise disclosed in this annual report, we have not experienced any significant changes since the date of the annual financial statements included herein.

Item 9. The Offer and Listing

9.A. Offering and Listing Details

Our ADSs had been listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market since May 17, 2019 under the symbol “LK.” Each ADS represents eight Class A Ordinary Shares, par value US$0.000002 per share. We received a delisting notice from Nasdaq on May 15, 2020 and requested a hearing on May 22, 2020. We received another delisting notice from Nasdaq for failure to file our annual report on June 17, 2020. We notified Nasdaq of the Company’s decision to withdraw its request for the hearing on June 24, 2020. On July 1, 2020, we were delisted from Nasdaq when the staff of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC filed a Form 25 Notification of Delisting. Our ADSs have been quoted on the OTC Pink Limited Information initially under the symbol “LKNCY” since Nasdaq suspended the trading of our ADSs on June 29, 2020.

10.B. Memorandum and Articles of Association

We are a Cayman Islands company and our affairs are governed by our memorandum and articles of association, as amended and restated from time to time, and the Companies Act and the common law of the Cayman Islands.

Our sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association, which is filed as Exhibit 1.1 to this annual report, was adopted by a special resolution of our shareholders on December 11, 2021, in substitution for and to the exclusion of our fifth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association. It became effective on December 11, 2021.

The following are summaries of material provisions of our sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association and the Companies Act insofar as they relate to the material terms of our shares.

Registered Office and Objects

Our registered office in the Cayman Islands is at the offices of Conyers Trust Company (Cayman) Limited, Cricket Square, Hutchins Drive, P.O. Box 2681, Grand Cayman, KY1-1111, Cayman Islands.

According to Clause 3 of our sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association, the objects for which we are established are unrestricted and we have full power and authority to carry out any object not prohibited by the Companies Act or as the same may be revised from time to time, or any other law of the Cayman Islands.

Board of Directors

See "Item 6. Directors, Senior Management and Employees."

Shares

General. Our authorized share capital is US$50,000 divided into 25,000,000,000 Ordinary Shares, with a par value of US$0.000002 each, comprising (i) 20,000,000,000 Class A Ordinary Shares with a par value of US$0.000002 each, and (ii) 5,000,000,000 Class B Ordinary Shares with a par value of US$0.000002 each. Further to a Certificate of Designation dated November 30, 2021, 307,692,307 authorised but unissued Class A Ordinary Shares with a par value of US$0.000002 each in the capital of the Company have been re-designated as 307,692,307 Senior Preferred Shares with a par value of US$0.000002 each. Holders of Ordinary Shares have the same rights except for voting and conversion rights. Holders of Senior Preferred Shares have the rights described below under "Certificate of Designation." All of our issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares and Senior Preferred Shares are fully paid and nonassessable. Certificates representing the Ordinary Shares and Senior Preferred Shares are issued in registered form. We may not issue shares to bearer. Our shareholders who are non-residents of the Cayman Islands may freely hold and transfer their Ordinary Shares and Senior Preferred Shares subject to certain restriction described below under "Transfer of Shares."

Subject to the Companies Act and the articles of association, the Company shall have power to redeem or purchase any of its Shares and to increase or reduce its authorized share capital and to subdivide or consolidate the said shares or any of them and to issue all or any part of its capital whether original, redeemed, increased or reduced with or without any preference, priority, special privilege or other rights or subject to any postponement of rights or to any conditions or restrictions whatsoever and so that unless the conditions of issue shall otherwise expressly provide every issue of Shares, whether stated to be ordinary, preference or otherwise, shall be subject to the powers on the part of the Company hereinbefore provided.

Dividends. The holders of our Ordinary Shares are entitled to such dividends as may be declared by our Board subject to our sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association and the Companies Act. Our sixth amended and restated articles of association provide that dividends may be declared and paid out of our profits, realized or unrealized, or from any reserve set aside from profits which our Board determine is no longer needed. Dividends may also be declared and paid out of share premium account or any other fund or account which can be authorized for this purpose in accordance with the Companies Act.

Voting Rights. Holders of Class A Ordinary Shares and Class B Ordinary Shares shall, at all times, vote together as one class on all matters submitted to a vote by the members. Each Class A ordinary share shall be entitled to one vote on all matters subject to vote at general and special meetings of our company, and each Class B ordinary share shall be entitled to ten votes on all matters subject to vote at general and special meetings of our company.

A quorum required for a meeting of shareholders consists of a majority of the votes attaching to the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote at general meetings present in person or by proxy or, if a corporation or other non-natural person, by its duly authorized representative. As a Cayman Islands exempted company, we are not obliged by the Companies Act to call shareholders' annual general meetings. Our sixth memorandum and articles of association provide that we may (but are not obliged to) in each year hold a general meeting as our annual general meeting in which case we will specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, and the annual general meeting will be held at such time and place as may be determined by our Board. Each general meeting, other than an annual general meeting, shall be an extraordinary general meeting. Shareholders' annual general meetings and any other general meetings of our shareholders may be called by a majority of our Board or our chairman or upon a requisition of shareholders holding at the date of deposit of the requisition not less than ten percent (10%) of the votes attaching to the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote at general meetings, in which case the directors are obliged to call such meeting and to put the resolutions so requisitioned to a vote at such meeting; however, our sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association do not provide our shareholders with any right to put any proposals before annual general meetings or extraordinary general meetings not called by such shareholders. Advance notice of at least fifteen (15) days is required for the convening of our annual general meeting and other general meetings unless such notice is waived in accordance with our articles of association.

An ordinary resolution to be passed at a meeting by the shareholders requires the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the votes attaching to the Ordinary Shares cast by those shareholders entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy at a general meeting, while a special resolution also requires the affirmative vote of no less than two-thirds of the votes attaching to the Ordinary Shares cast by those shareholders entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy at a general meeting. A special resolution will be required for important matters such as a change of name or making changes to our sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association.

Transfer of Shares. Subject to the restrictions in our sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association, any of our shareholders may transfer all or any of his or her Ordinary Shares by an instrument of transfer in the usual or common form or any other form approved by our Board.

Our Board may, in its absolute discretion, and without giving any reason therefore, refuse to register a transfer of any Share(s), including where a purported transfer has been attempted in breach of the articles of association.

Our Board may, in its absolute discretion, decline to register any transfer of any share that is not fully paid up or on which we have a lien. Our Board may also decline to register any purported transfer of any share unless:

- the instrument of transfer is lodged with us, accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as our Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
- the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares;
- the instrument of transfer is properly stamped, if required; and
- in the case of a transfer to joint holders, the number of joint holders to whom the share is to be transferred does not exceed four.

The registration of transfers may be suspended and the register closed at such times and for such periods as our Board may from time to time determine, provided, however, that the registration of transfers shall not be suspended nor the register closed for more than thirty (30) days in any year.

If the Board refuses to register a transfer they shall, within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged, send to each of the transferor and the transferee notice of such refusal.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association, no shareholder may, without the Company's prior written consent, transfer, or agree to transfer, any of such shareholder's share(s) to a "Restricted Person," which means (i) any former director, officer or member of management of the Company or any of its subsidiaries with respect to whom the Special Committee recommended resignation or removal from the Board in connection with such person's conduct during the time when such person served on the Board or termination of employment, or whose employment was terminated by the Board, or any of their respective affiliates or associates or any legal person controlled by such person, and (ii) any other person (or any affiliate or associate thereof) with whom any person under the foregoing clause (i) (or any affiliate or associate thereof) has any agreement, arrangement or understanding, whether or not in writing, with respect to, or with whom such person is otherwise cooperating or collaborating with, for the purpose of (a) acquiring, holding, sharing, voting or disposing of securities of the Company or any financial interest in or deriving from the value of the securities of the Company, or (b) changing or influencing the control of the Company or in connection with or as a participant in any transaction having that purpose or effect, and no Restricted Person may, without the Company's prior written consent, transfer, or agree to transfer, any share(s).

If a shareholder of the Company purports to transfer to agrees to transfer any share(s) directly or indirectly to a Restricted Person without the prior written consent of the Company, or if a Restricted Person becomes the legal or beneficial owner of any share(s) after the date on which the sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association was adopted including pursuant to a direct or indirect transfer (any such share(s), "Restricted Shares"), then our directors may serve a notice on such shareholder in whose name the Restricted Shares are registered stating that such shareholder shall not, in relation to the Restricted Shares, be entitled to vote.

Liquidation. On a return of capital on winding up or otherwise (other than on conversion, redemption or purchase of Ordinary Shares), if the assets available for distribution amongst our shareholders shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the share capital at the commencement of the winding-up, the surplus shall be distributed amongst our shareholders in proportion to the par value of the shares held by them at the commencement of the winding-up, subject to a deduction from those shares in respect of which there are monies due, of all monies payable to our company for unpaid calls or otherwise. If our assets available for distribution are insufficient to repay all of the paid-up capital, the assets will be distributed so that the losses are borne by our shareholders in proportion to nominal amount of the shares held by them respectively. Any distribution of assets or capital to a holder of Ordinary Shares will be the same in any liquidation event.

Redemption, Repurchase and Surrender of Ordinary Shares. We may issue shares on terms that such shares are subject to redemption, at our option or at the option of the holders thereof, on such terms and in such manner as may be determined, before the issue of such shares, by our Board. Our company may also repurchase any of our shares provided that the manner and terms of such purchase have been approved by our Board, or are otherwise authorized by our sixth memorandum and articles of association. Under the Companies Act, the redemption or repurchase of any share may be paid out of our company's profits or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purpose of such redemption or repurchase, or out of capital (including share premium account) if the Company can, immediately following such payment, pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business. In addition, under the Companies Act, no such share may be redeemed or repurchased (a) unless it is fully paid up, (b) if such redemption or repurchase would result in there being no shares outstanding, or (c) if the Company has commenced liquidation. In addition, our company may accept the surrender of any fully paid share for no consideration.

Variations of Rights of Shares. If at any time our share capital is divided into different classes or series of shares, the rights attached to any class or series of shares (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class or series) may be varied with the sanction of a special resolution at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of the class or series. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu with such existing class of shares.

Inspection of Books and Records. Holders of our Ordinary Shares have no general right under Cayman Islands law to inspect or obtain copies of our list of shareholders or our corporate records. However, we will provide our shareholders with annual audited financial statements.

Issuance of Additional Shares. Our sixth amended and restated memorandum of association authorizes our Board to issue additional Ordinary Shares from time to time as our Board shall determine, to the extent of available authorized but unissued shares in the authorized share capital of our company.

Our sixth amended and restated memorandum of association also authorizes our Board to establish from time to time one or more series of preferred shares and to determine, with respect to any series of preferred shares, the terms and rights of that series, including:

- the designation of the series;
- the number of shares of the series;
- the dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights; and
- the rights and terms of redemption and liquidation preferences.

Our Board may issue preferred shares without action by our shareholders to the extent authorized but unissued. Issuance of these shares may dilute the voting power of holders of Ordinary Shares.

Anti-Takeover Provisions. Some provisions of our sixth amended and restated memorandum and articles of association may discourage, delay or prevent a change of control of our company or management that shareholders may consider favorable, including provisions that authorize our Board to issue preferred shares in one or more series and to designate the price, rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of such preferred shares without any further vote or action by our shareholders.

Exempted Company. We are an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Act. The Companies Act distinguishes between ordinary resident companies and exempted companies. Any company that is registered in the Cayman Islands but conducts business mainly outside the Cayman Islands may apply to be registered as an exempted company. The requirements for an exempted company are essentially the same as for an ordinary company except that an exempted company:

- does not have to file an annual return of its shareholders with the Registrar of Companies;
- is not required to open its register of members for inspection;
- does not have to hold an annual general meeting;
- may issue shares with no par value;
- may obtain an undertaking against the imposition of any future taxation (such undertakings are usually given for 20 years in the first instance);
- may register by way of continuation in another jurisdiction and be deregistered in the Cayman Islands;
- may register as a limited duration company; and
- may register as a segregated portfolio company.

“Limited liability” means that the liability of each shareholder is limited to the amount unpaid by the shareholder on that shareholder’s shares of the Company.

Certificate of Designation

General. Our Senior Preferred Shares have the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions set out in the Certificate of Designation dated November 30, 2021 and approved by a resolution of our board of directors (the “Certificate of Designation”).

The following summarizes the key terms of our Senior Preferred Shares:

Voting Rights. Holders of Senior Preferred Shares shall, at all times, be entitled to vote with holders of Ordinary Shares as one class on all matters submitted to vote by the members. Each holder of Senior Preferred Shares shall be entitled a number of votes equal to the number of Class A Ordinary Shares into which such holder's Senior Preferred Shares are convertible.

Reserved Matters. The prior written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Senior Preferred Shares shall be required for certain actions of the Company set forth in the Certificate of Designation.

Liquidation. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of Senior Preferred Shares, in preference to the holders of other Shares, shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the greater of (i) 100% of the original aggregate subscription price paid by such holders plus declared but unpaid dividend on such Senior Preferred Shares and (ii) the aggregate value such holders would have received if all such outstanding Senior Preferred Shares had been converted into Class A Ordinary Shares immediately prior to such distribution.

Conversion. Each Senior Preferred Share shall be convertible, at any time at the option of its holder and at such holder's sole discretion, into that number of Class A Ordinary Shares (or an equivalent number of ADSs) determined by dividing (i) the sum of the original issue price plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such Senior Preferred Share, by (ii) the conversion price in effect at time of the conversion, which shall initially be the original issue price and is subject to adjustment from time to time.

Downtide Protection for Regulatory Events. With respect to each Senior Preferred Share, during the period from April 15, 2021 to the third anniversary of its original issuance, if upon an announcement or reporting by any person of any U.S. governmental authority (other than the SEC) entering into an agreement with us, imposing penalty or restriction in connection with the previously disclosed Fabricated Transactions, the trading prices of our ADSs are negatively affected, as determined in accordance with the mechanisms set forth in the Certificate of Designation, the then applicable conversion price of such Senior Preferred Share shall be adjusted downward to reflect the impact of such event.

10.C. Material Contracts

We have not entered into any material contracts other than in the ordinary course of business and other than those described in this annual report.

10.D. Exchange Controls

The Cayman Islands currently has no exchange control regulations or currency restrictions.

10.E. Taxation

The following discussion of Cayman Islands, PRC and United States federal income tax consequences of an investment in the ADSs or Ordinary Shares is based upon laws and relevant interpretations thereof in effect as of the date of this annual report, all of which are subject to change. This discussion does not deal with all possible tax consequences relating to an investment in the ADSs or Ordinary Shares, such as the tax consequences under state, local and other tax laws. To the extent that the discussion relates to matters of Cayman Islands tax law, it represents the opinion of Harney Westwood & Riegels, our Cayman Islands counsel. To the extent that the discussion relates to matters of PRC tax law, it represents the opinion of King & Wood Mallesons, our PRC legal counsel.

Cayman Islands Taxation

The Cayman Islands currently levies no taxes on individuals or corporations based upon profits, income, gains or appreciation, and there is no taxation in the nature of inheritance tax or estate duty. There are no other taxes likely to be material to us or holders of the ADSs or Ordinary Shares levied by the government of the Cayman Islands, except for stamp duties which may be applicable on instruments executed in, or brought within the jurisdiction of the Cayman Islands. The Cayman Islands is a party to a double tax treaty entered into with the United Kingdom in 2010, but it is otherwise not party to any double tax treaties that are applicable to any payments made to or by our company. There are no exchange control regulations or currency restrictions in the Cayman Islands.

Pursuant to the Tax Concessions Act of the Cayman Islands, the Company has obtained an undertaking: (i) that no law that is enacted in the Cayman Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciation shall apply to the Company or its operations; and (ii) that the aforesaid tax or any tax in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall not be payable on or in respect of the shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company.

The undertaking for the Company is for a period of 20 years from March 21, 2019.

People's Republic of China Taxation

Under the PRC EIT Law, which became effective on January 1, 2008 and most recently amended on December 29, 2018, an enterprise established outside the PRC with “de facto management bodies” within the PRC is considered a “resident enterprise” for PRC enterprise income tax purposes and is generally subject to a uniform 25% enterprise income tax rate on its worldwide income. Under the implementation rules to the PRC EIT Law, a “de facto management body” is defined as a body that has material and overall management and control over the manufacturing and business operations, personnel and human resources, finances and properties of an enterprise.

In addition, the SAT Circular 82 issued by the SAT in April 2009 specifies that certain offshore incorporated enterprises controlled by PRC enterprises or PRC enterprise groups will be classified as PRC resident enterprises if the following are located or resident in the PRC: (a) senior management personnel and departments that are responsible for daily production, operation and management; (b) financial and personnel decision-making bodies; (c) key properties, accounting books, company seal, minutes of board meetings and shareholders’ meetings; and (d) half or more of the senior management or directors having voting rights. Further to SAT Circular 82, the SAT issued the SAT Bulletin 45, which took effect in September 2011, to provide more guidance on the implementation of SAT Circular 82. SAT Bulletin 45 provides for procedures and administration details of determination on resident status and administration on post-determination matters. Our company is incorporated outside the PRC. As a holding company, its key assets are its ownership interests in its subsidiaries, and its key assets are located, and its records (including the resolutions of its board of directors and the resolutions of its shareholders) are maintained, outside the PRC. As such, we do not believe that the Company meets all of the conditions above or is a PRC resident enterprise for PRC tax purposes. For the same reasons, we believe our other offshore companies are not PRC resident enterprises either. However, the tax resident status of an enterprise is subject to determination by the PRC tax authorities and uncertainties remain with respect to the interpretation of the term “de facto management body.” There can be no assurance that the PRC government will ultimately take a view that is consistent with our position. If the PRC tax authorities determine that our Cayman Islands holding company is a PRC resident enterprise for PRC enterprise income tax purposes, a 10% withholding tax would be imposed on dividends it pays to its non-PRC enterprise shareholders (including the ADS holders) if such dividends are deemed to be sourced within the PRC. In addition, non-PRC resident enterprise shareholders (including the ADS holders) may be subject to PRC tax on gains realized on the sale or other disposition of ADSs or Ordinary Shares at a rate of 10%, if such income is treated as sourced from within the PRC. Furthermore, if the Company is deemed a PRC resident enterprise, dividends paid to its non-PRC individual shareholders (including the ADS holders) and any gain realized on the transfer of ADSs or Ordinary Shares by such shareholders may be subject to PRC tax at a rate of 20% (which, in the case of dividends, may be withheld at source by us) if such dividends or gains are deemed to be sourced within the PRC. These rates may be reduced by an applicable tax treaty, but it is unclear whether non-PRC shareholders of the Company would be able to obtain the benefits of any tax treaties between their country of tax residence and the PRC in the event that the Company is treated as a PRC resident enterprise. See “Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Doing Business in China—if our offshore companies are classified as a PRC resident enterprise for PRC enterprise income tax purposes, such classification could result in unfavorable tax consequences to us and our non-PRC shareholders and the ADS holders.”

U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following are material U.S. federal income tax consequences to the U.S. Holders described below of owning and disposing of our ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares, but this discussion does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to a particular person’s decision to own our ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares.

Table of Contents

This discussion applies only to a U.S. Holder that holds the ADSs or underlying Ordinary Shares as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In addition, it does not describe all of the tax consequences that may be relevant in light of a U.S. Holder's particular circumstances, including any alternative minimum or Medicare contribution tax consequences and any tax consequences applicable to U.S. Holders subject to special rules, such as:

- certain financial institutions;
- dealers or traders in securities that use a mark-to-market method of tax accounting;
- persons holding ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares as part of a straddle, conversion transaction, integrated transaction or similar transaction;
- persons whose functional currency for U.S. federal income tax purposes is not the U.S. dollar;
- entities or arrangements classified as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- tax-exempt entities, "individual retirement accounts" or "Roth IRAs";
- persons that received their ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares in consideration for services or otherwise as compensation;
- persons that own or are deemed to own 10% or more of our stock by vote or value; or
- persons holding ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares in connection with a trade or business outside the United States.

If an entity or arrangement that is classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes owns ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships owning ADSs or Ordinary Shares and partners in such partnerships should consult their tax advisers as to the particular U.S. federal income tax consequences of owning and disposing of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares.

This discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, administrative pronouncements, judicial decisions, final, temporary and proposed Treasury regulations, and the income tax treaty between the United States and the PRC (the "Treaty"), all as of the date hereof, any of which is subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion is also based, in part, on representations by the depositary and assumes that each obligation under the deposit agreement and any related agreement will be performed in accordance with its terms.

As used herein, a "U.S. Holder" is a person eligible for Treaty benefits that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a beneficial owner of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares and:

- a citizen or individual resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state therein or the District of Columbia; or
- an estate or trust the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source.

In general, a U.S. Holder that owns ADSs will be treated as the owner of the underlying Class A Ordinary Shares represented by those ADSs for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, no gain or loss will be recognized if a U.S. Holder exchanges ADSs for the underlying Class A Ordinary Shares represented by those ADSs.

This discussion does not address any U.S. federal taxes (such as estate or gift taxes) other than income taxes, nor does it address any state, local or non-U.S. tax considerations. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers concerning the U.S. federal, state, local and non-U.S. tax consequences of owning and disposing of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares in their particular circumstances.

Passive Foreign Investment Company Rules

In general, a non-U.S. corporation is a passive foreign investment company (a “PFIC”) for any taxable year in which (i) 75% or more of its gross income consists of passive income or (ii) 50% or more of the average value of its assets (generally determined on a quarterly basis) consists of assets that produce, or are held for the production of, passive income. For purposes of the above calculations, a non-U.S. corporation that owns at least 25% by value of the shares of another corporation is treated as if it held its proportionate share of the assets of the other corporation and received directly its proportionate share of the income of the other corporation. Passive income generally includes dividends, interest, rents, royalties and investment gains. Cash is generally a passive asset for these purposes. Goodwill is an active asset under the PFIC rules to the extent attributable to activities that produce active income.

The determination of our PFIC status is subject to certain uncertainties and is made by applying principles and methodologies that are in some circumstances unclear.

Because we hold a substantial amount of cash, our PFIC status for any taxable year may depend, in part, on the value of our goodwill. The value of our goodwill may be determined by averaging (on a quarterly basis) the excess of the sum of our market capitalization and liabilities over the value of our other assets. If the value of our goodwill for 2019 and 2020 is determined in such manner, based on the trading prices of our ADSs we were not a PFIC for our taxable years of 2019 and 2020. However, because our market capitalization declined significantly since the second quarter of 2020 and throughout 2020, there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) will not assert that the true value of our goodwill for 2019 and the first quarter of 2020 is in fact lower. If the assertion of that position is successful, our PFIC status for our taxable years of 2019 and 2020 would depend on the asserted value of our goodwill for those years.

Based on the composition of our income and assets and the value of our assets (including goodwill), we believe that we were not a PFIC for our 2022 taxable year. However, there can be no assurances that we will not be a PFIC for the current or any future taxable year because our PFIC status is an annual determination that can be made only after the end of the relevant taxable year and will depend on the composition of our income and assets and the value of our assets from time to time (including the value of our goodwill, which, as discussed above, may be determined, in part, by reference to our market capitalization, which has been, and may continue to be, volatile). Because we hold and may continue to hold significant amounts of cash and cash equivalents, and because the value of our goodwill may be determined by reference to our market capitalization from time to time, fluctuations in the market price of our ADSs may cause us to be or become a PFIC for the current or any future taxable year.

Moreover, it is not entirely clear how the contractual arrangements between us and our VIE will be treated for purposes of the PFIC rules, and we may be or become a PFIC if our VIE is not treated as owned by us. For these reasons, our PFIC status for any taxable year is uncertain.

If we are a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder owns ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares, we will generally continue to be treated as a PFIC with respect to the U.S. Holder for all succeeding years during which the U.S. Holder owns ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares, even if we cease to meet the threshold requirements for PFIC status, unless a “deemed sale” election is filed and the U.S. Holder pays any applicable tax under the PFIC rules described below. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding the advisability of making this election in their particular circumstances in the case that we are or were, but cease to be, a PFIC for any taxable year.

If we are a PFIC for any taxable year and any of our subsidiaries, VIEs or other companies in which we own or are treated as owning equity interests is also a PFIC (any such entity, a “Lower-tier PFIC”), U.S. Holders will be deemed to own a proportionate amount (by value) of the shares of each Lower-tier PFIC and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax according to the rules described in the subsequent paragraph on (i) certain distributions by a Lower-tier PFIC and (ii) dispositions of shares of Lower-tier PFICs, in each case as if the U.S. Holders held such shares directly, even though the U.S. Holders will not receive the proceeds of those distributions or dispositions.

In general, if we are a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder owns ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares, gain recognized by the U.S. Holder on a sale or other disposition (including certain pledges) of its ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares will be allocated ratably over that U.S. Holder's holding period. The amounts allocated to the taxable year of the sale or disposition and to any year before we became a PFIC will be taxed as ordinary income. The amount allocated to each other taxable year will be subject to tax at the highest rate in effect for our ADSs individuals or corporations, as appropriate, for that taxable year, and an interest charge will be imposed on the resulting tax liability for each such year. Furthermore, to the extent that distributions received by a U.S. Holder in any taxable year on its ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares exceed 125% of the average of the annual distributions on the ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares received during the preceding three taxable years or the U.S. Holder's holding period, whichever is shorter, such excess distributions will be subject to taxation in the same manner.

Alternatively, if we were a PFIC and if the ADSs were "regularly traded" while they were listed on the Nasdaq, a U.S. Holder could make a mark-to-market election that would result in tax treatment different from the general tax treatment for PFICs described in the preceding paragraph with respect to its taxable year that ended before the taxable year in which our ADSs were delisted from the Nasdaq. U.S. Holders should note that the OTC Pink Limited Information system, on which the prices of our ADSs are currently quoted, is not a "qualified exchange" for purposes of the mark-to-market rules. Therefore, a mark-to-market treatment of the ADSs is not available for as long as the ADSs continue to be delisted from, or not regularly traded on, the Nasdaq or any other qualified stock exchange. U.S. Holders should note that a mark-to-market election cannot be made with respect to Lower-tier PFICs, if any, or with respect to our Class A Ordinary Shares.

We do not intend to provide information necessary for U.S. Holders to make qualified electing fund elections which, if available, would result in tax treatment different from the general tax treatment for PFICs described above.

If we are a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder owns any ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares, the U.S. Holder will generally be required to file annual reports with the IRS.

U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding the determination of whether we are a PFIC for any taxable year and the application of the PFIC rules to their ownership of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares.

Taxation of Distributions

The following is subject to the discussion under "—Passive Foreign Investment Company Rules" above.

Distributions paid on ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares, other than certain pro rata distributions of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares, will be treated as dividends to the extent paid out of our current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. Because we do not maintain calculations of our earnings and profits under U.S. federal income tax principles, it is expected that distributions generally will be reported to U.S. Holders as dividends. Dividends will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction generally available to U.S. corporations under the Code.

In general, dividends paid by certain "qualified foreign corporations" to non-corporate persons may be taxed at a preferential rate, subject to applicable limitations. However, if a non-U.S. corporation is not entitled to the benefits of a comprehensive income tax treaty with the United States, dividends paid by such corporation will qualify for the preferential rate only with respect to stock that is "readily tradable on an established securities market in the United States." The IRS issued a notice in 2003, according to which common stock or American depositary shares in respect of such stock are considered readily tradable on a U.S. established securities market if they are listed on certain national U.S. securities exchanges specified in the notice, such as the Nasdaq. The IRS notice indicates that the IRS continues to consider whether, and under what conditions, the preferential rate may apply also to securities readily tradable on other securities trading platforms, such as trading over the counter. However, as of the date of this annual report no additional trading markets have been identified by the Treasury or the IRS as qualifying markets for these purposes. Therefore, because our ADSs were delisted from the Nasdaq, non-corporate U.S. Holders of our ADSs should expect that while the ADSs continue to be delisted from the Nasdaq or any other qualified national U.S. exchange, dividends will likely be reported to them by withholding agents as not qualifying for the preferential rates.

Dividends will be included in a U.S. Holder's income on the date of the U.S. Holder's, or in the case of ADSs, the depositary's, receipt. The amount of any dividend income paid in foreign currency will be the U.S. dollar amount calculated by reference to the spot rate in effect on the date of receipt, regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars on such date. If the dividend is converted into U.S. dollars on the date of receipt, a U.S. Holder generally should not be required to recognize foreign currency gain or loss in respect of the amount received. A U.S. Holder may have foreign currency gain or loss if the dividend is converted into U.S. dollars after the date of receipt.

Dividends will be treated as foreign-source income for foreign tax credit purposes. As described in "Taxation—People's Republic of China Taxation," dividends paid by us may be subject to PRC withholding tax. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the amount of the dividend income will include any amounts withheld in respect of PRC withholding tax. Subject to applicable limitations, which vary depending upon the U.S. Holder's circumstances, and the discussion below regarding certain Treasury regulations, PRC taxes withheld from dividend payments (at a rate not exceeding the applicable Treaty rate in the case of U.S. Holders that qualify for the benefits of the Treaty) generally will be creditable against a U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability. The rules governing foreign tax credits are complex. For example, certain Treasury regulations provide that, in the absence of an election to apply the benefits of an applicable income tax treaty, in order for foreign income taxes to be creditable the relevant foreign income tax rules must be consistent with certain U.S. federal income tax principles, and we have not determined whether the PRC income tax system meets these requirements. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding the creditability of PRC taxes in their particular circumstances (including eligibility for Treaty benefits). In lieu of claiming a credit, a U.S. Holder may elect to deduct PRC taxes in computing its taxable income, subject to applicable limitations. An election to deduct foreign taxes instead of claiming foreign tax credits must apply to all creditable foreign taxes paid or accrued in the taxable year.

Sale or Other Taxable Disposition of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares

A U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss on a sale or other taxable disposition of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized on the sale or other taxable disposition and the U.S. Holder's tax basis in such ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares disposed of, in each case as determined in U.S. dollars. The gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if, at the time of the sale or disposition, the U.S. Holder has owned the ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares for more than one year. Long-term capital gains recognized by non-corporate U.S. Holders may be subject to a tax rate that is lower than the rate applicable to ordinary income. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

As described in "Taxation—People's Republic of China Taxation," gains on the sale of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares may be subject to PRC taxes. Under the Code, capital gains of U.S. persons are generally treated as U.S.-source income. However, a U.S. Holder that is eligible for Treaty benefits may be able to elect to treat gains on the disposition of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares as foreign-source income under the Treaty and claim foreign tax credit in respect of any PRC taxes on such disposition gains. Under certain Treasury regulations, a U.S. Holder will generally be precluded from claiming a foreign tax credit with respect to PRC income taxes on gains from dispositions of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares unless the U.S. Holder is eligible for Treaty benefits and elects to apply them. However, in that case it is possible that any PRC taxes on disposition gains may either be deductible or reduce the amount realized on the disposition. The rules governing foreign tax credits and deductibility of foreign taxes are complex. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding the consequences of the imposition of any PRC tax on disposition gains, including the Treaty's resourcing rule, any reporting requirements with respect to a Treaty-based return position and the creditability or deductibility of the PRC tax on disposition gains in their particular circumstances (including any applicable limitations).

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

In general, payments of dividends and proceeds from the sale or other disposition of ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares that are made within the United States or through certain U.S.-related financial intermediaries may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless (i) the U.S. Holder is a corporation or other "exempt recipient" and (ii) in the case of backup withholding, the U.S. Holder provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that it is not subject to backup withholding. The amount of any backup withholding from a payment to a U.S. Holder will be allowed as a credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle it to a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Table of Contents

Certain U.S. Holders who are individuals (or certain specified entities) may be required to report information relating to their ownership of Class A Ordinary Shares or non-U.S. accounts through which ADSs or Class A Ordinary Shares are held. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding their reporting obligations with respect to ADSs and Class A Ordinary Shares.

We previously filed with the SEC a registration statement on Form F-1 (File Number 333-230977), as amended, to register our Class A Ordinary Shares in relation to our IPO, and a registration statement on Form F-1 (File Number 333-235836), as amended, to register our Class A Ordinary Shares in relation to our follow-on public offering. We also filed with the SEC a related registration statement on Form F-6 (File Number 333-230989) to register the ADSs representing our Class A Ordinary Shares.

We are subject to the periodic reporting and other informational requirements of the Exchange Act as applicable to foreign private issuers. Under the Exchange Act, we are required to file reports and other information with the SEC. Specifically, we are required to file annually a Form 20-F within four months after the end of each fiscal year. Copies of reports and other information, when so filed with the SEC, can be inspected and copied at the public reference facilities maintained by the SEC at 100 F Street, N.E., Room 1580, Washington, D.C. 20549. You can request copies of these documents, upon payment of a duplicating fee, by writing to the SEC. The public may obtain information regarding the Washington, D.C. Public Reference Room by calling the Commission at 1-800-SEC-0330. The SEC also maintains a web site at www.sec.gov that contains reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding registrants that make electronic filings with the SEC using its EDGAR system. As a foreign private issuer, we are exempt from the rules of the Exchange Act prescribing the furnishing and content of quarterly reports and proxy statements, and our executive officers, directors and principal shareholders are exempt from the reporting and short-swing profit recovery provisions contained in Section 16 of the Exchange Act. In addition, we are not required under the Exchange Act to file periodic reports and financial statements with the SEC as frequently or as promptly as U.S. companies whose securities are registered under the Exchange Act.

We will furnish The Bank of New York Mellon, the depositary of the ADSs, with our annual reports, which will include a review of operations and annual audited consolidated financial statements prepared in conformity with U.S. GAAP, and all notices of shareholders' meetings and other reports and communications that are made generally available to our shareholders. The depositary will make such notices, reports and communications available to holders of ADSs and, upon our request, will mail to all record holders of ADSs the information contained in any notice of a shareholders' meeting received by the depositary from us.

Item 11. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Foreign currency exchange rate risk

Renminbi is not a freely convertible currency. SAFE, under the authority of the People's Bank of China, controls the conversion of Renminbi into other currencies. The value of Renminbi is subject to changes in central government policies, international economic and political developments affecting supply and demand in the China Foreign Exchange Trading System market. Our cash and cash equivalents denominated in Renminbi amounted to RMB3,883.9 million, RMB3,358.4 million and RMB3,248.8 million as of December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

To the extent that we need to convert U.S. Dollars into Renminbi for our operations, appreciation of Renminbi against the U.S. dollar would reduce the Renminbi amount we receive from the conversion. Conversely, if we decide to convert Renminbi into U.S. dollars for the purpose of making payments for dividends on our Ordinary Shares, Senior Preferred Shares, or ADSs, servicing our outstanding debt, or for other business purposes, appreciation of the U.S. dollar against the Renminbi would reduce the U.S. dollar amounts available to us.

Currency convertibility risk

We transact all of our business in Renminbi, which is not freely convertible into foreign currencies. On January 1, 1994, the PRC government abolished the dual rate system and introduced a single rate of exchange as quoted daily by the People's Bank of China (the "PBOC"). However, the unification of the exchange rates does not imply that the Renminbi may be readily convertible into U.S. dollars or other foreign currencies. All foreign exchange transactions continue to take place either through the PBOC or other banks authorized to buy and sell foreign currencies at the exchange rates quoted by the PBOC. Approval of foreign currency payments by the PBOC or other institutions requires submitting a payment application form together with suppliers' invoices, shipping documents and signed contracts.

Interest rate risk

We are exposed to interest rate risk on our interest-bearing assets and liabilities. As part of our asset and liability risk management, we review and take appropriate steps to manage our interest rate exposures on our interest-bearing assets and liabilities. We have not been exposed to material risks due to changes in market interest rates and have not used any derivative financial instruments to manage the interest risk exposure in 2020, 2021 and 2022.

Persons depositing or withdrawing shares or ADS holders must pay:

	For:
• US$5.00 (or less) per 100 ADSs (or portion of 100 ADSs)	• Issuance of ADSs, including issuances resulting from a distribution of shares or rights or other property
	• Cancellation of ADSs for the purpose of withdrawal, including if the deposit agreement terminates
• US$.05 (or less) per ADS	• Any cash distribution to ADS holders
• A fee equivalent to the fee that would be payable if securities distributed to you had been shares and the shares had been deposited for issuance of ADSs	• Distribution of securities distributed to holders of deposited securities (including rights) that are distributed by the depositary to ADS holders
• US$.05 (or less) per ADS per calendar year	• Depositary services
• Registration or transfer fees	• Transfer and registration of shares on our share register to or from the name of the depositary or its agent when you deposit or withdraw shares
• Expenses of the depositary	• Cable (including SWIFT) and facsimile transmissions (when expressly provided in the deposit agreement)
• Taxes and other governmental charges the depositary or the custodian has to pay on any ADSs or shares underlying ADSs, such as stock transfer taxes, stamp duty or withholding taxes	• Converting foreign currency to U.S. dollars
• Any charges incurred by the depositary or its agents for servicing the deposited securities	• As necessary
	• As necessary

The depositary collects its fees for delivery and surrender of ADSs directly from investors depositing shares or surrendering ADSs for the purpose of withdrawal or from intermediaries acting for them. The depositary collects fees for making distributions to investors by deducting those fees from the amounts distributed or by selling a portion of distributable property to pay the fees. The depositary may collect its annual fee for depositary services by deduction from cash distributions or by directly billing investors or by charging the book-entry system accounts of participants acting for them. The depositary may collect any of its fees by deduction from any cash distribution payable (or by selling a portion of securities or other property distributable) to ADS holders that are obligated to pay those fees. The depositary may generally refuse to provide fee-attracting services until its fees for those services are paid.

From time to time, the depositary may make payments to us to reimburse us for costs and expenses generally arising out of establishment and maintenance of the ADS program, waive fees and expenses for services provided to us by the depositary or share revenue from the fees collected from ADS holders. In performing its duties under the deposit agreement, the depositary may use brokers, dealers, foreign currency dealers or other service providers that are owned by or affiliated with the depositary and that may earn or share fees, spreads or commissions.

The depositary may convert currency itself or through any of its affiliates and, in those cases, acts as principal for its own account and not as agent, advisor, broker or fiduciary on behalf of any other person and earns revenue, including, without limitation, transaction spreads, that it will retain for its own account. The revenue is based on, among other things, the difference between the exchange rate assigned to the currency conversion made under the deposit agreement and the rate that the depositary or its affiliate receives when buying or selling foreign currency for its own account. The depositary makes no representation that the exchange rate used or obtained in any currency conversion under the deposit agreement will be the most favorable rate that could be obtained at the time or that the method by which that rate will be determined will be the most favorable to ADS holders, subject to the depositary's obligations under the deposit agreement. The methodology used to determine exchange rates used in currency conversions is available upon request.

PART II

Item 13. Defaults, Dividend Arrearages and Delinquencies

In January 2020, we issued US$460 million of Notes. On July 15, 2020, on the application of the Company in response to the presentation of a winding-up petition by a creditor in the Cayman Islands, the Cayman Court appointed Alexander Lawson of Alvarez & Marsal Cayman Islands Limited and Wing Sze Tiffany Wong of Alvarez & Marsal Asia Limited to act as “light-touch” JPLs. Following this appointment, which constituted an event of default under the indenture with respect to the Notes, 100% of the principal of, and accrued and unpaid interest on, the Notes automatically became immediately due and payable. During the provisional liquidation, we negotiated the Restructuring under the supervision of the JPLs. On March 16, 2021, we announced that we had entered into the RSA with holders of a majority of the Notes. On September 21, 2021, we announced that, in connection with the Restructuring, we had filed a summons for directions and a petition in the Cayman Court seeking an order for the convening of a single meeting of the class of creditors affected by a scheme of arrangement to consider, and if sought fit, approve, the Scheme. On December 13, 2021, the Cayman Court sanctioned the Scheme which became fully effective in accordance with its terms on December 17, 2021, following the entry of a final order of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court recognizing and enforcing the Scheme in the territorial jurisdiction of the United States. On January 28, 2022, the Restructuring of the Notes as contemplated by the Scheme became effective and was substantially consummated.

Subsequently, the parties to the amended winding up petition (filed in substitution on January 7, 2021), applied consensually to the Cayman Court for leave to withdraw or have the petition dismissed. By order of the Cayman Court dated February 25, 2022, the petition was dismissed and the JPLs were formally discharged with effect from March 4, 2022, bringing the provisional liquidation to a close. In addition, with the Company’s support and coordination, the JPLs filed a final report with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court on March 4, 2022. The final report confirmed that the purpose of the JPLs’ appearance in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court was complete, and requested entry of an order closing the Chapter 15 Case. The U.S. Bankruptcy Court granted this relief and entered an order closing the Chapter 15 Case on April 8, 2022.

In aggregate, in exchange for the Notes, we have issued consideration under the Scheme totaling approximately US$245.5 million of cash, the New Notes and 9,527,601 ADSs representing 76,220,808 Class A Ordinary Shares, which includes 291,699 ADSs issued on April 4, 2022 pursuant to the top-up mechanism under the Scheme of which 25,004 ADSs were not claimed by creditors and therefore 200,032 Class A Ordinary Shares underlying such unclaimed ADSs were returned to the Company. We announced the redemption in full of the New Notes on August 26, 2022, which were our only offshore debt securities. The aggregate redemption price of the New Notes was US$115.6 million, which constitutes the aggregate principal amount outstanding plus the aggregate accrued interest. The aggregate redemption price was paid from our available offshore cash balance. With the full redemption of the New Notes, the role of the Scheme Supervisors under the previously announced RSA was terminated. See “Note 12 Convertible Senior Notes” to the Company’s consolidated financial statements included in this annual report.

Item 14. Material Modifications to the Rights of Security Holders and Use of Proceeds

14.A. — 14.D. Material Modifications to the Rights of Security Holders

See “Item 10. Additional Information” for a description of the rights of shareholders, which remain unchanged.

14.E. Use of Proceeds

None.

Item 15. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management, with the participation of our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, has performed an evaluation of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this report, as required by Rule 13a-15(b) under the Exchange Act.

Table of Contents

Based upon this evaluation, our management has concluded that, as of December 31, 2022, our existing disclosure controls and procedures were effective.

Management's Annual Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act. Internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP and includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of a company's assets, (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that a company's receipts and expenditures are being made only in accordance with authorizations of a company's management and directors, and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of a company's assets that could have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Our management, with the participation of our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of our company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2022 based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO 2013 Framework). Based on this evaluation, our management has concluded that the internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2022 was effective.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. In addition, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies and procedures may deteriorate. See "Item 3. Key Information—3.D. Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Fabricated Transactions, Internal Investigation, Internal Controls, Offshore Restructuring and Related Matters—if we fail to implement and maintain an effective system of internal control, we may be unable to accurately report our results of operations, meet our reporting obligations or prevent fraud, and investor confidence and the trading price of the ADSs may be materially and adversely affected."

Attestation Report of the Registered Public Accounting Firm

Our independent registered public accounting firm, BDO China Shu Lun Pan Certified Public Accountants LLP ("BDO"), has audited the effectiveness of our Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2022, as stated in its report, which appears on page F-5 of this annual report on Form 20-F.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the year ended December 31, 2022 that have materially affected, or that were reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Item 16. [Reserved]

Item 16.A. Audit Committee Financial Expert

Our Board has determined that Mr. Feng Liu, an independent director and the chairman of our audit committee, qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" within the meaning of the SEC rules. Mr. Feng Liu satisfies the "independence" requirements of Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Item 16.B. Code of Ethics

Our Board has adopted a code of business conduct and ethics, as amended in April 2023, that applies to all of our directors, officers, employees, including certain provisions that specifically apply to our chief executive officer, chief financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller and any other persons who perform similar functions for us. We have filed our amended code of business conduct and ethics as Exhibit 11.1 of this annual report and posted a copy of our amended code of business conduct and ethics on our website at <http://investor.lkcoffee.com/>. We hereby undertake to provide to any person without charge a copy of our latest code of business conduct and ethics within ten working days after we receive such person's written request.

Item 16.C. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

The following table sets forth the aggregate fees by categories specified below in connection with certain professional services rendered by our independent registered public accounting firms, namely BDO China Shu Lun Pan Certified Public Accountants LLP and Centurion ZD CPA & Co., for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2022.

	2021 RMB	2022 RMB
Services:
Audit fees ⁽¹⁾	18,344	22,347
Audit-Related Fees ⁽²⁾	—	—
Tax Fees ⁽³⁾	—	—
All Other fees ⁽⁴⁾	—	4,773
Total liabilities	18,344	27,120

- (1) Audit Fees. Audit fees mean the aggregate fees billed for each of the fiscal periods listed for professional services rendered by our independent registered public accounting firm for the audit of our annual consolidated financial statements and assistance with and review of documents filed with the SEC.
- (2) Audit-Related Fees. Audit-related fees mean the aggregate fees billed in each of the fiscal periods listed for professional services rendered by our principal auditors for the assurance and related services, which were not included under Audit Fees above.
- (3) Tax Fees. Tax fees mean the aggregate fees billed in each of the fiscal periods listed for professional services related to tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning.
- (4) All Other Fees. All other fees mean the aggregate fees billed in each of the fiscal periods listed for services other than services reported in Notes (1) through (3).

The policy of our audit committee is to preapprove all audit and non-audit services provided by auditors including BDO China Shu Lun Pan Certified Public Accountants LLP, our independent registered public accounting firm, including audit services and audit-related services as described above, other than those for de minimis services which are approved by the audit committee prior to the completion of the audit.

Item 16.D. Exemptions from the Listing Standards for Audit Committees

Not applicable.

Item 16.E. Purchases of Equity Securities by the Issuer and Affiliated Purchasers

Neither we nor any “affiliated purchaser,” as defined in Rule 10b-18(a)(3) of the Exchange Act, purchased any of our equity securities during the period covered by this annual report.

Item 16.F. Change in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

We appointed BDO China Shu Lun Pan Certified Public Accountants LLP (“BDO”) as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022, effective April 14, 2022. The appointment has been approved by the audit committee of the Company’s Board of Directors. BDO succeeds Centurion ZD CPA & Co. (“CZD”), the Company’s previous independent registered public accounting firm. The reports of CZD on the Company’s consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and 2021 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and 2021 and through April 14, 2022, there have been no disagreements between the Company and CZD on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of CZD, would have caused CZD to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in its report on the consolidated financial statements, and there have been no “reportable events” as the term is described in Item 16F(a)(1)(v) of Form 20-F.

We provided a copy of this disclosure in Item 16.F to CZD and requested that CZD furnish us with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether it agrees with the above statements, and if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of the letter from CZD addressed to the SEC, dated April 6, 2023, is filed herein as Exhibit 15.5.

Prior to BDO’s engagement, neither we nor anyone on our behalf consulted BDO regarding either (a) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on our financial statements, and neither a written report nor oral advice was provided to us by BDO that BDO concluded was an important factor considered by us in reaching a decision as to any accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue, or (b) any matter that was the subject of a disagreement, as that term is defined in Item 16F(a)(1)(iv) of Form 20-F (and the related instructions thereto) or a reportable event.

Item 16.G. Corporate Governance

As a Cayman Islands exempted company previously listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, we were subject to Nasdaq corporate governance listing standards. However, Nasdaq rules permit a foreign private issuer like us to follow the corporate governance practices of its home country. Certain corporate governance practices in the Cayman Islands, which is our home country, may differ significantly from the Nasdaq corporate governance listing standards. We intended to follow Cayman Islands corporate governance practices in lieu of the Nasdaq corporate governance requirements that listed companies must have a majority of independent directors and that the audit committee must consist of at least three members. To the extent that we choose to follow home country practice in the future, our shareholders may be afforded less protection than they otherwise would enjoy under the Nasdaq corporate governance listing standards applicable to U.S. domestic issuers. On July 1, 2020, we were delisted from Nasdaq when the staff of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC filed a Form 25 Notification of Delisting. Our ADSs have been quoted on the OTC Pink Limited Information initially under the symbol “LKNCY” since the Nasdaq suspended the trading of our ADSs on June 29, 2020.

Item 16.H. Mine Safety Disclosure

Not applicable.

Item 16.I. Disclosure Regarding Foreign Jurisdictions that Prevent Inspections

In April 2022, we were conclusively listed by the SEC as a Commission-Identified Issuer under the HFCA Act following the filing of our annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021, where our previous auditor, CZD (a registered public accounting firm that the PCAOB was unable to inspect or investigate completely) issued an audit report for us. On December 15, 2022, the PCAOB issued a report that vacated its December 16, 2021 determination and removed mainland China and Hong Kong from the list of jurisdictions where it is unable to inspect or investigate completely registered public accounting firms. For this reason, we do not expect to be identified as a Commission-Identified Issuer under the HFCA Act after we file this annual report on Form 20-F.

As of the date of this annual report and to our best knowledge:

- (i) none of our shares or the shares of our subsidiaries or the VIE are owned by governmental entities in the jurisdiction in which we or our subsidiaries or the VIE are incorporated or otherwise organized;
- (ii) none of the governmental entities in the applicable foreign jurisdiction with respect to our registered public accounting firm have a controlling financial interest in us, our subsidiaries or the VIE;
- (iii) none of the members of our board of directors or the board of directors of our subsidiaries or the VIE is an official of the Chinese Communist Party; and
- (iv) our, our subsidiaries or the VIE's articles of incorporation do not contain any charter of the Chinese Communist Party.

Opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Luckin Coffee Inc. (the "Company") together with its consolidated subsidiaries and variable interest entity (collectively, the "Group") as of December 31, 2022, the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive (loss)/income, shareholders' (deficits)/equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "consolidated financial statements"). In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Group at December 31, 2022 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB"), the Group's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2022, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO") and our report dated April 6, 2023 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Basis for Opinion

These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Group's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Group's consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Group in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matters

The critical audit matters communicated below are matters arising from the current period audit of the consolidated financial statements that were communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that: (1) relate to accounts or disclosures that are material to the consolidated financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of critical audit matters does not alter in any way our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matters below, providing separate opinions on the critical audit matters or on the accounts or disclosures to which they relate.

Revenue recognition for product sales in self-operated stores

As described in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Group offers freshly brewed drinks and other products through its physical self-operated stores. The Group generated approximately RMB 9.4 billion revenue from product sales in self-operated stores out of RMB 13.3 billion total revenue for the year ended December 31, 2022. Customers place orders for products mainly through the Group's application, Weixin mini-program and other third-party platforms with different options to pay through third-party online payment platforms.

We identified the occurrence of product sales in self-operated stores as a critical audit matter. Complex auditor judgement was involved in designing and performing audit procedures over product sales transactions due to the significant volume recorded through the Group's internally developed applications. Auditing these transactions was challenging because of the extent of audit effort and the involvement of information technology ("IT") professionals with specialized skills and knowledge.

The primary procedures we performed to address this critical audit matter included:

- Testing the operating effectiveness of certain controls relating to relevant business processes of product sales in self-operated stores, including relevant IT automated controls.
- Performing targeted tests of transactions including: (i) testing completeness and accuracy of certain revenue reports used with the assistance of our IT specialists, (ii) validating the existence of self-operated stores by identifying self-operated stores through on-line maps and agreeing store locations to address information maintained by management, (iii) reconciling cash payments between third-party payment platforms' records and the Group's records, (iv) performing test of customer transactions and reviewing relevant supporting details, and (v) performing data analytical procedures over the customer orders with the assistance of our IT specialists.

Accounting and valuation of restructuring support agreement (the "RSA") including derivative instrument

As described in Note 12 to the consolidated financial statements, the Group entered into the RSA in relation to restructuring of existing notes in 2021 with all the conditions precedent to the effective date satisfied in 2022. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Group recognized a gain of RMB 124.14 million related to the RSA and a fair value loss of RMB 6.38 million related to the bifurcated derivative instrument embedded in the RSA.

We identified the evaluation of the accounting treatment of the RSA and the valuation of the embedded derivate instrument as a critical audit matter. Complex auditor judgement was involved in evaluating the Group's interpretation of applicable accounting guidance and the methodology used to determine the fair value of the embedded derivate instrument, including certain unobservable inputs and assumptions such as discount rate and credit rating. Auditing these elements involved especially challenging and subjective auditor judgment due to the nature and extent of audit effort required to address these matters, including the extent of specialized skill or knowledge needed.

The primary procedures we performed to address this critical audit matter included:

- Reviewing the RSA to evaluate whether management's accounting judgments related to the measurement and recognition of the RSA were in compliance with relevant accounting guidance.
- Utilizing personnel with specialized knowledge and skill in valuation to assist in: (i) assessing the appropriateness of the valuation model utilized by management to determine the fair value of the bifurcated derivative instrument, and (ii) assessing the reasonableness of inputs and assumptions utilized by the management in determining the fair value of the embedded derivative instrument, including discount rate and credit rating.

Opinion on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

We have audited Luckin Coffee Inc.'s (the "Company's") together with its consolidated subsidiaries and variable interest entity (collectively, the "Group's") internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2022, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (the "COSO criteria"). In our opinion, the Group maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2022, based on the COSO criteria.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB"), the consolidated balance sheet of the Group as of December 31, 2022, and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive (loss)/income, shareholders' (deficits)/equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes and our report dated April 6, 2023 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Basis for Opinion

The Group's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, included in the accompanying Item 15, Management's Annual Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Group's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Group in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit of internal control over financial reporting in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. Our audit also included performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Definition and Limitations of Internal Control over Financial Reporting

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To: The Board of Directors and Shareholders of Luckin Coffee Inc.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Luckin Coffee Inc. and subsidiaries (the “Company”) as of December 31, 2021, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive (loss) / income, consolidated statements of shareholders’ equity, and consolidated statements of cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2021, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended December 31 2020 and 2021, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAP”).

We have also audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (“PCAOB”), the Company’s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2021, based on criteria established in Internal Control — Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission and our report dated April 14, 2022 expressed an unqualified opinion on the Company’s internal control over financial reporting.

Basis for Opinion

These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matters

The critical audit matters communicated below are matters arising from the current-period audit of the consolidated financial statements that was communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that (1) relates to accounts or disclosures that are material to the consolidated financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of critical audit matters does not alter in any way our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matters below, providing a separate opinion on the critical audit matter or on the accounts or disclosures to which it relates.

(i) Revenue and Deferred revenue

Critical Audit Matter Description

The Company had revenue and deferred revenue of RMB 7.97 Billion and RMB 96.2 million respectively for the year ended December 31, 2021 and as of December 31, 2021. A description of the Company's principal revenue generating activities is as follows:

Revenues from product sales were recognized at point in time when it satisfies performance obligations upon customers' in-store pickup or the delivery of promised products to customers. There is no significant financing component or variable consideration in the transaction price. The Company reasonably estimates the possibility of return based on the historical experience, and there were no material returns historically.

Revenues from partnership stores mainly consist of sales of materials and equipment to the partnership stores, profit-sharing revenue from the partnership stores for using the Luckin Coffee or Luckin Tea brand as well as integrated store operation solution, and other services including pre-opening services.

For material sales, the performance obligation is to transfer required materials at fixed unit price to retail partners. The Company provides allowance for materials sales as consideration payable to retail partners when the products sold in partnership stores to customers at lower price than the cost of materials with certain markup to comply with its promotion strategy. Allowance for partnership stores is accounted for as a reduction of the transaction price, which is usually determined upon the completion of each order. Therefore, sales of materials are generally recognized on the partnership stores' acceptance of materials, the settlement price is then deducted by the allowance provided to partnership stores that is determined upon the products are sold in partnership stores, if any.

Deferred revenues are associated with customer prepaid coupons. As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, Prepaid coupons are stored in the "Coffee Wallet" of the customers' registered accounts for future use. Cash from the sales of prepaid coupons are recognized as deferred revenues which are contract liabilities under Accounting Standard Codification ("ASC") 606. Purchase consideration is allocated to each prepaid coupon, including the coupons issued for free. The allocated considerations are recognized as revenues when customers consume the prepaid coupons for payments of their purchase.

Significant estimation and judgement are exercised by the Company as determining revenue recognition for this prepaid coupon arrangement, and include the following:

- Determination of the effectiveness of the internal controls including the information technology general control ("ITGC") and the information technology activity control ("ITAC") on the accuracy and completeness of the movement of coupon data to ensure input and output information were properly recorded.
- Establishment of the business operation database to record the coupon transaction including allocation of consideration on issuance of coupon and the exercise of coupon on each point of transaction.

How the Critical Audit Matter Was Addressed in the Audit

Our audit procedures related to the revenue and deferred revenue included the following:

- We have utilized our IT specialists to assist us in assessing the calculation logic of deferred revenue for prepaid coupon.
- We have performed ITGC audit procedures on the Company's business operation and financial reporting database ("BOD")
- We performed audit procedures that included, among others, testing the clerical accuracy and consistency with US GAAP of the accounting model developed by the Company to recognize revenue including forfeiture of prepaid coupon and deferred revenue associated with the prepaid coupon.
- We have performed data mapping test in sampling basis between the raw data from the system in which the Company used to capture the sales transactions for big data and marketing purpose with BOD and confirmed that the BOD is reliable.
- We have performed reconciliation between BOD, the system in which the Company used to capture the sales transactions for big data and marketing purpose and third-party payment platforms to confirm the transactions related to payment like purchase of coffee directly or purchase of prepaid coupons are truly and fairly reflected in BOD.
- We have tested the payment receipts against third-party payments platforms and instruments such as WeChat and Alipay.

- We have also performed certain substantive analytical procedures.

(ii) Impairment assessment on long-lived assets

Critical Audit Matter Description

As of December 31, 2021, the Company's record an aggregated impairment of long-lived assets of RMB 80.56 million, include RMB 21.37 million was recorded in current year. As disclosed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements included in year 2021 Form 20-F, it consists of the impairment loss in connection with Luckin Coffee EXPRESS and Luckin Pop Mini, self-operating stores and idle equipment.

The Company evaluates its long-lived assets, including property and equipment with finite lives, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances, such as a significant adverse change to market conditions that indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be fully recoverable. When these events occur, the Company evaluates the recoverability of long-lived assets by comparing the carrying amount of the assets to the future undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of the assets and their eventual disposition.

If the sum of the expected undiscounted cash flows of the asset or asset group is less than the carrying amount of the assets or the asset groups, the Company recognizes an impairment loss based on the excess of the carrying amount of the assets or the asset groups over their fair value. Fair value is generally determined by discounting the cash flows expected to be generated by the assets or asset groups based on forecasted future sales and operating costs, using internal projections, when the market prices are not readily available. The adjusted carrying amount of the assets become new cost basis and are depreciated over the assets' remaining useful lives.

Long-lived assets are grouped with other assets and liabilities at the lowest level for which identifiable cash flows are largely independent of the cash flows of other assets and liabilities.

The Company estimates of future cash flows requires management to make assumptions and to apply judgment, including forecasting future sales and gross profits and estimating useful lives of the assets or asset groups. These estimates can be affected by factors such as future sales results, store closure plans, economic conditions, business interruptions, interest rates and government regulations that can be difficult to predict. If actual results and conditions are not consistent with the estimates and assumptions used in its calculations, the Company may be exposed to additional impairments of long-lived assets.

How the Critical Audit Matter Was Addressed in the Audit

Our audit procedures related to the impairment assessment on long-lived assets included the following:

- We have evaluated the assumptions made by management in the determination of residual values and useful lives to ensure that these are consistent with the guidance in ASC 360;
- We have assessed whether indicators of impairment existed as of December 31, 2021 based on our knowledge of the business and the industry;
- We have engaged independent valuation experts to assess the appropriateness of management's impairment model with satisfactory result.
- We have evaluated whether the significant inputs and assumptions used in the model were reasonable.

(iii) Adoption of new lease accounting standard, ASC Topic 842, Leases

Critical Audit Matter Description

As discussed in Note 19 to the consolidated financial statements included in year 2021 Form 20-F, the Company adopted the new lease accounting standard, ASC Topic 842, Leases, from January 1, 2021 since the Company ceased to act as an emerging growth company ("EGC"), using the modified retrospective transition approach through a cumulative-effect adjustment in the period of adoption rather than retrospectively adjusting prior periods and the package of practical expedients.

Table of Contents

The impact of adoption of ASC 842 is a change in accounting policies of operating leases. This changes in accounting policies result in a right-of-use assets RMB 1.2 Billion and lease liability RMB 1.17 Billion (Both current and Non-current) being recognized in the consolidated balance sheet. Because of the judgements which have been applied and the estimates made in determining the impact of ASC 842, this area is considered as a key audit matter.

How the Critical Audit Matter Was Addressed in the Audit

Our audit procedures related to the Adoption of new lease accounting standard, ASC 842, Leases included the following:

- We have assessed the discounting rate applied in determining the lease liabilities
- We have considered the completeness of the lease data by testing the reconciliation of calculations of lease liabilities with other source data, such as list of coffee stores.
- We have verified the accuracy of calculations by agreeing sample of leases data with original agreements.
- We have considered if the disclosure in Form-20F regarding adoption of new lease accounting standard were in compliance with relevant standard.

(Amounts in thousands of RMB and US$, except for number of shares and per share data)

(b) PRC laws and regulations prohibit foreign ownership in certain telecommunication related businesses. To comply with these foreign ownership restrictions, the Company relies on contractual arrangements with the VIE rather than equity ownership in it to use, or otherwise benefit from, certain foreign restricted licenses and permits that the Company may need in the future, such as the internet content provider license, or the ICP license held by the VIE. Despite the lack of technical majority ownership, the Company has effective control of the VIE through a series of contractual agreements (the “VIE Agreements”). The equity interest of the VIE is legally held by PRC individuals (the “Nominee Shareholders”). Through the VIE Agreements, the Nominee Shareholders of the VIE effectively assign all their voting rights underlying their equity interests in the VIE to the Company, and therefore, the Company has the power to direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact the VIE’s economic performance. The Company also has the right to receive economic benefits and obligations to absorb losses from the VIE that potentially could be significant to the VIE. Based on the above, the Company consolidates the VIE in accordance with SEC Regulation S-X Rule 3A-02 and Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 810-10 (“ASC 810-10”), Consolidation: Overall. VIE was established to hold certain foreign restricted licenses and permits which the Company might need in the future, such as the ICP license, the financial results of the VIE have not been material to the Company and are not expected to be material in the future.

The VIE is not involved in the business operations or fund planning of the Group. However, Luckin Coffee Inc. and its subsidiaries may transfer cash to the VIE by loans or capital support, subject to satisfaction of applicable government registration and approval requirements, to satisfy the VIE’s miscellaneous cash demands, such as social insurance fees for employees whose social insurance accounts were registered under the VIE. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the PRC subsidiaries transferred RMB74.1 million, RMB18.8 million and RMB115.5 million (US$16.7 million), respectively, to the VIE by loans or by capital support. In addition, the VIE may transfer cash as repayment of loans or, on an ad hoc basis, as working capital support to the PRC subsidiaries. In 2020, 2021 and 2022, the VIE transferred to the PRC subsidiaries RMB3.3 million, RMB58.8 million and RMB104.1 million (US$15.1 million), respectively. These funds were used for repayment of loans or to support operations of the PRC subsidiaries. In addition, the Group and the VIE do not currently have any plans to distribute earnings or settle amounts owed under the VIE Agreements.

Exclusive Option Agreement

Pursuant to the Exclusive Option Agreement entered into amongst the VIE, the Nominee Shareholders and Beijing WFOE, the Nominee Shareholders granted Beijing WFOE or its designated party, an irrevocable and exclusive right to purchase all or part of the equity interests held by the Nominee Shareholders in the VIE at its sole discretion, to the extent permitted under the PRC laws, at an amount equal to the minimum consideration permitted under the applicable PRC law and administrative regulations. Any proceeds received by the Nominee Shareholders from the exercise of the options shall be remitted to Beijing WFOE or its designated party, to the extent permitted under PRC laws. In addition, the VIE and the Nominee Shareholders have agreed that without prior written consent of the Beijing WFOE, they will not create any pledge or encumbrance on their equity interests in the VIE, except for the pledge placed pursuant to the Share Pledge Agreement, or transfer or otherwise dispose of their equity interests in the VIE. The term of the agreement remains effective as long as each Nominee Shareholder remains as a shareholder of the VIE. Beijing WFOE may terminate the agreement at its sole discretion, whereas under no circumstances may the VIE or the Nominee Shareholders terminate the agreement.

Share Pledge Agreement

Pursuant to the Share Pledge Agreement entered into amongst Beijing WFOE, the VIE, and the Nominee Shareholders, the Nominee Shareholders pledged all of their equity interests in the VIE to Beijing WFOE as collateral to secure their obligations. Beijing WFOE shall have the right to collect dividends generated by the pledged shares during the term of the pledge. If the VIE or the Nominee Shareholders breach their respective contractual obligations under the share pledge agreement, Beijing WFOE, as pledgee, will be entitled to rights, including the right to dispose the pledged equity interests entirely or partially. The Nominee Shareholders agreed not to transfer or otherwise create any encumbrance on their equity interests in the VIE without prior consent of Beijing WFOE. The Equity Pledge Agreement will remain effective until all the obligations have been satisfied in full and the pledged equity interests have been transferred to Beijing WFOE and/or its designee. The Company completed the registration of the pledge of equity interests in the VIE with the relevant office of Administration for the Industry and Commerce in accordance with the PRC Property Rights Law.

(Amounts in thousands of RMB and US$, except for number of shares and per share data)

Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney

Pursuant to the Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney entered into amongst Beijing WFOE, the VIE, and the Nominee Shareholders, each Nominee Shareholder appointed Beijing WFOE to act on behalf of the Nominee Shareholders as exclusive agent and attorney with all respect to all matters concerning the shareholding including but not limited to (1) call and attend shareholders' meetings of the VIE; (2) exercise all the shareholders' rights, including voting rights; and (3) appoint at its sole discretion, a substitute or substitutes to perform any or all of its right of the VIE. The power of attorney remains irrevocable and continuously valid from the date of execution so long as each Nominee Shareholder remains as a shareholder of the VIE unless Beijing WFOE issues adverse instructions in writing. The Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney was subsequently reassigned to the Company.

Master Exclusive Service Agreement

Pursuant to the Master Exclusive Service Agreement entered into between Beijing WFOE and the VIE, Beijing WFOE or its designated entities affiliated has the exclusive right to provide the VIE with technical support and business support services in return for fees equal to 100% of the consolidated net profits of the VIE. Beijing WFOE has sole discretion in determining the service fee charged to the VIE under this agreement. Without Beijing WFOE's prior written consent, the VIE shall not, directly and indirectly, obtain the same or similar services as provided under this agreement from any third party, or enter into any similar agreement with any third party. Beijing WFOE will have the exclusive ownership of all intellectual property rights developed by performance of this agreement. This agreement will remain effective until it is terminated at the discretion of Beijing WFOE or upon the transfer of all the shares of the VIE to Beijing WFOE and/or a third party designated by Beijing WFOE.

The Company is obligated and hereby undertakes to provide unlimited financial support to the VIE, to the extent permissible under the applicable PRC law and regulations, whether or not any such operational loss is actually incurred. The Company will forego the right to seek repayment in the event the VIE are unable to repay such funding.

Business Cooperation Agreement

Pursuant to the Business Cooperation Agreement entered into amongst Beijing WFOE, the VIE and the Nominee Shareholders, the VIE and the Nominee Shareholders agreed and covenanted that, without obtaining Beijing WFOE's written consent, the VIE shall not, and the Nominee Shareholders shall cause the VIE not to, engage in any transaction which may materially affect the VIE's assets, obligations, rights or operation. The VIE shall accept, and the Nominee Shareholders shall cause the VIE to accept, suggestions raised by Beijing WFOE over the employee engagement and replacement, daily operation, dividend distribution and financial management systems of the VIE. The Business Cooperation Agreement will remain effective until it is terminated at the discretion of Beijing WFOE or upon the transfer of all the shares of the VIE to Beijing WFOE and/or its designated party.

In the opinion of the Group's management and PRC counsel, (i) the ownership structure of the VIE is not in violation with any existing PRC laws and regulations in any material respect; and (ii) each of the VIE Agreements is valid, legally binding and enforceable to each party of such agreements and will not result in any violation of PRC laws or regulations currently in effect.

However, the Group's PRC legal counsel has also advised that there are substantial uncertainties regarding the interpretation and application of current and future PRC laws, regulations and rules. Accordingly, the PRC regulatory authorities may take a view that is contrary to the opinion of the Group's PRC legal counsel.

Uncertainties in the PRC legal system could cause the relevant regulatory authorities to find the current VIE Agreements and businesses to be in violation of any existing or future PRC laws or regulations. If the Company, Beijing WFOE or any of its current or future VIE are found in violation of any existing or future laws or regulations, or fail to obtain or maintain any of the required permits or approvals, the relevant PRC regulatory authorities would have broad discretion in dealing with such violations, which may include but not limited to, confiscating the income of the primary beneficiary, and the VIE, revoking the business licenses or operating licenses of the primary beneficiary, and VIE, shutting down the Group's servers, discontinuing or placing restrictions or onerous conditions on the Group's operations, requiring the Group to undergo a costly and disruptive restructuring or enforcing actions that could be harmful to the Group's business. Any of these actions could affect the legality and enforceability of the contractual arrangements with the VIE and, consequently, cause the primary beneficiary to lose the rights to direct the activities of the VIE or the right to receive their economic benefits and the ability to consolidate the financial results of the VIE.

There are no assets that are pledged or collateralized for the VIE's obligations and which can only be used to settle the VIE's obligations, except for registered capital. Relevant PRC laws and regulations restrict the VIE from transferring a portion of their net assets, equivalent to the balance of its share capital and statutory reserve, to the Company in the form of loans and advances or cash dividends. Please refer to Note 11 for disclosure of restricted net assets. As the VIE is incorporated as limited liability company under the PRC Company Law, creditors of the VIE do not have recourse to the general credit of the Company for any of the liabilities of the VIE. There were no other pledges or collateralization of the VIE's assets.

The following table sets forth the assets, liabilities, results of operations and changes in cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash of the consolidated VIE structured by the Contractual Agreements:

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

(b) Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group include the financial statements of the Company, its subsidiaries and the VIE for which the Company is the primary beneficiary. All significant inter-company transactions and balances between the Company, its subsidiaries and the VIE have been eliminated upon consolidation.

(c) Non-controlling interests

For the Group's non-wholly owned subsidiaries, a non-controlling interest is recognized to reflect the portion of equity that is not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the Group. Non-controlling interests are classified as a separate line item in the equity section of the Group's consolidated balance sheets and have been separately disclosed in the Group's consolidated statements of comprehensive (loss)/income to distinguish the interests from that of the Group.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(d) Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date and revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Accounting estimates reflected in the Group's consolidated financial statements include, but not limited to, estimates for allowance for credit losses of accounts receivable and other receivables, inventory provision, and short-term investments, useful lives and impairment of long-lived assets, revenue recognized from breakage amount, refund liability, accounting for deferred income taxes and uncertain tax benefits, valuation allowance for deferred tax assets, fair value of share-based payments, provision of contingent liabilities, and valuations for derivative financial instruments, convertible senior preferred shares and convertible senior notes. Changes in facts and circumstances may result in revised estimates. Actual results could differ from those estimates due to risks and uncertainties, including uncertainty in the current economic environment due to the global COVID-19 pandemic, and as such, differences may be material to the consolidated financial statements.

(e) Foreign currency

The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries incorporated outside of the PRC is the United States dollar ("US$"), the HongKong dollar ("HKD"), or the Singapore dollar ("SGD"), while the functional currency of the PRC entities in the Group is Chinese Renminbi ("RMB") as determined based on ASC 830, "Foreign Currency Matters".

The financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries incorporated outside of the PRC are translated from the functional currency to the reporting currency, the RMB. The Group uses the average exchange rate for the year and the exchange rate at the balance sheet date to translate the operating results and financial position, respectively. Equity accounts other than earnings generated in current year are translated into RMB at the appropriate historical rates. Translation differences are recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income, a component of shareholders' equity.

Foreign currency transactions denominated in currencies other than the functional currencies are translated into the functional currencies using the exchange rates prevailing on the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currencies using the applicable exchange rates at the balance sheet dates. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical costs in foreign currency are translated into the functional currencies using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Exchange gains and losses are included in the consolidated statements of comprehensive (loss)/income.

(f) Convenience translation

Amounts in US$ are presented for the convenience of the reader and are translated at the noon buying rate of US$1.00 to RMB6.8972 on December 30, 2022, the last business day in fiscal year 2022, representing the noon buying rate set forth in the H.10 statistical release of the U.S. Federal Reserve Board. No representation is made that the RMB amounts could have been, or could be converted, realized or settled into US$ at such rate or at any other rate.

(g) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of demand deposits, highly-liquid investments placed with banks which are unrestricted as to withdrawal or use, and have original maturities of three months or less.

(h) Restricted cash

Restricted cash is reported separately on the face of the Consolidated Balance Sheets and is included in the total cash and cash equivalents, and restricted cash in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. The Group's restricted cash mainly represents security deposits held in bank accounts for bank guarantee letters and prepaid card business. Restricted cash is classified as current and non-current based on the duration of the restriction.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(i) Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable represents the amounts that the Group has an unconditional right to consideration. Accounts receivable that are ultimately deemed to be uncollectible, and for which collection efforts have been exhausted, are written off against the allowance for doubtful accounts. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, bad debt allowance for the Gourp's account receivable was RMB0.8 million and RMB0.2 million (US$0.03 million), respectively.

(j) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost of inventory are determined using the weighted average method. The Company recorded inventory reserves to write down the cost of inventory to the estimated net realizable value due to obsolete and slow-moving inventories, which is dependent upon factors such as historical and forecasted consumer demand, and application of the specific identification method. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, inventory reserves were RMB5.6 million and RMB33.4 million (US$4.8 million), respectively. Write downs are recorded in cost of materials in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive (Loss)/Income.

(k) Property and equipment

Property and equipment primarily consist of office buildings, store operating equipment, mechanical equipment, leasehold improvements, office equipments and others. Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any recorded impairment. Property and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, as follows:

Category	Estimated useful life
Store operating equipment	5 years
Office equipment and others	3-5 years
Leasehold improvements	Over the shorter of lease term or the estimated useful lives of the assets
Mechanical equipment	10 years
Office buildings	40-50 years

Direct costs that are related to the construction of property and equipment and incurred in connection with bringing the assets to their intended use are capitalized as construction in progress. Construction in progress is transferred to specific property and equipment items and the depreciation of these assets commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Repair and maintenance costs are charged to expense as incurred, whereas the costs of betterments that extend the useful life of property and equipment are capitalized as additions to the related assets. Retirements, sale and disposals of assets are recorded by removing the cost, accumulated depreciation and relevant impairment, with any resulting gain or loss reflected in the consolidated statements of comprehensive (loss)/income.

(l) Expected Credit Losses

The Group's account receivable, receivables from online payment platforms, other receivables and other certain financial assets are within the scope of ASU No. 2016-13. The Group maintains an estimated allowance for credit losses to reduce them to the amount that it believes will be collected. When developing an estimation of expected credit losses, the Gourp applies the historical loss experience with appropriate adjustment. The Gourp consider available information relevant to assessing the collectability of cash flows. This information may include internal information, external information, or a combination of both relating to past events, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. The Gourp adjusts the allowance percentage periodically when there are significant differences between estimated bad debts and actual bad debts. If there is strong evidence indicating that these financial assets are likely to be unrecoverable, the Group also makes specific allowance in the period in which a loss is determined to be probable. The balance of these financial assets is written off after all collection efforts have been exhausted

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(m) Impairment of long-lived assets other than goodwill

The Group evaluates its long-lived assets, including property and equipment with finite lives, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances, such as a significant adverse change to market conditions that indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be fully recoverable. When these events occur, the Group evaluates the recoverability of long-lived assets by comparing the carrying amount of the assets to the future undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of the assets and their eventual disposition. If the sum of the expected undiscounted cash flows of the asset or asset group is less than the carrying amount of the assets or the asset groups, the Group recognizes an impairment loss based on the excess of the carrying amount of the assets or the asset groups over their fair value. Fair value is generally determined by discounting the cash flows expected to be generated by the assets or asset groups based on forecasted future sales and operating costs, using internal projections, when the market prices are not readily available. The adjusted carrying amount of the assets become new cost basis and are depreciated over the assets' remaining useful lives. Long-lived assets are grouped with other assets and liabilities at the lowest level for which identifiable cash flows are largely independent of the cash flows of other assets and liabilities.

The Group estimates of future cash flows requires management to make assumptions and to apply judgment, including forecasting future sales and gross profits and estimating useful lives of the assets or asset groups. These estimates can be affected by factors such as future sales results, store closure plans, economic conditions, business interruptions, interest rates and government regulations that can be difficult to predict. If actual results and conditions are not consistent with the estimates and assumptions used in its calculations, the Group may be exposed to additional impairments of long-lived assets.

For the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, the Group recognized impairment of long-lived assets other than goodwill of RMB71.5 million, RMB21.4 million and RMB221.8 million (US$32.2 million), respectively.

Impairment loss of long-lived assets mainly represented RMB46.7 million for the asset group related to Luckin Pop Mini, RMB12.8 million for the Linefriends food licensing and RMB9.8 million for the asset group related to store operating equipment and others for the year ended December 31, 2020, RMB21.4 million for the asset group related to store operating equipment and others for the year ended December 31, 2021, and RMB221.8 million for the asset group related to Luckin Coffee EXPRESS machines for the year ended December 31, 2022.

(n) Derivative financial instrument

All contracts that meet the definition of a derivative are recognized on the Group's consolidated balance sheets as either assets or liabilities and recorded at fair value. The Group's derivative financial instruments primarily consisted of derivative asset bifurcated from the New Notes (see Note 12 Convertible Senior Notes for details). Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognized in the Group's consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive (loss)/income as they were not qualified for hedge accounting. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, there was no balance of the derivative instruments.

(o) Fair value of financial instruments

Accounting guidance defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurement for assets and liabilities required or permitted to be recorded at fair value, the Group considers the principal or most advantageous market in which it would transact and it considers assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability.

Accounting guidance establishes a three-tier fair value hierarchy that requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. A financial instrument's categorization within the fair value hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Level 1 — Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 — Other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.

Level 3 — Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity.

ASC 820 describes three main approaches to measuring the fair value of assets and liabilities: (1) market approach; (2) income approach; and (3) cost approach. The market approach uses prices and other relevant information generated from market transactions involving identical or comparable assets or liabilities. The income approach uses valuation techniques to convert future amounts to a single present value amount. The measurement is based on the value indicated by current market expectations about those future amounts. The cost approach is based on the amount that would currently be required to replace an asset.

The Group's financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash, accounts payable, receivables from online payment platforms, accounts receivable, other receivables and payables, and convertible senior notes. Cash equivalents and security deposits held in bank accounts for bank guarantee letters which is included in restricted cash are measured at fair value based on the pervasive interest rates in the market, which are also the interest rates as stated in the contracts with the banks. The Group classifies the valuation techniques that use the pervasive interest rates input as Level 2 of fair value measurements. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, cash equivalents aggregately amounted to RMB4,478.4 million and RMB1,966.3million (US$285.1 million), respectively, and security deposits held in bank accounts for bank guarantee letters which is included in restricted cash amounted to RMB58.2 million and RMB7.7 million (US$1.1 million), respectively.

The carrying values of above financial instruments except for cash equivalents and security deposits held in bank accounts for bank guarantee letters which is included in restricted cash are measured at amortized cost, which approximate their fair values due to their short-term maturities. Intangible assets and fixed assets are marked to fair value when an impairment charge is recognized.

(p) Revenue recognition

A description of the principal revenue generating activities of Group is as follows:

Revenues from product sales

The Group offers freshly brewed drinks and other products (including pre-made food, beverage and merchandise items) mainly through its physical self-operated stores, Luckin Coffee EXPRESS and online e-commerce platforms. Total revenues from product sales were RMB3,716.8 million, RMB6,659.2 million and RMB10,223.7 million (US$1,482.3 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively, including revenues from self-operated stores of RMB3,472.8 million, RMB6,192.7 million and RMB9,414.5 million (US$1,365.0 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Revenues from product sales include:

- Revenues from freshly brewed drinks. The Group offers an array of freshly brewed drinks, with a focus on freshly brewed coffee, supplemented with non-coffee drinks such as Luckin Exfreezo series. Net revenues from freshly brewed drinks were RMB3,218.7 million, RMB5,909.7 million and RMB9,079.3 million (US$1,316.4 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.
- Revenues from other products. Other products mainly consist of food and beverage items, such as light meals and various merchandise, including premium instant coffee, inspirational cups and other consumer goods. Net revenues from other products were RMB309.7 million, RMB395.6 million and RMB686.8 million (US$99.6 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.
- Revenues from others. Revenues from others mainly include delivery fees derived from self-operated stores paid by the customers and membership fees collected from the subscribed members. Revenues from others were RMB188.3 million, RMB354.0 million and RMB457.5 million (US$66.3 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Customers place orders for products mainly through the Group's self-developed APP, Weixin mini-program and other third-party platforms with different options to pay through third-party online payment platforms. The Group recognizes revenues at point in time when the Group satisfies its performance obligation upon the control of the promised products are transferred to the customers or distributors. Delivery service is provided if it is a delivery order. Delivery service is determined as an activity to fulfill the Group's promise to transfer the products, rather than another distinct performance obligation as it is performed before the customers obtain control of the products. Revenues represent the amount of consideration that the Group is entitled to, including products settlement price and delivery fees charged to customers, net of value-added tax ("VAT"), surcharges, discounts and returns, if any. There is no significant financing component or variable consideration in the transaction price. The Group reasonably estimates the possibility of return based on the historical experience, and there were no material returns historically. When a customer receives a discount for purchasing a bundle of goods, that discount is allocated proportionately among the performance obligations using the relative stand-alone selling price method. The Group also provides subscription membership service, which provides the members the access to an evolving suite of benefits, such as extra discount, limited-time promotions and special offer on selected product offerings and new products, which represent a single stand-ready obligation. Membership fees are paid for at the time of or in advance of delivering the services. Revenues from such arrangements are recognized over the subscription period on a straight-line basis.

The Group evaluates whether it is appropriate to record the gross amount of product sales and related costs acting as a principal or the net amount acting as an agent. The Group is a principal for the substantial majority of product sales as the Group produces or obtains control of the specified goods before they are transferred to the customers, except for a portion of revenue from products sold on the Group's own e-commerce platform, for which the Group's obligation is to facilitate third-party merchants in fulfilling their performance obligation for the goods displayed on the Group's own e-commerce platform acting as an agent. Revenue from product sales as an agent of RMB3.7 million, RMB2.0 million and RMB1.2 million (US$0.2 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Revenues from partnership stores

The Group cooperates with selective retail partners to operate the partnership stores. Under retail partnership model, the Group sells materials such as coffee beans, milk, food and related products to retail partners and shares simplified and standardized operation experience and provides use right of brand name and sales and supply chain management in exchange for a profit-sharing on retail sales. Retail partners are responsible for pre-opening capital investments and operating costs.

Revenues from partnership stores mainly consist of sales of materials, equipment and store construction-related materials to the partnership stores, profit-sharing revenue from the partnership stores for using the Luckin Coffee or Luckin Tea brand as well as integrated store operation solution, and other services including delivery services and pre-opening services.

(p) Revenue recognition (continued)

For material sales, the Group's performance obligation is to transfer required materials at fixed unit price to retail partners. The Group provides allowance for materials sales as consideration payable to retail partners when the products sold in partnership stores to customers at lower price than the cost of materials with certain markup to cater for the Group's promotion strategy. Allowance for partnership stores is accounted for as a reduction of the transaction price, which is usually determined upon the completion of each order. Therefore, sales of materials are generally recognized on the partnership stores' acceptance of materials, the settlement price is then deducted by the allowance provided to partnership stores that is determined upon the products are sold in partnership stores, if any. Revenue from material sales to partnership stores were RMB227.2 million, RMB834.7 million and RMB2,011.2 million (US$291.6 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

For equipment and store construction-related materials sales, the Group's performance obligation is to transfer equipment at a fixed consideration with one-year warrant and store construction-related materials to retail partners. The one-year warrant is not a distinct performance obligation as it is intended to provide by the Group's suppliers to the customers an assurance that the equipment complies with agreed-upon functionality described in the contract. Revenue from sales of equipment which needs installation and testing for the intended use is recognized at point in time when equipment is installed and tested to be ready to use. Revenue from sales of store construction-related materials is recognized at point in time upon receipt. Revenue from equipment and store construction-related materials sales to partnership stores were RMB43.3 million, RMB178.8 million and RMB278.1 million (US$40.3 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively, and warrant liability was immaterial.

For profit-sharing, the Group provides the integrated store operation solution, which includes the right to use brand name of Luckin Coffee or Luckin Tea, products and brand name promotion activities, unified ordering and payment collections platform, and basic operation guidance on store management and sanitary conditions, etc., in exchange for the profit-sharing based on the gross profit of retail sales. The Group recognizes the profit-sharing revenue from partnership stores at a variable consideration that is based upon partnership stores' monthly gross profits which are determined at the end of each month. The Group offers a price concession to its retail partners by waiving the new stores' profit-sharing for a period of time ranging from the first one month to three months, which is subject to the Group's adjustment. Between January to June 2020, during the outbreak of COVID-19, the Group waived substantially all the profit-sharing from partnership stores. Price concession for profit-sharing is accounted for as a reduction of the transaction price and deducts the revenue directly. Revenue from partnership stores' profit-sharing were RMB12.8 million, RMB144.8 million and RMB427.9 million (US$62.0 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

The Group also provides other services including pre-opening services such as design of store decoration and provision of decoration materials and delivery service, which have distinct value to partnership stores and are recognized upon completion of the respective performance obligations. Other revenues from partnership stores were RMB33.3 million, RMB147.8 million and RMB352.1 million (US$51.0 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

When either party to a revenue contract has performed, the Group presents the contract in the consolidated balance sheet as a contract asset or a contract liability, depending on the relationship between the Group's performance and the customer's payment. The Group presents any unconditional rights to consideration separately as a receivable. The Group does not have material contract asset. The balance of accounts receivable, net of RMB0.8 million and RMB0.2 million (US$0.03 million) allowance for doubtful accounts, were RMB38.6 million and RMB58.8 million (US$8.5 million) as of December 31, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Contract liability is mainly related to prepaid coupons to be provided to customers. Customers pay in advance for prepaid coupons. All prepaid coupons are stored in the "Coffee Wallet" of the customers' registered accounts for future use with a three-year validity period. Cash received from the sales of prepaid coupons are recognized as deferred revenues which are contract liabilities under ASC 606 and recognized as revenue when the customer redeems the coupons. However, a portion of the contract liability recognized as revenue may relate to coupons that the Company expects to expire, which is considered as a breakage amount. When the Company determines that it expects to be entitled to breakage, the estimated breakage is recognized as revenue in proportion to the pattern of rights exercised by the customer. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, the balance of deferred revenues was RMB96.2 million and RMB97.4 million (US$14.1 million), respectively. Majority of the balance of deferred revenue as of December 31, 2021 was recognized as revenue in the year of 2022.

(q) Costs of materials, store rental and other operating costs

Costs of materials consisted primarily of cost for coffee beans and coffee condiments, pre-made food and beverage items, packaging, supplies and warehouse. Store rental and other operating costs consisted primarily of rental expense of stores, staff costs, and utilities, etc.

(r) Delivery expenses

Delivery expenses are the delivery service fee for delivery orders. The Group incurred delivery expenses of RMB414.8 million, RMB819.5 million and RMB1,373.2 million (US$199.1 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively. Delivery expenses are separated out of sales and marketing expenses from the fiscal year 2021 to optimize the disclosure and better reflect the nature of expenses. This reclassification is retrospectively applied.

(s) Sales and marketing expenses

Sales and marketing expenses consisted primarily of advertising expenditure, commission fees for third-party delivery platforms and subcontract service fee.

Advertising expenditures are expensed when incurred and are included in sales and marketing expenses, which amounted to RMB354.5 million, RMB243.7 million and RMB338.0 million (US$49.0 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

(t) General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses consist primarily of payroll and related expenses for employees involved in general corporate functions, research and development expenses, share-based compensation, professional fees and daily office expenses and rental fees for general corporate functions.

Research and development expenses are included in general and administrative expenses, which are mainly payroll expenses, employee benefits, and other headcount-related expenses associated with platform development and data analysis to support the Group's business operations. The Group charged RMB265.5 million, RMB251.7 million and RMB301.4 million (US$43.7 million) of research and development costs to expense for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

(u) Store preopening and other expenses

Store preopening expenses mainly include store rental costs during the start-up of new stores. Other expenses include lease exit costs, such as the write offs of prepaid store rental costs, deposits and leasehold improvements. Costs incurred in connection with the start-up and closure of stores are expensed as incurred.

(v) Leases

The Group enters into lease agreements to have leasing for self-operated stores, office spaces, and other corporate assets that the Group utilizes.

The Group categorizes leases with contractual terms longer than twelve months as either operating or finance lease. However, the Group did not enter into finance leases for any of the periods presented.

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is or contains a lease if it conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange of a consideration. To assess whether a contract is or contains a lease, the Group assess whether the contract involves the use of an identified asset, whether it has the right to obtain substantially all the economic benefits from the use of the asset and whether it has the right to control the use of the asset. The rent under the majority of the current self-operated store lease agreements is generally payable in one of three ways: (i) fixed rent; (ii) the higher of a fixed base rent or a percentage of the store's sales; or (iii) a percentage of the store's sales.

Right-of-use ("ROU") assets represent the Group's rights to use underlying assets for the lease term and lease liabilities represent the Group's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Operating lease ROU assets and lease liabilities are recognized at commencement date. Lease expense for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Operating lease ROU assets

The right-of-use assets are initially measured at cost, which comprise the initial amounts of the lease liabilities adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct costs incurred and less any lease incentive received.

Operating lease liabilities

Lease liabilities are initially measured at the present value of the outstanding lease payments at the commencement date, discounted using the discount rate for the leases. As most of the Group's leases do not provide an implicit rate, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at lease commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liabilities comprise fixed lease payments, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate and any exercise price under a purchase option that the Group is reasonably certain to exercise. The Group generally has no renewal options and material residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants for its leases.

Lease liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. They are re-measured when there is a change in future lease payments, if there is a change in the estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or if there is any change in the Group assessment of option purchases, contract extensions or termination options.

Asset retirement obligations

The Group recognizes an asset and a liability for the fair value of required asset retirement obligations ("ARO") when such obligations are incurred. The Group's AROs are primarily associated with leasehold improvements, which, at the end of a lease, it is contractually obligated to remove in order to comply with the lease agreement. At the inception of a lease with such conditions, the Group records an ARO liability and a corresponding capital asset in an amount equal to the estimated fair value of the obligation. As such, the Group amortizes the asset on a straight-line basis over the lease term and accretes the liability to its nominal value using the effective interest method over the lease term. Upon satisfaction of the ARO conditions, any difference between the recorded ARO liability and the actual retirement costs incurred is recognized as a gain or loss in store rental and other operating expenses on its consolidated statements of comprehensive income/(loss).

(w) Government subsidies

Government subsidies primarily consist of financial subsidies received from provincial and local governments for operating a business in their jurisdictions and compliance with specific policies promoted by the local governments. There are no defined rules and regulations to govern the criteria necessary for companies to receive such benefits, and the amount of financial subsidy is determined at the discretion of the relevant government authorities. The government subsidies with no further conditions to be met are recognized as income in "Other income/(expenses), net" or as a reduction of specific operating costs and expenses for which the grants are intended to compensate. If the government subsidies are related to an asset, it is recognized as a deduction of the carrying amount of the asset when it is probable that the conditions are met and then recognized ratably over the expected useful life of the related asset as a reduction to the related amortization or depreciation in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income/(loss). Government subsidies of RMB26.3 million, RMB47.1million and RMB78.0 million (US$11.3 million) were recorded in "Other income/(expenses), net" for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(x) Income taxes

The Group follows the liability method of accounting for income taxes in accordance with ASC 740 (“ASC 740”), Income Taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates that will be in effect in the period in which the differences are expected to reverse. The Group records a valuation allowance to offset deferred tax assets if based on the weight of available evidence, it is more-likely-than-not that some portion, or all, of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The effect on deferred taxes of a change in tax rate is recognized in tax expense in the period that includes the enactment date of the change in tax rate.

The Group accounts for uncertainties in income taxes in accordance with ASC 740. Interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefit recognized in accordance with ASC 740 are classified in the consolidated statements of comprehensive (loss)/income as income tax expenses. No material interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefit were recorded for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022.

(y) Employee benefit expenses

As stipulated by the regulations of the PRC, full-time employees of the Group are entitled to various government statutory employee benefit plans, including medical insurance, maternity insurance, workplace injury insurance, unemployment insurance, pension benefits and housing provident fund through a PRC government-mandated multi-employer defined contribution plan. The Group is required to make contributions to the plan and accrues for these benefits based on certain percentages of the qualified employees’ salaries. The total expenses the Group incurred for the plan were RMB139.6 million, RMB247.3 million and RMB333.5 million (US$48.4 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

(z) Comprehensive (loss)/income

Comprehensive (loss)/income is defined as the (decrease)/increase in equity of the Group during a period from transactions and other events and circumstances excluding transactions resulting from investments by owners and distributions to owners. Amongst other disclosures, ASC 220, Comprehensive Income, requires that all items that are required to be recognized under current accounting standards as components of comprehensive (loss)/income be reported in a financial statement that is displayed with the same prominence as other financial statements. For each of the periods presented, the Group’s comprehensive (loss)/income included net (loss)/income and foreign currency translation adjustments that are presented in the consolidated statements of comprehensive (loss)/income.

(aa) Segment reporting

The Group follows ASC 280, Segment Reporting. Certain members of the Group’s management team, acting as the chief operating decision-maker, review the consolidated financial results when making decisions about allocating resources and assessing the performance of the Group as a whole and hence, the Group has only one reportable segment. The Group operates and manages its business as a single segment. As the Group’s long-lived assets are substantially all located in the PRC and substantially all the Group’s revenues are derived from within the PRC, no geographical segments are presented.

(bb) Net (loss)/income per share

In accordance with ASC 260, Earnings per Share, basic (loss)/income per share is computed by dividing net (loss)/income attributable to ordinary shareholders by the weighted average number of ordinary shares and participating securities during the period. Holders of Class A ordinary shares and Class B ordinary shares have the same dividend rights. For the calculation of diluted net (loss)/income per share, the weighted average number of ordinary shares is adjusted by the effect of dilutive potential ordinary shares, including unvested restricted share units (“RSUs”) and ordinary shares issuable upon the exercise of outstanding share options using the treasury stock method. The effect mentioned above is not included in the calculation of the diluted (loss)/income per share when inclusion of such effect would be anti-dilutive.

(cc) Share-based compensation

The Group applies ASC 718, Compensation-Stock Compensation (“ASC 718”), to account for its employee share-based payments. In accordance with ASC 718, the Group determines whether an award should be classified and accounted for as a liability award or equity award. All the Group’s share-based awards to employees and directors were classified as equity awards and are recognized in the consolidated financial statements based on their grant date fair values. The Group recognizes share-based compensation expenses for equity awards to employees with a performance condition based on the probable outcome of that performance condition. Compensation expense is recognized over the requisite service period for each separately vesting portion of the award, and only when it is probable that the performance condition, if any, will be achieved. The Group accounts for forfeitures as they occur. The Group issues new shares of common stock upon exercise of stock options and the vesting of restricted share units.

(dd) Comparative information

Certain items in prior years’ consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current period’s presentation to facilitate comparison.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(ee) Recent accounting pronouncements

Accounting standards or accounting standards updates that have been issued or proposed by FASB that do not require adoption until a future date are not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements upon adoption. The Company does not discuss recent pronouncements that are not anticipated to have an impact on or are unrelated to its consolidated financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or disclosures.

(ff) Revision of Previously Issued Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company has revised its previously announced unaudited financial statements as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2021 to reclassify the treatment of the foreign exchange impact of a planned capital reduction to transfer funds out of China for the settlement of overseas debt, which had been recorded in the Company's foreign exchange gain, net. Following the revision, the Company has made adjustments in each subsequent period, including to its previously announced unaudited financial statements as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2021 and the audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021. The Company has determined that it is more appropriate under ASC830 to present the foreign exchange impact of the capital reduction transaction in other comprehensive income, rather than in foreign exchange gain, net. The impact of the reclassification was a RMB107.7 million reduction to the Company's foreign exchange gain, net, for the six months ended June 30, 2021, the nine months ended September 30, 2021 and the year ended December 31, 2021, respectively. Correspondingly, the Company's accumulated other comprehensive income as of June 30, 2021, September 30, 2021, December 31, 2021, March 31, 2022 and June 30, 2022 increased by the same amount, respectively. The reclassification was non-cash and non-operating in nature and did not have any impact on the Company's operating (loss)/income, assets or liabilities, or consolidated statements of cash flows. The Company assessed the effects of the above reclassification in the prior periods' financial statements and determined that it was not material to any of the Company's prior interim and annual financial statements.

The following tables present the impact of the reclassification to prior period financials:

3. PRINCIPAL RISKS

(a) Credit risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Group to significant concentration of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable and receivables from online payment platforms. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, the aggregate amounts of cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash of RMB3,402.9 million and RMB3,316.8 million (US$480.9 million), respectively, were held at major financial institutions located in the PRC and US$482.5 million and US$31.5 million (RMB217.6 million), respectively, were deposited with major financial institutions located outside the PRC. Management believes that these financial institutions are of high credit quality and continually monitors the credit worthiness of these financial institutions. On May 1, 2015, China's new Deposit Insurance Regulation came into effect, pursuant to which banking financial institutions, such as commercial banks, established in China are required to purchase deposit insurance for deposits in RMB and in foreign currency placed with them. Such Deposit Insurance Regulation would not be effective in providing complete protection for the Group's accounts, as its aggregate deposits are much higher than the compensation limit. However, the Group believes that the risk of failure of any of these Chinese banks is remote. Bank failure is uncommon in China and the Group believes that those Chinese banks that hold the Group's cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash are financially sound based on public available information.

Accounts receivable and receivables from online payment platforms are unsecured and denominated in RMB. Accounts receivable represents the amounts that the Group has an unconditional right to consideration. Receivables from online payment platforms are derived when the third-party payment platforms, on behalf of the Company, collect the proceeds of sales made by the Group to its customers. They are exposed to credit risk. The risk is mitigated by credit evaluations the Group performs on the selected corporate customers and online payment platforms that are highly reputable, and the deposits from partners as guarantees. There has been no default of payments in history.

(b) Business, customer, political, social and economic risks

The Group participates in a dynamic and competitive industry and believes that changes in the following areas could have a material adverse effect on the Group's future financial position, results of operations or cash flows:

- (i) Supplier risk — The Group's operations rely on some suppliers for its major raw materials including coffee beans, dairy, sugar and syrup, pre-made products and coffee machine equipment. There can be no assurance that the Group will be able to secure the raw materials, pre-made products and coffee machine equipment supply from these suppliers. Any termination or suspension of the supply arrangements, any change in cooperation terms, or the deterioration of cooperation relationships with these suppliers may materially and adversely affect the Group's results of operations.

Suppliers accounting for 10% or more of total cost of purchased materials were:

Supplier	For the year ended December 31,
	2020 RMB	2021 RMB	2022 RMB	USS
A	196,886	*	*	*
B	194,838	*	*	*

* Accounts for less than 10% during the period.

- (ii) Customer risk – The success of the Group's business going forward will rely in part on the Group's ability to continue to obtain and expand business from existing customers while also attracting new customers. No customer accounted for 10% or more of the Group's revenues for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022.

(iii) Economic risk – The Group's operations could be adversely affected by significant political, economic and social uncertainties in the PRC. Although the PRC government has been pursuing economic reform policies for more than 20 years, no assurance can be given that the PRC government will continue to pursue such policies or that such policies may not be significantly altered, especially in the event of a change in leadership, social or political disruption or unforeseen circumstances affecting the PRC political, economic and social conditions. There is also no guarantee that the PRC government's pursuit of economic reforms will be consistent or effective.

(c) Foreign currency exchange rate risk

From July 2005, the RMB is permitted to fluctuate within a narrow and managed band against a basket of certain foreign currencies. The appreciation/ (depreciation) of the US$ against RMB was approximately (6.3)%, (2.3)% and 8.2% for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively. The functional currency and the reporting currency of the Company, Luckin BVI and Luckin HK, Luckin Roasting and Luckin Roastery are the US$ and the RMB, respectively. The functional currency of the PRC subsidiaries and the VIE is the RMB. All of the Group's revenues and costs are denominated in RMB, while a portion of cash and cash equivalents are denominated in U.S. dollars. Any significant revaluation of RMB may materially and adversely affect the Group's cash flows, revenues, earnings and financial position in U.S. dollars.

(d) Currency convertibility risk

The Group transacts all of its business in RMB, which is not freely convertible into foreign currencies. On January 1, 1994, the PRC government abolished the dual rate system and introduced a single rate of exchange as quoted daily by the People's Bank of China (the "PBOC"). However, the unification of the exchange rates does not imply that the RMB may be readily convertible into US$ or other foreign currencies. All foreign exchange transactions continue to take place either through the PBOC or other banks authorized to buy and sell foreign currencies at the exchange rates quoted by the PBOC. Approval of foreign currency payments by the PBOC or other institutions requires submitting a payment application form together with suppliers' invoices, shipping documents and signed contracts.

(e) Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to interest rate risk on its interest-bearing assets and liabilities. As part of its asset and liability risk management, the Group reviews and takes appropriate steps to manage its interest rate exposures on its interest-bearing assets and liabilities. The Group has not been exposed to material risks due to changes in market interest rates, and not used any derivative financial instruments to manage the interest risk exposure during the years presented.

Depreciation expense was RMB483.3 million, RMB465.2 million and RMB391.7 million (US$56.8 million) for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

In June 2018, the Group entered into a project cooperation agreement and a strategic cooperation agreement with Xiamen municipal government and UCAR Inc. (collectively as the “Tri-Party Agreement”), pursuant to which the Group acquired the new headquarters building under favorable pricing terms that came with commitments, including meeting certain requirements around tax contribution, operating performance and capital investments. As of the date of this annual report, the Group is in the process of obtaining the real property ownership certificate for its headquarters, and is currently in discussions with the Xiamen municipal government to agree on a solution, including to enter into a new cooperation agreement.

Impairment for property and equipment was RMB80.6 million and RMB176.5 million (US$25.6 million) as of December 31, 2021 and 2022, respectively. It mainly consisted of:

- (1) RMB54.0 million and RMB167.1 million (US$24.2 million) for the asset group related to Luckin Coffee EXPRESS as of December 31, 2021 and 2022, respectively. (See Note 2(m));
- (2) RMB26.5 million and RMB9.3 million (US$1.4 million) for the asset group related to store operating equipment and others as of December 31, 2021 and 2022, respectively (See Note 2(m)).

During the year ended December 31, 2022, impairment for property and equipment of RMB220.7 million (US$32.0 million) was provided, which was mainly related to a full impairment for Luckin Coffee EXPRESS machines due to historical underperformance and updated strategy and business projections for Luckin Coffee EXPRESS machines determined by the management. Impairment provision of RMB107.8 million for Luckin Coffee EXPRESS and RMB 17.0 million for store operating equipment and others were written off.

11. RESTRICTED NET ASSETS

The Company's ability to pay dividends is primarily dependent on the Company receiving distributions of funds from its subsidiaries and VIE. Relevant PRC statutory laws and regulations permit payments of dividends by the Company's PRC subsidiaries only out of their retained earnings, if any, as determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations. The results of operations reflected in the consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP differ from those reflected in the statutory financial statements of the Company's PRC subsidiaries and VIE.

In accordance with the PRC Regulations on Enterprises with Foreign Investment and the articles of association of the Company's PRC subsidiaries, a foreign-invested enterprise established in the PRC is required to provide certain statutory reserves, namely the general reserve fund, the enterprise expansion fund and the staff welfare and bonus fund which are appropriated from net profit as reported in the enterprise's PRC statutory accounts. A foreign-invested enterprise is required to allocate at least 10% of its annual net profit to the general reserve until such reserve has reached 50% of its respective registered capital based on the enterprise's PRC statutory accounts. Appropriations to the enterprise expansion fund and the staff welfare and bonus fund are at the discretion of the board of directors for all foreign-invested enterprises. The aforementioned reserves can only be used for specific purposes and are not distributable as cash dividends. The PRC subsidiaries were established as foreign-invested enterprises and therefore, are subject to the above mandated restrictions on distributable profits. For the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, profit appropriation to statutory reserve for the Group's entities incorporated in the PRC was approximately RMB0.2 million, RMB2.0 million and RMB33.0 million (US$4.8 million), respectively. No appropriation to other reserve funds was made for any of the periods presented.

Foreign exchange and other regulations in the PRC may further restrict the Company's VIE from transferring funds to the Company in the form of dividends, loans and advances. Amounts restricted include paid-in capital and statutory reserves of the Company's PRC subsidiaries and the VIE, as determined pursuant to PRC generally accepted accounting principles. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, restricted net assets of the Company's PRC subsidiaries and the VIE were RMB6,606.9 million and RMB7,647.7 million (US$1,108.8 million), respectively.

12. CONVERTIBLE SENIOR NOTES

On January 14, 2020, the Company closed the offering of US$400 million in aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes due 2025 (the "Primary Notes Offering") and on January 17, 2020, the Company completed the issuance of an additional US$60 million in aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes due 2025 (the "Additional Notes Offering" and the notes offered under the Primary Notes Offering and the Additional Notes Offering collectively, the "Notes"), both of which were with a stated annual interest rate of 0.75%. The Company received aggregate net proceeds of approximately US$449.7 million from the Primary Notes Offering and the Additional Notes Offering.

The Notes did not have any embedded conversion option which shall be bifurcated and separately accounted for as a derivative under ASC 815, nor did they contain a cash conversion feature. The Company accounted for the Notes in accordance with ASC 470, as a single debt instrument. No beneficial conversion feature (the "BCF") was recognized as the set conversion price for the Notes was greater than the fair value of the ADSs price at date of issuance.

The Company early adopted ASU No. 2020-06 using a modified retrospective method of transition. In applying the modified retrospective method, the Company should apply the guidance to transactions outstanding as of the beginning of the fiscal year in which the amendments are adopted. Transactions that were settled (or expired) during prior reporting periods are unaffected. The convertible senior notes issued on January 14, 2020 automatically became immediately due and payable as a normal liability upon the appointment of the Joint Provisional Liquidators (the "JPLs") on July 15, 2020 which constituted an event of default ("Event of Default") pursuant to the indenture with respect to the Notes (see below). Therefore, the adoption of ASU 2020-06 does not have an impact on the Notes which has turned to a normal liability upon the default event before the beginning of the fiscal year 2021.

Upon the occurrence of this Event of Default, 100% of the principal of, and accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes automatically became immediately due and payable.

Pursuant to the indenture with respect to the Notes, the Company was obligated to pay additional interest at a rate equal to 0.5% per annum of the principal amount of the Notes outstanding for: (1) each day during the six-month period beginning on, and including, the date that is six months after the last date of original issuance of the Notes, as the Company failed to timely file any document or report that it is required to file with the Commission pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, as applicable ((i) after giving effect to all applicable grace periods thereunder and (ii) other than reports on Form 6-K); and (2) for so long as the restrictive legend on the Notes has not been removed as of the 380th day after the last date of original issuance of the Notes. The Company accrued the additional interest payable in the amount of US$1.1 million and US$2.0 million and charged against the interest expenses accordingly during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2021, respectively.

Due to the Event of Default, 100% of the principal of the Notes in the amount of US$460 million, the unpaid interest in the amount of US$3.3 million and US$6.8 million, and the additional interest in the amount of US$1.1 million and US$3.1 million were due and accrued as of December 31, 2020 and 2021, respectively. The Notes balances included the principal, the unpaid interest and the additional interest were recorded as non-current liabilities with total amount of US$464.4 million as of December 31, 2020 and current liabilities with total amount of US$469.9 million as of December 31, 2021. The accrued interest, additional interest and the unamortized issuance cost of the Notes with total amount of US$15.4 million, US$5.5 million and US$0.3 million were charged against the interest expenses in the consolidation statements of comprehensive (loss)/income for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Subsequently in January 2022, a restructuring of the Notes was substantially consummated (as disclosed below), pursuant to which, the Notes were cancelled and the Company issued instructions to distribute certain consideration to all eligible holders of the Notes. The Group derecognized the Notes and recognized newly issued instruments upon the effectiveness of the restructuring in January 2022 and issuance of additional ADSs in April 2022 pursuant to the top-up mechanism of the restructuring. Following the restructuring of the Notes, the originally non-current liabilities recorded under the Notes before was compromised. As of December 31, 2022, the balance of liabilities related to the Notes was nil.

Restructuring of the Notes

On March 16, 2021, the Company announced that it entered into a restructuring support agreement (the “RSA”) with holders of a majority of the Notes in respect of a restructuring of the Company’s financial obligations under the supervision of the JPLs. On September 21, 2021, the Company announced that, in accordance with the terms of the RSA, it had filed a petition and summons for directions in the Cayman Court regarding a scheme of arrangement in respect of the Notes (the “Scheme”), which is a court approved arrangement in the Cayman Islands pursuant to the Companies Act. On December 1, 2021, the Company announced that at a meeting regarding the Scheme held on November 30, 2021, creditors representing approximately 97.7% in aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Notes voted unanimously to approve the Scheme and that accordingly, the Scheme was approved by the requisite majority of creditors. On December 14, 2021, the Company announced that the Cayman Court had sanctioned the Scheme.

Effectiveness of the Restructuring

On January 31, 2022, the Company announced that the Restructuring had been substantially consummated and the effective date of the Restructuring contemplated in the Scheme had occurred on January 28, 2022 (the “Restructuring Effective Date”).

On January 28, 2022, the Notes were cancelled, and, in aggregate, the Company has issued consideration (collectively, the “Scheme Consideration”) totaling US$245.5 million of cash, US$109.9 million of 9.00% Series B Senior Secured Notes due 2027 (the “New Notes”) and 9,527,601 ADSs representing 76,220,808 class A ordinary shares, which included 291,699 ADSs issued on April 4, 2022 pursuant to the top-up mechanism under the Scheme, of which 25,004 ADSs were not claimed by creditors and therefore 200,032 Class A Ordinary Shares underlying such unclaimed ADSs were returned to the Company. The New Notes represent the Company’s only offshore debt securities.

On January 31, 2022, the Company announced that (i) the Restructuring Effective Date occurred on January 28, 2022; (ii) on the Restructuring Effective Date (a) the Notes were cancelled; and (b) the Company issued the Scheme Consideration to all eligible Scheme creditors and the Holding Period Trustee (as applicable), in accordance with the terms of the Scheme.

In August 2022, the Group fully redeemed the New Notes. The aggregate redemption price of the New Notes was US$115.6 million, which constitutes the aggregate principal amount outstanding plus the aggregate accrued interest. The aggregate redemption price was paid from the Group's available offshore cash balance. Following the redemption of the New Notes, US$18.3 million (approximately RMB124.1 million) gain from extinguishment of Series B Senior Secured Notes was recognized in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income/(loss).

According to ASC815, several options were identified and shall be bifurcated from the New Notes and separately accounted for as a derivative with fair value changes to be charged in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income/(loss). Derivative asset bifurcated from the New Notes was US$5.4 million on the date of initial recognition, and marked to fair value of US$4.5 million on the derecognition date, with the fair value loss of approximately US$0.9 million (RMB 6.4 million) recorded in "Fair value changes of derivative asset bifurcated from Series B Senior Secured Notes". The derivative was derecognized as the Group paid off all of the outstanding amounts of the New Notes in August 2022.

13. ORDINARY SHARES

Prior to the completion of the Company's IPO, the outstanding ordinary shares consisted of Ordinary Shares and Angel Shares. Upon the completion of the Company's IPO, 750,000 Ordinary Shares, 1,428,750 Angel Shares, 544,688 Series A Preferred Shares, 279,152 Series B Preferred Shares and 173,182 Series B-1 Preferred Shares were automatically converted into 3,175,772 Class B ordinary shares at the conversion ratio of 1:1 and were divided into 1,587,886,000 shares at the par value of US$0.000002 per share, after the 1-to-500 share split. 15,211 Series B-1 Preferred Shares were automatically converted into 15,211 Class A ordinary shares at the conversion ratio of 1:1 and were divided into 7,605,500 shares at the par value of US$0.000002 per share, after the 1-to-500 share split.

The Company issued an aggregate 33,000,000 ADSs through the IPO, representing 264,000,000 Class A ordinary shares for total proceeds net of underwriting discounts and commissions of US$527.7 million (RMB3,640.9 million). The Company also issued 23,529,412 Class A ordinary shares to Louis Dreyfus Company B.V. at the price of US$2.125 per share, through private placement concurrent with the IPO for total proceeds of US$50 million (RMB345.0 million). In addition, the underwriters exercised their over-allotment option on June 14, 2019 and June 18, 2019. As a result, the Company newly issued an aggregate of 4,950,000 ADSs, representing 39,600,000 Class A ordinary shares for total proceeds net of underwriting discounts and commissions of US$79.5 million (RMB548.0 million).

In November 2019, 310,198,928 Class B ordinary shares were converted into Class A ordinary share at the conversion ratio of 1:1. In December 2019, the Company issued 19,753,888 Class A ordinary shares to The Bank of New York Mellon, the depositary of the Company on the vest of share options to the eligible employees.

On January 9, 2020, the Company issued an aggregate 10,350,000 ADSs through the follow-on offering, representing 82,800,000 Class A ordinary shares (reflecting the full exercise of the over-allotment option by the underwriters to purchase an additional 4,950,000 ADSs) at a public offering price of US$42.00 per ADS for a total for total proceeds net of underwriting discounts and commissions of US$419.5 million (RMB2,888.5 million).

In 2020, 1,132,908,520 Class B ordinary shares were converted into Class A ordinary share at the conversion ratio of 1:1.

In 2021, the Company issued 70,061,136 Class A ordinary shares for the vested options and restricted share units to the eligible employees.

In 2022, the Company issued 76,220,808 Class A ordinary share following the restructuring of the Notes and 53,123,768 Class A ordinary shares for the vested options and restricted share units to the eligible employees, respectively.

The outstanding ordinary shares as of December 31, 2022 consisted of Class A ordinary shares and Class B ordinary shares. Holders of Class A ordinary shares and Class B ordinary shares have the same rights except for voting and conversion rights. Each Class A ordinary share is entitled to one vote; and each Class B ordinary share is entitled to ten votes and is convertible into one Class A ordinary share at any time by the holder thereof. Class A ordinary shares are not convertible into Class B ordinary shares under any circumstances.

14. SENIOR PREFERRED SHARES

On April 15, 2021, the Company entered into an investment agreement (the “Investment Agreement”) with an affiliate of Centurium Capital, as the lead investor, and Joy Capital to raise funds through a private placement, totaling US$240 million from Centurium Capital and US$10 million from Joy Capital, of convertible senior preferred shares of the Company (“Senior Preferred Share(s)”) (collectively, the “Transactions”).

On November 30, 2021, the Company issued 295,384,615 Senior Preferred Shares to the affiliate of Centurium Capital with the proceeds of US$240 million (RMB1,527.4 million) at a subscription price equal to US$0.8125 per share under the Investment Agreement.

On January 7, 2022, the Company issued 12,307,692 Senior Preferred Shares to Joy Capital with the proceeds of US$10 million (RMB63.7 millin) at a subscription price equal to US$0.8125 per share under the Investment Agreement.

The Senior Preferred Shares are with rights, preferences and privileges pursuant to the certificate of designation, some of which are summarized below:

Liquidation Preferences

In the event of any Liquidation (as defined below), the holders of Senior Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding shall be entitled to be paid out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to its shareholders before any distribution or payment out of the assets of the Company shall be made to the holders of junior securities of the Company including ordinary shares by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount in cash equal to the greater of (a) 100% of the original aggregate subscription price of the Senior Preferred Shares held by such holders, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on all such Senior Preferred Shares and (b) the aggregate value that such holders of Senior Preferred Shares would have received had all holders of Senior Preferred Shares, immediately prior to such liquidation, converted all Senior Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding (together with any declared but unpaid dividends thereon) into the Class A ordinary shares or the ADSs (the “Conversion Securities”) at the applicable conversion price.

“Liquidation” is defined as the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary. If there shall occur any reclassification, statutory exchange, reorganization, recapitalization, consolidation or merger involving the Company with or into another person (excluding a merger solely for the purpose of changing the Company’s jurisdiction of incorporation), then any distribution following such event(s) with respect to the Senior Preferred Shares shall be subject to Liquidation preference described in the preceding paragraph.

Dividend Ranking

With respect to payment of dividends or distribution of assets upon any Liquidation, all the Senior Preferred Shares shall rank senior to all ordinary shares in issue from time to time.

Voting Rights

Each holder of issued and outstanding Senior Preferred Shares shall be entitled to vote with holders of issued and outstanding Class A ordinary shares, voting together as a single class, with respect to any and all matters presented to the shareholders, and such holder shall be entitled to a number of votes equal to the number of Class A ordinary shares into which such holder’s Senior Preferred Shares are convertible.

Conversion Rights

Each Senior Preferred Share is convertible, at the option of its holder at any time after the original issue date, into that number of Conversion Securities determined by dividing (i) the sum of the original issue price, US$0.8125 per Senior Preferred Share, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on each such Senior Preferred Share, by (ii) the conversion price in effect immediately prior to such conversion, which shall initially be the original issue price, US$0.8125 per Senior Preferred Share, and is subject to adjustment from time to time based on a variety of events pursuant to the Certificate of Designation including any subsequent equity financing, regulatory event, etc. The initial conversion ratio of Senior Preferred Shares to Convertible Securities shall be 1:1.

14. SENIOR PREFERRED SHARES (CONTINUED)

Accounting of Senior Preferred Shares

The Group classified the Senior Preferred Shares as mezzanine equity in the consolidated balance sheets because the Senior Preferred Shares are considered redeemable in the event of any Liquidation, including certain liquidation events outside of the Company's control (the "Involuntary Liquidation Event") since the holders of Senior Preferred Shares shall be entitled to be paid out of an amount in cash according to liquidation preference. Therefore, the Group classifies the Senior Preferred Shares as mezzanine equity outside of permanent equity in accordance with SEC's Accounting Series Release 268, Presentation in Financial Statements of Redeemable Preferred Stocks (ASR 268) and ASC 480 "Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity". The Group early adopted ASU No. 2020-06 to eliminate the analysis requirement of separation of beneficial conversion and cash conversion features from convertible instruments. The mezzanine equity was initially measured based on its fair value at date of issue.

At each reporting date, the Group evaluates the probability of occurrence of any Involuntary Liquidation Event that entitles the holders of the Senior Preferred Shares to be paid an amount in cash (the "redemption value") subject to liquidation preference. If it is probable that an Involuntary Liquidation Event will occur and Senior Preferred Shares will become redeemable, the Group recognizes changes in carrying value immediately as the Involuntary Liquidation Event occurs and adjusts the carrying value of the instrument to equal the redemption value at the end of each reporting period. Increases or decreases in the carrying amount of Senior Preferred Shares shall be affected by charges against retained earnings, or additional paid-in capital in the absence of retained earnings. Accordingly, if the Senior Preferred Shares are not currently redeemable and it is not probable that the Senior Preferred Shares will become redeemable, subsequent adjustment of the amount presented in temporary equity is unnecessary.

As of December 31, 2022, the Company evaluated that the Senior Preferred Shares were not currently redeemable and it is not probable that the Senior Preferred Shares would become redeemable as there was no noted indicator of any Involuntary Liquidation Event, and recorded the Senior Preferred Shares as carrying value accordingly.

15. SHARE BASED COMPENSATION

For the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, total share-based compensation expenses recognized were RMB22.0 million, RMB302.7 million and RMB398.0 million, respectively. Share-based compensation expenses were allocated in operating expenses by function as follows:

	For the year ended December 31,
	2020 RMB	2021 RMB	2022 RMB	US$

2019 Equity Incentive Plan

On January 18, 2019, the shareholders and Board of Directors of the Company approved the 2019 share option plan (the "2019 Plan"), which is administrated by the Board of Directors and has a term of 10 years from the date of adoption. Under the 2019 Plan, the Company issued approximately 79,015,500 options to purchase the Ordinary Shares of the Company, after the 1-to-500 share split, to its eligible employees, officers, directors or any other individual as determined by the board of directors. The purpose of the 2019 Plan is to attract and retain exceptionally qualified individuals and to motivate them to exert their best efforts on behalf of the Group by providing incentives through granting awards.

Forfeited or cancelled	(739,472)	1.30

The weighted average grant-date fair value of the restricted share units granted during the year ended December 31, 2021 and 2022 was US$1.09 and, US$1.23 per share.

As of December 31, 2022, there was US$2.9 million of unrecognized share-based compensation expense related to restricted share units, which are expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of 0.62 years.

Fair value of employee share options

The fair value of share options was determined using the binomial option valuation model, with the assistance from an independent third-party appraiser. The binomial model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the expected share price volatility and the suboptimal early exercise factor. For expected volatilities, the Company has made reference to historical volatilities of several comparable companies. The suboptimal early exercise factor was estimated based on the Company’s expectation of exercise behavior of the grantees. The dividend yield is estimated based on the Company’s expected dividend policy over the expected term of the options. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual lives of the options is based on the market yield of U.S. Treasury Bonds in effect at the time of grant. The exercised multiple is estimated based on the changes in intrinsic value of the options and the likelihood of early exercises by employees. The estimated fair value of the ordinary shares, at the option grant dates, were determined with the assistance from an independent third-party appraiser.

Deferred Taxes

The significant components of deferred taxes were as follows:

	As of December 31,
	2021 RMB	2022 RMB	USS
Deferred tax assets
Donation	4,075	1,264	183
Accrued expenses	31,843	29,867	4,330

Tax losses	1,441,091	1,149,639	166,682
Valuation allowance	(1,114,351)	(1,335,125)	(193,575)
Total deferred tax assets, net	702,941	208,469	30,225

Realization of the net deferred tax assets is dependent on factors including future reversals of existing taxable temporary differences and adequate future taxable income. The Group evaluates the potential realization of deferred tax assets on an entity-by-entity basis. As of December 31, 2021 and 2022, the Company and most of its subsidiaries and VIE were in cumulative loss position, except some new entities with immaterial taxable income. The valuation allowance of RMB1,114.4 million and RMB1,335.1 million (US$193.6 million) as of December 31, 2021 and 2022 was primarily provided for the deferred income tax assets of certain subsidiaries, which were not estimated to generate enough future taxable income to utilize its some portion or all of the benefits of the deferred tax assets.

Valuation allowances were provided against deferred tax assets in entities where it was determined it was more likely than not that some portion or all of the benefits of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred income tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible or utilizable. In making such determination, the Group evaluates a variety of factors including the Group's operating history, accumulated deficit, existence of taxable temporary differences and reversal periods.

As of December 31, 2022, the Group had accumulated tax losses of RMB4,706.3 million (US$682.3 million) derived from entities in the mainland PRC, which can be carried forward per tax regulation to offset future taxable income. The PRC taxable losses will expire from 2023 to 2027 if not utilized.

Unrecognized Tax Position

As of December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, unrecognized tax benefit were RMB54.0 million, RMB55.0 million and RMB80.9 million (US$11.7 million), among which, RMB54.7 million (US$7.9 million) of unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2022 would impact the effective tax rate if ultimately recognized after considering valuation allowance. The unrecognized tax benefits were primarily related to deemed sales of free coupons to customers. The unrecognized tax benefits represent a reduction of the deferred income tax assets for tax loss carry forwards since the uncertain tax position would reduce the tax loss carry forwards under the tax law and the estimated income tax expenses the Group would be required to pay should its revenue for tax purposes be recognized in accordance with current PRC tax laws and regulations. The amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will change in the next 12 months, pending clarification of current tax law or audit by the tax authorities, however, an estimate of the range of the possible change cannot be made at this time.

17. NET (LOSS)/INCOME PER SHARE

Basic and diluted net (loss)/income per share for the years presented were calculated as follows:

	For the year ended December 31,
	2020 RMB	2021 RMB	2022 RMB
Numerator:
Net (loss)/income	(5,602,990)	578,653	488,246

Weighted average number of shares – diluted	2,021,919,061	2,135,844,257	2,516,273,627
Basic net (loss)/income per share attributable to ordinary shareholders	(2.76)	0.29	0.20
Diluted net (loss)/income per share attributable to ordinary shareholders	(2.76)	0.27	0.19
			0.03

Generally, basic net (loss)/income per share is computed using the weighted average number of ordinary shares and Senior Preferred Shares outstanding during the respective year. Senior Preferred Shares were considered as participating securities under ASC 260, therefore, they are included in the computation of basis shares. Diluted net (loss)/income per share is computed using the weighted average number of ordinary shares and dilutive potential ordinary shares outstanding during the respective year. The potentially dilutive ordinary shares included RSUs and options to purchase ordinary shares of 54,785,705, 84,580,779 and 43,195,219 for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022 on a weighted average basis, respectively. They were not included in the calculation of diluted net loss per share in 2020 presented where their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

19. PROVISION FOR SEC SETTLEMENT

On December 16, 2020, the SEC announced its settlement with the Company (“SEC Settlement”) regarding the Fabricated Transactions. Under the terms of the settlement, the Group, without admitting or denying the allegations of the SEC, consented to the entry of an order (i) requiring it to pay a civil money penalty in the amount of US$180 million to the SEC, which shall be offset by any cash payments made by the Group to its security holders pursuant to any schemes of arrangement approved by the Cayman Court in the proceeding for the provisional liquidation and restructuring, provided that such payments are made within 18 months subject to extensions granted by the SEC up to 24 months and the final distribution plan is not reasonably objectionable to the SEC staff, and (ii) permanently enjoining it from violations of certain federal securities laws, including Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. On February 4, 2021, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York issued a judgment (the “Judgement”) approving the SEC Settlement.

On March 16, 2021, the Company announced that it entered into a restructuring support agreement with holders of a majority of the Notes. However, the Company was unable to predict with certainty the total amount of cash that would be paid to security holders according to the Cayman Court proceeding within the timeframe stipulated in the SEC Settlement and whether any ultimately approved distribution plan would be subject to any successful reasonable objections by the SEC Staff as contemplated by the SEC Settlement. Consequently, as of December 31, 2020, the full amount of the SEC penalty in the amount of US$180 million (RMB1,174.5 million) was recorded as non-current liability.

On December 17, 2021, the Scheme in relation to the Restructuring of the Notes became effective, pursuant to which the Company's best estimate was that the final total cash payment to the bond holders would well exceed US$180 million. Also, during December 2021, the Company had informal communications with SEC on predicted distribution plan and the proposed proof of cash payment to Scheme creditors. The SEC did not state any objection and agreed to the method of payment confirmation proposed by the Company. Therefore, based on all available conditions as of December 31, 2021, it was very probable that the SEC staff would be satisfied that the cash payment to the bond holders to be made in January 2022, estimated at the time to exceed US $180 million, would fully offset the SEC civil penalty as stated in the Judgement. Accordingly, the Company fully reversed the provision for the SEC Settlement during the year ended December 31, 2021 and no outstanding balance of penalty was existed as of December 31, 2021.

On February 3, 2022, the Company received a Notice of Satisfaction of Penalty Provision of the Final Judgment (the “Satisfaction Notice”) on SEC Penalty of US $ 180 million from SEC who acknowledged the Company that the final distribution plan was not objectionable to the SEC, and proof of cash payments of at least US $180 million made by the Company and distributed to its security holders has been provided to the Commission. Accordingly, the Company has satisfied the penalty provisions of the Final Judgment and no outstanding balance of penalty shall be paid to SEC as of December 31, 2022.

For the years ended December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022, provision for SEC settlement of RMB1,177.1 million, negative RMB1,146.5 million and nil were charge in the Group's consolidated statements of comprehensive income/(loss), respectively.

20. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

20. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (CONTINUED)

The following table sets forth the Group's contractual obligations and commercial commitments as of December 31, 2022:

	Total	Payment Due by Period
		Less than 1 year (in thousands of RMB)	2-3 years	4-5 years	More than 5 years
Factory and office building construction commitments	156,195	138,744	17,451	—	—
Fixed assets purchasing commitment	159,882	159,882	—	—	—
Total	316,077	298,626	17,451	—	—

Other than those shown above, the Group did not have any significant capital commitments as of December 31, 2022.

(b) Legal proceedings

From time to time, the Group is involved in claims and legal proceedings that arise in the ordinary course of business.

The Group assesses these contingent liabilities, which inherently involves judgment. In assessing loss contingencies related to legal proceedings that are pending against the Group or unasserted claims that may result in legal proceedings, the Group, in consultation with its legal counsel, evaluates the perceived merits of any legal proceedings or unasserted claims as well as the perceived merits of the amount of relief sought or expected to be sought therein. If the assessment of a contingency indicates that it is probable that a material loss has been incurred and the amount of the liability can be estimated, the estimated liability would be accrued in the consolidated financial statements. If the assessment indicates that a potentially material loss contingency is not probable, or is probable but cannot be estimated, the nature of the contingent liability, together with an estimate of the range of the reasonably possible loss, if determinable and material, would be disclosed. Loss contingencies considered remote are generally not disclosed since they do not involve guarantees.

The Group made adequate disclosure of contingency loss of which an unfavorable outcome of legal proceeding is determined to be reasonably possible but not probable, or if the amount of loss cannot be reasonably estimated.

U.S. Department of Justice Investigation (the "DOJ")

The Group was contacted by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York ("SDNY") following the Group's public disclosure on April 2, 2020 relating to the Fabricated Transactions. The SDNY indicated that it had commenced an investigation into the Fabricated Transactions. The Group apprised the SDNY of the relevant Chinese laws that restrict the Group from providing evidence and information without prior approval from the Chinese Ministry of Justice, and is committed to cooperating with the DOJ to the extent permissible under the applicable PRC laws. The Group cannot predict the outcome or the duration of this investigation or any other legal proceedings or any enforcement actions or other remedies that may be imposed on the Group arising out of this investigation. No liability or loss was recognized as of December 31, 2021 and 2022 and for the year then ended.

Ministry of Finance Investigation

On May 6, 2020, the Ministry of Finance of the PRC initiated its investigation into the accounting information of two entities of the Group. On July 31, 2020, the Ministry of Finance of the PRC announced its investigation has been substantially completed. The Ministry of Finance of the PRC further announced that they would impose and publish its relevant penalty decision to the Group in due course. The Group cannot predict the outcome or the duration of this investigation or any other legal proceedings or any enforcement actions or other remedies that may be imposed on the Group arising out of this investigation. No liability or loss was recognized as of December 31, 2021 and 2022 and for the year then ended.

U.S. Class Actions

On February 13, 2020, April 2, 2020, April 8, 2020, and April 10, 2020, putative securities class action complaints were filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York against the Company, certain of its current and former directors and executives, and the underwriters of the Company's initial public offering and follow-on offering. These lawsuits were consolidated in the Southern District of New York, and is captioned In re Luckin Coffee Inc. Securities Litigation, 1:20-cv-01293 (S.D.N.Y.) (the "Federal Class Action"). On June 12, 2020, the court appointed co-lead plaintiffs (the "Federal Lead Plaintiffs") pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and ordered the lawsuits consolidated. A consolidated class action complaint was filed on September 24, 2020 that alleges, among other things, that the Company made false and misleading statements and material omissions in its prior registration statements and other public statements by failing to disclose the Fabricated Transactions disclosed in the Company's April 2, 2020 announcement, and the impact of those Fabricated Transactions on the Company's financial statements. The consolidated class action complaint variously alleges violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Rule 10b-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Sections 11 and 15 of the Securities Act. On October 26, 2021, the court issued an order preliminarily approving a class-wide settlement of all claims that had been or could have been asserted in the Federal Class Action, in exchange for payment of US$175 million to the class of investors who purchased or otherwise acquired the Company's ADS during the period from May 17, 2019 through July 15, 2020, inclusive. On July 22, 2022, the court issued an order granting final approval of the settlement.

(b) Legal proceedings (continued)

On May 26, 2020, June 18, 2020, and June 23, 2020, putative securities class actions complaints were filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, against the Company, certain of its current and former directors and executives, and the underwriters of the Company's initial public offering and follow-on offering. The lawsuits variously alleged that the Company made false and misleading statements and material omissions in its prior registration statements and other public statements by failing to disclose the Fabricated Transactions disclosed in the Company's April 2, 2020 announcement, and the impact of those Fabricated Transactions on the Company's financial statements, in violation of Sections 11, 12 and 15 of the Securities Act. On October 16, 2020, the court appointed co-lead plaintiffs and consolidated the lawsuits under the caption In re Luckin Coffee Inc. Securities Litigation, 651939/2020 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.). A consolidated amended complaint was filed on December 23, 2020, adding claims against investment vehicles owned by former officers and directors of Luckin and Luckin's agent for service of process, Cogency Global. The amended complaint also asserted claims under the Securities Act on behalf of a class of purchasers of convertible senior notes issued by Luckin in January 2020 (the "Notes Class"). On January 9, 2022, the Company reached an agreement in principle to settle the claims that have been or could be asserted on behalf of the Notes Class that is not being released pursuant to the Cayman Noteholder Scheme of Arrangement (or otherwise) (the "State Class Settlement"). The State Class Settlement received preliminary approval from the State Court on October 7, 2022. As of the date of this annual report, a fairness hearing for the settlement is scheduled for April 28, 2023. The State Court Settlement remains subject to final approval from the State Court.

U.S. "Opt Out" Claims

The Company had also been named as a defendant in the following opt-out lawsuits alleging violations of U.S. securities laws: Kingstown Capital Management. v. Luckin Coffee et al., 1:20-cv-07029 (S.D.N.Y.), Lai Ye v. Luckin Coffee et al., 1:21-cv-2020 (S.D.N.Y.), Nuveen Winslow Large-Cap Growth ESG Fund et al. v. Luckin Coffee et al., 655177/2020 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.) and Bequai v. Luckin Coffee, GV20019430-00 (Va. D. Ct., Fairfax Cty.) As of the date of this annual report, all of the above lawsuits have been voluntarily dismissed by the plaintiffs.

Certain individuals and institutions claiming to be ADS investors have made informal demands for the company to pay alleged losses resulting from the Fabricated Transactions disclosed on April 2, 2020, but have not commenced legal proceedings. In the aggregate, the investors that have made informal demands have asserted losses in excess of $325 million.

U.S. Derivative Action

The Company was a nominal defendant in a consolidated putative derivative action filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York captioned In re Luckin Coffee Inc. Derivative Litigation, 652800/2020 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.). The Federal Class Settlement includes releases of derivative claims on behalf of members of the Federal Class. On November 8, 2022, the parties filed a stipulation of discontinuance with prejudice to conclude the derivative litigation, which the court so-ordered on November 9, 2022.

Canadian Class Action

On or about April 14, 2020, an Application for Authorization to Bring a Class Action was filed against Luckin Coffee Inc. by Martin Banoon (the “Applicant”) in the Superior Court of Quebec file no. 500-06-001058-201. The Applicant sought authorization to institute a class action on behalf of the proposed class members comprised of holders of Luckin Coffee’s ADS, as a result of Fabricated Transactions. On August 9, 2022, the Superior Court of Quebec entered judgment approving the Applicant’s request to discontinue the proceeding.

Cayman Bondholder Action

In May 2020, a group of bondholders commenced proceedings in the Cayman Court seeking to recover approximately US$155,000 of losses from the Company. By summons dated May 1, 2020, the bondholders applied ex parte for a worldwide freezing order (the “WFO”) against the Company, which order was granted by the Cayman Court on May 8, 2020. On July 1, 2020 to July 3, 2020 the Cayman Court heard the Company’s application to set aside the WFO. By order dated July 22, 2020, the Cayman Court discharged the WFO. The litigation was automatically stayed on the appointment of the JPLs on July 15, 2020 by operation of section 97 of the Companies Act. On August 12, 2020 the Cayman Court further ordered that the bondholders could seek to appeal the discharge order until 14 days after the discharge of the JPLs. However, there can be no further action in these proceedings as the indebtedness under the Notes has been effectively compromised due to the successful Restructuring as of January 28, 2022. In July 2022, these proceedings were discontinued by a consent order issued by the Cayman Court upon parties’ agreement.

(c) Provision for U.S. securities litigation

The Company has been named as a defendant in various U.S. securities litigations described in “Note 20. Commitments And Contingencies – (b) legal proceedings. Where possible, the Company contests liability and/or the amount of damages appropriate in each pending matter. Where available information indicates that it is probable a liability had been incurred at the date of the financial statements and the Company can reasonably estimate the amount of that loss, the Company accrues a provision for that loss in accordance with relevant ASC 450. The Company recorded a provision for equity litigation of US$187.5 million (approximately RMB1,226.1 million) in the year ended December 31, 2020. The Company recorded an additional US$24.4 million (approximately RMB155.3 million) and US$41.9 million (approximately RMB280.0 million) in the year ended December 31, 2021 and 2022. The Company’s estimate of probable losses from these litigations is based on either the amount of a settlement (if a settlement has been reached), the Company’s most recent offer made to a claimant (if no settlement has been reached but settlement negotiations have begun), or the implied recovery represented by the Federal Class Action settlement (where no settlement negotiations have begun). As of December 31, 2022, the balance of payable for equity litigants settlement was US$4.9 million (approximately RMB33.8 million).

Basis of presentation

Condensed financial information is used for the presentation of the Company, or the parent company. The condensed financial information of the parent company has been prepared using the same accounting policies as set out in the Company's consolidated financial statements except that the parent company used the equity method to account for investments in its subsidiaries and VIE.

The parent company records its investments in its subsidiaries and VIE under the equity method of accounting as prescribed in ASC 323, Investments-Equity Method and Joint Ventures. Such investments are presented on the condensed balance sheets as "Investments in subsidiaries and the VIE" and their respective profit or loss as "Share of loss in subsidiaries and the VIE" on the condensed statements of comprehensive (loss)/income. Equity method accounting ceases when the carrying amount of the investment, including any additional financial support, in a subsidiary or VIE is reduced to zero unless the parent company has guaranteed obligations of the subsidiary or VIE or is otherwise committed to provide further financial support. If the subsidiary or VIE subsequently reports net income, the parent company shall resume applying the equity method only after its share of that net income equals the share of net loss not recognized during the period the equity method was suspended.

The subsidiaries and VIE did not pay any dividends to the Company for the years presented.

MASTER EXCLUSIVE SERVICE AGREEMENT

This Master Exclusive Service Agreement (this “Agreement”) is entered into in Beijing as of June 16, 2022 by and among the following parties:

- (1) Luckin Coffee (Beijing) Limited (the “WFOE”), a wholly foreign-owned enterprise registered in Beijing, the People’s Republic of China (“China” or “PRC”), under the laws of China; and
- (2) Beijing Luckin Coffee Technology Ltd. (“Luckin Tech”), a domestic company registered in Beijing, China, under the laws of China
(Each of WFOE and Luckin Tech, a “Party”, and collectively the “Parties”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Parties intend to utilize their respective expertise and resources to further promote their existing business and expand their market share; and

WHEREAS, the WFOE, together with its affiliates, intends to provide certain services to Luckin Tech; and Luckin Tech agrees to accept such services only from the WFOE.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein contained, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Provision of Services

- 1.1 In accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, Luckin Tech (referred to as the “Service Receiving Party”) hereby irrevocably appoints and designates the WFOE as its exclusive service provider to provide the technical and business support services as set forth in Schedule 1.
- 1.2 During the term of this Agreement, the Service Receiving Party shall not, without the WFOE’s written consent, directly and indirectly, obtain the same or similar services as provided under this Agreement from any third party, or enter into any similar service agreement with any third party.

2. WFOE’s Power to Designate Service Provider; Statement of Work

- 2.1 The WFOE has the right to designate and appoint, at its sole discretion, any entities affiliated with the WFOE (together with the WFOE, the “Service Providers”) to provide any and all services set forth in Section 1 hereof.
- 2.2 Service Providers shall determine the specific contents of services within the scope listed in Schedule 1 with the Service Receiving Party in one or more separate service agreements (each, a “Service Agreement”).

3. Service Fee and Payment

- 3.1 The WFOE shall have the right to determine, at its reasonable discretion, the service fee and proper payment manners for the Service Receiving Party. The calculation and payment manners of the service fee are stipulated in Schedule 1 of this Agreement.
- 3.2 If the WFOE, in its reasonable discretion, determines that the fee calculation mechanism specified shall no longer apply for any reasons at any time or from time to time during the term of this Agreement, the WFOE shall have the right to adjust the fee by giving a 10-day written notice to the Service Receiving Party.
- 3.3 The Service Receiving Party shall procure its shareholders to pledge all of the shares of the Service Receiving Party held by such shareholders in favor of the WFOE to secure the service fee payable by the Service Receiving Party under this Agreement.

4. Intellectual Property Rights

- 4.1 Any intellectual properties developed by performance of this Agreement, including but not limited to copyrights, trademarks, patents, technical secrets, and knowhow, belong to the Service Providers, and the Service Receiving Party shall enjoy no rights where they relate to intellectual properties other than those expressly provided herein.
- 4.2 If a development is based on the intellectual properties owned by the Service Receiving Party, the Service Receiving Party shall warrant and guarantee that such intellectual properties are flawless. Otherwise, the Service Receiving Party shall bear all damages and losses caused to the Service Providers by any flaw of such intellectual properties. If the Service Providers are to bear any liabilities to any third party thus caused, they have the right to recover all of their losses from Service Receiving Party.
- 4.3 The Parties agree that this section shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

5. WFOE's Financing Support

- 5.1 To ensure that the cash flow requirements with regard to the business operations of the Service Receiving Party are met and/or to set off any loss accrued during such operations, the Service Receiving Party and WFOE both agree that the WFOE will provide financial support to the Service Receiving Party, to the extent permissible under PRC law, through the WFOE itself or its designated person. The WFOE's financing support to the Service Receiving Party may take the form of bank entrusted loans or other forms permitted under PRC law. Agreements for such financing support shall be executed separately.

6. Representations and Warranties

- 6.1 The WFOE hereby represents and warrants as follows:
 - (a) It is a wholly foreign-owned enterprise duly incorporated and validly existing under PRC law;
 - (b) Its execution and performance of this Agreement are within its corporate power and business scope. It has taken necessary corporate actions and obtained appropriate authorizations, and has obtained the necessary consents and approvals from any third parties and government agencies. Its execution and performance of this Agreement do not violate the laws and contracts binding upon it; and
 - (c) Upon execution, this Agreement will constitute a legal, valid and binding obligation of the WFOE enforceable against the WFOE in accordance with its terms.

6.2 The Service Receiving Party hereby represents and warrants as follows:

- (a) It is a legal person duly incorporated and validly existing under PRC law;
- (b) Its execution and performance of this Agreement are within its entity power and business scope. It has taken necessary entity actions and obtained appropriate authorizations, and has obtained the necessary consents and approvals from any third parties and government agencies. Its execution and performance of this Agreement do not violate the laws and contracts binding upon it; and
- (c) Upon execution, this Agreement will constitute a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Service Receiving Party enforceable against the Service Receiving Party in accordance with its terms.

7. Confidentiality

7.1 The Service Receiving Party agrees to take all reasonable steps to protect and maintain the confidentiality of the confidential data and information received by the Service Receiving Party in connection with the performance of this Agreement (collectively, the “Confidential Information”). The Service Receiving Party shall not disclose, give or transfer any Confidential Information to any third party without the WFOE’s prior written consent. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Service Receiving Party shall, at the WFOE’s request, return any and all documents, information or software containing any of such Confidential Information to the WFOE or destroy it, and delete all of such Confidential Information from any memory devices, and cease to use such Confidential Information.

7.2 The Parties agree that this section shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

8. Effective Date and Term

8.1 This Agreement shall be signed and take effect as of the date first set forth above.

8.2 This Agreement shall remain effective unless terminated as provided herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, i) the WFOE shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time with a written notice to Luckin Tech, whereas the Service Receiving Party shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement; and ii) This Agreement shall be terminated upon the transfer of all the shares of Luckin Tech to the WFOE and/or a third party designated by the WFOE pursuant to the Exclusive Option Agreement.

9. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the PRC.

10. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved by the WFOE and Luckin Tech in good faith through negotiations. In case no resolution can be reached by the WFOE and Luckin Tech, such dispute shall be submitted to the Beijing Arbitration Commission for arbitration in accordance with its rules of arbitration in effect at the time of applying for such arbitration and the place of arbitration shall be in Beijing. The arbitral award shall be final and binding upon both Parties.

11. Notices

Notices or other communications required to be given by any party pursuant to this Agreement shall be written in English and Chinese and delivered personally or sent by registered mail or postage prepaid mail or by a recognized courier service or by facsimile transmission to the address of each relevant party as specified by such party from time to time. The date when a notice is deemed to be duly served shall be determined as follows: (a) a notice delivered personally is deemed duly served upon delivery; (b) a notice sent by mail is deemed duly served on the tenth (10th) day after the date when the postage prepaid registered airmail is posted (as evidenced by the postmark), or on the fourth (4th) day after the date when the notice is delivered to an internationally-recognized courier service agency; and (c) a notice sent by facsimile transmission is deemed duly served upon receipt as evidenced by the time shown in the transmission confirmation for the relevant documents.

12. Indemnities and Remedies

- 12.1 Either Party shall forthwith on demand indemnify the other Party against any claim, loss, liability or damage ("Loss") which such Party shall incur as a consequence of any breach by the other Party of this Agreement provided that neither Party shall be liable to indemnify the other Party for any Loss to the extent that such Loss arises from the willful misconduct, breach of applicable law, regulation or contractual obligation or from the material negligence of the other Party or its directors, officers, employees, or agents.
- 12.2 The Parties agree that this section shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

13. Assignment

- 13.1 The Service Receiving Party shall not assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of the WFOE.
- 13.2 The Service Receiving Party hereby agrees that the WFOE may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement, only subject to a written notice to Luckin Tech.

14. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is judged to be invalid or unenforceable because it is inconsistent with applicable laws, such invalidity or unenforceability shall be only with respect to such laws, and the validity, legality and enforceability of the other provisions hereof shall not be affected.

15. Amendment or Supplement

Any amendment or supplement to this Agreement shall be made by the Parties in writing. The amendments or supplements duly executed by each party shall form an integral part of this Agreement and shall have the same legal effect as this Agreement.

16. Tax

Each Party shall pay any tax, expenses and fees incurred thereby or levied thereon in accordance with the laws of China in connection with the preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement.

17. Counterparts

This Agreement shall be executed in two originals by both Parties, with each of the WFOE and Luckin Tech holding one original. All originals shall have the same legal effect. The Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts.

18. Languages

This Agreement is written in English and Chinese. Both language versions shall have equal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the English version and the Chinese version, the Chinese version shall prevail.

2. Business Operation and Personnel Arrangement

- 2.1 Luckin Tech agrees and covenants to the WFOE that Luckin Tech shall, and the Shareholders shall cause Luckin Tech to, i) accept suggestions raised by the WFOE over the employee engagement and replacement, daily operation, dividend distribution and financial management systems of Luckin Tech, and Luckin Tech shall strictly abide by and perform accordingly; ii) maintain Luckin Tech's corporate existence in accordance with good financial and business standards and practices by prudently and effectively operating its business and handling its affairs; iii) operate all of Luckin Tech's businesses during the ordinary course of business to maintain the asset value of Luckin Tech and refrain from any action/omission that may adversely affect Luckin Tech's operating status and asset value; iv) agree that the WFOE have the right to keep the official seal, the original and duplicate business licenses, proof of administrative permits, articles of association of Luckin Tech and other key materials for the operation of the company according to WFOE's system, and Luckin Tech shall provide the WFOE with other materials on Luckin Tech's business operations and financial condition at WFOE's request; v) if requested by the WFOE, procure and maintain insurance in respect of Luckin Tech's assets and business from an insurance carrier acceptable to the WFOE, at an amount and type of coverage typical for companies that operate similar businesses; vi) immediately notify the WFOE of the occurrence or possible occurrence of any litigation, arbitration or administrative proceedings relating to Luckin Tech's assets, business or revenue; and vii) execute all necessary or appropriate documents, take all necessary or appropriate actions and file all necessary or appropriate complaints or raise necessary and appropriate defenses against all claims so as to maintain the ownership by Luckin Tech of all of its assets.

- 2.2 The Shareholders shall only appoint persons designated by the WFOE to be the directors of Luckin Tech in accordance with the procedures required by laws, regulations and relevant articles of association. Luckin Tech shall cause the persons designated by the WFOE to be the general manager, chief financial officer and other senior management members of Luckin Tech.
- 2.3 If any of the above directors or senior management members designated by the WFOE resigns from the relevant position or is dismissed at the request of the WFOE, the Shareholders or Luckin Tech, as the case may be, shall dismiss such person from Luckin Tech upon the WFOE's request, and shall appoint any other person designated by the WFOE to hold such position.
- 2.4 Luckin Tech together with its Shareholders hereby jointly and severally covenant to and agree with the WFOE that Luckin Tech shall seek appropriate approval from the WFOE prior to entering into any material contract in accordance with relevant internal approval policy of Luckin Tech.

3. Other Arrangements

Given (i) that the business relationship between the WFOE (together with its affiliates) and Luckin Tech has been established through the Service Agreement and (ii) that the daily business activities of Luckin Tech will have a material impact on Luckin Tech's ability to pay the payables to the WFOE or its affiliates, the Shareholders agree that, unless required by the WFOE:

- (a) They shall not put forward, or vote in favor of, any shareholder resolution to, or otherwise request Luckin Tech to, distribute any profits, funds, assets or property to the Shareholders of Luckin Tech; and
- (b) They shall not put forward, or vote in favor of, any shareholder resolution to, or otherwise request Luckin Tech to, issue any dividends or other distributions with respect to the shares of Luckin Tech held by the Shareholders; provided, however, if any dividends or other distributions are distributed to the Shareholders by Luckin Tech, the Shareholders shall immediately and unconditionally pay or transfer to the WFOE any and all dividends or other distributions in whatsoever form obtained from Luckin Tech as shareholders of Luckin Tech at the time such distributions arise, and the Shareholders shall bear any and all taxes and fees with respect to such transfer of dividends and distributions to the WFOE (including the taxes and fees imposed on the WFOE) in the event such dividends or distributions are paid to the Shareholders without the WFOE's prior written consent.

4. Assignments

The Shareholders and Luckin Tech shall not assign their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of the WFOE. The Shareholders and Luckin Tech hereby jointly agree that the WFOE may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement as the WFOE may decide at its sole discretion and such transfer shall only be subject to a written notice sent to Luckin Tech and the Shareholders.

Rights and obligations under this Agreement shall be legally binding upon any assignees, successors, spouse, guardians and creditors of the Parties hereof or any other person that may be entitled to assume rights and interests in the shares of Luckin Tech, no matter such assignment of obligations and rights is caused by takeover, restructuring, succession, assignment, death, incapacity, bankruptcy, divorce or any other reason.

5. Entire Agreement and Amendment to Agreement

- 5.1 This Agreement and all agreements and/or documents mentioned or included explicitly by this Agreement constitute the complete agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and shall supersede any and all prior oral agreements, contracts, understandings and communications made by the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.
- 5.2 Any modification of this Agreement shall be made in a written form and shall only become effective upon execution by all Parties of this Agreement. Modifications and supplements to this Agreement duly executed by the Parties shall be parts of this Agreement and shall have the same legal effect as this Agreement.

6. Governing Law

7. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved by the Parties in good faith through negotiations. In case no resolution can be reached by the Parties, such dispute shall be submitted to the Beijing Arbitration Commission for arbitration in accordance with its rules of arbitration in effect at the time of applying for such arbitration and the place of arbitration shall be in Beijing. The arbitral award shall be final and binding upon all Parties.

8. Indemnities and Remedies

- 8.1 Either Party shall forthwith on demand indemnify the other Party against any claim, loss, liability or damage (“Loss”) which such Party shall incur as a consequence of any breach by the other Party of this Agreement provided that neither Party shall be liable to indemnify the other Party for any Loss to the extent that such Loss arises from the willful misconduct, breach of applicable law, regulation or contractual obligation or from the material negligence of the other Party or its directors, officers, employees, or agents.

- 8.2 The Parties agree that this section shall remain survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

9. Effective Date and Term

- 9.1 This Agreement shall be signed and take effect as of the date first set forth above.

- 9.2 This Agreement shall remain effective as long as Luckin Tech exists unless terminated as provided in Section 10.

10. Termination

- 10.1 Neither of the Shareholders and Luckin Tech shall have the right to terminate this Agreement. This Agreement shall be terminated i) by the WFOE at any time with written notice to Luckin Tech and the Shareholders; ii) upon the transfer of all the shares held by the Shareholders to the WFOE and/or a third party designated by the WFOE pursuant to the Exclusive Option Agreement; iii) if any Shareholder cease to hold any shares in Luckin Tech, such Shareholder shall no longer be a party of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall remain in full effect to any other Shareholder and Luckin Tech.

11. Notices

11.1 Notices or other communications required to be given by any party pursuant to this Agreement shall be written in English and Chinese and delivered personally or sent by registered mail or postage prepaid mail or by a recognized courier service or by facsimile transmission to the address of each relevant party as specified by such party from time to time. The date when a notice is deemed to be duly served shall be determined as follows: (a) a notice delivered personally is deemed duly served upon delivery; (b) a notice sent by mail is deemed duly served on the tenth (10th) day after the date when the postage prepaid registered airmail is posted (as evidenced by the postmark), or on the fourth (4th) day after the date when the notice is delivered to an internationally-recognized courier service agency; and (c) a notice sent by facsimile transmission is deemed duly served upon receipt as evidenced by the time shown in the transmission confirmation for the relevant documents.

12. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is judged to be invalid or unenforceable because it is inconsistent with applicable laws, such invalidity or unenforceability shall be only with respect to such laws, and the validity, legality and enforceability of the other provisions hereof shall not be affected.

13. Counterparts

This Agreement shall be executed in four originals by all Parties, with each of the WFOE, the Shareholders, and Luckin Tech holding one original. All originals shall have the same legal effect. The Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts.

14. Languages

Both English and Chinese language versions of this Agreement shall have equal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the English version and the Chinese version, the Chinese version shall prevail.

PROXY AGREEMENT AND POWER OF ATTORNEY

This Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney (this “Agreement”) is entered into in Beijing as of June 16, 2022 by and among the following parties:

- (1) Luckin Coffee (Beijing) Limited (the “WFOE”), a wholly foreign-owned enterprise registered in Beijing, the People’s Republic of China (“China” or “PRC”), under the laws of China;
 - (2) Beijing Luckin Coffee Technology Ltd. (“Luckin Tech”), a domestic company registered in Beijing, China, under the laws of China; and
 - (3) each of the persons listed under Schedule 1 (each, a “Shareholder” and collectively, the “Shareholders”)
- (Each of WFOE, Luckin Tech and each of the Shareholders, a “Party”, and collectively the “Parties”).

RECITALS

- (A) WHEREAS, the Shareholders hold 100% shares in Luckin Tech;
- (B) WHEREAS, the WFOE, Luckin Tech and the Shareholders have entered into a series of contractual arrangements, including a master exclusive service agreement, a business cooperation agreement, an exclusive option agreement and a share pledge agreement; these contractual arrangements provide Luckin Tech with services necessary for its business operation and also ensure that the WFOE has comprehensive, continuous and effective control over Luckin Tech;
- (C) WHEREAS, as the consideration for the WFOE and its affiliates to provide Luckin Tech with services necessary for its business operation, the WFOE has requested the Shareholders to appoint the WFOE (as well as its successors, including a liquidator, if any, replacing the WFOE) as its attorney-in-fact (“Attorney-in-Fact”), with full power of substitution, to exercise any and all of the rights in respect of the Shareholders’ shares in Luckin Tech and the Shareholders have agreed to make such appointment.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein contained, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

Section 1

Each Shareholder hereby irrevocably nominates, appoints and constitutes the WFOE (as well as its successors, including a liquidator, if any, replacing the WFOE) as its Attorney-in-Fact to exercise on such Shareholder’s behalf any and all rights that such Shareholder has in respect of such Shareholder’s shares in Luckin Tech conferred by relevant laws and regulations and the articles of association of Luckin Tech, including without limitation, the following rights (collectively, “Shareholder Rights”):

- (a) to call and attend shareholders’ meetings of Luckin Tech, and receive notices and materials with respect to the shareholders meeting;

- (b) to execute and deliver any and all written resolutions and meeting minutes in the name and on behalf of such Shareholder;
- (c) to keep the official seal, the original and duplicate business licenses, proof of administrative permits, articles of association of Luckin Tech and other key materials for the operation of the company according to the WFOE's system;
- (d) to vote by itself or by proxy on any matters discussed on shareholders' meetings of Luckin Tech, including without limitation, the sale, transfer, mortgage, pledge or disposal of any or all of the assets of Luckin Tech;
- (e) to sell, transfer, pledge or dispose of any or all of the shares in Luckin Tech;
- (f) to nominate, appoint or remove the directors, supervisors and senior management of Luckin Tech when necessary;
- (g) to oversee the economic performance of Luckin Tech;
- (h) to have full access to the financial information of Luckin Tech at any time;
- (i) to file any shareholder lawsuits or take other legal actions against Luckin Tech's directors or senior management members when such directors or members are acting to the detriment of the interest of Luckin Tech or its shareholder(s);
- (j) to approve annual budgets or declare dividends;
- (k) to manage and dispose of the assets of Luckin Tech;
- (l) to have the full rights to control and manage Luckin Tech's finance, accounting and daily operation (including but not limited to signing and execution of contracts and payment of government taxes and duties);
- (m) to approve the filing of any documents with the relevant governmental authorities or regulatory bodies; and
- (n) any other rights conferred by the articles of association of Luckin Tech and/or the relevant laws and regulations on the shareholders.

Each Shareholder further agrees and undertakes that without the Attorney-in-Fact's prior written consent, it shall not exercise any of the Shareholder Rights. A shareholder's exercise of the Shareholder Rights in violation of this Agreement shall have no internal or external effect.

Section 2

The Attorney-in-Fact has the right to appoint, at its sole discretion, a substitute or substitutes to perform any or all of its rights of the Attorney-in-Fact under this Agreement, and to revoke the appointment of such substitute or substitutes.

Section 3

Luckin Tech confirms, acknowledges and agrees to the appointment of the Attorney-in-Fact to exercise any and all of the Shareholder Rights. Luckin Tech further confirms and acknowledges that (i) any and all acts done or to be done, decisions made or to be made, and instruments or other documents executed or to be executed by the Attorney-in-Fact, shall therefore be as valid and effectual as though done, made or executed by the Shareholders, and (ii) any and all activities of the Shareholders which are in violation of or inconsistent with this Agreement shall have no internal or external effect. Luckin Tech will not recognize and facilitate such activities.

Section 4

(a) Each Shareholder hereby acknowledges that, if the Shareholder increases its share in Luckin Tech, whether by subscribing additional shares or otherwise, any Shareholder Rights in connection with such additional shares acquired by the Shareholder shall be automatically subject to this Agreement and the Attorney-in-Fact shall have the right to exercise the Shareholder Rights with respect to such additional shares on behalf of the Shareholder as described in Section 1 hereunder; if the Shareholder's share in Luckin Tech is transferred to any other party, whether by voluntary transfer, judicial sale, foreclosure sale, or otherwise, any such share in Luckin Tech so transferred remains subject to this Agreement and the Attorney-in-Fact shall continue to have the right to exercise the Shareholder Rights with respect to such share in Luckin Tech so transferred as described in Section 1 hereunder.

(b) Furthermore, for the avoidance of any doubt, if any share transfer is contemplated under any exclusive option agreement and share pledge agreement(s) that such Shareholder enters into for the benefits of the WFOE or its affiliate (as the same may be amended from time to time), the Attorney-in-Fact shall, on behalf of the Shareholder, have the right to sign the share transfer agreement and other relevant agreements and to perform all shareholder obligations under the exclusive option agreement and the share pledge agreement(s). If required by the WFOE, the Shareholder shall sign any documents, fix the chops and/or seals thereon or cooperate with the business registration and tax payment procedures, the Shareholder shall take any other actions as necessary for purposes of consummation of the aforesaid share transfer.

Each Shareholder further covenants with and undertakes to the WFOE that, if the Shareholder receives any dividends, interest, any other forms of capital distributions, residual assets upon liquidation, or proceeds or consideration from the transfer of share as a result of, or in connection with, such Shareholder's shares in Luckin Tech, the Shareholder shall, to the extent permitted by applicable laws, remit all such dividends, interest, capital distributions, assets, proceeds or consideration to the WFOE or the entity designated by the WFOE without any compensation, and shall bear any and all taxes and fees with respect thereto.

Section 6

Each Shareholder hereby authorizes the Attorney-in-Fact to exercise the Shareholder Rights according to its own judgment without any oral or written instruction from the Shareholder. Each Shareholder undertakes to ratify any acts which the Attorney-in-Fact or any substitutes or agents appointed by the Attorney-in-Fact may lawfully do or cause to be done pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 7

This Agreement shall become effective as of the date hereof when it is duly executed by the Parties' authorized representatives and shall remain effective as long as Luckin Tech exists. The Shareholders shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement or revoke the appointment of the Attorney-in-Fact without the prior written consent of the WFOE. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties and their successors and assigns.

WFOE shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon unilateral written notice to Luckin Tech and Shareholders.

Section 8

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

Section 9

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of China.

Section 10

Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved by the Parties in good faith through negotiations. In case no resolution can be reached by the Parties, such dispute shall be submitted to the Beijing Arbitration Commission for arbitration in accordance with its rules of arbitration in effect at the time of applying for such arbitration and the place of arbitration shall be in Beijing. The arbitral award shall be final and binding upon all Parties.

Section 11

Either Party shall forthwith on demand indemnify the other Party against any claim, loss, liability or damage ("Loss") which such Party shall incur as a consequence of any breach by the other Party of this Agreement provided that neither Party shall be liable to indemnify the other Party for any Loss to the extent that such Loss arises from the willful misconduct, breach of applicable law, regulation or contractual obligation or from the material negligence of the other Party or its directors, officers, employees, or agents. The Parties agree that this clause shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

Section 12

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts. All originals shall have the same legal effect.

Section 13

Both Chinese and English versions of this Agreement shall have equal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the English version and the Chinese version, the Chinese version shall prevail.

EXCLUSIVE OPTION AGREEMENT

This Exclusive Option Agreement (this “Agreement”) is entered into in Beijing as of June 16, 2022 by and among the following parties:

- (1) Luckin Coffee (Beijing) Limited (the “WFOE”), a wholly foreign-owned enterprise registered in Beijing, the People’s Republic of China (“China” or “PRC”), under the laws of China;
 - (2) Beijing Luckin Coffee Technology Ltd. (“Luckin Tech”), a domestic company registered in Beijing, China, under the laws of China; and
 - (3) each of the persons listed under Schedule 1 (each, a “Shareholder” and collectively, the “Shareholders”)
- (Each of WFOE, Luckin Tech and each of the Shareholders, a “Party”, and collectively the “Parties”).

RECITALS

- (A) WHEREAS, the Shareholders hold 100% shares in Luckin Tech;
- (B) WHEREAS, the WFOE and Luckin Tech entered into a master exclusive service agreement dated on June 16, 2022;
- (C) WHEREAS, the WFOE, Luckin Tech and the Shareholders entered into a business cooperation agreement dated June 16, 2022;
- (D) WHEREAS, the WFOE, Luckin Tech and the Shareholders entered into a share pledge agreement on June 16, 2022 (the “Share Pledge Agreement”);
- (E) WHEREAS, as the consideration for the WFOE and its affiliates to provide Luckin Tech with services necessary for their business operation, the WFOE has requested the Shareholders to grant the WFOE an exclusive option through this Agreement which can be exercised by the WFOE or the WFOE’s designee, and the Shareholders have agreed to grant such exclusive option to purchase all or part of the shares held by the Shareholders in Luckin Tech.
- (F) NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein contained, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Target Shares

- 1.1 The WFOE shall have the right to require the Shareholders to transfer any and all of the shares of Luckin Tech the Shareholders hold (the “Target Shares”) to the WFOE and/or a third party designated by the WFOE (the “Designee”), in whole or in part, subject to the WFOE’s specific requirements (“Share Transfer Option”), and the Shareholders shall transfer the Target Shares to the WFOE and/or its Designee, who shall have exclusive rights over the Share Transfer Option, in accordance with the WFOE’s requirements under the following circumstances:

- 1.1.1 Where the WFOE and/or its Designee can legally own all or part of the Target Shares under the laws and administrative regulations of China; or
 - 1.1.2 Any other circumstances deemed as appropriate or necessary by the WFOE in its sole discretion.
- 1.2 The WFOE shall have the right to exercise its purchase right in whole or in part and to acquire the Target Shares in whole or in part without any limit at any time and from time to time.
- 1.3 The WFOE may designate any third party to acquire the Target Shares in whole or in part and the Shareholders shall not refuse and shall transfer the Target Shares in whole or in part to such Designee as requested by the WFOE.
- 1.4 Prior to the transfer of the Target Shares to the WFOE or its Designee according to this Agreement, the Shareholders shall not transfer the Target Shares to any third party without the WFOE's prior written consent.

2. Procedures

- 2.1 Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the Shareholders shall execute and deliver to the WFOE the Share Transfer Agreement in the format set forth in Schedule 2 attached hereto.
- 2.2 If the WFOE decides to exercise the Share Transfer Option pursuant to Section 1.1 hereinabove, it shall send written notice to Luckin Tech and the Shareholders which specifies the proportion of the Target Shares to be acquired and identifies the transferee (the "Share Purchase Notice"). Luckin Tech and the Shareholders shall furnish all materials and documents necessary for the business registration and tax payment required for the aforesaid share transfer within seven days after the date of Share Purchase Notice; and at the time of WFOE's request, Luckin Tech and the Shareholders shall cooperate to complete all procedures related to business registration, tax payment procedures, etc;
- 2.3 If at the time of exercising the Share Transfer Option, more than one Shareholder hold shares in Luckin Tech, each Shareholder and Luckin Tech shall cause such other Shareholders to provide their written consent to the transfer of the Target Shares to the WFOE and/or the Designee(s) and to waive any preemptive right related thereto;
- 2.4 Luckin Tech and the Shareholders shall cause a Share Transfer Agreement to be duly executed with respect to each transfer to the WFOE and/or each Designee (whichever is applicable), in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Share Purchase Notice regarding the Target Shares;
- 2.5 The relevant Parties shall execute all necessary contracts, agreements or documents, obtain all necessary government licenses and permits and take all necessary actions to transfer valid ownership of the Target Shares to the WFOE and/or the Designee(s), unencumbered by any security interests, and cause the WFOE and/or the Designee(s) to become the registered owner(s) of the Target Shares. For the purpose of this Section and this Agreement, "security interests" shall include securities, mortgages, third party's rights or interests, any stock options, acquisition right, right of first refusal, right to offset, ownership retention or other security arrangements, but shall be deemed to exclude any security interest created by this Agreement and the Share Pledge Agreement.

3. Transfer Price

- 3.1 The total transfer price for the Target Shares shall be the lowest price allowable under PRC laws and administrative regulations at the time of said transfer (“Transfer Price”). If the Target Shares are transferred in installments, the due transfer price for each installment shall be determined in accordance with the proportion of Target Shares under said transfer. The Shareholders shall transfer the Transfer Price and affiliated benefits to the WFOE or the entity designated by the WFOE at nil consideration immediately after receiving the Transfer Price and affiliated benefits.
- 3.2 All the taxes, fees and expenses arising from the transfer of the Target Shares shall be borne by each Party respectively in accordance with the Laws of China.

4. Covenants

4.1 Covenants of Luckin Tech and the Shareholders

The Shareholders (as the shareholders of Luckin Tech) and Luckin Tech hereby covenant as follows:

- 4.1.1 Without the prior written consent of the WFOE, they shall not in any manner supplement, change or amend the articles of association and bylaws of Luckin Tech, increase or decrease its registered capital, or change the structure of its registered capital in other manners;
- 4.1.2 They shall maintain Luckin Tech’s corporate existence in accordance with good financial and business standards and practices by prudently and effectively operating its business and handling its affairs;
- 4.1.3 Without the prior written consent of the WFOE, they shall not at any time following the date hereof, sell, transfer, mortgage or dispose of in any manner any assets of Luckin Tech (except in the ordinary course of business), or legal or beneficial interest in the business or revenues of Luckin Tech, or allow the encumbrance thereon of any security interest;
- 4.1.4 Without the prior written consent of the WFOE, they shall not incur, inherit, guarantee or assume any debt, except for debts incurred in the ordinary course of business;
- 4.1.5 They shall always operate all of Luckin Tech’s businesses during the ordinary course of business to maintain the asset value of Luckin Tech and refrain from any action/omission that may adversely affect Luckin Tech’s operating status and asset value;
- 4.1.6 Without the prior written consent of the WFOE, they shall not cause Luckin Tech to execute any material contract, except the contracts executed in the ordinary course of business (for purpose of this subsection, the WFOE may define a material contract at its sole discretion);
- 4.1.7 Without the prior written consent of the WFOE, they shall not cause Luckin Tech to provide any person with any loan or credit other than in the course of ordinary business;
- 4.1.8 They shall provide the WFOE with information on Luckin Tech’s business operations and financial condition at WFOE’s request;

- 4.1.9 If requested by the WFOE, they shall procure and maintain insurance in respect of Luckin Tech's assets and business from an insurance carrier acceptable to the WFOE, at an amount and type of coverage typical for companies that operate similar businesses;
- 4.1.10 Without the prior written consent of the WFOE, they shall not cause or permit Luckin Tech to merge, consolidate with, acquire or invest in any person;
- 4.1.11 They shall immediately notify the WFOE of the occurrence or possible occurrence of any litigation, arbitration or administrative proceedings relating to Luckin Tech's assets, business or revenue;
- 4.1.12 To maintain the ownership by Luckin Tech of all of its assets, they shall execute all necessary or appropriate documents, take all necessary or appropriate actions and file all necessary or appropriate complaints or raise necessary and appropriate defenses against all claims;
- 4.1.13 Without the prior written consent of the WFOE, they shall ensure that Luckin Tech shall not in any manner distribute dividends to its shareholder(s), provided that upon the WFOE's written request, Luckin Tech shall immediately distribute part or all distributable profits to its shareholder(s) who shall in turn immediately and unconditionally pay or transfer to the WFOE any such distribution;
- 4.1.14 At the request of the WFOE, they shall appoint any persons designated by the WFOE as the directors and/or executive director of Luckin Tech;
- 4.1.15 They shall cause the meeting of shareholders and the board of directors of Luckin Tech to pass shareholders' resolutions and board resolutions in accordance with the instruction of the WFOE;
- 4.1.16 Unless otherwise mandatorily required by PRC laws, Luckin Tech shall not be dissolved or liquidated without prior written consent by the WFOE.

4.2 Covenants regarding Shares in Luckin Tech

Each Shareholder hereby covenants as follows:

- 4.2.1 Without the prior written consent of the WFOE, the Shareholder shall not sell, transfer, mortgage or dispose of in any other manner any legal or beneficial interest in the Target Shares or allow the encumbrance thereon of any security interest, except for the pledge placed on the Target Shares in accordance with the Share Pledge Agreement;
- 4.2.2 The Shareholder shall cause the shareholders' meeting and/or the board of directors and/or the executive directors of Luckin Tech not to approve the sale, transfer, mortgage or disposition in any other manner of any legal or beneficial interest in the Target Shares or allow the encumbrance thereon of any security interest, without the prior written consent of the WFOE, except for the pledge placed on the Target Shares in accordance with the Share Pledge Agreement;
- 4.2.3 The Shareholder shall cause the shareholders' meeting or the board of directors and/or the executive directors of Luckin Tech not to approve the merger or consolidation with any person, or the acquisition of or investment in any person, without the prior written consent of the WFOE;

- 4.2.4 The Shareholder shall immediately notify the WFOE of the occurrence or possible occurrence of any litigation, arbitration or administrative proceedings relating to the Target Shares;
- 4.2.5 At the request of the WFOE at any time, the Shareholder shall promptly and unconditionally cause the transfer of the Target Shares to be approved and consummated as set forth in this Agreement;
- 4.2.6 To the extent necessary to maintain the Shareholder's ownership in Luckin Tech, the Shareholder shall execute all necessary or appropriate documents, take all necessary or appropriate actions and file all necessary or appropriate complaints or raise necessary and appropriate defenses against all claims;
- 4.2.7 The Shareholder shall appoint any designee of the WFOE as the director and/or executive director of Luckin Tech, at the request of the WFOE;
- 4.2.8 The Shareholders shall promptly donate any profit, interest, dividend or proceeds of liquidation received from Luckin Tech to the WFOE or any other entity designated by the WFOE to the extent permitted under applicable PRC laws; and
- 4.2.9 The Shareholder shall strictly abide by the provisions of this Agreement and other contracts jointly or separately executed by and among the Shareholder, the WFOE and Luckin Tech, perform the obligations hereunder and thereunder, and refrain from any action/omission that may affect the effectiveness and enforceability hereof and thereof. To the extent that the Shareholder has any remaining rights with respect to the shares subject to this Agreement hereunder or under the Share Pledge Agreement or under other agreements entered into by the foregoing Parties jointly or severally, the Shareholder shall not exercise such rights except in accordance with the written instructions of the WFOE.

5. Representations and Warranties

The Shareholders and Luckin Tech hereby represent and warrant to the WFOE, jointly and severally, as of the date of this Agreement and each date of transfer of the Target Shares, that:

- 5.1 The Shareholders and Luckin Tech have the authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and any relevant Share Transfer Agreement concerning the Target Shares to be transferred thereunder, and to perform their obligations under this Agreement and any Share Transfer Agreements;
- 5.2 The execution and delivery of this Agreement or any Share Transfer Agreements and the performance of any obligations under this Agreement or any Share Transfer Agreements: (i) do not cause any violation of any applicable laws of China; (ii) are not inconsistent with the articles of association, bylaws or other organizational documents of Luckin Tech; (iii) do not cause the violation of any contracts or instruments to which they are a party or which are binding on them, or constitute any breach under any contracts or instruments to which they are a party or which are binding on them; (iv) do not cause any violation of any condition for the grant and/or continued effectiveness of any licenses or permits issued to any of them; and (v) do not cause the suspension or revocation of or imposition of additional conditions to any licenses or permits issued to any of them;
- 5.3 The Shareholders have good and merchantable title to the Target Shares. Except for the Share Pledge Agreement, the Shareholders have not placed any security interest on the Target Shares;

- 5.4 Luckin Tech has good and merchantable title to all of its assets, and has not placed any security interest on the aforementioned assets, except for encumbrance disclosed to the WFOE for which WFOE's written consent has been obtained ;
- 5.5 Luckin Tech does not have any outstanding debts, except for (i) debts incurred in the ordinary course of business; and (ii) debts disclosed to the WFOE for which WFOE's written consent has been obtained; and
- 5.6 Luckin Tech has complied with all laws and regulations of China applicable to asset acquisitions.

6. Taxes and Fees

Each Party shall pay any and all transfer and registration tax, expenses and fees incurred thereby or levied thereon in accordance with the laws of China in connection with the preparation and execution of this Agreement and the Share Transfer Agreement, as well as the consummation of the transactions contemplated under this Agreement and the Share Transfer Agreement.

7. Confidentiality

The Parties acknowledge that any oral or written information exchanged among them with respect to this Agreement is confidential information. Each Party shall maintain the confidentiality of all such information, and without obtaining the written consent of other Parties, it shall not disclose any relevant information to any third parties, except in the following circumstances: (a) such information is or will be in the public domain (provided that this is not the result of a public disclosure by the receiving party); (b) information disclosed as required by applicable laws or regulations or rules of any stock exchange; or (c) information required to be disclosed by any Party to its legal counsel or financial advisor regarding the transaction contemplated hereunder, provided that such legal counsel or financial advisor is also bound by confidentiality duties similar to the duties set out in this section. Disclosure of any confidential information by the staff members or agency hired by any Party shall be deemed disclosure of such confidential information by such Party, which Party shall be held liable for breach of this Agreement. This Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

8. Assignment

- 8.1 Luckin Tech and the Shareholders shall not assign any of their respective rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of the WFOE.
- 8.2 Luckin Tech and the Shareholders hereby agree that the WFOE may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement as the WFOE may decide at its sole discretion, and such assignment shall only be subject to a written notice sent to Luckin Tech and the Shareholders.

9. Entire Agreement and Amendment to Agreement

- 9.1 This Agreement and all agreements and/or documents mentioned or included explicitly by this Agreement constitute the complete agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and shall substitute any and all prior oral agreements, contracts, understandings and communications made by the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.
- 9.2 Any modification of this Agreement shall be made in a written form and shall only become effective upon execution by all Parties of this Agreement. Modifications and supplements to this Agreements duly executed by the Parties shall be parts of this Agreement and shall have the same legal effect as this Agreement.

- 9.3 In the event that at the time of the Target Shares transfer, it is necessary to modify the form of the “Share Transfer Agreement” set forth in Schedule 2 attached hereto pursuant to the then effective PRC laws and administrative regulations, the Parties shall make such modifications in good faith in compliance with PRC laws and administrative regulations.
- 9.4 The Schedules are an integral part of this Agreement and have the same legal effects as the other parts of the Agreement.

10. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of China.

11. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved by the Parties in good faith through negotiations. In case no resolution can be reached by the Parties, such dispute shall be submitted to the Beijing Arbitration Commission for arbitration in accordance with its rules of arbitration in effect at the time of applying for such arbitration and the place of arbitration shall be in Beijing. The arbitral award shall be final and binding upon all Parties.

12. Effective Date and Term

- 12.1 This Agreement shall be signed and take effect as of the date first set forth above.
- 12.2 This Agreement shall remain effective as long as Luckin Tech exists unless terminated as provided in Section 13.

13. Termination

Neither of the Shareholders and Luckin Tech shall have the right to terminate this Agreement. This Agreement shall be terminated i) by the WFOE at any time with written notice to Luckin Tech and the Shareholders; or ii) upon the transfer of all the shares held by the Shareholders to the WFOE and/or its Designee pursuant to this Agreement.

14. Indemnities and Remedies

- 14.1 Either Party shall forthwith on demand indemnify the other Party against any claim, loss, liability or damage (“Loss”) which such Party shall incur as a consequence of any breach by the other Party of this Agreement provided that neither Party shall be liable to indemnify the other Party for any Loss to the extent that such Loss arises from the willful misconduct, breach of applicable law, regulation or contractual obligation or from the material negligence of the other Party or its directors, officers, employees, or agents.
- 14.2 The Parties agree that this section shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

15. Notices

Notices or other communications required to be given by any party pursuant to this Agreement shall be written in English and Chinese and delivered personally or sent by registered mail or postage prepaid mail or by a recognized courier service or by facsimile transmission to the address of each relevant party as specified by such party from time to time. The date when a notice is deemed to be duly served shall be determined as follows: (a) a notice delivered personally is deemed duly served upon delivery; (b) a notice sent by mail is deemed duly served on the tenth (10th) day after the date when the postage prepaid registered airmail is posted (as evidenced by the postmark), or on the fourth (4th) day after the date when the notice is delivered to an internationally-recognized courier service agency; and (c) a notice sent by facsimile transmission is deemed duly served upon receipt as evidenced by the time shown in the transmission confirmation for the relevant documents.

16. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is judged to be invalid or unenforceable because it is inconsistent with applicable laws, such invalidity or unenforceability shall be only with respect to such laws, and the validity, legality and enforceability of the other provisions hereof shall not be affected.

17. Counterparts

This Agreement shall be executed in four originals by all Parties, with each Party holding one original. All originals shall have the same legal effect. The Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts.

18. Languages

Both Chinese and English versions of this Agreement shall have equal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the English version and the Chinese version, the Chinese version shall prevail.

SHARE PLEDGE AGREEMENT

This Share Pledge Agreement (this “Agreement”) is entered into in Beijing as of June 16, 2022 by and among the following parties:

(1) Pledgee:

Luckin Coffee (Beijing) Limited (the “WFOE”), a wholly foreign-owned enterprise registered in Beijing, the People’s Republic of China (“China” or “PRC”), under the laws of China;

(2) Pledgor:

Jinyi Guo, Chinese, ID No. [] , shareholder of Beijing Luckin Coffee Technology Ltd. (“Luckin Tech”);

Gang Wu, Chinese, ID No. [] , shareholder of Luckin Tech;

Each of the pledgors listed above (each, a “Shareholder” and collectively, the “Shareholders”)

(3) Target Company:

Beijing Luckin Coffee Technology Ltd. (“Luckin Tech”), a domestic company registered in Beijing, China, under the laws of China;

(Each of WFOE, Luckin Tech, each of the Shareholders, a “Party”, and collectively the “Parties”).

RECITALS

- (A) WHEREAS, the Shareholders hold 100% shares in Luckin Tech;
Jinyi Guo holds 83.33% of the total share capital;
Gang Wu holds 16.67% of the total share capital.
- (B) WHEREAS, WFOE and Luckin Tech entered into a Master Exclusive Service agreement dated June 16, 2022 (the “Service Agreement”);
- (C) WHEREAS, WFOE, Luckin Tech and the Shareholders entered into a business cooperation agreement dated June 16, 2022 (the “Business Cooperation Agreement”);
- (D) WHEREAS, WFOE, Luckin Tech and the Shareholders entered into an Exclusive Option Agreement dated June 16, 2022 (the “Exclusive Option Agreement”), together with the Service Agreement, the Business Cooperation Agreement and the agreements to be executed among the Shareholders, Luckin Tech and WFOE from time to time, the “Principal Agreements”);
- (E) WHEREAS, WFOE requests the Shareholders to pledge 100% shares of Luckin Tech they own to WFOE unconditionally and irrevocably, as security for the performance of the obligations by the Shareholders and Luckin Tech under the Principal Agreements, and the Shareholders agree to provide such security.
- (F) NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein contained, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Principal Agreements

All Parties hereto acknowledge and confirm that the Principal Agreements for which the security of pledge is provided hereunder include the Service Agreement, the Business Cooperation Agreement, the Exclusive Option Agreement and the agreements to be executed among the Shareholders, Luckin Tech and WFOE from time to time.

2. The Pledge

Each Shareholder agrees to pledge all of the shares of Luckin Tech that it owns, including any interest or dividend paid for such shares (the "Pledged Shares") to WFOE unconditionally and irrevocably, as a security for the performance of any and all obligations by the Shareholder and Luckin Tech under the Principal Agreements (the "Pledge"). Parties agree to use RMB 500,000 (the "Initial Registration Amount") as the estimated value of the obligations by the Shareholder and Luckin Tech under the Principal Agreements for initial registration purpose. During the term of the Principal Agreements or this Agreement, WFOE has the rights to request all of the Shareholders and Luckin Tech to amend the Initial Registration Amount for any reasons, and all Shareholders and Luckin Tech shall promptly make such adjustments as requested.

3. The Scope of Pledge

The Pledge under this Agreement shall cover all indebtedness, obligations and liabilities of the Shareholders and Luckin Tech under the Principal Agreements, any fees for exercising the creditor's rights and the Pledge, all the direct, indirect and derivative losses and losses of anticipated profits, suffered by WFOE, incurred as a result of any Event of Default (as defined in Section 8.1) (the amount of such loss shall be calculated in accordance with the reasonable business plan and profit forecast of WFOE and the consulting and service fees payable to WFOE under the Service Agreement, among other factors) and any other related expenses (the "Secured Indebtedness").

For the avoidance of doubt, the amount of the Shareholders' capital contribution or the Initial Registration Amount is in no event related to the scope of the Pledge; the scope of the Pledge or the Secured Indebtedness shall not in any way be limited by the amount of the Shareholders' capital contribution or the Initial Registration Amount; no Shareholder should through any means, use any reasons or pursue any procedure to claim or attempt to claim that scope of the Pledge or the Secured Indebtedness shall in any way be limited by the amount of the Shareholders' capital contribution or the Initial Registration Amount.

4. The Term of Pledge

4.1 The Pledge shall be continuously valid for 50 years after this Agreement take effective. Unless (i) the Parties all agree to terminate this Agreement; (ii) the Principal Agreements have been fulfilled to the satisfaction of the WFOE; or (iii) all of the Principal Agreements have expired or been terminated, the Pledge shall be valid. For purpose of share pledge registration, the term of initial pledge registration shall be 50 years. After the expiration of the term of initial pledge registration, the WFOE may at its sole discretion require the Shareholders to extend the term of the share registration.

4.2 During the term of the Pledge, in the event that either the Shareholders or Luckin Tech fail to perform any of their respective obligations under the Principal Agreements, WFOE shall have the right to dispose of the Pledged Shares entirely or partially in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

4.3 The WFOE shall have the right to collect dividends generated by the Pledged Shares during the term of the Pledge.

5. Registration

5.1 Luckin Tech shall (1) on the date of execution of this Agreement, record the Pledge in the shareholders' register of Luckin Tech and provide the shareholders' register to WFOE, and (2) submit an application to the relevant administration for market regulation (the "AMR") for the registration of the Pledge as soon as practicable following the execution of this Agreement and obtain evidencing documents of such registration. The Shareholders and Luckin Tech shall submit all necessary documents and complete all necessary procedures, as required by PRC laws and regulations and the AMR, to ensure that the Pledge shall be duly established and fully enforceable.

- 5.2 Without limitation to any provision of this Agreement, during the term of the Pledge, the original shareholders' register of Luckin Tech shall be in the custody of WFOE or its designated person.
- 5.3 With the prior consent of WFOE, the Shareholders may increase their capital contribution to Luckin Tech, provided that any capital contribution by the Shareholders to Luckin Tech shall be subject to this Agreement. Luckin Tech shall immediately amend the shareholders' register and register the change to the Pledge with the AMR pursuant to the provisions in this Section 5 within five working days.

6. The Shareholders' Representations and Warranties

Each Shareholder hereby represents and warrants to WFOE that:

- 6.1 The Shareholder is the sole legal owner of the Pledged Shares.
- 6.2 Except for the Pledge, the Shareholder has not placed any security interest or other encumbrance on the Pledged Shares.
- 6.3 The Shareholder and Luckin Tech have obtained any and all approvals and consents from applicable government authorities and third parties (if required) for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement.
- 6.4 The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement will not: i) violate any relevant PRC laws; ii) conflict with Luckin Tech's articles of association or other constitutional documents; iii) result in any breach of or constitute any default under any contract or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is otherwise bound; iv) result in any violation of any condition for the grant and/or maintenance of any permit or approval granted to any Party; or v) cause any permit or approval granted to any Party to be suspended, cancelled or attached with additional conditions.

7. The Shareholders' Covenants and Further Assurance

- 7.1 The Shareholders hereby jointly and severally covenant to WFOE, that during the term of this Agreement, the Shareholders shall:
 - 7.1.1 without WFOE's prior written consent, not transfer the Pledged Shares, establish or permit the existence of any security interest or other encumbrance on the Pledged Shares, or dispose of the Pledged Shares by any other means, except by the performance of the Exclusive Option Agreement;
 - 7.1.2 comply with the provisions of all laws and regulations applicable to the Pledge, and within five (5) working days of receipt of any notice, order or recommendation issued or prepared by relevant competent authorities regarding the Pledge, shall present the aforementioned notice, order or recommendation to WFOE, and shall comply with the aforementioned notice, order or recommendation or submit claims and appeals with respect to the aforementioned matters upon WFOE's reasonable request or upon consent of WFOE;
 - 7.1.3 promptly notify WFOE of any event or notice received by the Shareholders that may have an impact on WFOE's rights to the Pledged Shares or any portion thereof or other obligations of the Shareholders arising out of this Agreement.
- 7.2 The Shareholders agree that the rights acquired by WFOE in accordance with this Agreement with respect to the Pledge shall not be interrupted or harmed by Luckin Tech, the Shareholders or any heirs or representatives of the Shareholders or any other persons (collectively, the "Relevant Persons") through any legal proceedings.

- 7.2.1 Without the prior written consent of WFOE, the Relevant Persons shall not in any manner supplement, change or amend the articles of association and bylaws of Luckin Tech, increase or decrease its registered capital, or change the structure of its registered capital in other manners;
 - 7.2.2 Without the prior written consent of WFOE, the Relevant Persons shall not at any time following the date hereof, sell, transfer, mortgage or dispose of in any manner any assets of Luckin Tech or legal or beneficial interest in the business or revenues of Luckin Tech, or allow the encumbrance thereon of any security interest; or
 - 7.2.3 Without the prior written consent of WFOE, the Relevant Persons shall ensure that Luckin Tech shall not in any manner distribute dividends to its shareholder(s), make asset distributions or reduce its capital or initiate liquidation procedures or make any other distributions. Any distributions, including without limitation, the distributed assets or the residual assets in liquidation shall be deemed as part of the Pledge.
- 7.3 To protect or perfect the security interest granted by this Agreement for payments under the Principal Agreements, the Shareholders hereby undertake to execute in good faith and to cause other parties who have interests in the Pledge to execute all certificates, agreements, deeds and/or covenants required by WFOE. The Shareholders also undertake to perform and to cause other parties who have interests in the Pledge to perform actions required by WFOE, to facilitate the exercise by WFOE of its rights and authority granted thereto by this Agreement, and to execute all relevant documents regarding ownership of the Pledged Shares with WFOE or its designee(s). The Shareholders undertake to provide WFOE within a reasonable time with all notices, orders and decisions regarding the Pledge that are required by WFOE.
- 7.4 The Shareholders hereby undertake to comply with and perform all guarantees, promises, agreements, representations and conditions under this Agreement. In the event of failure to perform all or part of such guarantees, promises, agreements, representations and conditions, the Shareholders shall indemnify WFOE for all losses resulting therefrom.

8. Exercise of Pledge

- 8.1 Each of the following shall constitute an event of default (“Event of Default”) hereunder (and an Event of Default is “continuing” if it has not been remedied or waived):
- (i) any statement, warranty or representation made by the Shareholders or Luckin Tech under this Agreement or any of the Principal Agreements are not true, complete or accurate in any aspect; or the Shareholders or Luckin Tech breach or fail to fulfill any obligation or abide by any covenants and undertakings under this Agreement or any Principal Agreements; or
 - (ii) any or more of the obligations of the Shareholders or Luckin Tech under this Agreement or any of the Principal Agreements are deemed as unlawful or void.
- 8.2 Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, WFOE shall have the right to require the Shareholders to immediately pay any amount payable by Luckin Tech under the Service Agreement, repay any loans and pay any other due payments, and WFOE shall have the right to exercise all such rights as a secured party under any applicable PRC law, including the Guarantee Law of the People's Republic of China and the Property Law of the People's Republic of China, as in effect from time to time, including without limitations:
- (i) to sell all or any part of the Pledged Shares at one or more public or private sales upon three (3) days' written notice to the pledgor, and any such sale or sales may be made for cash, upon credit, or for future delivery; or
 - (ii) to execute an agreement with the Shareholders to acquire the Pledged Shares based on its monetary value which shall be determined by referencing the market price of the pledged property or another price as agreed between parties.

8.3 The Shareholders and Luckin Tech, at the request of WFOE, shall take all lawful and appropriate actions to secure WFOE's exercise of the Pledge right. For the purpose of the foregoing, the Shareholders and Luckin Tech shall sign all the documents and materials and carry out all measures and take all actions reasonably required by WFOE.

9. Assignment

9.1 Luckin Tech and the Shareholders shall not assign any of their respective rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of WFOE.

9.2 Luckin Tech and the Shareholders hereby agree that WFOE may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement as WFOE may decide, at its sole discretion, and such transfer shall only be subject to a written notice sent to Luckin Tech and the Shareholders. Luckin Tech and the Shareholders shall cooperate to complete the business registration of such change.

10. Entire Agreement and Amendment to Agreement

10.1 This Agreement and all agreements and/or documents mentioned or included explicitly by this Agreement constitute the complete agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and shall supersede any and all prior oral agreements, contracts, understandings and communications made by the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

10.2 Any modification of this Agreement shall be made in a written form and shall only become effective upon execution by all Parties of this Agreement. Modifications and supplements to this Agreement duly executed by the Parties shall be parts of this Agreement and shall have the same legal effect as this Agreement.

11. Governing Law

12. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved by the Parties in good faith through negotiations. In case no resolution can be reached by the Parties, such dispute shall be submitted to the Beijing Arbitration Commission for arbitration in accordance with its rules of arbitration in effect at the time of applying for such arbitration and the place of arbitration shall be in Beijing. The arbitral award shall be final and binding upon all Parties.

13. Effective Date and Term

13.1 This Agreement shall be signed as of the date first set forth above and shall take effect as of the date when the Pledge is registered in the shareholders' register of Luckin Tech.

13.2 This Agreement shall remain effective as long as the Pledge exists.

13.3 If any Shareholder ceases to hold any shares in Luckin Tech with the prior approval of WFOE, such Shareholder shall no longer be a party of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall remain in full effect to any other Shareholder and Luckin Tech.

13.4 WFOE has the right to unilaterally terminate this Agreement or waive the Pledge upon written notice to Luckin Tech and the Shareholders. Luckin Tech and the Shareholders shall cooperate to complete the relevant business registration of such change.

14. Notices

Notices or other communications required to be given by any party pursuant to this Agreement shall be written in English and Chinese and delivered personally or sent by registered mail or postage prepaid mail or by a recognized courier service or by facsimile transmission to the address of each relevant party as specified by such party from time to time. The date when a notice is deemed to be duly served shall be determined as follows: (a) a notice delivered personally is deemed duly served upon delivery; (b) a notice sent by mail is deemed duly served on the tenth (10th) day after the date when the postage prepaid registered airmail is posted (as evidenced by the postmark), or on the fourth (4th) day after the date when the notice is delivered to an internationally-recognized courier service agency; and (c) a notice sent by facsimile transmission is deemed duly served upon receipt as evidenced by the time shown in the transmission confirmation for the relevant documents.

15. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is judged to be invalid or unenforceable because it is inconsistent with applicable laws, such invalidity or unenforceability shall be only with respect to such laws, and the validity, legality and enforceability of the other provisions hereof shall not be affected.

16. Counterparts

This Agreement shall be executed in six originals by all Parties, with each Party holding one original, and the other two are kept by the WFOE for registration of AMR or Tax declaration. All originals shall have the same legal effect. The Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts.

17. Languages

Both Chinese and English versions of this Agreement shall have equal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the English version and the Chinese version, the Chinese version shall prevail.

CONFIRMATION AND GUARANTEE LETTER

As a shareholder of Beijing Luckin Coffee Technology Ltd. (“Luckin Tech”), I hereby confirm, represent and guarantee that my successor, guardian, creditor, spouse or any other person that may be entitled to assume rights and interests in the shares of Luckin Tech held by me upon my death, incapacity, divorce or any circumstances that may affect my ability to exercise my shareholder’s rights in Luckin Tech, will not, in any manner and under any circumstances, carry out any act that may affect or hinder the fulfillment of my obligations under each of the contractual agreements (including the Master Exclusive Service Agreement, the Business Cooperation Agreement, the Proxy Agreement and Power of Attorney, the Exclusive Option Agreement and the Share Pledge Agreement, which were executed by myself on June 16, 2022) (the “Contractual Agreements”).

I hereby further confirm that, subject to requirement by Luckin Coffee (Beijing) Limited (the “WFOE”), I will unwind the Contractual Agreements and transfer all of the shares of Luckin Tech held by me to the WFOE or any party designated by the WFOE as soon as the applicable laws of the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”) allow the WFOE to operate the business operated by Luckin Tech (which includes but not limited to the business of developing and operating catering related Internet technology) without the Contractual Agreements. Subject to the applicable PRC laws, when the Contractual Agreements are being unwound, I must return to the WFOE or the entity designated by the WFOE any consideration I received from the WFOE during its acquisition of the shares of Luckin Tech.

I hereby undertake that, during the term of the Contractual Agreements, (i) unless otherwise agreed by the WFOE in written form, I will not directly or indirectly (by myself or by entrusting any other natural person or legal entity) to engage in, own or acquire (as shareholder, partner, agent, employee or under any other circumstances) any business that competes or might compete with the business of Luckin Tech or its affiliated companies or to have any interest in such business; (ii) none of my actions or omissions will give rise to conflict of interest between myself and the WFOE (including but not limited to the shareholders of the WFOE); and (iii) in the event of any such conflict described in paragraph (ii), which shall be decided at the sole discretion of the WFOE, I will take any action as instructed by the WFOE to eliminate such conflict provided such action is compliant with PRC laws.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Adopted April 16, 2019

Amended April 6, 2023

Introduction

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) has been adopted by our Board of Directors (the “Board”) and summarizes the standards that must guide our actions. Although they cover a wide range of business practices and procedures, these standards cannot and do not cover every issue that may arise, or every situation in which ethical decisions must be made, but rather set forth key guiding principles that represent Company policies and establish conditions for employment at the Company.

We must strive to foster a culture of integrity, honesty and accountability. Our commitment to the highest level of ethical conduct should be reflected in all of the Company’s business activities, including, but not limited to, relationships with employees, customers, suppliers, competitors, the government, the public and our shareholders. All of our employees, officers and directors must conduct themselves according to the language and spirit of this Code and seek to avoid even the appearance of improper behavior. Even well-intentioned actions that violate the law or this Code may result in negative consequences for the Company and for the individuals involved.

Our core values are Integrity, Craftsmanship, Innovation, Ownership, and Cooperation. Integrity is at the core of our value system and has the highest priority in our judgment and selection of our values. Our core values serve as the basis for what we do in achieving our mission and vision. We should all recognize that our actions are the foundation of our core values and adhering to this Code and applicable law is imperative.

I. Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

We are strongly committed to conducting our business affairs with honesty and integrity and in full compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. No employee, officer or director of the Company shall commit an illegal or unethical act, or instruct others to do so, for any reason.

II. Workplace Environment

We are committed to creating and maintaining a working environment where employees respect, trust and help each other. The Company prohibits any level of intimidation, harassment, or retaliation in the workplace or in any work-related setting.

If you have any questions about our workplace environment policies, consult the Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com.

III. Doing Business with Others

We strive to promote the application of the standards of this Code by those with whom we do business. Our policies, therefore, prohibit the engaging of a third party to perform any act prohibited by law or by this Code, and we shall avoid doing business with others who intentionally and continually violate the law or the standards of this Code.

IV. Protection of Confidential Proprietary Information

Confidential proprietary information generated by and gathered in our business is a valuable Company asset. Protecting this information plays a vital role in our continued growth and ability to compete, and all proprietary information should be maintained in strict confidence, except when disclosure is authorized by the Company or required by law.

Proprietary information includes all non-public information that might be useful to competitors or that could be harmful to the Company, its customers or its suppliers if disclosed. Intellectual property such as trade secrets, patents, trademarks and copyrights, as well as business, research and new product plans, objectives and strategies, records, databases, salary and benefits data, employee medical information, customer, employee and suppliers lists, information and data, and any unpublished financial or pricing information must also be protected.

We respect and protect the personal information and privacy of our customers, employees, suppliers and one another. We safeguard the security of our systems, networks, devices, products, processes, technology and the extensive Proprietary Information they contain in accordance with applicable law and industry standards.

Unauthorized use or distribution of proprietary information violates Company policy and could be illegal. Such use or distribution could result in negative consequences for both the Company and the individuals involved, including potential legal and disciplinary actions. We respect the property rights of other companies and their proprietary information and require our employees, officers and directors to observe such rights.

Your obligation to protect the Company's proprietary and confidential information continues even after you leave the Company, and you must return all proprietary information in your possession upon leaving the Company.

V. Corporate Opportunities

Employees, officers and directors are prohibited from taking for themselves business opportunities that are discovered through the use of corporate property, information or position. No employee, officer or director may use corporate property, information or position for personal gain, and no employee, officer or director may compete with the Company. Competing with the Company may involve engaging in the same or similar line of business as the Company or any situation in which the employee, officer or director takes away from the Company opportunities for sales or purchases of property, products, services or interests. Employees, officers and directors owe a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises.

VI. Protection and Proper Use of Company Assets

Protecting Company assets against loss, theft or other misuse is the responsibility of every employee, officer and director. Loss, theft and misuse of Company assets directly impact our profitability. Any suspected loss, misuse or theft should be reported to their manager and/or the Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com.

The sole purpose of the Company's equipment, vehicles, supplies and electronic resources (including hardware, software and the data thereon) is the conduct of our business. They may only be used for Company business consistent with Company guidelines.

VII. Fair Dealing and Anti-Corruption

Each employee, officer and director of the Company should endeavor to deal fairly with customers, suppliers, competitors, the public and one another at all times and in accordance with ethical business practices.

Each employee has an obligation to comply with the anti-corruption and anti-bribery laws of the People's Republic of China, and any other regions and countries in which the Company operates. No one should take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair dealing practice. No bribes, kickbacks or other similar payments in any form shall be made directly or indirectly to or for anyone for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business or obtaining any other favorable action. In the event of a violation of these provisions, the Company and any employee, officer or director involved may be subject to disciplinary action as well as potential civil or criminal liability for violation of this policy.

Except in certain limited circumstances, the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (the “FCPA”) prohibits offering, giving, or promising to give anything of value directly or indirectly to any “non-U.S. government official” for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business, or obtaining any improper business advantage. There is no minimum threshold in determining what constitutes “anything of value”. “Anything of value” includes cash, gift, job opportunity, entertainment, travel expense, donation and anything that has value to the recipient. “No-U.S. government official” are non-U.S. government officials or any of its agencies, or non-U.S. state-owned or nationally-owned companies staffs (e.g., state-run telecommunications companies, state-owned hospitals, etc.); or candidates for non-U.S. political office, work for political parties or their officials, or a political party itself; or staffs working for public international organizations (e.g., the World Bank).

All employees should abide by the Anti-corruption Program and Policy of the Company. When in doubt as to whether a contemplated payment or gift may violate any applicable law, contact your manager, Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com before taking any action.

VIII. Compliance with Antitrust Laws

The antitrust laws prohibit agreements among competitors on such matters as prices, terms of sale to customers and the allocation of markets or customers. Antitrust laws can be complex, and violations may subject the Company and its employees to criminal sanctions, including fines, jail time and civil liability. If you have any questions about our antitrust compliance policies, consult the Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com.

IX. Anti-Money Laundering

We will assist in efforts to combat money laundering and terrorist financing. Money laundering is the practice of disguising the ownership or source of illegally obtained funds through a series of transactions to “clean” the funds so they appear to be proceeds from legal activities.

We are committed to cooperating setting up necessary measures to reduce the extent to which the Company’s facilities, products and services can be used for a purpose connected with market abuse or financial crimes. Additionally, where necessary, we screen customers, potential customers and suppliers to ensure that our products and services cannot be used to facilitate money laundering or terrorist activity. If you have any questions about our internal anti-money laundering process and procedure, consult Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com.

X. Quality of Public Disclosures

The Company has a responsibility to provide full and accurate information in our public disclosures, in all material respects, about the Company’s financial condition and results of operations. Our reports and documents filed with or submitted to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and our other public communications shall include full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure, and the Company has established a disclosure committee consisting of officers to assist in monitoring such disclosures. Additional information on this topic is contained in the Company’s Information Disclosure Policy that is available on the Company’s intranet.

XI. Trading on Inside Information

Using non-public Company information to trade in securities, or providing a family member, friend or any other person with non-public Company information, is illegal. All non-public Company information should be considered inside information and should never be used for personal gain. You are required to familiarize yourself and comply with the Company’s Policy Against Insider Trading that is available on the Company’s intranet. You should contact Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com with any questions about your ability to buy or sell securities.

XII. Conflicts of Interest

Our employees, officers and directors have an obligation to conduct themselves in an honest and ethical manner and to act in the best interest of the Company. All employees, officers and directors should endeavor to avoid situations that present a potential or actual conflict between their interest and the interest of the Company.

A “conflict of interest” occurs when a person’s private interest interferes in any way, or even appears to interfere, with the interests of the Company as a whole, including those of its subsidiaries and affiliates. A conflict of interest may arise when an employee, officer or director takes an action or has an interest that may make it difficult for him or her to perform his or her work objectively and effectively. For example, working in any capacity, for a competitor, customer or supplier while employed by the Company. A conflict of interest may also arise when an employee, officer or director (or a member of his or her family) receives improper personal benefits as a result of the employee’s, officer’s or director’s position in the Company.

Situations involving a conflict of interest may not always be obvious or easy to resolve, we have adopted guidelines designed to implement this policy.^[1] All employees are expected to review and follow the Company’s Conflict of Interests Management Program that is available on the Company’s intranet.

In order to avoid conflicts of interests, officers and directors must disclose to the Audit Committee of the Board any material transaction or relationship that reasonably could be expected to give rise to such a conflict.

XIII. Government Inquiries

The Company cooperates with government agencies and authorities. Forward all requests for information, other than routine requests, to the Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com.

All information provided must be truthful and accurate. Never mislead any investigator. Do not ever alter or destroy documents or records subject to an investigation.

Reporting Violations to a Governmental Agency

Employees have the right under applicable law to certain protections for cooperating with or reporting legal violations to governmental agencies or entities and self-regulatory organizations. As such, nothing in this Code is intended to prohibit any employee from disclosing or reporting violations to, or from cooperating with, a governmental agency or entity or self-regulatory organization, and employees may do so without notifying the Company. The Company may not retaliate against all employee for any of these activities, and nothing in this Code or otherwise requires any employee to waive any monetary award or other payment that he or she might become entitled to from a governmental agency or entity, or self-regulatory organization.

XIV. Social Media

Unless you are authorized by the Company, you are discouraged from discussing the Company as part of your personal use of social media. While business should only be conducted through approved channels, we understand that social media is used as a source of information and as a form of communicating with friends, family and workplace contacts.

When you are using social media and identify yourself as a Company employee, officer or director or mention the Company incidentally, for instance on a WeChat page or professional networking site, please remember the following:

Never disclose confidential information about the Company or its business, customers or suppliers.

Make clear that any views expressed are your own and not those of the Company.

Remember that our policy on equal opportunity, non-discrimination and fair employment applies to social media sites.

Be respectful of your colleagues and all persons associated with the Company, including customers and suppliers.

Promptly report to the Company's corporate communications department any social media content which inaccurately or inappropriately discusses the Company.

Never respond to any information, including information that may be inaccurate about the Company.

Never post documents, parts of documents, images or video or audio recordings that have been made with Company property or of Company products, services or people or at Company functions or events.

Professional Networking

Online networking on professional or industry sites, such as LinkedIn, has become an important and effective way for colleagues to stay in touch and exchange information. Employees, officers and directors should use good judgment when posting information about themselves or the Company on any of these services.

What you post about the Company or yourself will reflect on all of us. When using professional networking sites, you should observe the same standards of professionalism and integrity described in our code and follow the social media guidelines outlined above.

XV. Sustainable Development

We believe that proactive oversight of environmental, social and corporate governance, and other sustainability matters of significant stakeholder concerns is critical for carrying out our mission of sustainable development and is an essential part of achieving our long term growth.

XVI. Accuracy of Company Financial Records

We maintain the highest standards in all matters relating to accounting, financial controls, internal reporting and taxation. All financial books, records and accounts must accurately reflect transactions and events and conform both to required accounting principles and to the Company's system of internal controls. Records shall not be distorted in any way to hide, disguise or alter the Company's true financial position.

Retention of Records

All Company business records and communications shall be clear, truthful and accurate. Employees, officers and directors of the Company shall avoid exaggeration, guesswork, legal conclusions and derogatory remarks or characterizations of people and companies. This applies to communications of all kinds, including email and "informal" notes or memos. Records should always be handled according to the Company's record retention policies. If an employee, officer or director is unsure whether a document should be retained, consult their manager, Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com before proceeding.

Definition, Report and Investigation of Fraud

Fraud refers to the intentional deception, misappropriation of resources, manipulation of data and materials, to seek interests or cause disadvantages for individuals or the Company, or other similar improper behaviors contrary to the code of ethics.

Considering the potential of fraud, the management will conduct a formal, systematic, and comprehensive risk assessment of the Company. Risk assessment will be carried out regularly at the entity level, process level and important account level, at least once a year.

The Company has set up the following whistleblowing e-mail 1000@lkcoffee.com. It is the duty of all directors and employees to report fraud immediately. The Company encourages individuals to report fraud to the Director of Internal Audit or the Compliance Department once they are aware or suspect of fraud. The Director of Internal Audit reports directly to the Audit Committee of the Board and is independent of the management. All allegations of fraud, whether real or suspected, shall be determined by the chairman of the Audit Committee of the Board. The main considerations of judgment are the severity of the incident, the credibility of the accusation and the possibility of verification through other resources. The Company prohibits retaliation against any whistleblower and does not tolerate any harassment or fraudulent whistleblowing. The Company will take corresponding measures to protect the whistleblowers truthfully; it will also appropriately punish the identified malicious or fraudulent whistleblowers. Findings and remedies for known or suspected fraud will be returned to the immediate whistleblower, unless prevented by counsel.

XVII. Compliance with this Code and Reporting of Any Illegal or Unethical Behavior

All employees, directors and officers are expected to comply with all of the provisions of this Code. The Code will be strictly enforced and violations will be dealt with immediately, including by subjecting persons who violate its provisions to corrective and/or disciplinary action such as dismissal or removal from office. Violations of the Code that involve illegal behavior will be reported to the appropriate authorities.

Situations which may involve a violation of ethics, laws, rules, regulations or this Code may not always be clear and may require the exercise of judgment or the making of difficult decisions. Employees, officers and directors should promptly report any concerns about a violation of ethics, laws, rules, regulations or this Code to their manager, Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com or, in the case of accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, the Audit Committee of the Board. Interested parties may also communicate directly with the Company's non-management directors through contact information located in the Company's annual report. Any concerns about a violation of ethics, laws, rules, regulations or this Code by any officer or director should be reported promptly to the Audit Committee of the Board.

The Company encourages all employees, officers and directors to report any suspected violations promptly through 1000@lkcoffee.com in the manner provided in the Company's Whistleblower Policy and intends to thoroughly investigate any good faith reports of violations. The Company will not tolerate any kind of retaliation for reports or complaints regarding misconduct that were made in good faith. Open communication of issues and concerns by all employees, officers and directors without fear of retribution or retaliation is vital to the successful implementation of this Code. All employees, officers and directors are required to cooperate in any internal investigations of misconduct and unethical behavior.

The Company recognizes the need for this Code to be applied equally to everyone it covers. The Compliance Department and Legal Department of the Company will have primary authority and responsibility for the enforcement of this Code, subject to the supervision of the Audit Committee of the Board, and the Company will devote the necessary resources to enable the General Counsel (or an officer with similar duties and responsibilities) to establish such procedures as may be reasonably necessary to create a culture of accountability and facilitate compliance with this Code. Questions concerning this Code should be directed to Compliance Department and/or Legal Department compliance@lkcoffee.com.

XVIII. Political Contributions and Activities

Any political contributions made by or on behalf of the Company and any solicitations for political contributions of any kind must be lawful and in compliance with Company policies. This policy applies solely to the use of Company assets and is not intended to discourage or prevent individual employees, officers or directors from making political contributions or engaging in political activities on their own behalf. No one may be reimbursed directly or indirectly by the Company for personal political contributions.

XIX. Waivers and Amendments

Any waiver (including any implicit waiver) of the provisions in this Code for officers or directors may only be granted by the Board or a committee thereof and will be promptly disclosed to the Company's shareholders. Amendments to this Code must be approved by the Board.

Review

The Board shall review this Code annually and make changes as appropriate.

Re: Luckin Coffee Inc.
Submission under the Item 16I(a) of Form 20-F

Attn: *Division of Corporation Finance
Office of Trade & Services*

Dear Sir/Madam,

In compliance with the Holding Foreign Companies Accountable Act, Luckin Coffee Inc. (the “Company”) is submitting via EDGAR the following information as required under Item 16I(a) of Form 20-F.

For the immediately preceding annual financial statement period, the Company’s previous auditor, Centurion ZD CPA & Co. (a registered public accounting firm that The United States Public Company Accounting Oversight Board was unable to inspect or investigate completely) issued an audit report for the Company.

To the Company’s best knowledge and based on an examination of our register of members and public filings made by our shareholders, including among others, the Schedule 13G/A filed by Joy Capital II, L.P. and other filers on February 14, 2023, and the Schedule 13D/A filed by Lucky Cup Holdings Limited and other filers on March 11, 2022, the Company respectfully submits that it is not owned or controlled by a governmental entity in the foreign jurisdiction as of the date of this submission.

As of February 28, 2023, Centurion Capital beneficially owns approximately 32.7% of the Company’s total outstanding shares. Based on an examination of the Company’s register of members and public filings made by the Company’s shareholders, no other shareholder owns more than 5% of the Company’s outstanding shares as of February 28, 2023.

In addition, the Company is not aware of any governmental entity that is in possession of, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the Company, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

Should any member of the Staff have any questions or comments regarding the Company’s submission set forth above, please do not hesitate to contact me, or you may contact our outside legal counsel, Li He, Davis Polk & Wardwell, at (852) 2533-3306.

Very truly yours,
/s/ Jing An
